Welcome

For I am confident in this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will be faithful to perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.
(Philippians 1:6)

Welcome!

There are many reasons you may choose to consider undergraduate or graduate studies at Nyack College or Alliance Theological Seminary.

You may consider Nyack College or Alliance Theological Seminary (NC/ATS) because of our commitment to your academic preparation—the professors who will instruct you are some of the best in their academic fields.

You may come to us for the Christian fellowship that exists among our students, faculty, and staff—our campus is a community of brothers and sisters in Christ—and the friendships you form here will not just last a lifetime. They will last an eternity.

You may come to the college or seminary to grow in the faith—our highest priority is your spiritual formation. This legacy, to equip the saints for every good work and to sharpen Christian men and women for God’s service, remains the focus of all our diligence and our most earnest prayers.

You may consider studying at Nyack College or Alliance Theological Seminary because you will practice what you learn. Ministry opportunities abound here. Experience is a great teacher—especially with guidance from our caring and competent faculty. We are known for graduates who already know how to serve and minister.

Ultimately, though, I pray that if you choose to pursue your degree on one of our campuses, it will be because God called you there. As I have stated, this community of maturing and committed Christians exists to prepare believers for their unique calling and purpose that God has fashioned for them. Our charge before the Lord will be to help you grow academically, experientially, and spiritually so that you can glorify God with your life.

This is a great responsibility—a responsibility that I, along with our entire faculty and staff, passionately embrace. We understand that if God is leading you here, then He has a plan for you here. And if He has a plan for you here, then He has a plan for our involvement in that plan, too.

It is my hope that the next steps in your walk with Christ will be at Nyack College or Alliance Theological Seminary. We would consider it a privilege to take those steps alongside you.

With warm regards,

Michael G. Scales, Ed.D.

TRUSTEE EMERITUS

Nyack College’s founder is widely recognized as one of the foremost figures in the American missionary movement. Dr. A.B. Simpson resigned a prestigious New York City pastorate to develop an interdenominational fellowship devoted to serving unreached people. Simpson’s view was shared by a wide group of men and women, including mainline church leaders, laborers, and theological scholars. This ever-growing alliance was bound together by a desire to inspire the church to fulfill its Great Commission of world evangelization.

An important step towards making their vision a reality was the founding of the Missionary Training Institute, the first Bible college in North America. This school was the forerunner of Nyack College. Thus, from its beginning in New York City in 1882, Nyack College has been devoted to the concept of education as preparation for service.

Today Nyack College, an accredited liberal arts college, continues to fulfill the vision of its founder. It is an educational institution rooted in the historic Christian faith, serving The Christian and Missionary Alliance, the church, the community and the world. Nyack College seeks to produce broadly educated persons who are prepared for advanced study, careers, and civic responsibility. It is committed to promoting Christian knowledge, moral maturity, and spiritual development in its students, and to preparing them for lives of ministry and service. To achieve these objectives, the institution offers traditional and non-traditional undergraduate and graduate programs to a co-educational, ethnically diverse student body. Additional graduate programs are offered through Alliance Theological Seminary.

ATS has its roots in the program of Jaffray School of Missions, founded in 1960 under the leadership of President Harold Boon and Academic Dean Thomas Bailey, which emphasized the interdisciplinary encounter between theology and the social sciences. In 1974, the Jaffray program was redesigned to include the preparation of students for North American as well as overseas ministries. The name of the school was subsequently changed to Alliance School of Theology and Missions, and for the first time the Master of Professional Studies degree was offered.

In September of 1979, the Master of Divinity program was initiated, and Alliance School of Theology and Missions became Alliance Theological Seminary. Increased course offerings and additional faculty have enhanced the seminary’s commitment to the worldwide evangelistic task of the church. This commitment has permeated all facets of its program. The Christian and Missionary Alliance is the sponsoring denomination of the seminary.

In 1997 Alliance Theological Seminary established a satellite program in lower Manhattan. The goal of the ATS-NYC campus is to make seminary studies accessible to those who work in the city and to provide a thoroughly urban context for theological education.

The Christian and Missionary Alliance recognizes ATS as the denomination’s official, national seminary in the United States. Although the seminary was established by and for the C&MA, it serves a student population of diverse denominational backgrounds.

While Nyack College retains its relationship with The Christian and Missionary Alliance (C&MA) and encourages its students to consider some form of service with that body, it should be understood that completion of a course of study at Nyack College does not in itself ensure a student’s acceptability for such service. The Alliance takes into consideration one’s doctrinal position, adherence to scripturally-consistent patterns of behavior and spirituality, and personal attributes that foster good interpersonal relationships. For a more detailed statement of expectations, see the current Manual of The Christian and Missionary Alliance.
STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe...

There is one God, who is infinitely perfect, existing eternally in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Jesus Christ is true God and true man. He was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He died upon the cross, the just for the unjust, as a substitutionary sacrifice, and all who believe in Him are justified on the ground of His shed blood. He arose from the dead according to the Scriptures. He is now at the right hand of the Majesty on high as our great High Priest. He will come again to establish His Kingdom of righteousness and peace.

The Holy Spirit is a divine person, sent to indwell, guide, teach, empower the believer, and convince the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment.

The Old and New Testaments, inerrant as originally given, were verbally inspired by God and are a complete revelation of His will for the salvation of man. They constitute the divine and only rule of Christian faith and practice.

Man was originally created in the image and likeness of God; he fell through disobedience, incurring thereby both physical and spiritual death. All men are born with a sinful nature, are separated from the life of God, and can be saved only through the atoning work of the Lord Jesus Christ. The portion of the impenitent and unbelieving is existence forever in conscious torment; and that of the believer, in everlasting joy and bliss.

Salvation has been provided through Jesus Christ for all men; and those who repent and believe in Him are born again of the Holy Spirit, receive the gift of eternal life, and become the children of God.

It is the will of God that each believer should be filled with the Holy Spirit and be sanctified wholly, being separated from sin and the world and fully dedicated to the will of God, thereby receiving power for holy living and effective service. This is both a crisis and a progressive experience wrought in the life of the believer subsequent to conversion.

Provision is made in the redemptive work of the Lord Jesus Christ for the healing of the mortal body. Prayer for the sick and anointing with oil are taught in the Scriptures and are privileges for the church in this present age.

The Church consists of all those who believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, are redeemed through His blood, and are born again of the Holy Spirit. Christ is the Head of the Body, the Church, which has been commissioned by Him to go into all the world as a witness, preaching the gospel to all nations.

The local church is a body of believers in Christ who are joined together for the worship of God, for edification through the Word of God, for prayer, fellowship, the proclamation of the gospel, and observance of the ordinances of baptism and the Lord’s Supper.

There shall be a bodily resurrection of the just and of the unjust; for the former, a resurrection unto life; for the latter, a resurrection unto judgment.

The Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ is imminent and will be personal, visible, and premillennial. This is the believer’s blessed hope and is a vital truth that is an incentive to holy living and faithful service.

NOTE: In the list below, the numbers in parentheses are HEGIS numbers, which are assigned to all programs registered with and approved by the State of New York. Enrollment in other than registered or otherwise approved programs may jeopardize a student’s eligibility for certain student aid awards. Certain concentrations listed under Interdisciplinary Studies and Adolescence Education do not have separate HEGIS numbers but are covered by the number assigned to that major.

UNDERGRADUATE CORE CURRICULUM
To achieve the goals and objectives of Nyack College with efficiency and precision, the curriculum has been divided into four separate components. The centerpiece of the academic program consists of a 41 credit Liberal Arts and Science Core Curriculum and a 15 credit Bible and Ministry Minor Curriculum. The Liberal Arts and Science Core is designed to give students a broad exposure to the humanities, social sciences, science and mathematics, as well as providing opportunity for students to explore western, world, and American civilizations. Nyack’s core in the liberal arts and sciences conforms to the standards of the Board of Regents of the State of New York. The Bible courses within the Bible and Ministry Minor constitute a well-rounded sequence designed to develop a biblically informed Christian layperson prepared to serve in an increasingly non-Christian society. All students enrolled in four-year degree programs must complete the requirements of the Core Curriculum, except as noted for specific programs. Requirements for Associate and Adult Completion degrees are adjusted in accordance with the needs of these specific programs. Detailed descriptions of the Core Curriculum courses can be found in the back of the catalog.

Note: the language requirement may be met by a minor in language.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS
Students with extensive experience should confer with the Head of the Language Department regarding possible waiving of any portion of the language requirement. If a program requires only 6 credits, this is interpreted to mean competency at elementary level II. If language credits are waived, an equivalent number of credits must be taken as liberal arts electives. Students may choose to take CLEP or other proficiency examinations that may also provide college credit. Note: Departments have varying language requirements based on program need and fit.

Courses that Meet the Fine Arts Requirement

Any 3-credit Fine Arts (FNA) course
Or a combination of:
2 credits of Art History and 1 credit of applied music
2 credits of Music History and 1 credit of applied art

The remaining credits of the curriculum are divided between a Major Requirement Component and a Miscellaneous/Liberal Arts Elective Component. Each department of Nyack College divides these credits in accordance with the needs of specific majors. For instance, a foreign language is not required in some programs, and the remaining credits are then devoted to major requirements and miscellaneous electives only. Some programs have more or less miscellaneous electives, depending on major requirements, and a limited number of majors require more than the standard 120-credits for degree completion.

All students registered at the New York City campus are required to take the course PMN 201, Nyack Heritage, at the Rockland campus in order to complete their degree requirements. This course is NOT offered at the New York City campus.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS
Note: all students who complete the Bible and Ministry Minor Curriculum as noted under the Core Curriculum will have the option of having this minor notated on their official transcripts upon graduation. Students who receive a degree in Biblical and Theological Studies are exempt from this minor.

Minors may be developed in any major that Nyack offers. The following criteria apply to declaring a minor:
1. Application for the minor must be made before the close of registration of the last semester before graduation.
2. At least 15 credits must be accumulated in a discipline other than the student's major.
   Nine (9) of these credits must be upper-level, 300 or above.
3. A minimum grade point average of 2.00 must be earned in the minor.
Traditional Undergrad Program

4. At least two courses in the minor must be taken at Nyack College.
5. Some minors require that specific coursework be taken and that a specific number of credits be earned.
6. Core courses may not be used to fulfill minor requirements.

PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

“Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is just, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable - if anything is excellent or praiseworthy - think about such things.”
Philippians 4:8

In keeping with this wisdom, Nyack College is committed to providing its students a broad education based upon the liberal arts and rooted in the historic Christian faith. Thus Nyack College is a Christian liberal arts college dedicated to pursuing, integrating, communicating, and applying truth.

Nyack College is committed to the PURSUIT of truth in God’s Word and God’s world. The pursuit of truth in God’s Word provides the conceptual framework within which we interpret God’s world and humanity’s place in it. The pursuit of truth in God’s world requires that we investigate and be responsible stewards of the physical world and that we foster and cherish human intellectual and cultural achievements.

Truth is whole. Thus we seek to INTEGRATE truth in God’s Word with that discovered in God’s world.

Truth must be COMMUNICATED with clarity and precision. For this reason we seek to cultivate the ability to read carefully, think critically, and speak and write clearly.

Truth must be internalized and APPLIED in personal attitudes, behavior, & in service to others. Thus we seek to educate and develop the whole person.

Nyack College’s holistic approach to truth is foundational to its commitment to PREPARE students for service. This preparation occurs in its liberal arts and professional programs. We acknowledge a special responsibility to prepare vocational and lay Christian workers who communicate truth in ways consistent with God’s Word and relevant to God’s world.

ALLIANCE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

MISSION
Alliance Theological Seminary is the national seminary of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, centered in metropolitan New York with extensions in other parts of the United States and abroad. As a multicultural, evangelical seminary, ATS is committed to developing in men and women a personal knowledge of God and his work in the world in order to equip them for the ministry of the gospel of Jesus Christ and the expansion of his church.

This statement of mission implies the following:

First, submission to the authority of God’s revelation in the Old and New Testaments and its applicability to human life in every age and every culture within the framework of the historic evangelical Christian faith.

Second, a commitment to serve the C&MA through (1) its location in a major metropolitan, multicultural environment, (2) its intentional urban involvement, (3) its transcultural emphasis in programs so as to provide the best possible training ground for ministry within this missionary-sending denomination and within the 21st century church at large, (4) the intercultural and international character of its faculty, staff and student body.

Third, the development of students according to their needs and potential through the integration of spiritual and character formation, theological and social science education, and ministry skill competency. Students are encouraged to know God and his work, particularly across national, racial and cultural lines, so that they can help others know and respond authentically to his grace.

CORE VALUES
Nyack College and Alliance Theological Seminary seek to exalt Jesus Christ and fulfill their mission by being:

- Academically Excellent: Pursuing academic excellence in the spirit of grace and humility.
- Globally Engaged: Fostering a global perspective within a multi-ethnic and multicultural Christian academic community.
- Intentionally Diverse: Providing educational access and support to motivated students from diverse socioeconomic backgrounds.
- Personally Transforming: Emphasizing the integration of faith, learning, and spiritual transformation.
- Socially Relevant: Preparing students to serve in ministerial, educational, healing, and community-building professions.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Education: Students will demonstrate evidence of a functional command of the essentials of theological education as it relates to religious heritage, cultural context, personal/spiritual formation, and the practical skills of ministry.

Integration: Students will demonstrate evidence of an integrated appreciation of and approach to the essentials of theological education and ministry performance.

Globalization: Students will demonstrate evidence of a global perspective on theological education and the mission and ministry of the church.

Contextualization: Students will demonstrate evidence of ability to analyze culture for the conduct of ministry.

Personal/Professional Formation: Students will demonstrate evidence of personal and professional discovery and development for ministry.

In order to realize these goals, Alliance Theological Seminary takes students through a three-phased formational sequence in its professional programs.

The Person Phase brings together vehicles, courses and activities designed to help the student develop disciplined patterns of living and thinking. The focus in this phase is on the discovery of personal habits and lifestyle effective for ministry, and an authentic Biblical, theological and transcultural methodology from which to work. This phase targets specifically though not exclusively GOALS 1 and 2.

The Church Phase is designed to give students a clearer picture of the transcultural nature and mission of the church they will serve. Beginning with a better grasp of themselves and a paradigm from which to work, students are encouraged to refine their call to ministry within the locus of the church, and develop a hands-on ecclesiology by being brought into closer contact with the local church and its ministries. This phase targets specifically though not exclusively GOAL 3.

The Ministry Phase looks toward applying the perspectives gained from the previous phases to the current issues and phenomena of ministry. Through ministry tracks, students may focus their studies in the direction of specific vocations. The phase also concentrates on skills necessary for effective ministry. This phase targets specifically though not exclusively GOAL 4.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

In light of God’s desire and provision for His children to become like Christ and societal demands for His servants to be mature and equipped for ministry, ATS places great importance on spiritual formation within the curriculum.

Spiritual formation is spiritual in that it is awareness of God in the whole being; it is formation in that it is development or growth in who we are and what we do as maturing Christ followers. Our baptism in Christ is the foundation for living in a relationship of intimate responsiveness to God. The presence of the Holy Spirit operates in and around our lives to shape us into Christ-likeness and draw others to be devoted Christ followers. The process of spiritual formation at ATS is designed to address every aspect of human interaction.

At ATS, spiritual formation takes place in several environments: classroom, community, local church and other out-of-classroom settings. In the classroom, each professor is a Christian scholar who models Christ and love for His Church, and for some students, a professor becomes a mentor. Students learn from each other in peer groups and from guest scholars and practitioners. A curricular aspect of spiritual formation for students in the Master of Divinity, Master of Professional Studies and Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies degree programs is the required phases of Mentored Development. Spiritual formation takes place in community as students interact with ATS administrators, staff, and each other and together worship the Lord in Encounter (chapel). It takes place in a local church where students serve and some find mentors. And, it takes place outside the classroom where students find opportunities to experience their faith in nontraditional ways. Short-term mission trips, wilderness experiences, directed retreats, field trips, shadowing selected leaders, and field education create space within and challenges alongside the academic schedule where students can pursue the passion and possibility that God has placed in their lives. These experiences require an initial risk of faith but the overall impact lasts for a lifetime.
The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree is the highest professional degree offered by Alliance Theological Seminary and Nyack College. The D.Min. constitutes an advanced professional degree at the doctoral level available to those seeking to enhance their ministry. “Thus, it is the purpose of the D.Min. degree to provide that level of knowledge, theoretical clarity, and competence of practice commensurate with the highest earned degree for the profession and practice of ministry.”

Purpose

Today’s world is experiencing the impact of globalization. Most evident in the urban contexts where diverse people rub shoulders and interact with each other in proximity and deal with the impact of mobilization, pluralism, and change, the effects of the globalized mindset need to be addressed by today’s church. The purpose of the D. Min degree program is to enhance the practice of Christian ministry and mission through an advanced program for people with a M.Div (or its equivalent) who are engaged in ministerial leadership.

Goals and Objectives

The D.Min. degree program at ATS is designed:

- To enhance personal and ministry health;
- To enhance qualitatively the professional comprehension and competence of ministerial leaders to build up the global kingdom of God;
- To seek integration of a disciplined reflective practice of ministry with a theological and biblical base;
- To provide a multi-denominational and multi-cultural adult learning experience.

It includes both high academic standards and practical implementation. As an in-service program, students may complete the degree while remaining in ministry.

Learning Outcomes

Students who earn the Doctor of Ministry in Christian Leadership in the Global Context will:

- Demonstrate a deep understanding of their personal and ministry strengths and weaknesses;
- Demonstrate enhanced competencies in social/cultural analysis for ministry in the global context;
- Demonstrate an advanced understanding of Scripture and the Christian tradition in relation to spirituality and leadership;
- Demonstrate a deepening attitude of passion for God and ministry in His kingdom;
- Demonstrate an ability to integrate their understanding of theology and leadership in a writing project that articulates strategic insight into a selected ministry context.

Program Format

The ATS D.Min. program is designed as a modular, cohort-based program with extensive independent work preceding and following each on-campus classroom experience. It also involves passing an oral qualifying examination prior to candidacy and presenting and defending a written, ministry-centered Final Doctoral Project.

The on-campus courses are offered as nine day intensive courses in January and July/August.

Part one: Prior to the campus classroom experience, the student completes substantial required reading and written work; interaction with the professor occurs online.

Part two: The intensive campus-centered course component (nine days in length) involves course-related lectures, in- and after-class learning activities, and faculty and peer interaction. Excursions for interactive engagement with a variety of ministry settings and styles will be designed into this component. This part also includes the orientation, research methodology seminars, and the literature research and review seminar tailored specifically for the Final Doctoral Project.

Part three: Post-course assignments engage each student in a related ministry project with associated written assignments that apply the reading and classroom learning to their particular ministry context. Through this, the student demonstrates professional performance in light of the new learning. Student/faculty interaction occurs online.

Modular Cohort Format

All program activities for the first two years of the program occur in a modular cohort format in order to create a cohesive learning community. The cohort, a stable group of 15-25 students from a variety of churches and denominations, together proceeds through orientation and the core courses and seminars over a two year period. Students may break from the cohort for the two elective courses—the final year of their program but will often retain relationships until completion of the degree and beyond. The Director of the D.Min. program and Scholar-at-Large are considered to be active participants in each cohort. Teaching faculty will be involved for a scheduled period prior to, during, and following each on-campus module.

Peer Learning/Engagement

Extended involvement in peer learning is a priority of the ATS D.Min. program. This is one reason why the relational cohort format has been chosen. During the intensive sessions/courses on campus, students will build relationships as they are expected to actively participate in dialog about the subjects they prepared prior to coming to the campus classroom. Students will encourage and aid each other in learning development through classroom and small group work. Regular interaction with each other through e-mail, Chalk and Wire, and other means is strongly encouraged between campus experiences—and may even be required. Students will also critique each other’s thinking processes and work, particularly during the three seminars.

Master of Divinity

MASTER OF DIVINITY
Barbara Austin-Lucas, Ph.D., Director

The M.Div. program is a 93-credit curriculum that blends biblical studies, social science theory, spiritual formation and practical training with an emphasis upon critical and reflective thinking. It is recognized as the most comprehensive and basic level graduate preparation for ministerial leadership and for future study in the theological disciplines. Alongside the prescribed core curriculum and mentored development courses, students select a specific track and professional development courses, in line with their ministry and educational goals.

The M.Div. curriculum develops progressively over three years through the Person Phase, the Church Phase, and the Ministry Phase presented in “Our Model”. ATS offers a pre-substitution system for those who majored in Bible and Theology in their undergraduate program (see Course Sequence).

Purpose
The Master of Divinity degree is designed to produce whole people for general leadership in Christian service, whether in their own or in another culture, by bringing into dialogue the various dimensions of theological education. These dimensions are (1) church and academy, (2) theology and social science inquiry, (3) the biblical world and the contemporary world, (4) classroom and experience, (5) character and competence, and (6) wisdom and skill.

Student Learning Goals
- Students will lay a foundation for ongoing spiritual formation including personal development, moral integrity, and spiritual maturity.
- Students will gain knowledge and be able to apply methodology in biblical studies, theology and cultural understandings.
- Students will gain an appreciation of the relational nature of ministry through the experience of being mentored and mentoring others, and through learning and practicing interpersonal ministry skills.
- Students will be able to understand and practice integration of the personal, theological, and practical components of holistic ministry. Students will gain ministry skills for a broad range of Christian service responsibilities, and will be able to demonstrate competency in classroom and internship environments (in particular, those skills necessary for licensed and/or ordained ministry within the C&MA and other denominations).

The M.P.S. is a 48-credit program that focuses on training for persons in ministry. The curriculum offers broad flexibility in consultation with the faculty advisor. The program offers several professional development tracks: African-American Ministries, Church Development, Counseling, Chinese Ministries, Hispanic Ministries, Korean Ministries, and Urban Ministries. There are specified requirements for Counseling and Mission (PR only) tracks at the Puerto Rico campus, with designated course-work for each. Overall, the assessment program remains the same for all campuses. The professional development tracks are not intended to furnish the student with technical expertise for purposes of professional employment, certification, or licensure, but rather to provide training for enhancing one’s ministry focus in the local church setting.

Purpose
The Master of Professional Studies degree is designed to produce whole people for specific leadership in Christian service, whether in their own or in another culture, by bringing into dialogue the various dimensions of theological education. These dimensions are (1) church and academy, (2) theology and social science inquiry, (3) the biblical world and the contemporary world, (4) classroom and experience, (5) character and competence, and (6) wisdom and skill.

Student Learning Goals
- Students will lay a foundation for ongoing spiritual formation including personal development, moral integrity, and spiritual maturity.
- Students will gain knowledge and be able to apply methodology in biblical studies, theology and cultural understandings.
- Students will gain an appreciation of the relational nature of ministry through the experience of being mentored and mentoring others, and through learning and practicing interpersonal ministry skills.
- Students will be able to understand and practice integration of the personal, theological, and practical components of holistic ministry.
- Students will gain ministry skills for specific leadership in Christian service, and will be able to demonstrate competency in classroom and internship environments.

Alliance Theological Seminary offers biblically-grounded Master of Arts degrees. A requirement of the program is a summative exercise that demonstrates a comprehensive knowledge of the content/methodology of the chosen field of study.

General Prerequisites
1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university.
2. A minimum grade point average of 2.5.

Master of Arts - Biblical Literature
Glen Shellrud, Ph.D., Director

(Old Testament and New Testament Emphases)
The M.A. (Biblical Literature) with Old Testament and New Testament emphases is a 54-credit curriculum that builds upon a strong foundation in biblical studies. In addition to course study, students must sit for a comprehensive examination to satisfy the summative experience requirement of the degree. Students should consult their faculty advisor for important procedures and schedule of deadlines.

Please Note: Comprehensive Exams are required to assess the student's understanding of the broader information and issues in the field of Old or New Testament study. Students must obtain the questions that cover this material from their M.A. faculty advisor no later than the semester preceding the intended semester of graduation.

Purpose
The purpose of the M.A. (Biblical Literature) degree with Old Testament & New Testament emphases is to provide students with a sufficient biblical and theological foundation for continuing research at the doctoral level and other professionally-related opportunities. A second, non-language track is offered under the New Testament emphasis with the purpose of providing students with an enhanced understanding of biblical and theological studies for personal and/or pedagogical enrichment.

