Since 1789 there have been 43 presidents of the United States. During this presidential election year, join Dr. Weir as he discusses the evolving role, powers, and responsibilities of the President over the course of U.S. history.
Wednesday, October 24 at 4:00pm
The 2012 Presidential Election and the Issues Confronting the United States

Dr. David Turk
Provost & Vice President of Academic Affairs

Panel Members

Dr. Carol Awasu  Dr. Vilma Balmaceda
Social Work          Political Science

Prof. James Muckell  Dr. David Weir
Business/Accounting                   History

Dr. Turk will lead a thoughtful and provocative discussion with distinguished faculty on the upcoming presidential election. Issues to be explored include: healthcare, jobs creation, national budget, support for the middle class/family, and leadership traits of the candidates.
Transmedia Storytelling: Convergence of television, mobile devices & the web

Prof. Darlene Loper
Lecturer of Communications

Transmedia Storytelling is the act of constructing a story across multiple platforms. Although this term can be considered as a new buzzword for marketers, it has challenged the way viewers interact with technology. Prof. Pinkerton will explore how transmedia storytelling has influenced the way we respond to information, develop relationships and share our stories.