Student Learning Goals
- Students will build a historical and cultural framework for interpreting the Bible in general and their testament of emphasis in particular.
- Students will gain a command of the formation, content, and critical questions related to the literature of their testament of emphasis.
- Students will be able to trace the development of biblical theology as a discipline and to understand recent theological approaches to their testament of emphasis.
- Students will be able to employ solid exegetical and hermeneutical methodology in interpreting the text of their testament of emphasis. (Language track students must demonstrate a solid grasp of biblical language in the above.)

Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies
Stephen K. Bailey, Ph.D., Director

The Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies is a 54-credit. As an offering of the Alliance Graduate School of Mission, students participate in immersion experiences in New York City, weekly integrative seminars, peer mentoring clusters, a cross-cultural ministry, and leadership development retreats. In addition to course study, students must demonstrate a competent grasp of the field through a summative experience. The curriculum differs for the Kiev campus. Students should consult the Alliance Theological Seminary M.A. in Intercultural Studies Handbook for important procedures and guidelines.

Purpose
The purpose of the M.A. in Intercultural Studies degree program is to prepare students for leadership in cross-cultural Christian service and ministries related to the global expansion of the church in urban, international and intercultural contexts.

Goals

The student will understand and be able to identify the missional themes in the Bible and trace their theological importance to the task of world evangelization.

The student will understand, experience and gain skill through the practice of cross-cultural communication.

The student will understand the social, cultural and theological factors involved in ministry to people from the major world religions (including animism).

The student will gain an appreciation for people from other ethnic and cultural backgrounds and for the unique way God incarnates His message among the diverse people groups of our world.

The student will understand the history of the expansion of the Christian church and the important factors that enabled this expansion.

The student will understand the dynamics of some aspects of mission strategy such as spiritual warfare, urban ministry, evangelistic methods and partnering in missions.

The student will know how to evaluate and continue in his or her own path of spiritual transformation (Rom. 8:1-2) and be able to elicit spiritual transformation in the lives of others.

Special Programs

Bible Tutor Program
The purpose of the Bible Tutor is to assure proficiency in the essential content of the Scriptures and to enable effective ministry in the word of God.

The Bible Tutor Program is an academic online Bible tutorial with self-tests that enable students to prepare for the Bible proficiency exam required of all students in a degree program at Alliance Theological Seminary, except for those in Puerto Rico. Students typically view about 1,500 web pages to become proficient at the Bible Tutor. When ready, a proctored, electronically-generated exam tests students' basic biblical knowledge in geography, people, dates, and general content. Failure to satisfy the 85% requirement will impede academic progress.

Access to the material is restricted by a site username and password available through license agreement with Luther Productions. Information on the Bible Tutor Program is available in the Registrar’s Office.

Special Programs

Alliance Graduate School of Mission
The Alliance Graduate School of Mission (AGSM) is an innovative approach to preparing students for a lifetime of participation in intercultural and urban ministries, here and around the world. It capitalizes on ATS's unique geographical proximity to New York City. Students are launched into this formative program through a foundational core of innovative learning experiences. They pursue a specialized track in Missions within the Master of Divinity program, or the M.A. in Intercultural Studies program. As graduates prepare for ministry in the increasingly complex world of the 21st century, AGSM offers solid academic degrees which also provide crucial missiological skills and experiences.

North American Chinese Bi-Cultural and Pastoral Ministries
The North American Chinese Bi-Cultural and Pastoral Ministries Program was established at ATS in 1987. Its first director (now Director Emeritus) was Dr. Philip Teng. Chinese churches worldwide are standing at a threshold of opportunity at the beginning of this new millennium. Churches ministering in Chinese languages continue to multiply in North America. Second generation Chinese ministries continue to expand. An increasing number of North American Chinese churches send out missionaries to different countries around the world. The need remains clear for a program designed for training mono- and bi-cultural students to evangelize and provide leadership for the Chinese churches.

The North American Chinese Bi-Cultural and Pastoral Ministries Program shares the responsibility to meet this great need by providing masters-level-trained pastors, missionaries and lay leaders for serving the Chinese churches in North America and overseas. The program consists of formal classroom instruction that will build into the student a spiritual and godly character, cultural sensitivity and understanding, and a theological foundation. The student will also experience classes in practical ministry, a one-to-one mentoring relationship, as well as many hands-on-ministry opportunities by serving a church through a Field Education experience.

Students will pursue a specialization in either Chinese Pastoral Ministries or Chinese Mission within the Master of Divinity program (Bible & Theology track) or the Master of Professional Studies program. Interested students should contact the North American Chinese Bi-Cultural and Pastoral Ministries Program for specific information.

The program is supported by the Chinese Church Association of The Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Global Service-Learning (GS-L)
A Department of Global Service-Learning has been established and is a product of Nyack College's commitment to its core values. GS-L courses provide students with the dynamic opportunity to study globally. Students may take advantage of the opportunity to travel and study in such places as Jordan, Egypt, Syria, and Israel. The emphasis of the Israel study program in particular is on relating the physical and cultural setting of the Bible to the meaning of the biblical text.
Korean Studies Program
The Korean Ministerial Studies Program originated in 1984 as an extension of ATS in Flushing, New York. The program was supported by the Korean District of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. In 1989, with the growing population of Korean students on the main campus, the program was moved to Nyack. It continues as a fellowship of Korean students preparing for ministry in Korean churches in North America. The ATS Korean Student Fellowship exists to assist students in adjusting to life at ATS. Weekly prayer fellowships and other activities provide additional opportunities for community interaction.

Students will pursue a specialization in either Korean Pastoral Ministries or Korean Mission within the Master of Divinity program (Bible & Theology track) or the Master of Professional Studies program. Interested students should contact the Korean Studies Program for specific information.
BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL STUDIES MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Stephen Bennett, Dr. Frank Chan, Dr. Elio Cuccaro, Dr. Amy Davis
Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. David Emanuel, Dr. Thomas Donworth, Dr. Dongsu Kim, Dr. R.Steven Notley, Dr. Steven Ware

Mission Statement

The Nyack College Biblical and Theological Studies Department seeks to assist Nyack students in their intellectual and spiritual formation by moving them toward competency in reading, interpreting and applying the Bible and in integrating its teaching into their worldview and personal lives.

Inasmuch as it is called upon to help prepare all Nyack undergraduates for professions of service, the Department seeks to impart a familiarity with the biblical world and with biblical thought, enabling students to connect the concerns of the ancient text with the concerns of the contemporary world. It also seeks to impart the conviction that the Bible’s central message, the gospel of Jesus Christ, offers hope for positive change for the entire global community.

Inasmuch as it is called upon to train Bible and Theology majors, the Department seeks to impart skills of ministerial and scholarly expertise, equipping majors with methods of study that will sharpen their understanding of the Bible and enable them to communicate its teaching with confidence and authority. It also seeks to impart familiarity with and respect for the Christian heritage, reminding majors of the larger community of Bible interpreters to which they belong and inspiring them to honor and build upon the work of others.

Program Goals

The Biblical and Theological Studies program seeks to impart to its majors:

- Knowledge of the Bible and the Christian heritage. This will be accomplished through Bible and Theology survey courses and out-of-classroom learning venues sponsored or supported by the Biblical and Theological Studies department.
- Skill in researching, interpreting, applying, and communicating the teaching of the Bible. This will be accomplished directly through a Hermeneutics course and a senior seminar course and indirectly through Bible and Theology elective courses.
- Conviction about the Bible’s role in spiritual formation, the church as a student’s primary interpretive community and the gospel as a message of hope for positive change in the global community. This will be accomplished directly through a Personal Spiritual Formation course, a Global Engagement course, and indirectly through Bible and Theology elective courses and through interaction and advisement from the Bible and Theology faculty.

Student Learning Goals

By graduation, the Biblical and Theological Studies major’s knowledge, skills and convictions will reflect Nyack’s core values in the following way:

- Academically Excellent: Students will know introductory, background and thematic information about the sixty-six books of the Bible and the scholarly research methods through which this knowledge is generated. They will also know the Christian church’s historic doctrines, great thinkers and contemporary expressions, with which the students must interact. This knowledge will be assessed through various written exams and Bible interpretation papers assigned throughout the program and through a standardized exam in the senior year.

- Globally Engaged and Intentionally Diverse: Students will know the richness of the Christian heritage in all its global diversity. Students will also know how the Christian worldview compares and contrasts with competing worldviews in the global marketplace of ideas. This knowledge will be assessed through various written exams throughout the program and through a standardized exam during the senior year.
Biblical & Theological Studies Major

Personally Transforming: Students will be able to communicate, whether in oral or written form, the ways in which they integrate the Bible’s teaching into their Christian worldview and into their personal daily living. This ability will be assessed through various Bible interpretation assignments, both oral and written, throughout the program that require this integration and through a professional interview in the senior year.

Socially Relevant: Students will be able to connect properly the concerns of the ancient text to the concerns of the modern world, to think biblically in addressing contemporary problems, and to communicate how the gospel of Jesus Christ offers hope for positive change in the global community. These skills will prepare the students for ministerial, educational and other service professions. This ability will be assessed through various Bible interpretation papers assigned throughout the program.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION MAJOR – B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Ronald Belsterling, Dr. Leonard Kageler

Mission Statement
The mission and student learning goals of the Nyack College Department of Youth Ministry and Christian Education deepens and extends the “…preparing them for lives of service to Christ and His church…” portion of the Nyack College Mission Statement.

The mission of the Nyack College Department of Youth Ministry and Christian Education is to enfold, encourage, equip, and unleash collegians to have Kingdom impact in God’s power. Our Student Learning goals flesh this out in accordance with Nyack College’s Core Values.

Student Learning Goals
Through an academically rigorous, interdisciplinary curriculum student in this department will be able to:

Academically Excellent: Know and articulate a coherent, biblical based philosophy of youth or Christian education ministry.

Globally Engaged: Demonstrate knowledge of global resources in youth ministry and Christian education.

Intentionally Diverse: Demonstrate the skills to use analytical thinking and utilize diverse perspectives as a means to problem solving and ministry development depending on the socioeconomic context of ministry.
Christian Education Major

Demonstrate the skills and dispositions to function successfully within the supervisory structure within a given ministry site.

Personally Transforming: Demonstrate dispositions for personal spiritual formation as well as personal dispositions which are important in working closely with other people.

Have the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to successfully find employment in this field, having gained not only two years of field work experience, but experience in resume and portfolio development, interview dynamics, potential employer/community research techniques.

Socially Relevant: Possess the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to nurture the faith of children/youth and their families.

Possess the knowledge, skills and dispositions to recruit, train, and motivate volunteer staff in ministry and impacting their communities.

The curriculum of the program affirms Christian Education as a distinctive field of scholarship with its own history, theoretical framework, and philosophical underpinnings. The Christian Education Major seeks to integrate biblical/theological principles with educational theory.

Students who successfully complete the Christian Education Major should be able to:

Understand and communicate the biblical, historical, philosophical, psychological and theological foundations of Christian Education. Special emphasis will be placed on the Evangelical theology within this theoretical framework. Theory

Understand educational and pedagogical theories and methodologies. Method

Understand and integrate the principles and practices of personal, spiritual, organizational and professional leadership of Christ-like character in Christian Education Ministries and other positions of influence. Leadership

Demonstrate proficiency in the use of sound, age-appropriate, and contextually relevant methods of teaching through mentored internships. Praxis

Develop a theoretically coherent and biblically based holistic philosophy of Christian Education integrating theory, method, leadership, and praxis. Integration

The Cross-Cultural Studies major is designed with the academic and professional equipping needed for international and intercultural service. The courses in this curriculum will acquaint students with the social, economic, religious, and cultural diversities of the world’s peoples and the principles of development and change that affect world cultures. Students in the Cross-Cultural Studies major will be equipped to work in a variety of cultural contexts, to cope with cultural changes, to communicate with people of other worldviews, and to understand those whose life situations have forced them to cross cultural lines. Relief and development work in overseas situations are possible contexts for vocational pursuits.

Concentrations include Global Outreach, TESOL, Urban Context, Community Development, Leadership and Administration, and Global Entrepreneurship. Students in the Cross-Cultural Studies major are required to take one semester of immersion language school and a twelve-week internship internationally during the semester of their junior year and are encouraged to engage in various courses offered by Nyack College and its partners during their time at Nyack.

Program Goals

The Cross-Cultural Studies program seeks to impart to its majors:

1. Knowledge of Cross-Cultural Studies. This will be accomplished through cross-cultural studies courses and out-of-classroom learning venues sponsored or supported by the Cross-Cultural Studies program.
2. Skill in understanding, interpreting, applying and communicating with cross-cultural competencies. This will be accomplished directly through the capstone senior seminar course and indirectly through cross-cultural elective courses.
3. Conviction about the value of cross-cultural competencies and the relevance of contextualized service in the global community, believing the gospel as a message of hope for positive change. This will be accomplished directly through each major core course, and indirectly through elective courses and through interaction and advisement from the Cross-Cultural Studies faculty.

Student Learning Goals

By graduation, the Cross-Cultural Studies major’s knowledge, skills and convictions will reflect Nyack’s core values in the following way:

Academically Excellent: Students will know foundational and scholarly research methods through which this knowledge is generated. This knowledge will be assessed through various written exams and scholarly papers assigned throughout the program and through a standardized exam in the senior year.

Globally Engaged and Intentionally Diverse: Students will know and interact with historical, anthropological, cultural and theological study in all its global diversity. Students will also know how the Christian worldview compares and contrasts with competing worldviews in the global marketplace of ideas. This knowledge will be assessed through various written exams throughout the program and through a standardized exam during the senior year.

Personally Transforming: Students will be able to communicate, whether in oral or written form, the ways in which they integrate program content into their personal and professional life. This ability will be assessed through various oral and written assignments, throughout the program that require this integration and through a professional interview in the senior year.

Socially Relevant: Students will apply coursework to the concerns of the modern world, to think biblically in addressing contemporary problems, and to communicate how the gospel of Jesus Christ offers hope for positive change in the global community. These skills will prepare the students for humanitarian, ministerial, educational and other service professions. This ability will be assessed through various written research and reflection papers, and service-learning requirements assigned throughout the program.

Pastoral Ministry Major

PASTORAL MINISTRY MAJOR - B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Jeff Quinn, Orlando Rivera
Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Russell McLeod, Carlos Velez

MISSION STATEMENT
The Pastoral Ministries department EQUIPS men and women to serve as vocational and non-vocational ministers of God’s grace. We believe that all Christians are included in the priesthood of all believers (1 Peter 2:9) and therefore should be equipped to "proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light". Our program is open to all who desire to be trained to lead God’s people in the local church and other settings. Our program is delivered by experienced scholar/practitioners in the local church, business community, and the not-for-profit arenas who bring current experience into the academic setting. Our graduates will be prepared to pursue a ministerial license with The Christian and Missionary Alliance and many other denominational bodies. Our graduates who seek to serve as business and social sector professionals will be equipped with a theology of work that validates and empowers them as ministers in the workplace.

Our target audience is:

A. Those preparing for traditional vocational Christian ministry in the local church.
B. Those who are in the professional community and seek to be equipped to be more effective ministers in the marketplace.

We seek to develop men and women with the following characteristics:

Empowered Ministry – shows clear calling, gifting, competence, and missional focus in ministry.
Quality Leadership – is a team player, employs effective strategies for decision making, and has a servant’s heart when working with others.
Understanding Scripture – demonstrates good working knowledge of the Bible, an understanding of theology, and appropriate application of Scripture to life.
Intentional Healthy Living – maintains physical, emotional, and relational health with family and others.
Passionate Spirituality – evidence of being filled with Holy Spirit, commitment to progressive sanctification, and submission of all resources (time, talent, and treasure) to the glory of God.
Socially Relevancy – adept in applying and encouraging kingdom principles to individuals (family), industry (business), and institutions (government).

Program Goals
The Pastoral Ministries program seeks to impart to its majors:

1. Knowledge of Scriptures, Biblical Theology, and Biblical Interpretation. This will be accomplished through Bible, Theology, and Interpretation courses and out-of-classroom learning venues sponsored or supported by the Pastoral Ministries Department.
2. Skill in preaching, leadership, pastoral counseling, evangelism, church planting, and the application of God’s word to contemporary environments. This will be accomplished directly through completion of courses in preaching, leadership, pastoral counseling, evangelism and church planting. In addition, students will participate in three internship courses and a senior seminar course.
3. Conviction about the necessity of personal holiness, biblically-based ministry, dependence on the Holy Spirit, and culturally relevant engagement in society. This will be accomplished directly through a Personal Spiritual Formation course, a Global Engagement course and indirectly through Pastoral Ministries elective courses and through interaction and advisement from the Pastoral Ministries faculty.

Student Learning Goals
By graduation, the Pastoral Ministries major’s knowledge, skills and convictions will reflect Nyack’s core values in the following way:

Academically Excellent: Students will know introductory, background and thematic information about the sixty-six books of the Bible and the scholarly research methods through which this knowledge is generated. They will also know the Christian church’s historic doctrines, great thinkers and contemporary expressions, with which the students must interact. This knowledge will be assessed through various written exams and Bible interpretation papers assigned throughout the program and through a standardized exam in the senior year.

Globally Engaged and Intentionally Diverse: Students will know the richness of the Christian heritage in all its global diversity. Students will also know how the Christian worldview compares and contrasts with competing worldviews in the global marketplace of ideas. This knowledge will be assessed through various written exams throughout the program and through a standardized exam in the senior year.

Personally Transforming: Students will be able to communicate, whether in oral or written form, the ways in which they integrate the Bible’s teaching into their Christian worldview and into their personal daily living. This ability will be assessed through various Bible interpretation assignments, both oral and written, throughout the program that require this integration and through a professional interview in the senior year.

Socially Relevant: Students will be able to connect properly the concerns of the ancient text to the concerns of the modern world, to think biblically in addressing contemporary problems, and to communicate how the gospel of Jesus Christ offers hope for positive change in the global community. These skills will prepare the students for ministerial, educational and other service professions. This ability will be assessed through various papers assigned throughout the program.

YOUTH MINISTRY MAJOR - B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland:  Dr. Ronald Belsterling, Dr. Leonard Kageler
Primary Faculty, NYC:  Dr. Gregg Makin

Mission Statement
The mission and student learning goals of the Nyack College Department of Youth Ministry and Christian Education deepens and extends the “…preparing them for lives of service to Christ and His church…” portion of the Nyack College Mission Statement.

The mission of the Nyack College Department of Youth Ministry and Christian Education is to enfold, encourage, equip, and unleash collegians to have Kingdom impact in God’s power.

Our Student Learning goals flesh this out in accordance with Nyack College’s Core Values.

Student Learning Goals
Through an academically rigorous, interdisciplinary curriculum student in this department will be able to:

Socially Relevant: Possess the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to nurture the faith of children/youth and their families.
Possess the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to recruit, train, and motivate volunteer staff in ministry and impacting their communities.

Academically Excellent: Know and articulate a coherent, biblical-based philosophy of youth or Christian education ministry.

Globally Engaged: Demonstrate knowledge of global resources in youth ministry and Christian education.

Intentionally Diverse: Demonstrate the skills to use analytical thinking and utilize diverse perspectives as a means to problem solving and ministry development depending on the socioeconomic context of ministry.
Demonstrate the skills and dispositions to function successfully within the supervisory structure within a given ministry site.

Personally Transforming: Demonstrate dispositions for personal spiritual formation as well as personal dispositions which are important in working closely with other people.
Have the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to successfully find employment in this field, having gained not only two years of field work experience, but experience in resume and portfolio development, interview dynamics, potential employer/community research techniques.

The CE/Youth Ministry Department will assess, in detail, two of the above Student Learning Outcomes (SLO’s) each year for the next four years. Therefore, formal review and assessment will take the place of Student Learning Goal (SLG’s) 3 and 4 in 10/11, 5 and 6 in 11/12, 7 and 8 in 12/13 and 1 and 2 in 12/13.

Each year the assessment/response cycle is to be similar.
Youth Ministry Major

Fall semester assessment activities:
- Use already extant surveys or develop new student surveys on each SLG.
- Run department student focus groups to discuss the SLG.
- Consultation with colleagues in other institutions.
- Meet as department faculty at least twice for evaluative purposes.
- Conduct a graduate survey related to the two designated Student Learning Goals.

Spring Semester:
- Meet as department faculty to set up implementation of decisions.
- At end of spring semester a review of the fall’s assessment activities and resultant decisions will be included in the Department Assessment Report.

Assessment results are evaluated on an annual basis for program improvement. No individual student is identified in the evaluation of the program data. Results for past year are reported below with percentage of 2009/2010 senior students in each performance category.

While the Youth Ministry degree, as it stands, prepares an individual for future ministry in the church, Para-church, international, or non-government agency ministry environment, students may choose to further specialize their study. Concentrations offered are:

Media and Technology. As the “emergent church” movement grows, youth workers are being called upon to give leadership in media and technology not only in youth ministry, but the entire church.

Family Ministry. The position of “Family Ministries Pastor” is becoming more common. Some youth ministries are expanding their scope to include family ministry as well.

Youth Worship and the Arts. This is a natural choice for those feeling a call to youth ministry and are also gifted musicians and worship leaders.

(For additional concentrations available to Youth Ministry majors, see Christian Education section.)

Christian Work Major

CHRISTIAN WORK MAJOR - A.S.

The Christian Work major is a two-year program designed to prepare persons for Christian ministry in local churches and religious organizations by developing a foundation in biblical knowledge and practical ministry skills. This program is especially suited to persons who are engaged in marketplace careers, but who wish to be equipped to aid in church ministry. This program is available at both the Rockland and New York City Campuses.

The co-curricular programs of Nyack College will seek to augment formal course work by encouraging the development of wholesome spiritual values, the spirit of prayer and evangelism, and the vision essential to Christian ministry.

Student Learning Goals
By graduation, the Christian Work major’s knowledge, skills, and convictions will reflect Nyack’s core values in the following way:

Academically Excellent: Students will know introductory, background and thematic information about the sixty-six books of the Bible and the scholarly research methods through which this knowledge is generated. They will also know the Christian church’s historic doctrines, great thinkers and contemporary expressions, with which the students must interact.

Globally Engaged and Intentionally Diverse: Students will know the richness of the Christian heritage in all its global diversity. Students will also know how the Christian worldview compares and contrasts with competing worldviews in the global marketplace of ideas.

Socially Relevant: Students will be able to connect properly the concerns of the ancient text to the concerns of the modern world, to think biblically in addressing contemporary problems, and to communicate how the gospel of Jesus Christ offers hope for positive change in the global community. These skills will prepare the students for ministerial, educational and other service professions.

Personally Transforming: Students will be able to communicate, whether in oral or written form, the ways in which they integrate the Bible’s teaching into their Christian worldview and into their personal daily living.

COMMUNICATIONS MAJOR – B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Sharron Greaves, Darlene Pinkerton,

Student Learning Goals
In keeping with Nyack College’s Core Values of Social Relevance, Academic Excellence, Global Engagement, Intentional Diversity, and Personal Transformation, the Communications Department seeks to fulfill the following goals for its students.

Graduates from the Communication major will:
- Demonstrate a clear understanding of the professional fields of Communication, including the ability to creatively apply techniques and theories to local and global situations.
- Appreciate global and intercultural forms of communication, developing appropriate skills for the use of selected media forms in different cultures.
- Identify and evaluate principles of the communication arts and media from historic and contemporary practice.
- Communicate effectively and creatively with individuals, teams, and large groups, both in writing and orally.
- Integrate biblical, spiritual, and professional principles within a Christian world view.

Nyack College boasts three exceptional elective focus areas in its Communications department that focuses on primary areas of multi-faceted discipline to prepare students for academic success and hands-on instruction.

After being prepared for basic success in the department and in the Liberal Arts students concentrate their major studies in 1) the history and craft of Dramatic Art, 2) broadcast and print media emphasis in Mass Communications, or 3) audio, visual, and digital production training in Emerging Technology. Students are prepared for endeavoring into a range of professional prospects from aesthetic design to theoretical application, and the department also provides a thorough range of course work to prepare students for academic success and a solid Biblical ethical foundation. In addition to traditional classroom activities, students will be given the opportunity to participate in both on campus and off campus internships, as the New York metropolitan area offers vast opportunities for Communications students within the film, television, live theater, and radio fields. Students who major in Communications may expect to be prepared for careers in areas that use speaking, writing, and dramatic skills, such as broadcast production, public relations, sales and advertising, acting, producing, directing and more. The major, additionally, provides excellent preparatory skills for graduate success in Theatre, Film, Education, Ministry, Law, business and all areas of Communication Arts.

English Major

ENGLISH MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Charles Beach, Dr. Jonathan Gates, Dr. Louise McCreery, Bradley McDuffie, Dr. Kevin Pinkham

Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Elaine Lux, Christine Warrington

Affirming the Nyack College Core Values, the English Department shapes English majors through reading, study, contemplation, and preparation to be image-bearers of the Word, who in humility, seek Godly wisdom, greater understanding of His vast creation, and service to a needy world. The Nyack College English major equips students to develop an appreciation for and facility with language, literature, creative expression, and critical inquiry. In pursuit of this mission, English majors study a diverse body of literature from around the world, past and present; develop competence in secondary documentation and research; communicate in the written word, and integrate God’s Word with the word.

Student Learning Goals

Graduating English Majors will be able to:

- Intelligently discuss the intersection and influence of the historical Christian faith and those works of literature examined in their coursework.
- Write well, that is, they will be able to express a worthwhile thesis, effectively develop it, and present it in such a way that it is clear and meaningful to others.
- Effectively conduct literary research of print and electronic sources with an emphasis on locating, evaluating, and learning from secondary resources.
- Identify and discuss major writers, literary movements, and genres of world literature in translation and English-language literature.
- Recognize and be able to distinguish essential literary techniques, central characters and be able to identify literary themes, appreciating the connection between literature’s form and content.
- Document primary and secondary sources in written work.
- Creatively express insight, experience, and knowledge in various kinds of written and spoken presentations.

The English major prepares students to understand their world, to interpret its various expressions and traditions as reflected in literature, and to communicate clearly, effectively, and creatively. Nyack College’s broad and varied program in English has been lauded as excellent preparation for graduate study in literature. It has also been viewed traditionally as a solid foundation for seminary study or graduate study in other professional disciplines. Study in the English major effectively prepares students for participation in public life—whether the arts, education, law, politics, public service, ministry, or business.
English Major

English majors at Nyack College presently serve the world and the church as missionaries, pastors, linguists & Bible translators, college professors, business leaders, journalists, public relations writers, editors, and creative writers.

Senior English majors who qualify are strongly encouraged to participate in the internship program, applying their communication and interpretive skills in practical work-force experience. Interns may work as research or teaching assistants, public relations writers, public policy advocates, publication assistants, or in any number of other English-related positions.

History Major

HISTORY MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland:  Dr. David Weir
Primary Faculty, NYC:  Dr. Lyndell O’Hara, Raquel Reynoso, Dr. Stephen Ware

The history department seeks to increase the student’s knowledge and understanding of the cultural, religious, political, economic, social and intellectual significance of both past and present civilizations.

Student Learning Goals
1. To become globally engaged: History offers a perspective on life and an opportunity to view our world in a socially responsible manner. Through the study of world history, we achieve a clearer perspective and deeper respect for peoples of diverse cultures, religions and political ideals.

2. To pursue academic excellence: The study of history involves the ability to:
   a. Evaluate and synthesize philosophical, political, religious and cultural ideas in both primary and secondary sources.
   b. Analyze and interpret various types of data.
   c. Identify patterns, similarities and differences which allow to the student to illustrate both continuity and contrast in diverse civilizations and epochs.

3. To attain personal transformation: A study of history will assist each student to:
   d. Become more fully grounded in their faith through a deeper understanding of church history and God’s work in the world.
   e. Assume responsible roles as citizens of the local community, the nation and the world.
   f. Seek out and value a multi-cultural awareness that is essential to enhancing the quality of our public and private lives.

4. To gain a sense of social relevance: To learn to view particular events in relation to previous and concurrent events; to examine the causes and effects, the consequences or impact of episodes, short termed and long; to comprehend events in relation to what influenced, caused and affected them; to evaluate the significance of the individuals and groups involved. To what extent do the themes of the past and the present influence the course of our lives, both as a person and as a part of a community? How does our knowledge of past and contemporary events translate into a response for social justice in our world?

Interdisciplinary Studies Major

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Larry Poston (Coordinator), Dr. David Weir
Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Josue Perez (Director), Dr. Stephen Ware

The Interdisciplinary Studies major at Nyack College offers students the opportunity to study specially designed areas that intentionally integrate two academic disciplines. The Bachelor of Arts integrates two disciplines from the arts and sciences. The arts and science options include Bible, Cross-Cultural Studies, English, History, Philosophy, Psychology, Religion, and Sociology. The Bachelor of Science integrates one discipline from the arts and sciences with a professionally oriented discipline. The professionally oriented options include Business Administration, Childhood Education, Music, Pastoral Ministry, Social Work, and Youth Ministry. Students who wish to study two separate academic disciplines without or instead of engaging in intentional integration are advised to either a) double major or b) major in a discipline and declare a minor.

Any incoming freshman or transfer student may enroll in one of the formally offered Interdisciplinary Studies options. Any student currently enrolled in Nyack College who wishes to change their major to Interdisciplinary Studies must apply to the program. Applications are available at the Office of the Registrar and by the Interdisciplinary Studies bulletin board at both campuses. The registrar will not change the major of any currently enrolled student unless the application has been approved.

Mission
The mission of the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies is to provide students with liberal arts based, cross disciplinary programs which critically draw upon two disciplines fostering interdisciplinary thinking and engaging interdisciplinary research, culminating in the writing of a 20-page paper which articulates the integration of disciplinary thought.

Student Learning Goals

Academic Excellence: Students will foster interdisciplinary thinking, engage in the process of interdisciplinary research and participate in critical-analytical dialectic. This will be accomplished through the writing of a 20 page paper integrating two disciplines with a minimum of 12 sources (6 from each discipline) of which at least one is from the liberal arts within a senior seminar format (Integrative Capstone Seminar – INT 481).

Global Engagement & Intentional Diversity: Students will acquire an appreciation of social pluralism and a global understanding of culture, people and faith traditions. This will be accomplished through participation in one of the discipline specific worldview course options.

Personal Transformation: Students will engage in critical interdisciplinary self-reflection. This will be accomplished through identification of three insights for personal, academic and spiritual growth based on the interdisciplinary research and written in the concluding chapter of the interdisciplinary paper.

Social Relevance: Students will explore how these three insights might be translated into service for others. This will be accomplished through the writing of a 1-page essay, added to the concluding chapter of the interdisciplinary paper.

Interdisciplinary Studies Major

Capstone Seminar (INT 481) which requires the writing of a 20 page paper integrating the student’s pre-selected two disciplines with a minimum of 12 sources (6 from each discipline).

Integrative Capstone Seminar (INT 481)
During their senior year, Interdisciplinary Studies majors enroll in the Integrative Capstone Seminar (INT 481). This seminar will guide students in the process of writing a 20-page interdisciplinary research paper. The capstone thesis should articulate an integration of disciplinary thought between the student's identified two disciplines (of which at least one is from the liberal arts) and with a minimum of 12 sources (6 from each discipline). This course will assist students with a step-by-step process in turning an initial idea into a clearly defined proposal and ultimately a well-crafted thesis. Each student selects two mentors – one from each concentration/discipline. At their hearing, each student will be expected to make a class presentation with time for questions and answers. The seminar will also dedicate one session to the lifelong value of a Christian liberal arts education.

Change of Major Application Process
Students currently enrolled in Nyack College who wish to change their major to Interdisciplinary Studies must apply to be admitted to the Interdisciplinary Studies program. The application process ensures that students have properly considered the integrational nature of the major. Generally speaking, students are encouraged to major in a traditional discipline. Therefore, the application process invites students to discern and consider future professional and graduate level goals as a result of majoring in Interdisciplinary Studies. The application process involves the following steps:

1. Currently enrolled interested students complete the Interdisciplinary Studies Major application form. Forms are available at the Registrar’s office and at the Interdisciplinary Studies bulletin board.

2. Students submit an essay—no less than 3 pages—explaining their reasoning and intended goals for changing their major to Interdisciplinary Studies. Applicants must address the following two questions:
   a. Why are you interested in studying and integrating these two disciplines? How is this more advantageous to you instead of majoring in one specific academic discipline? Explain. (1-2 page minimum)
   b. What are your intended graduate school and/or professional goals based on integrating these two academic disciplines? (1-2 page minimum)

3. The student submits the application package to the director or coordinator of Interdisciplinary Studies at the respective campus. The completed package includes the 1) application form, 2) essay, 3) updated Nyack transcript and 4) updated ratings sheet.

4. The student may be contacted for an appointment to meet with the director or coordinator of Interdisciplinary Studies. Students who are accepted into the Interdisciplinary Studies Major will receive a letter of acceptance. Students not accepted for the Interdisciplinary Studies major will receive a letter of regret with recommendations.
INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES – B.A.
In the Bachelor of Arts program, students integrate two disciplines from the arts and sciences. The arts and science options include Bible, Cross Cultural Studies, English, History, Music, Philosophy, Psychology, Religion, and Sociology. Bachelor of Arts Interdisciplinary Studies students may integrate the liberal arts discipline in the left column with one of the respective partner concentrations in the right column.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES – B.S.
In the Bachelor of Science program, students integrate one discipline from the arts and sciences with a professionally oriented discipline. The professionally oriented options include Adolescence Education, Business Administration, Childhood Education, Early Childhood Education, Pastoral Ministry, Social Work, TESOL, and Youth Ministry. Bachelor of Science Interdisciplinary Studies students may integrate the professionally oriented discipline in the left column with one of the respective liberal arts partner concentrations in the right column:

Philosophy Major

PHILOSOPHY MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. James Danaher, Dr. Jeffrey Dueck
Primary Faculty, NYC: Alfredo G. Cid

Mission
The mission of the Philosophy Department at Nyack College is to promote academic excellence and personal transformation by exposing the students to the history of ideas and the rigorous and deep thinking that is philosophy.

Student Learning Goals
At Nyack College, the study of philosophy will:

1. Enhance the student’s ability to solve problems, write clearly, and reason cogently in order that they would be better prepared for the fullness of life to which God is calling them.
2. Acquaint the students with the history and methods of philosophy which, because philosophy is elementary to almost all areas of inquiry, will prepare students for graduate school and advanced study in whatever specific area they choose to pursue as Christian scholars.
3. Instill in the students an awareness of the deeper questions, and promote a desire for lifelong learning.

Program Assessment
The following assessments are used to assess program effectiveness.

No prior year assessments. Assessments will be instituted Fall 2009.

Assessment results are evaluated on an annual basis for program improvement. No individual student is identified in the evaluation of the program data. Results are reported below with percentage of students in each performance category.

The philosophy curriculum at Nyack consists of course offerings in three major areas. The first area is that of the major branches or subdivisions of philosophy, such as: Epistemology, Ethics, Logic, Philosophy of Mind, Philosophy of Religion, and Social and Political Philosophy. The second area of the philosophy curriculum is the history of philosophy and includes such courses as: The Dialogues of Plato; Aristotle and the Medievals; Kant; The British Empiricist; Locke, Berkeley, and Hume; Modern Continental Philosophy from Descartes to Hegel; and Recent Philosophy. Finally, the curriculum also offers courses that center on particular philosophical movements or topics of interests to the students and faculty of the philosophy department. Such courses include: Existentialism, Pragmatism, Twentieth Century Continental Philosophy, and Philosophy of Love.

The philosophy major is particularly practical in providing an excellent basis for graduate school since philosophy explores all of the fundamental questions and issues that underlie many other disciplines and areas of inquiry. It is especially appropriate as a basis for advanced studies in law, teaching, educational administration, public service, health care, the social sciences, or as a preparation for seminary.

RELIGION MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland:  Dr. Larry Poston

Mission
The Religion major is designed to prepare students intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually for personal encounters with adherents of the major world religions as well as of the smaller groupings known as alternative religious movements. Intellectually, students will be equipped with a working knowledge of the histories, worldviews, doctrinal beliefs, and ritual practices of these peoples. Emotionally, students will be prepared to meet such persons fearlessly, empathetically, and compassionately. Spiritually, students will be able to recognize and evaluate similarities to and differences from their own faith, thereby enhancing their Christian experience.

Student Learning Goals
In keeping with Nyack College’s Core Values of Social Relevance, Academic Excellence, Global Engagement, Intentional Diversity, and Personal Transformation, the Religion Major seeks to fulfill the following goals for its students. By the final semester of his/her senior year, it is intended that each Religion major will:

1. Demonstrate familiarity with the basic concepts, themes, and approaches involved in comparative religious studies.
2. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the chief characteristics of and define the chief concepts involved in “primal religion.”
3. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the basic historical development of the religions of Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Sikhism, Zoroastrianism, Daoism, Confucianism, Shinto, Judaism, Islam, and Christianity in its Roman Catholic, Eastern Orthodox, and Protestant forms.
4. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the basic doctrinal beliefs of each of the above-mentioned religions.
5. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the basic rituals and practices of each of the above-mentioned religions.
6. Be able to restate textual concepts from written literature dealing with comparative religious studies in his/her own words and select data accurately.
7. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the theories and postulates—including implications for his/her personal faith—of approximately twelve leading sociologists of religion.
8. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the theories and postulates—including implications for his/her personal faith—of approximately eight psychologists of religion.
9. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the effects of his/her social environment upon his/her personal faith and be able to make Biblically-informed decisions with respect to:
   a. His/her general participation in the social order of his/her country (i.e., his/her behavior “on the street”).
   b. His/her development of “family values.”
   c. His/her involvement in the institutional church.
   d. His/her convictions regarding a proper – read “Biblical” – socio-economic status.
   e. His/her views of race, ethnicity, and gender roles.
   f. His/her role as a Christian in the political process.
   g. His/her intake of and attitude toward audio-visual media.
   h. His/her understanding of the differences existing between “secularism” and “secularization,” “pluralism” and “pluralization,” and “privatism” and “privatization” (as essentially defined by Berger and Guinness).
10. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner the effects of his/her psychological make-up upon his/her personal faith and be able to make Biblically-informed decisions with respect to:
   a. The distinction between “internal-personal” approaches to spirituality and “external-institutional” approaches.
b. The distinction between the religious conversion process as described by the New Testament and the processes found in other religious systems.
c. The development of his/her religious life, called in Christianity the process of “sanctification”.
d. The observations of James Fowler with regard to “Stages of Faith.”
e. The current search for and occurrences of the phenomenon known as “revival.”
f. The current interest in the “supernatural,” “signs and wonders,” and “the miraculous” in general.
g. The internal and emotional aspects of the approach to religion known as “mysticism.”
h. The benefits and disadvantages of the states of asceticism and celibacy.

11. Be able to discuss in an organized and transferable manner five approaches that Christians have historically taken to the non-Christian religions.
12. Have produced at least ten essays of significant length dealing with some of the most basic questions involved in the study of non-Christian religions from the standpoint of evangelical Christianity.
13. Be able to initiate and lead discussions regarding issues of religious significance.
14. Be able to recite from memory at least fifty passages from the Bible and show how the content of those passages reflect upon the various topics covered in the courses.
15. Have developed a resume or curriculum vitae for the purpose of “marketing” himself/herself in an appropriate field related to his/her undergraduate education.
16. Have developed a set of short-term and long-term goals, as well as other instruments, pertinent to a productive and satisfying “life after college.”

The Religion major is designed to meet the needs of students who desire to understand the subject of religion from a comparative perspective. The program includes courses which consider the major religions of the world (Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Judaism), alternative religious movements, the New Age Movement, and occult religion from historical, phenomenological, sociological, psychological, philosophical, and theological points of view.

The program is suited for those who intend to enter a pastoral or missionary ministry and who anticipate attending seminary upon graduation from Nyack College. It is designed to satisfy the recommendations of the Association of Theological Schools for admission to study at the seminary level.

It is also designed as a foundational program for those who wish to pursue graduate work in the field of Comparative Religious Studies. It is not, however, recommended for those students who intend to enter the Christian ministry without taking further professional or graduate study.

General Education Major

GENERAL EDUCATION MAJOR - A.A.

Primary Faculty: Vilma C. Balmaceda (Director-Rockland), Alfredo G. Cid (Director- New York City)

Program
The Associate Degree in General Education is a two-year program designed to provide students with a comprehensive foundation in the humanities, social sciences, mathematics, language and literature, and the sciences. Students learn how to think critically, communicate effectively, make connections across extensive fields of knowledge, and cultivate new interests, skills, and talents, while expanding their vision of the world. Graduates who plan their programs carefully can transfer to a Bachelor’s degree program as juniors in a wide range of majors. Career possibilities for graduates at entry level positions are very broad. Many employers encourage their workforce to pursue a college education, and prefer to hire AA graduates because of their broad exposure to diverse subject matters.

Mission
The Nyack College General Education program has the mission of equipping and encouraging students to explore a wide range of disciplines, providing them with a solid foundation for lifelong intellectual development in the liberal arts.

Student Learning Goals
  Academically Excellent: Students will foster critical thinking in the liberal arts and explore educational opportunities in courses that will help them impact their community and profession. This will be accomplished through a required total of 60 credits: 39 credits of Core Component; 9 credits of Bible and Christian Ministry Component; and 12 credits of Miscellaneous Elective Components.
  Personally Transforming: Students will be encouraged to self-reflect as they engage the world of ideas through critical thought. This will be accomplished through the assessment of the students’ academic, personal, and spiritual needs.
  Socially Relevant: Students will discover how their personal and academic insights help them serve the world better. This will be accomplished through their reflection on how a particular liberal arts or professional course can have a relevant, social application.
  Globally Engaged: Students will be exposed to a mosaic of ideas to help them appreciate peoples and cultures across the globe and view the world in a socially responsible manner. This will be accomplished in the classroom, from faculty with substantial global exposure, and through our Global Studies Program, which encourages all Nyack College students to take at least one course abroad.

The General Education major is available at both the Rockland and New York City Campuses. Graduates who wish to pursue a Bachelor’s degree at Nyack College are recommended to take BIB 303 Christian Thought (if not intending to major in Bible) and SOC 347 Multicultural America and met with their advisor to plan a smooth transition to their chosen major.

Mathematics Major

College of Arts and Science
Dr. Fernando Arzola Jr., Associate Dean

Division of Mathematics and Sciences

MATHEMATICS MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. In Hak Moon

Mission
The goal of the Mathematics Department is to show God’s love through the study of mathematics as the student learns to address and solve problems that deepen our appreciation for the ordered universe of God’s creation.

Student Learning Goals

Academically Excellent: Upon successfully completing the mathematics degree, the student will have increased their understanding of mathematics at the college level and will renew and sharpen their analytics skills.

Relevant Socially: The study of mathematical concepts is vital to evaluating and comprehending our world, on both the personal and business level. Students will learn how to describe many relationships in our world and universe through the tools of mathematics.

The Mathematics major at Nyack College is designed for those interested in learning how to describe many relationships in our world and universe through the tools of mathematics. Besides deepening students’ understanding of mathematical concepts, this pursuit will sharpen organizational and analytical skills and improve students’ abilities in applying mathematics in a variety of areas. This major will prepare students for careers in business, government, and industry, and mathematics education. The program also will prepare students wishing to study at the graduate level in mathematics and other related areas. Students are encouraged to blend computer science studies into their major to equip themselves further for the needs of society.

LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES: SCIENCES - A.A.

Primary Faculty: Dr. Jacqueline Washington (Director)

Mission
The mission of the Liberal Arts and Sciences: Science Program (LASS) is to offer excellent academic and spiritual preparation for students interested in professional careers in the health services such as nursing. The goal is to equip students for lifelong service and learning, to be positive role models and leaders, and in so doing, impact the health field for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Student Learning Goals
1. Demonstrate an understanding of the biological and chemical sciences to successfully apply for further studies in the health sciences.
2. Be able to effectively communicate orally and in writing. Students will be able to write a research paper using the APA format.
3. Apply critical thinking and problem solving skills to recognize the interrelationships among problems and issues.
4. Develop skill in using materials, instruments and equipment in the laboratory.

The Liberal Arts and Sciences: Sciences (LASS) program is a two-year program leading to an Associate in Arts degree which is designed to prepare students for transfer to institutions offering further education in a variety of health care services. Most students in this program intend to pursue a major in nursing. This program is only available at the Rockland Campus.

The program is a blend of three components: 1) the core of introductory liberal arts courses required by most institutions, 2) foundational Bible courses, and 3) twenty-five credits in the sciences. Thus, students gain their prerequisite knowledge for more advanced studies in the health care field while being grounded biblically. In addition students have opportunity to take introductory courses in health careers and nursing so that they may explore their interests. Local hospitals welcome volunteer work by the students.

Upon transfer to other institutions students typically enter courses and clinical work specific to their chosen profession. The Bachelor of Science degree is conferred by the institution to which transfer has been made. Since the amount of time needed to complete a B.S. degree after a student transfers varies, students are encouraged to choose their transfer institution as soon as possible so that appropriate elective course work at Nyack can be taken. Successful transfer is dependent upon meeting the admissions requirements established by the transfer institution, and admission to Nyack College does not automatically guarantee admission to the transfer school.

Students who are interested in nursing but wish to remain at Nyack for four years may combine their two-year science program with a major in psychology. At the end of their four years at Nyack these students would hold a B.A. in psychology with a natural science concentration. These students would then be able to pursue an accelerated one-year nursing program available at many nursing schools where they would receive the bachelor of science in nursing degree. This combined approach prepares students for the one-year BSN program and gives them added flexibility as they choose their career. Students who are interested in this approach should consult with their advisor and the Head of the Department of Psychology prior to registering for their fourth semester at Nyack College.

60 credit hours, distributed as follows, are required for the Associate in Arts degree:

Alliance Graduate School of Counseling

College of Arts and Science
Dr. Fernando Arzola Jr., Associate Dean

Division of Social and Behavioral Sciences

Alliance Graduate School of Counseling

The Alliance Graduate School of Counseling offers two degrees: a 66-credit Master of Arts in Mental Health Counseling, and a 67-credit Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy. Whereas the M.A. in Mental Health Counseling is offered at both campuses, the M.A. in Marriage and Family Therapy is only offered at the Rockland campus.

Purpose:
The purpose of the Master of Arts in Mental Health Counseling and the Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy is to provide a comprehensive academic and training program to prepare individuals seeking employment as mental health clinicians in mental health settings such as hospitals, social service agencies, private practice, and church counseling centers. These programs are designed to meet the educational requirements for licensure as a Mental Health Counselor or a Marriage and Family Therapist in New York State. Graduates of both programs are eligible to seek employment towards meeting the supervised experience required for licensure. Graduates will have up to two years to meet the experience requirement and must pass a licensure qualifying examination in order to complete New York State licensure requirements. For further information see: http://www.op.nysed.gov/mhp.htm.

Mission Statement:
The Alliance Graduate School of Counseling is committed to preparing students for the role of mental health clinicians who are emotionally mature, intellectually sound, professionally competent, and spiritually vibrant, to do God’s healing work in broken lives, couples and families.

Mental Health Counselor Licensure by year:
(Note: MFT program began in 2008. First graduating class will be in spring 2010.)

Learning Objectives:
Upon completion of the program, candidates are expected to have:
- acquired a strong academic course of study, which integrates the science of modern mental health with Biblical truths.
- attained a high level of knowledge regarding basic counseling skills commensurate with the degree offered.

Alliance Graduate School of Counseling seeks to provide counseling education that is grounded in a theologically evangelical Christian view of epistemology, human nature and healing. While recognizing that there are different viewpoints within the Christian community, we believe that the Bible provides us with significant foundational perspectives on human personality, pathology and healing.

The Graduate School of Counseling takes an “open universe” view of epistemology and causation. This view suggests that the most accurate and comprehensive understanding of human functioning and healing is gained by consideration of natural, supernatural and interactive (natural x supernatural) influences.

Alliance Graduate School of Counseling views human nature at its best as a finely-tuned, multi-dimensional, integrated system. Human beings are fundamentally psychospiritual beings because they are created in God’s image. Optimal human functioning occurs when human beings live according to God’s design as given in the Bible.

Because of The Fall, human beings experience the pain of disorder, division, disintegration, dissension, and dysfunction. Human personality and relationships are often fragmented due to irrationality, chaos and distortions of sin. Sin, from a psychospiritual perspective, is living in contradiction to God’s design. Sin refers both to an underlying human condition of fallenness due to original sin, and to specific acts committed by an individual or by others against a person. The destructive and disintegrative impact of sin is experienced through individual, interpersonal and institutional choices and channels.

In addition to the impact of sin in its psychospiritual sense, human beings are affected by the limitations of their finitude. Choices that produce chaos and pain are often the result of limited or erroneous knowledge and understanding. Dysfunctional patterns of learning and conditioning may also produce significant difficulties.
Finally, in their attempts to cope with the pain of unmet psychospiritual needs, human beings often unwittingly make choices that worsen their pain and lead to further psychospiritual and relational deterioration.

Alliance Graduate School of Counseling sees psychospiritual healing as ultimately the work of God’s grace, wisdom and love communicated through the vehicle of a competent and sensitive counselor. The exact role of the therapist varies according to the particular needs and problems of the counselee, couple or family unit. Healing interventions are multi-modal and comprehensive. Because of our open universe view, analysis and interventions include consideration of the natural/psychological and supernatural/spiritual dimensions. Healing may also include bio- and social-psychological intervention due to the fundamental biological and relational nature of human beings.

Alliance Graduate School of Counseling Emphases
- Faith/Counseling interface: psychospiritual model
- Core values
- Multi-cultural/cross-cultural orientation
- Mentoring/nurturing
- Multi-modal instruction
- Case studies/application

AGSC Core Values
- Belief in the centrality and authority of the Holy Scriptures as the source, foundation and guide to Truth.
- Recognition of the essential and primary place of God (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) in the healing process as the source of health and healing.
- Consistent and continuing commitment by the counselor to maintain a personal walk with God through the practice of spiritual disciplines such as Bible study, prayer, fasting and biblical meditation.
- Maintenance of self-care (physical, spiritual, emotional and relational) for the counselor’s own well-being.
- Importance of participation and service in the local church and its worldwide mission. Commitment to an open-universe model of epistemology and therapeutic intervention, integrating theory, research and practice, with respect for and utilization of both the empirical and the supernatural.
- Adherence to the highest ethical standards of the counseling profession and the Christian faith.
- Fundamental respect for people in their ethnic, socio-economic, religious and gender diversity.
- Importance of life-long continuing education in counseling, psychology and theology beyond the Master’s degree in counseling.
- Commitment to the advancement of the counseling field and in particular, Christian counseling, through such activities as participation in professional association, excellence in scholarship, and education of the broader Christian community.

Please refer to the Admissions section of the catalog for requirements for admissions and matriculation into the Alliance Graduate School of Counseling.

Program Requirements for Graduation - MA Mental Health Counseling

1. A minimum of 66 semester hours of graduate-level coursework as defined by the program. Transfer coursework credit from accredited colleges or universities with a minimum grade of B (3.0) which have been completed within seven years of admission into the program may be requested. These transfer coursework credits may not exceed 15 semester hours. Graduate transfer credits may not be used both for transfer credit and prerequisites. Students must take 55 of their 66 credits at their designated primary site. New York City students in the Master of Arts in Mental Health Counseling program must take GCN 610 Career Development at the Rockland site.
2. Students must engage in counselor-in-training therapy (individual, marital, or family counseling) with a professional therapist for a minimum of 15 sessions. Students are... responsible for fees for service. This requirement should be completed within the first calendar year of enrollment at AGSC. Counseling must be completed before the first day of class for GCN 791 Practicum (summer). No more than two hours per week of counselor-in-training therapy may be counted toward the requirement. See office for necessary forms to verify compliance and completion of therapy.

3. Participation in group therapy is required as a part of GCN 604 Group Dynamics and Therapy. This therapy may not be counted as meeting the requirement for counselor-in-training (see above). Student is responsible for fee for service. The student and therapist must submit the necessary forms to verify completion. Further details provided by Group Dynamics faculty.

4. A minimum of 700 clock hours of supervised practicum and internship experience in an approved setting, 40% of which must be direct client contact.

5. Satisfactory completion of a professional exit interview with the faculty of the Alliance Graduate School of Counseling. The interview is to be scheduled by the student during the spring semester of the student's final term.

6. After completing all required coursework, students will be required to take GCN 799 Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Exam in the spring semester prior to graduation. A grade of Pass or Fail will be noted on the student's final transcript. Students will only be allowed to take the CPCE one time. GPA is not affected by the results of the comprehensive exam. See below for description of the CPCE.

7. The degree will be granted when all of the program requirements have been satisfactorily met. Participation at the Nyack College Commencement ceremony is contingent on completion of all requirements. All AGSC graduates will be invited to participate in the AGSC Hooding Ceremony Banquet where the student's academic performance will be recognized and scholarly and internship awards will be granted.

It is the student's responsibility to remain informed of all requirements, prerequisites, deadline dates and procedures within the program. It is also the responsibility of the student to maintain contact with her or his advisor and to remain current with class and schedule changes.

Program Requirements for Graduation - MA Marriage & Family Therapy

1. Satisfactory completion of 61 semester hours of graduate-level coursework as defined by the program. Transfer credit from accredited colleges or universities with a minimum grade of B (3.0) which has been completed within seven years of admission into the program may be requested. These transfer coursework credits may not exceed 15 semester hours. ATS student's transfer credits will be charged an additional fee of $100.00 per credit. Graduate transfer credits may not be used both for transfer credits and prerequisites.

2. Students must engage in counselor-in-training therapy (individual, marital or family counseling) with a professional therapist for a minimum of 15 sessions. Students are responsible for fees for service. This requirement should be completed within the first calendar year of enrollment at AGSC. No more than two hours per week of counselor-in-training therapy may be counted toward this requirement. See AGSC office for necessary forms to verify Compliance and Completion of therapy.

3. Satisfactory completion of a 500 hour Internship over a minimum of 15 consecutive months. Direct Client Contact (counseling) will comprise 400 hours while Live Clinical Observation will comprise 100 hours. A minimum of 50% of the total direct client contact hours (counseling hours) must be relational therapy (couples and families), while 50% of the counseling hours may involve individual and/or group therapy. [In the case of an Extended Program Option, students may extend their Internship to 21 months]

4. Satisfactory completion of a professional exit interview with the faculty of the Alliance Graduate School of Counseling. The interview is to be scheduled by the student during the spring semester of the student's final term.

MFT Cohort Structure
The MA in Marriage and Family Therapy is organized with a cohort structure. Each entering class will journey together through this program by taking a sequenced progression of coursework. Courses are generally scheduled on Tuesday afternoon (2-5pm) and evening (6-9pm); and Thursday afternoon (2-5 pm) and evening (6-9 pm). Internship times will be scheduled during other days throughout the week.

MFT Program Sequences

Students may enter the MFT program in one of three unique sequences (tracks)

1) Full-Time Sequence – a 2 year intense program of study with a 15 month Internship (12-13 credit hours per Fall/Spring Semesters)
2) Part-Time Sequence – a 3 year program of study with a 15 month Internship (8-9 credit hours per Fall/Spring Semester)
3) Extended – a 4 year program of study with a 21 month Internship (with an average of 7 credit hours per Fall/Spring Semester). The 6 months of extra group supervision for this sequence will incur an Extended Program Fee.

For each sequence above, students are scheduled to attend courses year-round (Fall/ Winterim/ Spring/ Summer) with small breaks between semesters. There are no courses during the month of August. The Internship for each sequence runs for 15 consecutive months (or 21 consecutive months in the Extended Sequence). Though not encouraged, it is possible for students to switch their program sequence after they have started their course of study.

It is the student’s responsibility to remain informed of all requirements, prerequisites, deadline dates and procedures within the program. It is also the responsibility of the student to maintain contact with her or his advisor and to remain current with class and schedule changes.

Admission into the AGSC program is not a guarantee of graduation. Admission is an opportunity for the student to successfully accomplish all requirements established in order to graduate from the program with a Master of Arts degree.

Criminal Justice Major

CRIMINAL JUSTICE MAJOR - B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Charles Awasu, Miguel Sanchez
Primary Faculty, NYC: Jennifer Kimble-Zaghloul

The Criminal Justice major at Nyack College is designed to help students develop a comprehensive understanding of crime and the criminal justice system. Using a restorative justice approach, students are equipped to integrate a Christian worldview with a strong liberal arts foundation and the skills to be effective practitioners. The major prepares students for careers in the following areas: policing, probation and parole, corrections, private security, social welfare services, law office assistants, environmental protection agencies, occupational health and safety administration, secret service, research, criminal law, rehabilitation of criminals, administration of justice, loss prevention, and criminalistic and forensic sciences. The criminal justice major is also intended to provide students with academic preparation for graduate school in criminal justice or law. This program is structured to comply with the certification standards of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences.

The Nyack College Criminal Justice major will place a strong emphasis on the principles and practices of restorative justice. Restorative justice is a biblically based view of criminal justice that attempts to engage victims, offenders, the affected communities, and government institutions in bringing about deep and lasting solutions by focusing on healing and restoration.

Mission Statement
The Criminal Justice major is designed to prepare students for culturally sensitive service to individuals, families, and communities impacted by crime. Graduates of the program will integrate social and restorative justice principles with professional criminal justice skills that enable creative solutions to crime and criminal behavior.

Student Learning Goals
Criminal Justice graduates will be able to:

1. Demonstrate critical thinking skills and knowledge of deviance, crime, and the criminal justice system.
2. Identify and discuss the nature, extent, and causation of crime.
3. Comprehend the role of criminal law in the regulation of human conduct and maintenance of stability in society.
4. Know the history, organizational structures and functions of police agencies, courts, and correctional institutions at the federal, state, and local levels.
5. Understand the beliefs and practices behind the punishment of criminal behavior in America.
6. Articulate the criminal justice discipline from a Christian and restorative justice perspective.

Psychology Major

PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Agnia Assur, Dr. Jack Wiltshire
Primary Faculty, NYC: Denise Hirschlein, Dr. Stephen Maret

Mission
It is the mission of the Psychology Department to provide a context for investigating psychological issues as informed by a Christian worldview, to strengthen students’ understanding of persons in their diversity and their functioning in varied contexts, to empower students to act in the world in socially and spiritually responsible ways and to facilitate students’ personal journey and development.

Objectives
The mission of the Psychology Department will be accomplished through the following objectives:

1. Development of a Psychological Perspective Informed by a Christian Worldview. Students will be introduced to truths about persons and their functioning. We believe that “all truth is God’s truth.” Therefore, since any valid truths discovered in the world around us or in relation to persons are also truths as God knows them, it is essential that we be open to them.

2. Development of an Understanding of Self. The psychology major facilitates the development of a deeper understanding of self. Many courses generate insight as students are open to self-discovery, further development of self-identity and greater inner growth. Thus, the study of psychology is valuable to students interested in resolving their own personal struggles in an effort to be of greater service to others.

3. Development of Interpersonal Skills. The psychology major facilitates the development of a greater capacity to connect with others in deeper ways. Understanding and practice of such skills as personal exploration, empathetic listening, giving compassionate feedback and self expression are essential to a person’s ability to interact with others more intimately. These skills can enhance a student’s interpersonal life as well as form a useful foundation for work in many fields, including psychology, social work, social services, education, Christian ministries and business.

4. Preparation for Graduate Studies. The psychology major provides preparation and a solid foundation for graduate study in psychology and related areas. The major core requirements offer study in essential areas within the scope of psychology and electives allow students to concentrate in areas of personal academic interest. Internships give students the opportunity to be exposed to the provision of psychological services in varied settings. The psychology major is also very appropriate for entrance into graduate studies in other fields, such as ministry, law, business, healthcare and human resources, in which an understanding of human functioning is necessary.

5. Preparation for Careers. The psychology major provides preparation for work in psychology-related fields immediately upon graduation. Typically, graduates with a bachelor’s degree can obtain positions as caseworkers and psychology technicians.

The major is also appropriate for students entering careers such as church and missionary work, work in non-profit organizations, and work in the business world which may require an understanding of people. With its core requirements and diverse offering of electives, the psychology major is able to provide uniquely crafted preparation tailored to the diverse interests and desires of each individual student.

Student Learning Goals
The Psychology Department facilitates students to achieve the following specific learning goals:

1. Students will have knowledge of basic psychological principles, theories, and research in major areas of psychology.
2. Students will be familiar with how methodological, statistical and ethical issues apply to psychological research.
3. Students will be able to write literature reviews drawing on all current information formats and technologies.
4. Students will demonstrate the ability to assess critically psychological information and research.
Psychology Major

5. Students will demonstrate the ability to integrate psychological principles and research with a Christian worldview in a critically sensitive manner.

Sociology Major

SOCIOLOGY MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland:  Dr. Charles Awasu, Miguel Sanchez

Sociology is the study of society and human social relationships, institutions, and organizations. The curriculum examines the fundamentals of sociology and investigates social issues, public policy, social change, and social justice. The curriculum takes advantage of the unparalleled New York City Metropolitan multicultural environment and offers students the opportunity to conduct supervised practice and research in community organizations. Sociology majors may choose concentrations in criminal justice, community development, ethnic studies, and family studies.

The sociology major prepares students to work effectively in professional careers with people and with social systems, including criminal justice, law, health and social services, urban and regional planning, social work, human resource management, advertising, public administration, and public policy. An undergraduate major in sociology is also excellent preparation for graduate programs in sociology, policy sciences, criminology, health and social service administration, demography, and other disciplines that study social behavior and society.

Mission
The Sociology Department seeks to develop students who apply sociological knowledge and skills to understand, problem-solve, and transform society from God’s perspective.

Student Learning Goals
Sociology majors should be able to:
1. Demonstrate critical thinking skills and greater depth of knowledge about sociological concepts, methods, and theoretical analyses.
2. Comprehend the relationship between social situations, social behavior, and how people construct social meaning.
3. Understand the role of class, ethnicity, gender, and race in the formation and perpetuation of social inequality.
4. Identify how patterns of social life in the family and the global economy affect social behavior.

Program Assessment
The following assessments are used to assess program effectiveness.

SOCIAL WORK MAJOR - B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Carol Awasu
Primary Faculty, NYC: Mayra Lopez-Humphreys, James Long
Dr. Kwi Ryung Yun

The Social Work major is accredited by the Council of Social Work Education (CSWE).

The mission of the Social Work Major is to prepare students in a Christian context to be social work professionals who can effectively enhance the well-being of diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities with competence, compassion and ethical integrity, and who are committed to promoting a just and caring society in a complex and interrelated world.

In order to fulfill the mission, the Social Work Major has two goals: first, to prepare students to be generalist social work practitioners who integrate the knowledge, values, and skills of the social work profession in an educational context rooted in a Christian worldview; second, to prepare students for graduate education for social work, other professional disciplines, and lifelong learning.

Student Learning Goals

Graduates of Nyack College’s Social Work Major will:

- Apply critical thinking skills within the context of professional social work practice.
- Understand the value base and ethical standards & principles of the social work profession from the perspective of a Christian worldview, and practice accordingly.
- Practice without discrimination, with respect, knowledge, and skills related to client's age, class, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, family structure, gender, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, and sexual orientation, and integrate a sound social work perspective on diversity with one's Christianity.
- Understand the forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination, and apply strategies of advocacy and social change that advance social and economic justice.
- Understand the history, current structures, issues of the Social Work profession, the contribution of Christianity to the profession, and achieve their identity as Social Work professionals with faith.
- Apply the knowledge and skills of generalist Social Work practice with systems of all sizes.
- Use theoretical frameworks supported by empirical evidence to understand individual development and behavior across the life span and the interactions among and between individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities from a bio-psycho-social-spiritual perspective.
- Analyze, formulate, and influence social policies that promote a just and caring society.
- Understand research methodologies, evaluate research studies, apply research findings to practice, and evaluate their own practice interventions to advance the social work profession.
- Use appropriate oral and written communication skills differently across client populations, colleagues, and communities.
- Function effectively within the structure of organizations and service delivery systems, including those that are religious and seek necessary organizational change.
- Understand themselves, environment, society, world and their Creator with a holistic perspective, and demonstrate reflective and professional use of self skills.
- Continue personal and professional development utilizing supervision, consultation, literature, conferences, and/or advancing to graduate school.

Program Assessment

Goal 1: to prepare students to be general social work practitioners who effectively integrate the knowledge, values, and skill of the social work profession in an educational context rooted in Christian worldview.

Nursing Major

Cheryl Phenicie School of Nursing
Dr. Elizabeth Simon, Director

NURSING MAJOR - B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Inseon Hwang

Vision and Mission
The vision of the School of Nursing is to send Christian nurses into the world to show Christ’s love as they minister to the healthcare needs of hurting people. With this vision, the mission is to educate, encourage, equip, connect, and mobilize Christian nurses to meet the healthcare needs of global communities.

The nursing major is designed to equip students to become general nurses. They will combine nursing skills, knowledge, and a service attitude in order to provide compassionate care and advocacy for others. The curriculum also provides students with the background for advanced studies and further professional careers.

Program Objectives
Graduates of the Nyack School of Nursing will be equipped to:

1. Affirm Godly living as foundational to the Christian nursing practice.
   a. Practice spiritual disciplines of prayer, faith, scripture reading, and obedience to God.
   b. Express a willingness to serve others to the glory of God.
   c. Assert the power of prayer in healing.
2. Value each person as created in the image of God.
   Provide nursing care to diverse populations with sensitivity to cultural variations.
   Advocate for the dignity and worth of the clients they serve and their professional colleagues.
   Consider diverse social, economic, religious, and cultural traditions of individuals, families, and communities in planning for health care needs.
3. Affirm a Christian worldview of health as being in harmony with God.
   Synthesize knowledge from the humanities, biological, social, and nursing sciences to promote health and well being of individuals and communities around the globe.
   Improve the health of individuals and communities through an interdisciplinary approach to health promotion and disease prevention.
   Use evidence-based nursing therapeutics to provide holistic health care to clients.
   Identify the client’s conception of health and meaningfulness of the illness experience.
4. Understand the reciprocal relationship between the environment and the health of individuals and communities.
   a. Advocate for healthy environments to improve the health status of communities.
   b. Facilitate continuity of care across a variety of health care settings.
5. Affirm the nursing practice as an advocacy for those in need.
   a. Demonstrate excellence in technical skills in the delivery of professional nursing care.
   b. Recognize social, political, economic, and organizational avenues for influencing positive change in health care policy.
   c. Provide a compassionate presence to all who suffer.
   d. Communicate effectively in verbal, nonverbal, and written form.
   e. Acquire and discriminate between vast amounts of health care information in order to determine the best practice for client care.
   f. Maintain nursing practices within professional/legal standards, ethical/moral standards, and with sensitivity to the client’s cultural differences.
6. Recognizes service to others as essential to the professional nursing practice.
   a. Affirm personal transformation resulting from service to others.
7. Develop cultural competence in the delivery of holistic nursing practice.
   a. Considers the client’s conception of health, illness, and the parameters of nursing care when planning nursing interventions.
Nursing Major

Note: The nursing curriculum, courses and requirements are subject to approval and revision as the program undergoes review by accreditation bodies, including the New York State Education Department and the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.

Admission to the Nursing Major
Qualified students in the Nursing prerequisite curriculum apply to the nursing major during the application filing period as indicated on the Nursing Major Application Form. All prerequisite courses must be completed prior to entering the nursing major. Students are admitted competitively to the nursing major. Requirements for nursing majors are:

- Submission of Nursing Major application
- Completion of prerequisite courses including College Algebra, Essentials of Chemistry, Principles of Nutrition, Anatomy and Physiology I, College Writing I and II, and General Psychology.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.7 or higher
- Cumulative GPA of 2.5 in math and science courses
- Nursing essay
- Must meet or exceed the national average score of TEAS exam.

Students must complete an application to enter the nursing major no later than the application deadline the year prior to entering nursing major courses. A $400 nonrefundable nursing entrance fee is assessed and reflected in the billing statement when entering nursing major.

Clinical Practicum
From the second semester of the sophomore year, students will engage in clinical practices in various clinical settings. Participation in clinical courses requires:

- Negative drug screening test
- Criminal background check with a ‘no record’ verification
- American Heart Association Health Care Provider CPR Certification
- Complete Immunization record
- Malpractice insurance
- Proof of physical and mental ability to perform in the role of student nurse
- Health exam within one year

The student may be assigned day and/or evening clinical rotations that may occur during the week and/or on the weekend over the course of the program. The student is responsible for obtaining transportation to and from all clinical sites.

Progression Policy
To progress from sophomore to junior year the student must meet the following criteria:

- Cumulative GPA of 2.7 or higher
- Complete all nursing courses in sophomore year with a grade of “C+” or better (78% score or higher in exam)
- Complete BIO 214, BIO 220, and PSY 244

To progress from junior to senior year the student must meet the following criteria:
- Cumulative GPA of 2.7 or higher
- Complete all nursing courses in junior year with a grade of “C+” or higher (78% score or higher in exam)
- Complete BIO 315, MAT 330, BIO 301, and PSY 342
- Successfully complete the junior level comprehensive clinical skills competency examination in the clinical skills laboratory.

The requirements for satisfactory completion of each required course are as follows:
- Students must achieve at least a grade of C+ in nursing courses to progress to subsequent nursing courses.
Nursing Major

Students must achieve satisfactory clinical evaluations and clinical skills laboratory performance as well as meet the course didactic requirements to progress in the nursing major.

All clinical laboratory competencies must be completed satisfactorily to progress.

Students may repeat a required science course no more than two times (must have a passing score the third time). No more than three science courses can be repeated. A required nursing course may be repeated only once; no more than two nursing courses can be repeated.

Students required to repeat a nursing course must complete the entire course, including laboratory and clinical component of the course.

Demonstrate godly living and satisfactory standards of conduct.

Degree Requirement

To earn the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in nursing (BS), nursing majors must complete a minimum 128 semester hours (at least 45 semester hours must be taken at Nyack College). In addition, the following requirements apply:

Earn a cumulative GPA of at least 2.7 and a grade of at least a C+ or better (78% or higher) in all nursing courses (a grade of C is not accepted);

Successfully complete the comprehensive clinical skills competency examination in the clinical skills laboratory; and

Complete the standardized comprehensive exit examination.

Satisfy the college’s general academic requirements.

Eligibility for Licensure

Students who successfully complete the requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in nursing will be eligible to take the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX-RN). Students must meet all requirements in the state in which they wish to take the examination. The Dean of the School of Nursing will assist students in their application to the State Board for licensure.

Students seeking licensure in states other than New York must maintain continual contact with those states and the academic advisor to insure that the program leads to licensure. Students must check with the state agency where licensure is desired for its requirements.

School of Education

Primary Faculty: Dr. JoAnn Looney (Dean, Program Director), Dr. Johanna Dillenbeck (MSED Program Director) Dr. Dion Harrigan, Dr. James Nichols, Dr. Bennett Schepens

The School of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

MASTER’S PROGRAMS IN EDUCATION
Nyack College offers a variety of master’s programs for educators. Qualified students seeking to obtain the initial level of New York State teacher certification may pursue the program for Initial Certification in Childhood Special Education or in Childhood Education. Initially certified teachers seeking to obtain the professional level of New York State teacher certification may pursue the Inclusive Education program and may also choose a track to extend their certification to include teaching middle school, gifted, or bilingual students. Initially certified teachers may also pursue additional certification through the Childhood Education or Childhood Special Education programs.

Students enrolled at the NYC campus must meet a residency requirement by taking either EDG 500 or EDG 501 at the Nyack campus. Please refer to the Admissions section of the catalog for admissions requirements.

Pass rates for the School of Education of this institution (graduate and undergraduate combined) are published in compliance with Title II regulations:

Mission and Learning Goals
The Graduate Division of the School of Education is committed to prepare candidates with practiced, research-based methodology that is character based, integrating the historical evangelical Christian tradition of the college, so they are ready to enter the inclusive classroom. To fulfill these values, the unit is committed to the preparation of professional educators who are capable of working effectively with diverse populations in a constantly changing global community.

Our conceptual framework guides the curriculum, instruction, structure and assessment for the professional education programs in the School of Education. The framework, based on the SALT acronym representing Service, Academics, Leadership, and Teaching, is comprised of a standards-driven, student-centered, assessment-based, collaborative approach.

Teacher candidates are instructed to be “the salt of the earth.” This summarizes the belief that candidates and professional faculty in the School of Education strive to become, by God’s grace, individuals who reflect the properties of salt. They are to season and enrich the lives of others. They are to become the preservative of hope and encouragement to others. They are to become a healing agent serving others who need help overcoming the difficulties of life. Therefore, it becomes the goals of this unit to:

Service
- Equip candidates with a competency in working with diverse student groups by the use of effective teaching methods.
- Instill within the candidates sensitivity to individual and cultural diversity as they work within a variety of contexts and communities and understand the benefits of partnering to improve education.
- Guide candidates to an understanding of the impact of teaching on the greater community and the world.
School of Education - Graduate

Academics
- Enable candidates to articulate and apply appropriate competency-based standards and principles addressing teaching, curriculum, assessment, equity, and technology, and to demonstrate the associated ethical dispositions.
- Empower candidates to articulate, demonstrate, and value the interconnectedness of academic standards, dispositions related to academics, and the broad philosophical connections, resulting in well-rounded academic preparedness for the teaching profession.
- Prepare candidates with research-based understandings and skills to create a bridge among educational theory, research, and practice in response to the educational, social and psychological needs of society.

(a) Leadership
- Develop candidates as transformative leaders as they envision and implement a nurturing, stimulating, inclusive, international environment for students, schools and communities.
- Prepare candidates to effectively communicate with diverse populations in a variety of media and modes, as they voice ethical dispositions regarding issues of justice, access, and equity while employing a filter of a Christian worldview.
- Engage candidates in professional growth activity so they may respond to educational needs of diverse learners, schools and communities with insight, vision and collaborative effort.

(b) Teaching
- Develop candidates who are able to design, implement, and evaluate the appropriateness of instruction and refine practices.
- Prepare candidates willing to work strategically together with professional partners, colleagues and community to facilitate the implementation of collaborative learning environments in professional education and K-12 settings.
- Equip candidates with an understanding of effective ways to utilize appropriate assessment-based approaches for the improvement of student learning and educational practice.

SOE Electronically Collected Material Policy
In an effort to monitor the quality of the SOE courses and programs, samples of student work will be electronically retained by the SOE on Livetext, an electronic management system, or as hard copies. These artifacts may be randomly selected for NCATE or external accreditation review as well. The retention period for these electronic materials is indefinite.

In addition to the student’s work, electronically collected and archived materials may include the following information:

- Student name
- Course name
- Instructor name
- Course information

Questions or concerns about this process may be directed to the Dean of the School of Education.
CHILDHOOD EDUCATION - M.S.

The Childhood Education curriculum has been designed to meet the academic requirements for obtaining initial and professional teaching certificates in New York State. The program fulfills the provisions and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and the Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Department of Higher Education of the State of New York. Students who complete the program will meet the New York State requirements for teacher certification in classrooms grades 1-6. The State of New York certification procedures require that recommended candidates also make personal application for a certificate.

The program and course schedule are offered in a new modular format that expedites program completion.

Program Requirements

1. A minimum of 39 or 45 credit hours of graduate-level coursework. Transfer credit from regionally accredited colleges or universities may not exceed 12 credit hours and must be 3.0 or better.
2. A minimum grade point average in the program of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0.
3. Satisfactory completion of a written comprehensive exam with the faculty of the Nyack College Graduate Education Department.
4. Satisfactory demonstration of teaching competencies through the construction of a Teacher Work Sample.
5. Satisfactory completion of Internship and Seminar or research component EDG 602.

All degree requirements are to be completed before the student may participate in the commencement ceremonies.

CHILDHOOD SPECIAL EDUCATION - M.S.

The Childhood Special Education curriculum has been designed to meet the academic requirements for obtaining initial and professional teaching certificates in New York State. The program fulfills the provisions and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and the Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Department of Higher Education of the State of New York. Students who complete the program will meet the New York State requirements for teacher certification in special education classrooms grades 1-6. The State of New York certification procedures require that recommended candidates also make personal application for a certificate.

Program Requirements for Initial or Additional Certification

A minimum of 36 or 48 credit hours of graduate-level coursework. Transfer credit from regionally accredited colleges or universities may not exceed 12 credit hours and must be 3.0 or better.

A minimum grade point average in the program of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0.

Satisfactory completion of a written comprehensive exam with the faculty of the Nyack College Graduate Education Department.

Satisfactory demonstration of teaching competencies through the construction of a Teacher Work Sample.

Satisfactory completion of Internship and Seminar or research component EDG 601.

Passing scores (220 or higher) on the Elementary Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), the Students with Disabilities Content Specialty Test (CST), and the Multi-Subject CST.

Program Requirements for Five-Year Program with Dual Certification in Childhood Education (1-6) and Childhood Special Education (1-6)

1. A minimum of 113 credit hours undergraduate-level coursework and 36 credit hours of graduate-level coursework. Transfer credit from regionally accredited colleges or universities may not exceed 12 credit hours and must be 3.0 or better.

2. A minimum grade point average in the program of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0.

3. Passing grades (220+) on all four New York State Certification Examinations (LAST, Elementary ATS-W, Students with Disabilities CST, Multi-Subject CST).

4. Satisfactory completion of a written comprehensive exam with the faculty of the Nyack College Graduate Education Department.

5. Satisfactory demonstration of teaching competencies through the construction of a Teacher Work Sample.

6. Satisfactory completion of Student Teaching and Seminar.

All degree requirements are to be completed before the student may participate in the commencement ceremonies.

Field Experiences

Field experience is required at the level of certification sought prior to student teaching. For a first certification, 100 hours plus an internship are required; for a second certification, 50 hours are required. Candidates in the integrated 5-year program must complete 100 hours of field experience in grades 1-6, an additional 50 hours with special education students in special education classrooms, and student teaching in both special education and general education classrooms.

Assessments

In addition to course-level assessments (units, teacher work samples, papers, exams, etc.) and state certification examinations, three program-level assessments are prerequisites to graduation. 1) Either a research project (in conjunction with EDG 601) or student teaching is required, depending on previous certification or lack thereof. 2) At least one teacher work sample is required of each candidate, which will be produced through both student teaching and the 50-hour practicum. 3) A final comprehensive exam, based on coursework selected during the program, will be administered in the semester prior to graduation.

NOTE: Program plan for B.S./M.S. in Childhood Special Education is subject to change pending graduate schedule.

Some specializations require 18 credits of liberal arts electives as opposed to 15 credits.
INCLUSIVE EDUCATION – M.S.
The Inclusive Education program has been designed to meet the academic requirements for obtaining a professional teaching certificate in New York State. The program fulfills the provisions and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and the Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Department of Higher Education of the State of New York. Students who complete the program with an extension will meet the New York State requirements for either an extension in middle school education (5-6 ext or 7-9 subject area ext), Gifted Education (K-12), or Bilingual Education (in the area of your initial certification) through this program. The State of New York certification procedures require that recommended candidates also make personal application for a certificate extension and/or a professional teaching certificate.

This Master of Science focuses on Inclusive Education, emphasizing meeting the educational needs of all learners. The program and course schedule are offered in a new modular format that expedites program completion.

Program Requirements
A minimum of 36 credit hours of graduate-level coursework. Transfer credit from regionally accredited colleges or universities may not exceed 12 credit hours and must be 3.0 or better.
A minimum grade point average of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0.
Satisfactory completion of a written comprehensive exam with the faculty of the Nyack College Graduate Education Division.
Satisfactory demonstration of teaching competencies through the construction of a Teacher Work Sample.
Satisfactory completion of a research study in inclusive, gifted, bilingual, or middle school education (as part of EDG 600).
All degree requirements are to be completed before the student may participate in commencement ceremonies.

Field Experiences
Field experiences are required for the track leading to the Gifted Education and Bilingual Education certification extensions. If a candidate has no prior field experience at the middle school level, then a 50-hour practicum is required.

Assessments
In addition to course-level assessments (units, teacher work samples, papers, exams, etc.) and state certification examinations, three program-level assessments are prerequisites to graduation. 1) An independent research project is required in conjunction with EDG 600. 2) A Teacher Work Sample is required of each candidate, which will be produced through the practicum experience. 3) A final comprehensive exam, based on coursework selected during the program, will be administered in the semester prior to graduation.

Program Assessment
The following assignments are used to assess program effectiveness.

Mission

The mission of the Undergraduate School of Education at Nyack College is to prepare and equip teacher candidates spiritually, intellectually, and socially to provide ethical, exemplary, equitable instruction to a diverse student population in a variety of cultures, contexts, and communities.

Our conceptual framework guides the curriculum, instruction, structure and assessment for the professional education programs in the School of Education. The framework, based on the SALT acronym representing Service, Academics, Leadership, and Teaching, is comprised of a standards-driven, student-centered, assessment-based, collaborative approach.

Therefore, it becomes the goals of this unit to:

Student Learning Goals

Service
- Equip candidates with a competency in working with diverse student groups by the use of effective teaching methods.
- Instill within the candidates sensitivity to individual and cultural diversity as they work within a variety of contexts and communities and understand the benefits of partnering to improve education.
- Guide candidates to an understanding of the impact of teaching on the greater community and the world.

Academics
- Enable candidates to articulate and apply appropriate competency-based standards and principles addressing teaching, curriculum, assessment, equity, and technology, and to demonstrate the associated ethical dispositions.
- Empower candidates to articulate, demonstrate, and value the interconnectedness of academic standards, dispositions related to academics, and the broad philosophical connections, resulting in well-rounded academic preparedness for the teaching profession.
- Prepare candidates with research-based understandings and skills to create a bridge among educational theory, research, and practice in response to the educational, social and psychological needs of society.

Leadership
- Develop candidates as transformative leaders as they envision and implement a nurturing, stimulating, inclusive, international environment for students, schools and communities. Prepare candidates to effectively communicate with diverse populations in a variety of media and modes, as they voice ethical dispositions regarding issues of justice, access, and equity while employing a filter of a Christian worldview.
- Engage candidates in professional growth activity so they may respond to educational needs of diverse learners, schools and communities with insight, vision and collaborative effort.

Teaching
- Develop candidates who are able to design, implement, and evaluate the appropriateness of instruction and refine practices.
- Prepare candidates willing to work strategically together with professional partners, colleagues and community to facilitate the implementation of collaborative learning environments in professional education and K-12 settings.
- Equip candidates with an understanding of effective ways to utilize appropriate assessment-based approaches for the improvement of student learning and educational practice.
School of Education Electronically Collected Material Policy
In an effort to monitor the quality of the SOE courses and programs, samples of student work will be electronically retained by the SOE on LiveText, an electronic management system or as hard copies. These artifacts may be randomly selected for NCATE or external accreditation review as well. The retention period for these electronic materials is indefinite.

In addition to the student’s work, electronically collected and archived materials may include the following information: Student Name, Course Name, Instructor Name and Course Information. Questions or concerns about this process may be directed to the Dean of the School of Education.
ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION MAJOR (GRADES 7-12) - B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. James Nichols (Dept. Chair), Dr. Dion Harrigan

The School of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The Adolescence Education curriculum is an approved program under the provisions and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and the Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Department of Higher Education of the State of New York. This curriculum leads to recommendation for the initial certificate for teaching (7-12) adolescents in the schools of New York. The State of New York certification procedures require that recommended candidates make personal application for this initial certificate. Nyack College is not required to make recommendation for certification of a candidate not meeting the standards. For example, a grade of B- or better is required in Senior Seminar and both placements of Student Teaching or recommendation for certification will be withheld.

The regulations of the Commissioner of Education stipulate that initial certification will be granted in New York on the basis of passing scores on the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST), the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and the Content Specialties Test (CST). The candidate must take the LAST at least once before the end of the sophomore year and pass the exam prior to admission to methods courses. It is recommended that the candidate take the ATS-W and CST during junior year, as passing scores are required for admission to student teaching. Pass rates for this institution are published in compliance with Title II regulations.

Students who intend to pursue certification in other states should be aware of the requirements for those states. Many states have a reciprocity agreement with New York State and by meeting another state's testing requirements a NYS certificate can be exchanged for a certificate in that state. Students should also be aware that Pennsylvania now requires teachers to have a 3.0 GPA and New Jersey has raised the requirement for GPA to 2.75 for certification. These GPA requirements are above the current minimum GPA requirements for Nyack College so graduation with a degree does not guarantee certification.

The teacher education programs of Nyack College have also been accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) for the preparation of teachers for a ministry in Christian school education. Candidates, upon successful completion of the program of study, will also be awarded an ACSI teaching certificate.

Adolescence Education candidates must complete a minimum of 36 semester hours in an approved major field of study (specialization), a minimum of 18 hours in Education, a minimum of 6 credit hours or competency in the same foreign language, and a supervised student teaching experience. One semester of the senior year is devoted to full-time supervised student teaching in public, private and/or Christian school systems at two different levels.

Admission to the Adolescence Education Program
In addition to the general admission requirements listed in the catalog, admission to the Adolescence Education program requires the following items:

1. Submission of departmental application.
2. Completion of 30 hours of pre-approved independent field experience(s).
3. Satisfactory grade point average (overall GPA of 2.75, 3.0 in Education, and 2.75 in area of specialization). Specifically, a grade of C or better is required in each education course, or the course must be repeated.
4. Passing score on LAST certification exam for NY.
5. Satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
6. Approval by School of Education faculty.
Adolescence Education Major

Applicants will be expected to have satisfactory scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board (generally 920 or more). Applicants wishing to transfer into the program in cases where the SAT scores are insufficient or not readily available will be expected to present a grade point average of not less than 2.50 on a four point scale.

Before admission to the department and to third-year Adolescence Education methods courses, the candidate must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.75, 2.75 in courses of the academic area of specialization, and 3.0 in education courses.

Field Experiences
In addition to 30 hours of independent field experience, candidates engage in field experiences in conjunction with most education courses. The candidate must accumulate a minimum of 100 hours of field experiences beyond the 30 hours of independent field experience.

All field experiences require access to one’s own transportation. The candidate must plan accordingly for this possibility.

Program Assessment
Students in this program are assessed using a variety of instruments, including a competency attainment checklist and a teacher work sample. Student samples will be electronically collected and randomly selected (see School of Education Electronically Collected Material Policy).

In addition to evaluation of content, pedagogical, and professional knowledge and skills, Adolescence Education majors are evaluated on their attitudes and behaviors in class, in field experience, and in relating to peers, faculty, and college/schools staff as indicators of the appropriateness of their dispositions for the education profession. The Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions form will be utilized in five phases:

- Phase I- Introduction to the School of Ed: candidate self-assessment
- Phase II- Exiting EDU246 Foundations of Ed: professor assessment
- Phase III- Application for Admission to the School of Ed: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase IV- Application for Admission to Student Teaching: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase V- Program Completion: faculty assessment by committee

Language Requirements
Education candidates can fulfill their language requirement through one of the following ways:

- 6 credits in the same language.
- Passing grade in an Advanced Placement exam.
- Competency shown through NY State-recognized exam.
- C or better at Elementary level II or one course at the Intermediate level or above.

Admission to Student Teaching (EDS 470, 494, 495)
Candidates enrolled in this curriculum will be required to satisfy the following before registering for student teaching:

1. The candidate must receive a satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
2. The candidate must complete a physical examination, including a Mantoux tuberculin test, within the 6 months prior to student teaching and present a health certificate indicating that he/she is free from physical and health conditions that might be detrimental to teaching.
3. All prerequisites to supervised student teaching must be satisfied, including 100 hours of supervised field experience. A grade of C or better is required in each education course, or the course must be repeated.
4. The candidate must have an overall cumulative grade point average of not less than 2.75, an average of not less than 2.75 in his or her area of specialization and, and an average of not less than 3.0 in education.
5. The candidate must have passing scores on the Liberal Arts & Sciences Test (LAST), the Secondary Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and the Content Specialties Test (CST).
6. The candidate must submit an Application for Admission to Student Teaching and accompanying resume to the Education Office by March 1 Junior year for Fall student teaching or May 1 Junior year for Spring student teaching.

Other issues to consider with regard to student teaching include the following:

The candidate must have access to his/her own means of transportation for the supervised student teaching experience. Transportation and other costs for student teaching are at the candidate's expense.

The department advises extreme caution against engaging in any and all activities that usurp time/attention from the professional preparation of student teaching and Senior Seminar, including additional coursework, employment, and extra-curricular activities (e.g., sports, etc.). Planning ahead is expected in order to avoid the stress and distraction of being overscheduled during this capstone experience, where possible.

CHILDHOOD/EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The School of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The Childhood Education (Grades 1-6) curriculum is an approved program under the provisions and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and the Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Department of Higher Education of the State of New York. The Early Childhood Education (Birth-Grade 2) and Early Childhood-Childhood Education (Birth-Grade 6) curricula lead to recommendation for the initial certificate for teaching in the elementary schools and early childhood facilities of New York. The State of New York certification procedures require that recommended candidates make personal application for this initial certificate. Nyack College is not required to make recommendation for certification of a candidate not meeting the standards. For example, a grade of B- or better is required in Senior Seminar and both placements of Student Teaching or recommendation for certification will be withheld.

The regulations of the Commissioner of Education stipulate that initial certification will be granted in New York on the basis of passing scores on the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST), the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and the Content Specialties Test (CST). The candidate must take the LAST once by the end of the sophomore year and pass the exam prior to admission to methods courses. It is recommended that the candidate take the ATS-W and CST during junior year, as passing scores are required for admission to student teaching. Pass rates for this institution are published in compliance with Title II regulations.

Students who intend to pursue certification in other states should be aware of the requirements for those states. Many states have a reciprocity agreement with New York State and by meeting another state's testing requirements a NYS certificate can be exchanged for a certificate in that state. Students should also be aware that Pennsylvania now requires teachers to have a 3.0 GPA and New Jersey has raised the requirement for GPA to 2.75 for certification. These GPA requirements are above the current minimum GPA requirements for Nyack College so graduation with a degree does not guarantee certification.

Program Assessment

The following assignments are used to assess program effectiveness.

Assessment results are evaluated on an annual basis for program improvement. No individual student is identified in the evaluation of the program data. Results for past years are reported below with percentage of students in each performance category for the Rockland Campus (RC) and Manhattan Campus (MC).
The Childhood Education teacher preparation program of Nyack College has also been accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) for the preparation of teachers for a ministry in Christian school education. Candidates, upon successful completion of the program of study, will also be awarded an ACSI teaching certificate.

One semester of the senior year is devoted to full-time supervised student teaching experience in local public, private, or Christian schools at two different levels.

Admission to the Childhood Education or Early Childhood Education Programs

In addition to the general admission requirements listed in the catalog, admission to the Childhood Education or Early Childhood Education programs requires the following items:

1. Submission of departmental application.
2. Completion of 30 hours of pre-approved independent field experience (It is recommended that candidates complete this requirement immediately following completion of freshman year).
3. Satisfactory grade point average (overall GPA of 2.75, 3.0 in education, and 2.75 in the area of specialization). Specifically, a grade of C or better is required in each education and core related education course, or the course must be repeated.
4. Passing score on LAST certification exam for NY.
5. Satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
6. Approval by School of Education faculty.

Applicants will be expected to have satisfactory scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board (generally 920 or more). Applicants wishing to transfer into the program in cases where the SAT scores are insufficient or not readily available will be expected to present a grade point average of not less than 2.50 on a four-point scale.

Before admission to the department and to third year education methods courses, the candidate must have an overall cumulative grade point average of 2.75, a 3.0 grade point average in education and core related education courses, and a 2.75 in courses of the academic area of specialization.

Field Experiences

In addition to 30 hours of independent field experience, candidates engage in field experiences in conjunction with most education courses. The candidate must accumulate a minimum of 100 hours of field experiences beyond the 30 hours of independent field experience.

All field experiences require access to one’s own transportation. The candidate must plan accordingly for this possibility.
Assessments
Students in this program are assessed using a variety of instruments, including a competency attainment checklist and a teacher work sample. Student samples will be electronically collected and randomly selected (see School of Education Electronically Collected Material Policy).

In addition to evaluation of content, pedagogical, and professional knowledge and skills, Childhood Education majors are evaluated on their attitudes and behaviors in class, in field experience, and in relating to peers, faculty, and college/schools staff as indicators of the appropriateness of their dispositions for the education profession. The Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions form will be utilized in five phases:

- Phase I- Introduction to the School of Ed: candidate self-assessment
- Phase II- Exiting EDU246 Foundations of Ed: professor assessment
- Phase III- Application for Admission to the School of Ed: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase IV- Application for Admission to Student Teaching: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase V- Program Completion: faculty assessment by committee

Language Requirements
Education candidates can fulfill their language requirement through one of the following ways:

1. 6 credits in the same language.
2. Passing grade in an Advanced Placement exam.
3. Competency shown through NY State-recognized exam.
4. C or better at Elementary level II or one course at the Intermediate level or above.

Admission to Student Teaching
Candidates enrolled in this curriculum will be required to satisfy the following before registering for student teaching:

1. The candidate must receive satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
2. The candidate must complete a physical examination, including a Mantoux tuberculin test, within the 6 months prior to student teaching and present a health certificate indicating that he/she is free from physical and health conditions that might be detrimental to teaching.
3. All prerequisites must be satisfied. A grade of C or better is required in each education course, or the course must be repeated.
4. The candidate must have an overall cumulative grade point average of not less than 2.75, an average of not less than 3.0 in all education and core related education courses, and an average of not less than 2.75 in courses in the academic area of specialization.
5. The candidate must have passing scores on the Liberal Arts & Sciences Test (LAST), the Elementary Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and the Multi-Subject Content Specialty Test (CST).
6. The candidate must submit an Application for Admission to Student Teaching and accompanying resume to the Education Office by March 1 Junior year for Fall student teaching or May 1 junior year for Spring student teaching.

Other issues to consider with regard to student teaching include the following:

The candidate must have access to his/her own means of transportation for the supervised student teaching experience. Transportation and other costs for student teaching are at the candidate's expense.

The department advises extreme caution against engaging in any and all activities that usurp time/attention from the professional preparation of student teaching and Senior Seminar, including additional coursework, employment, and extra-curricular activities (e.g., sports, etc.). Planning ahead is expected in order to avoid the stress and distraction of being overscheduled during this capstone experience, where possible.

Core Related Education Courses
The minimum pass grade for the following courses will be C to graduate; each course with an earned grade below C must be repeated. In addition, these courses will be included in the calculation of the Education GPA.

- BIO 217-Survey of the Life Sciences
- MAT 211-Math for the Elementary School Teacher
Childhood/Early Childhood Education Program

- FNA 240-Fine Arts in the Elementary Classroom
- PED 211-Physical Education for Educators

TESOL MAJOR - B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Frank Tuzi

This program is nationally recognized by Teachers of English to speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

The School of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) curriculum is an approved program under the provison and regulations of the Commissioner of Education and the Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Department of Higher Education in the State of New York. The TESOL program leads to provisional certification for teaching English to speakers of other languages in the pre-kindergarten, elementary, and secondary grades (PreK-12). The State of New York certification procedures require that recommended candidates make personal application for this provisional certificate. Nyack College is not required to make recommendation for certification of a student not meeting the standards. For example, a grade of B- or better is required in Senior Seminar and both placements of Student Teaching or recommendation for certification will be withheld.

The regulations of the Commissioner of Education stipulate that provisional certification will be granted in New York on the basis of passing grades on the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST), the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and the Content Specialties Test (CST). The candidate must take the LAST once by the end of the sophomore year and pass the LAST prior to admission to methods courses. It is recommended that the candidate take the ATS-W and CST during junior year, as passing scores are required for admission to student teaching. Pass rates for this institution are published in compliance with Title II regulations.

Students who intend to pursue certification in other states should be aware of the requirements for those states. Many states have a reciprocity agreement with New York State and by meeting another state's testing requirements a NYS certificate can be exchanged for a certificate in that state. Students should also be aware that Pennsylvania now requires teachers to have a 3.0 GPA and New Jersey has raised the requirement for GPA to 2.75 for certification. These GPA requirements are above the current minimum GPA requirements for Nyack College so graduation with a degree does not guarantee certification.

Program Assessment
The following assignments are used to assess program effectiveness.

Assessment results are evaluated on an annual basis for program improvement. No individual student is identified in the evaluation of the program data. Results for past years are reported below with percentage of students in each performance category.
TESOL candidates must complete 30 hours concentration in linguistics and English; 12 credit hours or competency of the same foreign language; and a supervised student teaching experience. One semester of the senior year is devoted to full-time supervised student teaching in public, private, and/or Christian school systems at two different levels. Students desiring training in TESOL, but who do not desire going through the state certification process may consider the alternative program: Cross Cultural Studies major with Institutional TESOL certificate. This program equips students for teaching English overseas.

Admission to the TESOL Program
In addition to the general admission requirements listed in the catalog, admission to the TESOL program requires the following items when applicable:

1. Submission of departmental application.
2. Completion of 30 hrs of pre-approved independent field experience(s).
3. Satisfactory grade point average (overall GPA 2.5; 2.75 in English, anthropology, and language, and 3.0 in Education). Specifically, a grade of C or better is required in each education course (including FNA 240 and Mat 211), or the course must be repeated.
4. Passing score on LAST certification exam for NY.
5. Satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
6. Approval by School of Education faculty.

Applicants will be expected to have satisfactory scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board (generally 920 or more). Applicants wishing to transfer into the program in cases where the SAT scores are insufficient or not readily available will be expected to present a grade point average of not less than 2.50 on a four-point scale. In addition, all applicants must have proficiency in both written and oral English.

Field Experiences
In addition to 30 hours of independent field experience, candidates engage in field experiences in conjunction with most education courses. The candidate must accumulate a minimum of 100 hours of field experiences beyond the 30 hours of independent field experience.

All field experiences require access to one’s own transportation. The candidate must plan accordingly for this possibility.

Assessments
Students in this program are assessed using a variety of instruments, including a competency attainment checklist and a teacher work sample. Students samples will be electronically collected and randomly selected (see School of Education Electronically Collected Material Policy).
TESOL Major

In addition to evaluation of content, pedagogical, and professional knowledge and skills, TESOL majors are evaluated on their attitudes and behaviors in class, in field experience, and in relating to peers, faculty, and college/schools staff as indicators of the appropriateness of their dispositions for the education profession. The Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions form will be utilized in five phases:

- Phase I- Introduction to the School of Ed: candidate self-assessment
- Phase II- Exiting EDU246 Foundations of Ed: professor assessment
- Phase III- Application for Admission to the School of Ed: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase IV- Application for Admission to Student Teaching: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase V- Program Completion: faculty assessment by committee

Language Requirements
Education candidates can fulfill their language requirement through one of the following ways:

- 12 credits in the same language.
- Passing grade in an Advanced Placement exam.
- Competency shown through NY State-recognized exam.
- 6 credits at the Intermediate level or 3 credit hours above.

Admission to Supervised Student Teaching
Candidates enrolled in this curriculum will be required to satisfy the following before registering for supervised student teaching:

1. The candidate must receive satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
2. The candidate must complete a physical examination and tuberculosis test within the 6 months prior to student teaching and present a health certificate indicating that he/she is free from physical and health conditions that might be detrimental to teaching.
3. All prerequisites to supervised student teaching must be satisfied. A grade of C or better is required in each education course, or the course must be repeated.
4. The candidate must have an overall cumulative grade point average of not less than 2.50, an average of not less than 3.0 in education classes, and not less than 2.75 in English, anthropology, and language.
5. The candidate must have passing scores on the Liberal Arts & Sciences Test (LAST), Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and Content Specialty Test (CST).
6. The candidate must submit an Application for Admission to Student Teaching and accompanying resume to the Education Office by March 1 junior year for Fall student teaching or May 1 junior year for Spring student teaching.

Other issues to consider with regard to student teaching include the following:

- The candidate must have access to his/her own means of transportation for the supervised student teaching experience. Transportation and other costs for student teaching are at the candidate's expense.
- The department advises extreme caution against engaging in any and all activities that usurp time/attention from the professional preparation of student teaching and Senior Seminar, including additional coursework, employment, and extra-curricular activities (e.g., sports, etc.). Planning ahead is expected in order to avoid the stress and distraction of being overscheduled during this capstone experience, where possible.

126 credit hours, distributed as follows, are required for the Bachelor of Science degree:

School of Music

Nyack College (Rockland campus) is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

MUSIC PROGRAMS

The School of Music provides professional training for qualified students enrolled in the following degree programs:

- Bachelor of Sacred Music
- Bachelor of Music in Composition
- Bachelor of Music in Performance
- Bachelor of Arts in Music
- Bachelor of Music in Music Education

All curricula stress sound musicianship, active musical experience, knowledge of theoretical and practical issues in the field of specialization, acquaintance with the professional literature, secular and sacred, and responsible participation in all phases of instruction.

Mission

The School of Music, in its various degree programs, is committed to excellence in personal, musical, and spiritual development, in an atmosphere which fosters creativity, dedication, energy and vision.

Goals and Objectives

The goals and objectives of the School of Music are determined primarily by the mission, and core values of Nyack College. They are further shaped by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) standards for accreditation and the desire to serve The Christian & Missionary Alliance.

Graduates will have prepared for careers as performers, ministers of music, organists, choir directors, composers, teachers of music in public and private elementary and secondary schools, and various music-related careers (music recording, publishing, music business, etc.). Graduates are also qualified for advanced studies in graduate schools.

Student Learning Goals

To graduate students who have acquired and developed the foundational academic skills of reading carefully and critically, communicating clearly and cogently, and thinking analytically and synthetically.

- By designing into music courses a cognitive approach to the language and syntax of harmony, form, and the structure of music.
- By designing into the music history sequence a comprehensive overview of western music and related religious, philosophical, political, scientific, and social developments.
- By designing into music literature courses the appreciation and understanding of non-Western music and music of the church, including research components and the analysis of contemporary phenomena in these areas.
- By fostering the aural development, kinesthetic processes, and aesthetic sensitivities which form the basis of professional caliber musicianship.

To graduate students who have achieved a broad understanding of human learning.

- By fostering in our students the skills and motivation for life-long learning and participation in music.
- By encouraging all students to value the creativity of the human spirit and the aesthetic dimension of life.
- By promoting involvement in campus life through participation in aesthetic and cultural activities.

To graduate students who have achieved an in-depth understanding of one particular field of study by meeting the requirements of at least one major
School of Music

By training our students to acquire the theoretical and practical skills required by music educators, church musicians, performers and composers. By fostering a broad knowledge of music literature, both sacred and secular, through study and performance. By employing a competency-based approach for course design and requirements throughout the program while encouraging artistic creativity. By cultivating career programs and awareness in the various music and music-related fields. By utilizing the cultural resources of various metropolitan New York area institutions.

To graduate students who have achieved a basic Christian worldview understanding which can serve as a basis for interpreting experience By providing experiences in Christian ministry involving music in the Christian and Missionary Alliance and other churches. By promoting a sense of Christian love and caring throughout the endeavors of the School of Music. By building the self-esteem of the individual through musical achievement in the Christian context. By fostering a respect for diverse forms of music, worship, and culture.

To strengthen a sense of civic responsibility to the community By promoting in our students an appreciation for the opportunities and responsibilities which exist in a democratic society concerning the arts. By encouraging involvement in civic affairs through music and the allied arts.

Program Assessment
Courses in music theory and ear training, music history and literature, and instruction and experience in performance are required of all music majors beginning in the freshmen year and provide the foundation for advanced music study. The School of Music continually assesses student achievement in these areas through classes, private lessons, rehearsals, recitals, and concerts. In addition, a formal assessment is conducted at the end of each school year to identify areas of strength as well as areas of deficiency which would benefit from changes in the program. The following assessments are used to assess music program effectiveness.

Admission to Program
All freshmen and transfer students are admitted to the music degree programs on the basis of audition, teacher recommendation, and written essay. Prospective students for the B.M. and B.S.M. degree programs should perform at least two compositions in addition to technical exercises, scales, arpeggios, and sight-reading. B.A. in Music majors may perform a selection of choice commensurate with their background, ability, and interests. The audition is generally scheduled following the student’s acceptance by the college. Prospective music majors may, upon request, audition for the music faculty prior to submitting an application for admission to the college. Prospective students who reside within a 200-mile radius of the college are expected to audition in person. Prospective students living outside a 200-mile radius may submit a recorded audio or video audition for review by the faculty, along with a letter explaining the contents of the recording and the conditions under which it was recorded. Applicants should consult the Recommended Repertoire section found in the Music Handbook for further audition guidelines. Transfer students should follow the repertoire suggestions for the appropriate year.

Advanced Placement
Placement tests in music theory, ear training, sight singing, and dictation are given to all new music majors during Freshman Orientation. For students who display competence in these areas, the first year courses may be waived. Credits for music courses waived by exam or audition must be replaced by music elective credits.

Nyack College also accepts Advanced Placement (AP) music credits earned during high school. Contact the School of Music for more information.

Applied Music Requirements for Music Majors
All music majors (except students in the B.A. in Music) are required to satisfy a certain level of performance in addition to the completion of the minimum number of credits in applied music. Occasionally this may require taking additional credits of applied music to achieve the graduation standard.

Students enrolled in the Performance, Music Education, and Sacred Music degree programs are required to fulfill applied major requirements. Applied minor study is recommended and optional.

Composition majors are required to fulfill the second year level in their applied major. Instrumental and Piano Performance majors must also complete the Concerto requirement (MUS 476) as described in the Music Handbook.

Performance majors will present a Junior Recital in their third year, one-half hour of music, and a Senior Recital in the fourth year, one hour of music. Students enrolled in Music Education and Sacred Music are required to present a Senior Recital of one-half hour in length prior to graduation.

Piano Proficiency
All music majors not majoring or minoring in piano or Functional Piano are required to demonstrate Piano Proficiency (MUS 477) by audition or jury exam as described in the Music Handbook. (B.A. in Music majors are exempt from this requirement.)

Jury Examinations
Students will perform before the music jury each semester in their applied major area, Functional Piano, Piano Proficiency and in an optional applied minor when applicable. The purpose of the jury is to determine whether significant progress has been achieved or if the required level of competence has been attained to satisfy the degree requirement for graduation. The faculty will use the student’s initial applied minor jury to approve the minor. Piano and voice juries are to be performed by memory, however piano minor juries do not require memorization.
Students preparing junior or senior recitals will perform Recital Juries approximately four weeks before the recital, and are exempt from regular semester juries. Details about juries and recitals are in the Music Handbook.

Accompanying Requirement
A minimum of two semesters of accompanying experience in instrumental and voice studios and student recitals is required of all piano majors. Students are encouraged to receive coaching from their private piano instructor.

Ensemble Requirements
Music majors are required to participate in at least one musical organization each semester they are enrolled full-time in the program. Voice majors are required to participate in a choral organization and instrumental majors in an instrumental organization. Keyboard majors may select either a choral or instrumental organization. Students may register for zero or one credit. (Chamber music is not considered to be a musical organization.)

Ensemble Requirements for Orchestral Instrumental Majors
- First Year: Membership in one of Nyack College’s instrumental ensembles in a second or third desk position.
- Second Year: Membership in one of the college’s instrumental ensembles, and capability of filling a second desk position in works of medium difficulty.
- Third Year: Membership in one of the college’s instrumental ensembles with sufficient ability to fill a first desk position.
- Fourth Year: Membership in one of the college’s instrumental ensembles, and sufficient experience and technique to hold a first or second desk in a professional instrumental ensemble. The candidate for graduation should have covered the standard literature of the various instrumental media, from chamber to symphony, and demonstrate proficiency to appear as soloist with a symphony orchestra.

Course Rotations
The following music courses may be offered in alternate years and must be taken when offered:
- Music History courses:
  - MUS 213 (W. Music to 1700) alternates with MUS 319 (Music/19th c.)
  - MUS 214 (Music of the 18th c.) alternates with MUS 320 (Music/20th c.)

COMPOSITION MAJOR - MUS.B.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Marie Kenote, Dr. Glenn Koponen, Dr. Tammy Lum
Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Elizabeth Swanson, Dr. Sue Talley, Dr. Dana Talley, Dr. Lars Frandsen

This degree program is designed to prepare qualified students for careers in the fields of composition and arranging, as well as graduate study in these fields.

Applied requirements for Composition majors include a major area of performance at the second year level. Students not majoring in piano are required to demonstrate Piano Proficiency (MUS 477) by audition or jury exam as described in the Music Handbook. In addition, each student will present a senior recital (one hour in length) of original compositions organized, conducted, or performed by the student.

120 credit hours, distributed as follows, are required for the Bachelor of Music degree in Composition:

Music Major

MUSIC MAJOR - B.A.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Joel Jameson, Dr. Marie Kenote, Dr. Glenn Koponen, Dr. Tammy Lum

Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Lars Frandsen, Dr. Elizabeth Swanson, Dr. Dana Talley, Dr. Sue Lane Talley

The B.A. in Music program affords students the opportunity to study music primarily from a liberal arts perspective. It provides a strong foundation in music literature and history, theory and ear training, and consistent studies in performance areas, both individual and ensemble. This program is designed to serve students having solid intellectual interests and a commitment to aesthetic and artistic values. Students may also pursue significant studies in other liberal arts areas such as English, Psychology, Philosophy, Religion, or History.

Depending upon the secondary areas of concentration, graduates of this program are prepared for careers in music-related fields, such as church music ministries, music business, management, marketing, public relations, recording, radio and television, music theater, and communications. Students may also pursue graduate studies in musicology, music education, and other music-related fields.

An audition is required to enter the B.A. in Music program.

120 credit hours, distributed as follows, are required for the Bachelor of Arts degree in Music:

MUSIC EDUCATION MAJOR - MUS.B.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Glenn Koponen, Joan Mallory
Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Elizabeth Swanson, Dr. Sue Talley, Dr. Dana Talley

Nyack College (Rockland campus) is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

The School of Education is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). The Music Education major is designed for the training of teachers in elementary and secondary school music in accordance with the requirements of the Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Department of Higher Education of the State of New York. In New York, permanent certification for teaching in the public schools is open only to those holding a master's degree and having two years teaching experience; this curriculum, therefore, leads to recommendation for the provisional certificate for teaching (K-12) in the elementary, middle, and high schools of New York. The State of New York certification procedures require that recommended candidates make personal application for this initial certificate. Nyack College is not required to make recommendation for certification of a candidate not meeting the standards. For example, a grade of B- or better is required in Senior Seminar and both placements of Student Teaching or recommendation for certification will be withheld.

The regulations of the Commissioner of Education stipulate that initial certification will be granted in New York on the basis of passing scores on the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST), the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and the Content Specialties Test (CST). The candidate must take the LAST at least once before the end of the sophomore year and pass the exam prior to admission to methods courses. It is recommended that the candidate take the ATS-W and CST during junior year, as passing scores are required for admission to student teaching. Pass rates for this institution are published in compliance with Title II regulations.

Students who intend to pursue certification in other states should be aware of the requirements for those states. Many states have a reciprocity agreement with New York State and by meeting another state's testing requirements a NYS certificate can be exchanged for a certificate in that state. Students should also be aware that Pennsylvania now requires teachers to have a 3.0 GPA and New Jersey has raised the requirement for GPA to 2.75 for certification. These GPA requirements are above the current minimum GPA requirements for Nyack College so graduation with a degree does not guarantee certification.

Program Assessment
The following assignments are used to assess program effectiveness.

Graduates are also qualified to direct music in churches and to teach music on the mission field in schools for children of missionaries and government officials. The teacher education program of Nyack College has been accredited by the Certification Commission of the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) for the preparation of teachers for a ministry in Christian school education. Candidates, upon successful completion of the program of study, will also be awarded an ACSI teaching certificate.

Admission to the Music Education Methods (EDM 441, 444)

In addition to the general admission requirements listed in the catalog, admission to the Music Education program requires the following items:

1. Submission of departmental application.
2. Completion of 30 hrs of pre-approved independent field experience(s).
3. Satisfactory grade point average (overall GPA of 2.5, 2.75 in music courses, and 2.75 in education courses). Specifically, a grade of C or better is required in each education course, or the course must be repeated.
4. Passing score on LAST certification exam for NY.
5. Satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
6. Approval by School of Education faculty.

The focus of this course of study is the development of well-rounded and effective teachers. The inclusion of Bible courses makes an ideal program for one who wishes to serve both the community and church interests.

In addition to the general admission requirements listed in the Nyack College catalog, applicants will be expected to have satisfactory scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board (generally 920 or more). Applicants wishing to transfer into the program in cases where the SAT scores are insufficient or not readily available will be expected to present a grade point average of not less than 2.5 on a four-point scale.

Disposition Requirements

In addition to evaluation of content, pedagogical, and professional knowledge and skills, Music Education majors are evaluated on their attitudes and behaviors in class, in field experience, and in relating to peers, faculty, and college/schools staff as indicators of the appropriateness of their dispositions for the education profession. The Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions form will be utilized in five phases:

- Phase I- Introduction to the School of Ed: candidate self-assessment
- Phase II- Exiting EDU246 Foundations of Ed: professor assessment
- Phase III- Application for Admission to the School of Ed: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase IV- Application for Admission to Student Teaching: faculty assessment by committee
- Phase V- Program Completion: faculty assessment by committee
Music Education Major

Applied Requirements
Students majoring in Music Education will select a major applied area by audition. Applied minors are optional. For graduation, proficiency in the applied major should be at the third year level in the Music Student Handbook. Proficiency in the optional applied minor should be equivalent to the first year level. Functional piano skills are required of all Music Education majors. Vocal and instrumental Music Education majors normally take the four-semester Functional Piano sequence unless waived by exam. For piano majors, a specially designed one-semester Advanced Functional Piano Course (MUS 301) is required.

Field Experiences
All music education candidates are required to complete 135 hours of supervised observations prior to beginning their student teaching experience. Part of these observations will be done in conjunction with EDU 246, EDU 258, and 259. Methods courses will provide 70 hours of observation in elementary, middle, and high school classrooms. The candidates will also be required to complete 30 hours of pre-approved, independent field experience prior to methods courses. All field experiences require access to one's own transportation.

Admission to Supervised Student Teaching
Candidates enrolled in this curriculum will be required to satisfy the following before registering for student teaching:

1. Candidates must receive satisfactory faculty review of professional attitudes and behaviors on the Undergraduate Assessment of Dispositions.
2. Candidates must present a health certificate, including the results of a Mantoux tuberculin test, within 6 months prior to student teaching indicating that they are free from physical and health conditions which might be detrimental to teaching.
3. All course requirements except EDM 470, 493, 495, and MUS 352 must be satisfied prior to student teaching. A grade of C or better is required in each education course, or the course must be repeated.
4. Candidates must have a cumulative grade point average of not less than 2.5, not less than 3.0 in all of their Education courses, and not less than 2.75 in all of their Music courses.
5. Candidates must have the ability to sing in tune with tone quality worthy of imitation and sufficient command of the voice to teach rote songs effectively in the elementary classroom. In order to appraise the vocal quality of candidates not majoring or minoring in voice, a recommendation will be made by the Fundamentals of Singing instructor. Candidates must also pass vocal proficiency in EDM 441.
6. The candidate must have passing scores on the Liberal Arts & Sciences Test (LAST), the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W), and the Music Content Specialty Test (CST).
7. The candidate must submit an Application for Admission to Student Teaching and accompanying resume to the Education Office by March 1 junior year for Fall student teaching or May 1 junior year for Spring student teaching.

Other issues to consider with regard to Student Teaching include the following:

The candidate must have access to his/her own means of transportation for the supervised student teaching experience. Transportation and other costs for student teaching are at the candidate's expense.

The department advises extreme caution against engaging in any and all activities that usurp time/attention from the professional preparation of student teaching and Senior Seminar, including additional coursework, employment, and extra-curricular activities (e.g., sports, etc.). Planning ahead is expected in order to avoid the stress and distraction of being overscheduled during this capstone experience, where possible.

* Functional piano courses MUS 101, 102, 201, 202 are required of all non-keyboard majors unless waived by exam. Keyboard majors are required to take MUS 301-Advanced Functional Piano (1 credit) and add 3 music elective credits to their program. Non-keyboard majors who test out of any semester of Functional Piano will replace it with 1 music elective credit for each semester.

* Music organizations may be taken for 0 or 1 credit.
Music Education Major

"These courses are offered in alternate years and must be taken when offered. MUS 103 – Fundamentals of Singing, is not required for Music Education voice majors. The credit is to be replaced with one music elective credit."
PIANO PERFORMANCE MAJOR - MUS.B.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: Dr. Tammy Lum
Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Sue Talley

The experiences in this degree program are designed to prepare qualified students for graduate study and professional pursuits in these fields.

Applied requirements for piano performance majors include their major area of performance. Applied minor areas are optional, and for graduation, proficiency in the applied minor level shall be at the first year level (see Recommended Repertoire found in departmental handbook).

126 credit hours, distributed as follows, are required for the Bachelor of Music degree in Piano Performance:

Sacred Music Major

SACRED MUSIC MAJOR - S.M.B.

Primary Faculty, NYC: Dr. Lars Frandsen Dr. Elizabeth Swanson, Dr. Sue Talley, Dr. Dana Talley

The Sacred Music major is designed to train musicians for leadership positions in the church as ministers of music, organists, and choir directors. The course of study includes two years of approved fieldwork in church music under the supervision of a faculty member.

Applied requirements for Sacred Music majors include a major area of performance. Applied minor areas are optional, and for graduation, proficiency in the applied minor shall be at the first year level (see Recommended Repertoire found in departmental handbook). Students not majoring or minoring in piano or organ are required to demonstrate Piano Proficiency (MUS 477) by audition or jury exam as described in the Music Handbook.

120 credit hours, distributed as follows, are required for the Bachelor of Sacred Music degree:

School of Business & Leadership

School of Business and Leadership
Dr. Anita Underwood, Dean

The School of Business and Leadership is committed to developing thought leaders with an entrepreneurial spirit through an interdisciplinary curriculum that is grounded in five core values: Social Relevance, Academic Excellence, Global Engagement, Intentional Diversity, and Personal Transformation.

Through our undergraduate and graduate programs, SBL seeks to foster learning environments that prepare students for a career of service and leadership that enables them to positively transform organizations, individuals and society.

Our pedagogical approach focuses on an action-based learning model that integrates theory, research and application to real world issues.

Our academically rigorous curriculum is taught by highly qualified faculty who bring a mixture of scholarship, and applied experience in business, faith-based and non-profit organizations.

The School of Business and Leadership consists of four academic programs; A.S./B.S. in Business Administration or Accounting, Organizational Management (OM - adult degree program), Master in Business Administration (M.B.A.), and Master of Science in Organizational Leadership (MSOL).

Undergraduate Student Learning Goals
The Business School learning goals are categorized within the framework of the Nyack College core values. Through an academically rigorous curriculum the Business School seeks to fulfill the following goals for its students.

Academically Excellent: Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of business and accounting theories, principles, terms, concepts, and practice.
Globally Engaged: Articulate a global awareness of business ventures and communities.
Intentionally Diverse: Motivate students to productively and effectively communicate diverse perspectives both in writing and orally.
Personally Transforming: Integrate professional principles within a Christian Worldview to encourage intellectual and spiritual growth.
Socially Relevant: Use theoretical frameworks to understand the major functional areas of business and apply critical thinking skills within the context of professional practice.

Program Assessment

Master of Business Administration

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION - M.B.A.

Primary Faculty: Dr. Gerard Becker (MBA Director), Dr. Jesse Stevens, Prof. James Muckell

Mission Statement
The Master of Business Administration program at Nyack College is committed to providing students with an academic curriculum that focuses on an action based learning model that integrates theory, research and application to real world issues. Through the courses, the MBA program seeks to foster learning environments that stimulates entrepreneurial thinking and enables students to utilize their knowledge to create and launch innovative business ventures.

MBA Program Structure
The Master of Business Administration is a graduate studies program that is offered in two locations: Nyack, NY and New York City, NY. The 16-month program is comprised of 12 courses, 3 research seminars, and an Entrepreneurial Project (EP). To maximize student learning and the quality of the student-faculty exchange, students are divided into small cohort groups and remain together throughout the MBA program. Students enrolled in NYC take classes on two 4-hour weekday evenings. Students enrolled at the Nyack campus take classes on Saturdays for an 8-hour period. Students enrolled in the NYC cohorts must meet a New York state residency requirement by enrolling in the 3-credit “Business Research Methods” class (BUS 604) on the Nyack campus on Saturdays.

Entrepreneurial Project (EP)
The Nyack College Graduate School of Business and Leadership Entrepreneurial Project is the culmination of the Masters of Business Administration program/degree and is associated with three (3) credits. Initially, a research/project proposal will be submitted for review, approval and IRB review (if required/applicable). Once the proposal is approved, the project is based on the learnings throughout the program and is based on either a new entrepreneurial venture (a formal business plan) or a proposed major change recommendation for or within an existing organization (fully supported organizational change proposal). It is expected that the entrepreneurial project will be presented in a manner that exhibits requisite disciplines in scholarly research, as well as foundational expertise with fundamental business disciplines including, but not limited to, leadership, finance, marketing, critical thinking, operations and change management. The format and details for the EP requirements are distributed by the MBA Director.

Program Requirements for Graduation

1. A total of 42 credits with a minimum GPA of 3.0
2. Successful completion of a written EP that meets the requirement of MBA and APA publication guidelines. The final version must be professionally edited to ensure compliance with APA guidelines, and submitted to and approved by the MBA lead professor and MBA Director by March 1 to graduate in May.
3. Successful completion of a scheduled oral EP defense with a grade of B or above.
4. All tuition and fees paid in full.

All of the above requirements must be completed six weeks prior to the graduation date.

Students who do not meet the requirements for graduation after being enrolled in the 16-month MBA program have up to two (2) terms (equal to approximately eight (8) months) to complete any unfinished course work or EP requirements. Students working on their EP will be registered for BUS 798 (EP Continuation) for the duration of time needed. These extensions are available at no credit, but at full tuition equal to one credit hour. If all academic requirements are not completed following the additional two term extensions, students wishing to continue must apply for re-admission, re-take classes as necessary to meet current degree requirements at time of re-admission and pay the applicable tuition costs. (Unless a leave of absence has been approved)

Offer a holistic approach to leadership, through an integration of Christian and spiritual practices with theories and research on leadership

MSOL PROGRAM STRUCTURE
The Master of Science in Organizational Leadership is a graduate studies program offered through the School of Business and Leadership. It is offered in three locations: Nyack, NY; New York City, NY; and Washington, D.C. The 12-month program is comprised of 10 courses, 3 thesis seminar classes, and an action research thesis. To maximize student learning and the quality of the student faculty exchange, students are divided into small cohort groups and remain together throughout the MSOL program. Students enrolled in NYC or DC take classes on two 4-hour weekday evenings. Student enrolled at the Nyack campus take classes on Saturdays for an 8-hour period. Students enrolled in the NYC cohorts must meet a New York state residency requirement by enrolling in the 3-credit “Principles of Research Methods” class (LDG 660) on the Nyack campus on Saturdays.

Each cohort has a lead instructor who serves as the student's academic and thesis advisor.
Master of Science in Organizational Leadership

Thesis
The thesis is a major independent action research study that is required for completion of the degree. This research project is designed to provide students with an opportunity to identify a leadership need within an organization, which could benefit from positive organizational change. The academic advisor for the thesis is the cohort Lead Faculty member. This individual is the student's primary contact and advisor throughout the entire thesis process. The student's cohort Lead Faculty assigns all feedback and grades.

The thesis is considered an essential component of the MSOL program that helps the student:
- Integrate and apply theoretical knowledge and skills acquired through the course work.
- Integrate theory and practice.
- Understand the policy regarding protection of human subjects in conducting research.
- Develop skills in recognizing, stating and solving problems objectively and systematically.
- Enhance the ability to read and evaluate research articles from scholarly journals.
- Understand the value of database change management strategies.
- Improve skills in evaluating proposals for change as well as their subsequent outcomes.
- Refine oral and written presentation techniques.
- Enhance critical thinking skills.

Finally, the thesis is intended to create a positive change in the organization for which it is designed. The format and details for the thesis requirements are distributed by the MSOL Lead Faculty.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION
A total of 33 credits with a minimum GPA of 3.0.
Successful completion of a written thesis that meets the requirements of MSOL and APA publication guidelines. The final version must be professionally edited to ensure compliance with APA guidelines, and submitted to and approved by the MSOL lead professor.
Successful completion of a scheduled oral thesis defense with a grade of B or above.
All tuition and fees paid in full.

All of the requirements must be completed six weeks prior to the graduation date.

Students who do not meet the requirements for graduation after being enrolled in the 52-week MSOL program have up to one (1) additional year to complete any unfinished course work or thesis requirements. Students working on their thesis must register for LDG 798 (Thesis Continuation) for the duration of time needed. ACCOUNTING MAJOR – B.S.

Primary Faculty, Rockland: James Muckell

Mission
Under the mission of Nyack College, the Accounting Department exists to develop creative leaders centered on biblical values for global practice. Educational programs will be entrepreneurial in spirit, ethical in focus, and global in orientation. The School of Business seeks to be a transformative influence that impacts local, national, and global communities, affirming a higher purpose for business and communication and seeking balance between individual profit and the collective good of society.

Student Learning Goals
The Business School learning goals are categorized within the framework of the Nyack College core values. Through an academically rigorous curriculum the Business School seeks to fulfill the following goals for its student.

Academically Excellent: Demonstrate a through knowledge of accounting theories, principles, terms, concepts, and practice.
Globally Engaged: Articulate a global awareness of accounting as it impacts global business ventures and communities.
Intentionally Diverse: Motivate students to productively and effectively communicate diverse perspectives both in writing and orally.
Personally Transforming: Integrate professional principles within a Christian Worldview to encourage growth intellectually and spiritually.
Socially Relevant: Use theoretical frameworks to understand the major functional areas of accounting and apply critical thinking skills within the context of professional accounting practice.

The Accounting major is designed to train future Christian business leaders as they become the financial managers, public accountants, and tax practitioners of tomorrow. Today’s complex business environment requires highly competent, well-trained management. It is this training, coupled with the strong Bible-based ethical foundation received at Nyack College, that will uniquely qualify our students to fill key roles in the business world of the coming millennium. By modeling exemplary behavior, our students will make a strong, positive impact for Jesus Christ on the business community and on the investing/consuming public at large. The focus of the curriculum is to prepare the student to complete successfully the examination to become a Certified Public Accountant. The curriculum, however, is broad enough to enable students interested in careers in other areas of accounting (for example, general accounting, tax preparation and consulting, cost accounting, internal auditing) to gain the knowledge required to enter these areas.

Nyack offers a graduate program that allows students with a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration or Accounting the possibility of pursuing an M.B.A. with an additional year of study. This program gives students desiring the designation of Certified Public Accountant the opportunity to acquire the 150 credit hours that most states now require for licensure.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJOR – A.S.

The Business Administration major is a two-year program designed to provide intuitive, analytical, communications, and ethical skills that will provide a firm foundation for employment in the field of business or as a strong foundation for further studies in business or economics. This program is available at both the Rockland and New York City Campuses.

The A.S. degree may be of particular interest to those people already employed in the work force who desire both to complement and strengthen their business skills. The 63 credit hours also provide a smooth transition for adult students who are interested in the Nyack College Organizational Leadership Program. The Business Administration A.S. may also appeal to students who want a credible but significantly shortened preparation for vocational employment.

60 credit hours, distributed as follows, are required for the Associate in Science degree:

ORGANIZATIONAL MANAGEMENT – B.S. and B.P.S.

Primary Faculty, New York State: Dr. Claire Henry, Julie Hood-Baldomir (Dept. Chair), Dr. Douglas LePelley, Dr. Elena Murphy

Primary Faculty, Washington, D.C.: Dr. Patricia Johnson

Mission
The Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management is an upper division degree program. Through a cohort-based model of learning, the program prepares students to create positive change both organizationally and individually, through developing their ability to assess organizations and utilize innovative and strategic solutions to help organizations achieve extraordinary results.

Student Learning Goals
The OM Student Learning Goals are categorized within the framework of the Nyack College core values. Through an academically rigorous interdisciplinary curriculum, adult students in the Organizational Management program will be able to:

Academically Excellent: Demonstrate foundational skills in the use of technology and research as it relates to scholarship.
Demonstrate effective written and oral communication skills that value individuals and promotes positive organizational change.

Globally Engaged: Demonstrate an understanding of the interdependence and interconnectedness of organizations within the global community as well as utilize effective methods of communicating, managing, and leading within multi-national organizations.

Intentionally Diverse: Demonstrate the ability to utilize diverse perspectives as a means to solving problems and initiating change within an organizational context.

Personally Transforming: Develop processes in which to assess and promote personal growth, development, life-long learning and successful personal and professional relationships.

Socially Relevant: Demonstrate the ability to identify ethical problems, make well-justified ethical decisions, and promote development of an ethical culture within an organizational context. Understand the process of how to bring about positive change and growth within organizations.

Program Assessment
The following assessments are used to assess program effectiveness.

Nyack College Policy for Prior Learning - Organizational Management Program

- Allows adult students enrolled in OMP to obtain college credit for post-secondary prior learning experience that occurs outside of the college classroom.
- Accepts college-equivalent credits from agencies such as American Council of Education (ACE) and National Program on Non-collegiate Sponsored Instruction (PONSI). ACE and PONSI were created to ensure that employment training programs that are evaluated for college-equivalent credits meet a certain standard.
- Accepts college credit for military training as indicated by ACE.
- Dictates that students can use ACE and PONSI credit toward liberal arts and general elective requirements, while prior learning credits are permitted only for use toward general elective credits.
- Allows students to develop a Portfolio of prior learning and have it assessed for potential elective credits by trained faculty evaluators. Nyack College faculty award potential credit for the demonstration of learning obtained from various life experiences.

Trained faculty evaluators review prior learning materials and identify key college-level learning concepts on the selected topic. College equivalency credits are then issued accordingly. Should supporting information be needed, in order to make a determination, individual interviews are scheduled with students. All student Portfolio work which includes the Experiential Learning Essays and documentation must align with course subjects offered in the Nyack College Catalog.

Degree Requirements

The Accelerated Bachelor’s Degree program is a 3 Term program with 12 credits each. Students enter the program with between 60 and 84 transferable college credits. Students who come in with fewer than 84 credits earn the other credits through the assessment of prior learning, credit by examination, and/or additional transfer credits to bring them to 84 transferred/assessed credits. Students must have 120 credits and a GPA of 2.0 in order to graduate. The transferred and assessed credits do not carry grades. All students, regardless of the number of credits they bring into the program, are required to take no less than 36 credits in the Organizational Management program.
Course Descriptions

Not all courses listed below are offered annually and some are offered only at certain campuses. Consult the appropriate department head for more information on course rotation and location.

Courses designated with hyphenated numbers (e.g., 111-112) extend through the year and successful completion of the first semester is a prerequisite to enrollment in the second semester. Courses that extend through the year, but carry credit for either semester, have the course numbers separated by a comma (e.g., 101,102).

ADULT INTENSIVE TRACK (AIT) Traditional & Non-Traditional Undergraduate

BIO 112--Ecology. (3 credits)
A study of the relationships between organisms and their environment. Environmental influences such as climate, water, temperature and light along with biotic factors such as predation, competition, and mutualism will be discussed. Ecosystem diversity, structure, and energy flow will be examined. The biblical basis for man's role in the environment and the need for creation awareness will be emphasized.

BIOLOGY (BIO) Traditional Undergraduate
All four-credit science courses include a lab component; all BIO courses fulfill the liberal arts electives component.

BIO 105-Biology Lab Workshop (1)
Specifically designed as a stand-alone series of labs to facilitate the need of students who need a 1-credit lab component. Students who have taken BIO107 may not take BIO 105.

BIO 107-General Biology I (4)
An introductory course that covers the basic principles of biology. Topics include a survey of the chemical, cellular, and genetic aspects of living organisms. The relevance to man and the environment is emphasized. A trip to the American Museum of Natural History or other museum is planned.

BIO 108-General Biology II (4)
A survey of the plant and animal kingdoms in addition to an introduction to the eleven organ systems in animals with an emphasis on human anatomy and physiology. Animal dissections are included as well as a trip to the Bronx Zoo to demonstrate ecological concepts. Students who take this course may not take BIO216.

BIO 110-Seashore Ecology Workshop (1)
The study of the interactions of organisms with each other and their nonliving environment in various ecosystems at the seashore. A field trip to the seashore is used to provide direct observation and hands-on analysis of the subject. Students enrolled in BIO 112 or BIO 212 may not take this course.

BIO 111-Freshwater Ecology Workshop (1)
The study of the interactions of organisms with each other and their nonliving environment in various ecosystems at the seashore. A field trip to local streams and/or ponds will provide opportunities for direct observation and first-hand analysis of the subject. Students enrolled in BIO 112 or BIO 212 may not take this course.

BIO 112-Ecology I (4)
A study of the relationships between organisms and their environment. Environmental influences such as climate, water, temperature, and light along with biotic factors such as predation, competition, and mutualism will be discussed. Ecosystem diversity, structure, and energy flow will be examined. The biblical basis for man’s role in the environment and the need for creation awareness will be emphasized.

BIO 115-Principles of Nutrition (3)
Survey of the major themes in nutrition including dietary sources, usefulness of the major classes of nutrients, and associated disorders. Personal nutritional assessment is performed. No lab component: does not satisfy Core Curriculum Laboratory Science requirement.)

BIO 213-Anatomy and Physiology I (4)
Examination of the structure of the human body and how it normally functions. Includes a study of the chemical, cellular, and tissue components of the body and four organ systems: the integumentary, skeletal, muscular and nervous systems. Prominent disorders and current medical developments related to these topics will also be discussed. Laboratory components include microscopic work, dissection, and a field trip to a local health care facility or museum. Prerequisites: CHE 103 or Department permission.

Special attention is given to dealing with the social implications of ministering in the postmodern world. Offered spring. *Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

CS 770-779 Seminars in Church and Society (3)
Seminars developed to consider additional topics not included in the standard church and society curriculum.

COMPUTER SCIENCE (CSC)  Traditional Undergraduate

Course Descriptions

CSC 103-Introduction to Computers I (3)
Fundamental concepts of computers. Topics include computer hardware, software, operating systems, programming, networking, varied uses of computers, and ethical considerations. Word processing, spreadsheet, and Internet applications will be used extensively to provide theoretical knowledge and hands-on experience.
*Students who are able to demonstrate an acceptable proficiency in the use of computers may fulfill this requirement by choosing a higher level computer applications course with the department head's permission.

CSC 104-Introduction to Computers II (3)
Advanced introduction to the fundamentals of computers. Topics are the same as those for CSC 103 but will be explored at a higher level. Advanced treatment in word processing, spreadsheet, and Internet applications is included. In addition, students will gain practical knowledge in the areas of installation and maintenance of computers. Prerequisite: acceptable computer placement scores or department head's permission.

CSC 112-Introduction to Programming I (3)
An introduction to computer programming using Visual Basic of C computer language. The course will explore fundamentals of computer programming and implementation. The topics to be covered include algorithms, form design, object definition, event-driven procedures, types of variables, input/output, subroutines, arrays, graphics, as well as linking other computer applications to the program. Students will be required to complete a series of programming projects. Prerequisites: Math elective.

CSC 201-Introduction to Programming II (3)
An introduction to programming language. An in-depth introduction to computer science at a level appropriate to those students considering a major or minor in computer science. Introduction to computer structure, problem-solving methods, and algorithm development. Software projects include design, coding, debugging, and documentation of programs in a high-level language. Emphasis will be on hands-on introduction to programming using JAVA. Prerequisites: CSC 104 and Math elective.

CSC 210-Computer Hardware Organization (3)
This course is designed to introduce students to the basic components of a computer and how they work together under the control of an operating system. The course will cover an introduction to the organization, structure, installation, configuration, diagnosing and troubleshooting, preventive maintenance of the major hardware components of computers. Prerequisite: CSC 104.

CSC 242-Webpage Design (3)
This course is designed for any student who wants to learn introductory web page design concepts and skills. Students will participate in a series of lectures/discussions and hands-on labs and projects that focus on HTML, CSS, and basic web page design and authoring skills. Students are required to complete a number of projects and a final website. Prerequisites: instructor's permission.

CSC 243-Computer Arts (3)
This course is designed for both computer science and non-computer science students who want to learn computer graphic and image-editing techniques. Some of the topics to be covered include, image retouching, painting, drawing, coloring, Web tools, and media integration. Adobe Photoshop, Image-Ready, and media compression software applications will be used. Students are required to present final project for credit. Prerequisite: instructor's permission.

CSC 245-Computer Graphics and Animation (3)
An introductory animation and graphics class focusing on the elements of 2D animation, computer illustration, and 3D animation. Emphasis is placed on frame-by-frame animation, Flash ActionScript, exporting in various movie formats, and the creation of advanced interactive applications both for the web and for offline distribution (i.e., CD-Rom). Prerequisite: instructor's permission.

CSC 311-Data Structures and Algorithms (3)
A course in data types and structures including arrays, stacks, singly- and doubly-linked lists, queues, trees, sets, and graphs. Students will learn storage management and rudiments of the analysis of algorithms as well as programming techniques for processing structures. Also covered are the techniques for sorting and searching, hashing, and garbage collection. Prerequisite: CSC 201.

CSC 312-Database Concepts (3)
A course in database design and management. Topics include a conceptual understanding of database systems, various database implementation methods, database design using client/server methodology, relational and object-oriented database technology, and database languages including SQL, 4GL, OLAP, and DB2. Students are required to complete a series of projects that explore various database environments. Prerequisites: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 340-Web Programming and Design (3)
This course is aimed at computer science students who want to learn serious web programming and design. Topics include HTML 4.0, CGI programming, JavaScript, ASP, SSI, Java Bean, JDBC, and Java. Students will learn to balance the demand for the latest features in webpage design with the need for multi-platform support and will develop the confidence to handle real-world problems. Prerequisite: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 341-Management Information Systems (3) (For course description see BUS 341)

CSC 342-Internet Database Management (3)
A course in Internet database management. Topics include applying fundamental database design concepts to integrate databases in hybrid database environment, understanding different Web application architectures and technologies, including search engines, Active X, security, Web transaction processing, interface design, legacy access, push technology, JDBC, JavaBeams, Servlets, and RMI for database development. Students are required to complete a project. Prerequisite: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 343-Website Construction (3)
Course Descriptions

This course is designed for students who want to learn advanced website design concepts and skills. Topics include usability and accessibility issues, CSS, streaming web content, DHTML scripting and user interface animation. Students are required to complete a number of projects and a final web site. Prerequisite: CSC 242 or instructor's permission.

CSC 345-Advanced Programming (3)
This is an advanced course designed for students who want to have an in-depth understanding of programming language principles. Topics to be covered include: (1) syntax and semantics, (2) survey of different programming language paradigms: procedural, object-oriented, functional, logic, concurrent and special purpose programming languages, (3) comparison between .Net and J2EE from the programming language perspective. Prerequisite: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 347-Advanced Computer Arts (3)
This course is designed to focus on advance topics in computer graphic and image-editing techniques. Some of the topics to be covered include, advanced Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, QuarkXPress, and student portfolio design. Students are required to present final project for credit. Prerequisite: CSC 243.

CSC 348-Digital System Design (3)
CSC 411-Software Engineering (3)
This course introduces the fundamental concepts of software engineering. The topics to be covered include: (1) software development life cycle models, (1) software requirements and analysis, (3) software design, (4) software implementation, (5) unit testing and system testing, (6) validation and verification and (7) software maintenance. Prerequisite: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 412-Project Management (3) (For course description see BUS 412)

CSC 441-Data Communications and Networks (3)
An introductory course in data communications and computer networks. Topics include the terminology and architecture of data communications systems, data transmission concepts, fundamentals of computer networking, OSI reference model, and applications issues in file transfer, electronic mail, remote job entry, and network directory services. Prerequisites: CSC 210.

CSC 442-Operating Systems (3)
A course in design and implementation of operating systems. Topics include process management, process synchronization and interprocess communication, memory management, virtual memory, interrupt handling, processor scheduling, device management, I/O, and file systems. A case study of the Windows NT operating systems and programming project are required. Prerequisites: CSC 210.

CSC 443-XML and XHTML (3)
The development of XML (eXtensible Markup Language) is one of the milestones in the history of the Web. XML and HTML represent a large family of related technologies and languages. This course covers the fundamental concepts of XML and HTML. Topics to be covered include: (1) history of markup language and introduction to SGML, (2) XML DTD, (3) XML Schema, (4) XSLT, (5) XHTML, (6), XPath and XPointer, (7) XML Query Language and XML Database. If time permits, advanced concepts such as XMI, DOM will be discussed. Prerequisite: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 444-Electronic Commerce (3)
Introduction to Electronic Commerce which is a specific application of computer science. This course is designed for students majoring in either Computer Science or Business. Topics include Dataweb technology and database infrastructure for EC, Security, and Workflow technology as it applies to EC, Multimedia Technology Standards in Middleware and data exchange, Mobile Computing platforms, and Electronic payment systems. The course will be composed of lectures and round table discussions. The discussion will be based on student projects in subjects identified in the lectures as well as the reading assignments. Prerequisites: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 445-Network Security (3)
The course will provide the necessary foundations for understanding network security, including encryption techniques, design of secure systems and protocols, and enhancements for existing protocols like electronic mail, WWW and the Internet protocol. While the majority of the material will be drawn from the text, additional topical areas such as electronic cash, the WWW security protocol SSL, and Java security issues will be covered. Prerequisite: CSC 112 or CSC 201.

CSC 446-Network Management (3)
This course focuses on SNMP (Simple Network Management Protocol) and RMON (remote monitoring), the theoretical underpinning of each, and how they are effectively implemented in modern enterprise networks. Students will learn the purpose and functionality of SNMP and RMON protocols as they relate to the management of enterprise networks. Topics include SNMP message types, proxy agents, SNMP MIB Tree, how to troubleshoot complex networks using SNMP, RMON probes and embedded RMON, RMON functional groups, packet filtering, analyzing and interpreting captured packets, and implementing RMON in a switched environment. Prerequisite: CSC 112 or CSC 201

CSC 447-Network Design and Implementation (3)
This course provides delegates with the information and skills needed to create and administer a networking services infrastructure design that supports the required network applications. Students will learn how to implement the components that make up the Windows 2000 network infrastructure. Topics to be covered include: (1) installing, configuring and supporting a network infrastructure that uses the Microsoft Windows 2000 Server (2) network applications interface (3) TCP/IP suite for Windows 2000 (4) Domain and Active Directory Services (6) security consideration. The course prepares candidates for Microsoft examinations 70-216 and 70-221. Prerequisite: CSC 210.

CSC 460-Special Topics in Computer Science (3)
Special topics arranged as the need and availability arise. Topics are usually offered on a one-time basis. Instructor's permission required.

215
Course Descriptions

CSC 470-Computer Science Seminar (3)
Topics of current interest in computer science. Through this class, students may (1) become familiar with recent developments in computer science, (2) critique research ideas and present their views in front of a technical audience, and (3) exchange and foster ideas for further research. All students are expected to read a list of research papers, actively contribute to discussions in class, and make a 50-minute presentation on a research paper/project of their choice. Prerequisite: instructor’s permission required.

CSC 472-Integrative Project (3)
This course is designed for juniors or seniors. Students will apply the knowledge and skills acquired from their previous courses to develop a complex project, in an area of their choice, with a faculty mentor. Prerequisite: instructor’s permission.

CSC 480-Independent Study in Computer Science (1-3)
Independent study in an approved topic in Computer Science. Prerequisite: instructor’s permission.

CSC 490-Computer Science Internship (4)
A supervised computer-related field in industrial, governmental, or private sector. Faculty supervisor advises the student where to focus the learning objective for the given internship. A project at the internship is to be at the level of research expected in junior/senior independent study in computer science. Prerequisite: instructor’s permission.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE (CRJ) Traditional Undergraduate

CRJ 115- Freshmen Seminar in Criminal Justice and Sociology (3)
(same as SOC 115)

CRJ 231- Police Organization and Administration (3)
The course will examine the historical development and the present organization and administration of police departments. The course will also focus on organizational principles best suited to police service to the community. Topics include: evaluation of line staff, auxiliary functions, planning, and management.

CRJ 236- Juvenile Justice Administration (3)
The course will introduce students to the historical development of the concept of delinquency, the special status of juveniles before the law and juvenile justice procedural law. The course will examine origin, philosophy, and development of the juvenile justice system, particularly the juvenile court. Considers the structure and operations of the major components of juvenile justice systems and contemporary administrative structures in juvenile justice. The course will review development in law reform concerning delinquency and dependency, along with change and reform in the youth correctional system. (Liberal arts elective)

CRJ 245-American Judicial System (3)
This course offers a comprehensive introduction to the American legal system, its roots in natural and common law, and the values it serves. The course will examine the nature of the judicial process: precedent and legal reasoning; the basics of criminal and civil lawsuits; the organization of state and federal courts, the Supreme Court and judicial review. Other topics include: American judicial structure, judicial decision-making, criminal law, civil law, and the legal profession (Liberal arts elective)

CRJ 256-Community and Corrections (3)
The course explores and analyzes the philosophical foundations of community-based corrections and the development of major correctional programs based in the community. The course will examine the relationship between community and the correctional system, focusing on the relationships between prisons and the community. The course will focus on probation, parole, and other current community based strategies. Questions about the effectiveness of community-based correctional alternatives are also considered. (Liberal arts elective)

CRJ 315-Criminology (3) See course description for SOC 315.

CRJ 330-Constitutional Law (3) See course description for BUS 330.

CRJ 373-Criminal Law (3)
This course surveys the American Criminal Justice system. Special attention will be paid to Elements of crime, defenses, historical foundation, limits, purposes and functions of criminal law. The course will examine the doctrines of criminal liability in the United States and the classification of crimes against persons and property and the public welfare. Case studies include prosecution and defense decision-making in the criminal law process.

CRJ 402-Ethical Issues In Criminal Justice (3)
The course will examine and analyze the values and ethical dilemmas that are of major concern to criminal justice professionals. The focus will be on selected criminal justice ethical issues such as the morality of capital punishment, official corruption, use of deadly force, discretion and deception by the police. Other topics to be covered include: ethics vs. morals; laws and justice; role of judges; prosecutorial discretion; role of defense attorneys; and the role of correctional personnel. (Liberal arts elective)

CRJ 490-Criminal Justice Internship (4)
The internship is designed to broaden the academic experience of students through appropriate observational and work assignments with criminal justice agencies. Correlation of theoretical knowledge with practice is emphasized. Students will be placed in an internship setting related to criminal justice within city, county, state, and federal criminal justice agencies. There are internship opportunities in the areas of local law enforcement, federal law enforcement, juvenile justice, probation and courts/law. Internships are competitive in nature and require substantial lead-time in terms of the application process.

DEVELOPMENTAL STUDIES (DEV)
Course Descriptions

Note: All developmental courses are equivalent to 3 seat hours, whether they carry academic credit of 0, 1 or 2 credits. All “0” credits courses are Pass/Fail.

DEV 001-Developmental Writing (0)
Intensive review of English grammar, usage, syntax, mechanics, and principles of effective written expression. Pass/Fail.

DEV 002-Developmental Reading (0)
Intensive study and practice of basic reading skills; emphasis in fluency of reading and close analysis of written texts; systematic instruction in vocabulary and comprehension strategies for understanding standard written English. Pass/Fail.

DEV 004-Developmental Math (0)
This course is a combination of arithmetic and elementary algebra. It includes the arithmetic of integers, fractions, decimals, and percentages. In addition, such topics as signed numbers, algebraic representation, operations with polynomials, factoring, the solution of simultaneous linear equations of two variables, and graphing are covered. Pass/Fail.

DEV 101-Fundamentals of Writing (1)
This writing process workshop emphasizes writing as a response to reading literature. The student will develop skill in revising and editing, writing for various audiences, research and grammar usage.

DEV 103-Foundation of Literature (1)
A sampling of several genres of literature will be used to reinforce reading skills and to facilitate the apprehending and enjoyment of literature. College level vocabulary development and literal and interpretive comprehension will be emphasized. Students will be challenged to interact with literature by means of class discussion, group investigation, and personal response-journaling.

DEV 107-Critical Thinking (1)
This problem-solving course will equip students with the tools to analyze current world events and philosophies from a Christian framework. Other topics will include: constructing arguments, discerning facts from opinion, using bias-free language, and believing vs. knowing. Students will engage in group discussion and team debates.

DEV 110-Academic Life Skills (3)
A course in the techniques, tools, and strategies required for success in the college arena. Using a “big picture approach”, students will be encouraged to “create dreams stronger than their struggles” to develop intrinsic motivation. Special emphasis is given to developing a purpose-guided academic plan, time management, organizational strategies, and decreasing test anxiety.

DEV 111-Intermediate Writing (3)
This course is intended to help students achieve the skill “required for success” in freshman composition. Students will produce short compositions of 200-300 words developing abstract ideas with attention to logic, transition, and arrangement of ideas. Students will expand their vocabulary through an emphasis on usage required for work and everyday situations, as well as through the introduction of words and phrases for college study.

DEV 112-Introduction to College Readings (2)
This course will work on the development of reading proficiency. Attention will be given to word study and vocabulary. Both literal and figurative comprehension will be stressed. The objective is to introduce and examine a variety of readings in the area of Liberal Arts. Attention will also be given to useful strategies for study and test taking.

CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP IN THE GLOBAL CONTEXT (DML)
Alliance Theological Seminary - DMIN

DML 801 Orientation (2, 1)

Core Courses

DML 811 Spiritual Formation For Leadership (4)
This course guides the student through a series of readings and exercises that reveal the points of spiritual vulnerability and strength of most leaders. It considers the spiritual journeys of both biblical and contemporary Christian leaders—some with great influence in the global arena—in order to demonstrate the spiritual disciplines and qualities required of Christians who lead the people of God successfully.

DML 812 Leadership Skills For Ministry (4)
This course exposes the student to contemporary models of leadership in use or considered for use by the global Church. Students will work to identify and access their own leadership style with a view towards strengthening their skills in leading others within the Christian church.

DML 813 Selecting and Developing New Leaders (4)
Students are exposed to current leadership theory and practice and apply the theoretical framework against various global (from around the world) models for selecting and training leaders. Increased understanding of the student’s personal leadership style as well as practical tools for mentoring new leaders along the way.

DML 814 Effective Ministry in Today’s Globalized Urban Environment (4)
This course considers various global, cultural, social, and religious dynamics at work in our world today that impact the ministry and leadership context. It strives both to make the student aware of these changes and to prepare the student for dealing with them creatively and effectively in ministry.
Course Descriptions

DML 871 Seminar I (1)
DML 872 Seminar II (1)
DML 873 Seminar I II(1)

DML 899 Oral Candidacy Qualifying Exam (0) P/F
After successful completion of orientation and all four core courses, students must pass the candidacy qualifying oral examination. Using a rubric, the exam evaluates the level to which each student has attained personal and professional development goals, examines their progress and learning through the courses and seminars, and assesses their ability to write a doctoral project. Consideration of written course work to date will be factored into the assessment of the latter. Achieving candidacy status formally grants the student eligibility to receive the degree upon satisfactory completion of the remaining requirements.

Spirituality concentration

DML 921 Following in the Steps of Spiritual Mentors (4)
This course is a study of historical and contemporary Christians who have led the way in spiritual formation through their personal lives. The student will note aspects of the spiritual journey that are common and unique to the various figures and be guided in a process to implement the lessons learned into their own spiritual disciplines.

DML 922 Guiding Others in Their Spiritual Journey (4)
This course enables students to glean principles in the art of spiritually mentoring others from various spiritual mentors-leaders. It considers typical phases of Christians' spiritual growth pattern. The student will formulate a spiritual development model for mentoring others.

Global Outreach concentration

DML 925 Contemporary Models of Evangelism (4)
This course considers significant church planting and evangelism models in use around the world with a view towards critiquing and gleaning important principles from them. The student will formulate a model for Christian outreach suited to their own ministry context.

DML 926 Christian Communication for a New Generation (4)
This course exposes the student to contemporary trends in communication theory as used in urban and mass media contexts in order to evaluate their usefulness for communicating the gospel. Students will formulate a communication model for their ministry context.

DML 999 Final Doctoral Project (2, 1, total 6 credits)
The D.Min. degree program requires a written Final Doctoral Project that addresses both the nature and practice of ministry applied to a specific ministry setting with the potential for application in other ministry contexts. It will reflect the student’s depth of theological insight in relation to ministry. Guidelines for proposing, writing, defending, and presenting the project may be found in the DMIN student handbook.

DML 998 Doctoral Project Continuation (0)

DRAMA (DRA) Traditional Undergraduate

DRA 104 Introduction to Dance (3)
An introduction to movement dance and choreography. Students will learn basic dance technique from a variety of dance styles, dance/movement terminology, research topics in dance history, a biblical foundation for dance, and principles of dance composition.

DRA 113-Oral Interpretation (3)
Study of the principles and techniques for effective oral interpretation of literature. Experience in such literary types as prose, poetry, dramatic monologues, Scripture reading, dramatic scenes, and theme programs. Meets general education speech requirement. (Same as COM 113)

DRA 171-Practicum: Performance (1)
Involves the student as an actor in the fall or spring dramatic production. Entrance by audition.

DRA 173-Practicum: Play Production (1)
Involves the student in a supervised project in an aspect of technical theater. In conjunction with fall or spring dramatic production. Instructor's permission required.

DRA 205- Introduction to Theatre (3)
An overview of dramatic history, of techniques in acting, directing, staging, costume, make-up, lighting, publicity, and box office management, including instruction and training for staging ensemble dramatic productions in church or school.

DRA 206-Introduction to Musical Theatre (3)
An overview of the techniques essential to the performance, direction, and production of musical drama. Some attention is given to history of musicals, especially in the American scene.

DRA 219 African American Theatre (3)
In this course, students will read plays, attend performances, view videos and listen to music to discover the qualities that make theatre vital in the African American culture. The influences of the African American church, folklore, rituals, blues and jazz will also be incorporated.

DRA 230 World Drama (3) (For course description see ENG 230)

DRA 316-Script Analysis for Performers (3)
This course teaches the processes for breaking scenes into playable beats and actions, character analysis techniques, playwriting styles and periods, and elements of design. Students will read and critically analyze dramas to gather clear, concise, and easily assimilated techniques tailored to actors’ needs and sensibilities. (Same as COM 316)

DRA 317-Playwriting I (3)
In this class, students will be revising scripts for live theatrical performances, resulting in the completion of a one-act play. (Same as ENG 317, liberal arts elective)

DRA 318-Playwriting II (3)
An extension of Playwriting I, this course gives increased emphasis on drafting and revising scripts for the stage. Students will complete a full-length play and submit to the appropriate theatrical house, school or church. Prerequisite: DRA/ENG 317. (Same as ENG 318, liberal arts elective)

DRA 335-Acting I (3)
Development of a viable acting technique through the coordination of thought, movement, and voice. Emphasizes textual and character analysis as the focal point of the acting process. Includes exercises, scene work, and keeping a journal.

DRA 336 Acting II (3)
A continuation of Acting I, with an emphasis on preparation for the professional stage. Prerequisite: DRA 335.

DRA 348-Drama and the Church (3)
An examination of theological, aesthetic, and historical factors involved in the relationship between the church and the theater. Investigation of and practice in materials and staging techniques for church drama. Recommended for WMIR and other college touring groups. (Same as CED 348, COM 348)

DRA 355-Theatre Performance in New York City (3)
Students analyze the difference between written and performative texts and learn to interpret acting and design modes. Trips will be taken to approximately 8-12 Broadway, off-Broadway, and church performances. Students are expected to pay for performances. (Same as COM 355)

DRA 472-Fundamentals of Play Directing (3)
Contains basic elements of directing with laboratory in theatrical problems and short scenes. Prerequisite: DRA 205. (Same as COM 472)

DRA 480 Topical Study (3)
Independent study in an approved topic in Theatre. Permission of the Department Head and Dean is required.

ECONOMICS (ECO) Traditional Undergraduate
All classes meet the liberal arts elective requirement.

ECO 201-Macroeconomics (3)
Survey and current applications of economic theories for the U.S. economy. Topics covered are unemployment, inflation, the simple Keynesian model, fiscal and monetary policies, money, banking, and international trade and finance. (Meets Social Science Core)

ECO 202-Microeconomics (3)
Survey and current applications of economic theories for the individual firm and household. Topics include demand and supply in the product market, and the mechanisms of the labor and the capital markets. Prerequisite: ECO 201.

ECO 312-Intermediate Macroeconomics (3)
A classical, Keynesian, and contemporary analysis of income, employment, and price determination. Special topics include rational expectations in macro models and the dynamics of inflation. Prerequisite: ECO 201.

ECO 313-Intermediate Microeconomics (3)
Methodology, theory of consumer behavior and demand, theory of production and supply, determination of product and factor prices under varying market structures, welfare economics. Prerequisite: ECO 202.

ECO 327-History of Economic Thought (3)
A survey of the writings, theories, and lives of the major figures in the history of economic thought, starting with Adam Smith. The original works of Malthus, Ricardo, Mill, Marx, Jevons, The Austrian School, and Marshall will also be examined and put into perspective.

ECO 334-Economics of Sport (3)
Analysis of the economic process involved in sport management. Deals with economic theory to sports, sports marketing and sports finance. Touches on labor market issues, economics and the NCA and various issues in sports business.
Course Descriptions

ECO 340-The Economics of Developing Countries (3)
Theoretical and empirical investigation of economic development of under-developed countries. Includes a study into the nature and causes of poverty along with discussions on our role as Christians in the Third World developing countries.

ECO 341-International Economics (3)
A detailed study of international trade and finance with both macro and micro applications. Topics include balance of payments, foreign exchange markets, and the development of international economic institutions and the world economy. Prerequisites: ECO 201 and ECO 202 or by consent of the department chairperson.

ECO 345-Entertainment Industry Economics (3)
(For course description see BUS 345)

ECO 362-Money and Banking (3)
Advanced study of the financial markets and how they interact with a firm. Discussion and study of the structure of the financial markets and the banking systems past development and the future directions of the financial markets. Prerequisite: ECO 201.

ECO 369-Industries and Economics (3)
Analyzes economic issues affecting urban areas and includes taxation, enterprise zones, development, poverty, transportation, housing, etc. Prerequisite: ECO 202.

ECO 370-Industry Analysis (3)
Examines firm behavior in selected industries using case studies. Includes assessment of government policies that impact industry economics, e.g., antitrust, regulation. Course prepares students seeking positions in government policy analysis or in industry. Prerequisite: ECO 202.

ECO 374-Economics of Social Issues (3)
Offers a review of contemporary social issues from the perspective of economic theory and analysis. Issues include crime, poverty, health care, environment, discrimination, unemployment and minimum wage, and trade. Prerequisite: ECO 202.

ECO 375-Comparative Economics (3)
This course analyzes various economic systems of economic organization including a comparison of socialist, centrally based economies and market economies. Prerequisite: ECO 202.

ECO 379-Environmental Economics (3)
Applies economic theory and practice to natural and environmental issues. Includes pollution and pollution control, natural resource issues, and cost/benefit analysis. Prerequisite: ECO 202.

ECO 385-Topics in Economics (3)
A capstone course that covers current economic thought and reviews the contributions of Nobel Laureates to economics. Prerequisites: ECO 202. Seniors only.

ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION (EDS) Traditional Undergraduate

EDS 318- General Methods in teaching Grades 7-12 (3)
A student teaching prerequisite designed to prepare Adolescence Education teacher candidates to plan and present effective lesson plans and units. Teacher candidates will design lessons meeting the needs of general and exceptional 7-12 students, including at risk and ELL students. Pre-requisites: EDU 246, 258, 259 and admission to the School of Education. Co-requisite: EDS 391 or 392.

EDS 319-Special Methods for Teaching Math for Middle Childhood and Adolescence Education (3)
Application and analysis of teaching competencies specific to the subject area of Mathematics. Topics covered are innovations in curriculum design, instructional practice, technology, and development of a unit of study. Prerequisites: EDU 246, 258, 259 and admission to the School of Education. Co-requisite: EDS 391 or 392.

EDS 320-Special Methods for Teaching English in Middle Childhood and Adolescence Education (3)
This course prepares the teacher candidate to teach English/language arts in grades 7-12. Instruction is based around integration of NCTE (National Council of Teachers of English) and NYS content and pedagogical standards. Each teacher candidate designs and presents lessons and a unit plan reflecting NCTE standards. The emphasis is on preparing teacher candidates to attain the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to be successful in teaching English/language arts in grades 7-12. Pre-requisites: EDU 246, 258, 259 and admission to the School of Education. Co-requisite: EDS 391 or 392.

EDS 321-Special Methods for Teaching Social Studies for Middle Childhood and Adolescence Education (3)
This course prepares the teacher candidate to teach social studies in grades 7-12. Instruction is based around integration of NCSS (National Council for the Social Studies) and NYS content and pedagogical standards. Each teacher candidate designs and presents lessons and a unit plan reflecting the ten thematic NCSS standards and five social science disciplines. The emphasis is on preparing teacher candidates to attain the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to be successful in teaching social studies content and skills in grades 7-12. Prerequisite: EDU 258, 259, School of Education approval. Pre-requisites: EDU 246, 258, 259 and admission to the School of Education. Co-requisite: EDS 391 or 392.

EDS 324-Special Methods for Teaching English in Middle Childhood and Adolescence Education (3)
This course prepares the teacher candidate to teach English in grades 7-12. Instruction is based around integration of NCTE (National Council of Teachers of English) and NYS content and pedagogical standards. Each teacher candidate designs and presents lessons and a unit plan reflecting NCTE standards. The emphasis is on preparing teacher candidates to attain the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to be successful in teaching English in grades 7-12. Pre-requisites: EDU 246, 258, 259 and admission to the School of Education. Co-requisite: EDS 391 or 392.

EDS 334-Literacy Integration in the 7-12 Curriculum (3)
Literacy preparation is a requisite for NYS certification of 7-12 educators and a student teaching pre-requisite. This course will prepare middle and secondary teacher candidates to integrate reading and writing skills into the social studies, mathematics, and English curriculum. In addition, EDS 334 will provide an academic literacy model and methods for meeting the needs and exceptionalities for all 7-12 students, including at-risk and ELL students, within the regular classroom setting. Prerequisites: EDU 246, 258, 259 and admission to the School of Education. Co-requisite: EDS 391 or 392.
Course Descriptions

EDS 391-Third Year Fall Field Experience: Adolescence (0)
Thirty-five hours of field experience in grades 7-9 in the areas of English, Social Studies, or Mathematics. Co-requisite: appropriate methods courses.

EDS 392-Third Year Spring Field Experience: Adolescence (0)
Thirty-five hours of field experience in grades 10-12 in the areas of English, Social Studies, or Mathematics. Co-requisite: appropriate methods courses

EDS 470-Seminar in Student Teaching (2)
Philosophical and practical problems of the classroom experience of student teaching. Analysis of curricular theory, classroom management and decision-making, and consideration of other contemporary issues in Christian and public school education. Taken concurrently with EDS 494 and EDS 495. Prerequisite: School of Education approval and successful completion of all methods courses and field experiences.

EDS 494-Supervised Student Teaching: Grades 7-9 (5)
Directed observation and participation on a full-time basis for one placement in approved schools. The student teacher will be expected to demonstrate the competencies expected of a beginning teacher in his/her area of certification. Candidates will work with one or more cooperating teachers and a Nyack College supervisor. Taken concurrently with EDS 470. Prerequisite: School of Education approval and successful completion of all methods courses and field experiences.

EDS 495-Supervised Student Teaching: Grades 10-12 (5)
Directed observation and participation on a full-time basis for one placement in approved schools. The student teacher will be expected to demonstrate the competencies expected of a beginning teacher in his/her area of certification. Candidates will work with one or more cooperating teachers and a Nyack College supervisor. Taken concurrently with EDS 470. Prerequisite: School of Education approval and successful completion of all methods courses and field experiences.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (ECE) Traditional Undergraduate

ECE 250-Early Childhood Observation and Assessment (3)
This course examines the techniques and tools utilized in the early childhood setting, in order to understand the growth and development of young children, meet their individual needs and build upon their strengths. Students will examine formal and informal assessments and practice techniques of observation, assessment and documentation of a child’s development, for the purpose of planning developmentally appropriate programs, environments, interactions and adaptations. Corresponding theory, critical issues, and curricula will be related to the fieldwork. Corequisite: ECE 293 Early Childhood Observation & Assessment Field Experience and ECE 259 Teaching & Learning Strategies.

ECE 293-Early Childhood Observation & Assessment Field Experience (0)
Required for ECE 250 Early Childhood Observation and Assessment and ECE 259 Teaching & Learning Strategies. Twenty hours of supervised field experience focusing on classroom observation and assessment. Students will observe children in two different age groupings and record findings. Topics include: separation; physical, social, emotional and cognitive development; attention span; literacy; creativity; play and exploration; self-concept. Professional observation and assessment tools include: class log; checklists; anecdotal and running records; frequency counts; time samples; cognitive task experiments; rating scales; work samples; technology; program assessments; portfolios. Co-requisite: ECE 250 Early Childhood Observation & Assessment and ECE 259 Teaching & Learning Strategies.

ECE 337-Infant Toddler Development and Environments (3)
This course examines the education and care of young children birth – age three, utilizing developmental principles and research as a framework for group care that supports and meets the specific needs of infants and toddlers. Methods and materials for creating environments, the use of play and exploration for the purpose of expanding and nurturing the young child’s social, emotional, cognitive, linguistic, physical and aesthetic growth are covered. As part of an integrated approach to curriculum, students work with and develop materials and methods that address the content areas associated with domains of early childhood growth and development, based on observations of what is relevant to children and how they construct meaning. Content areas include: art and creative experiences; music and movement; dramatic play; block play; emergent language and literacy; math and science. The use and support of information and communication technologies is examined. Attention is given to children’s prior knowledge, diverse needs and cultural values. Prerequisite: School of Education approval. Corequisite: ECE 391 Third Year Fall Field Experience: Early Childhood

ECE 338-Early Childhood Program and Curriculum (3)
This course engages students in the process of developing and implementing curriculum for children from birth – grade 2 with an emphasis on the preschool child. The planning of developmentally appropriate learning experiences, the design of learning environments, the use of play and exploration for the purpose of expanding and nurturing the young child’s social, emotional, cognitive, linguistic, physical and aesthetic growth are covered. As part of an integrated approach to curriculum, students work with and develop materials and methods that address the content areas associated with domains of early childhood growth and development, based on observations of what is relevant to children and how they construct meaning. Content areas include: art and creative experiences; music and movement; dramatic play; block play; emergent language and literacy; math and science. The use and support of information and communication technologies is examined. Attention is given to children’s prior knowledge, diverse needs and cultural values. Prerequisite: School of Education approval. Corequisite: ECE 392 Third Year Spring Field Experience: Early Childhood

ECE 339-Childhood Health, Safety and Nutrition (3)
This course will prepare students to make appropriate decisions regarding first aid care and to act on those decisions. Students will learn how to take the appropriate action in providing care for a variety of injuries or sudden illnesses. Lifesaving skills instruction will include rescue breathing and Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) for infants, children, and adults. Topics include communicable diseases, immunizations, sanitation, recognition and prevention of child abuse, identifying problems and screening techniques for vision and hearing, teething and dental health, basic nutritional needs appropriate meal planning. Students who successfully complete the course will be eligible for American Red Cross course completion certificates. Students will have the opportunity to receive state certification in child abuse and maltreatment reporting methods. Corequisite: EDU 247 Health Issues.
Course Descriptions

ECE 341-Web Design for Teachers (3)
This course introduces education majors to good principles of web design so they can develop professional web pages and create effective means of communication with students and parents. Candidates will learn the skills to develop and manage their own websites including basic HTML and uploading skills and will address privacy, copyright and fair use and accessibility issues. The course is designed to meet NETS standards.

ECE 342-Early Childhood Leadership and Management (3)
This course for the advanced early childhood student, presents theoretical and practical aspects of effectively guiding children's behaviors; dealing with challenging behavior; and fostering moral and spiritual development, in early childhood environments. This course examines the best practices for effective leadership in and current issues of Early Childhood Education; and acquaints early childhood students with practical matters involved in establishing and maintaining a high quality early childhood facility or program. Prerequisite: School of Education approval.

ECE 391-Third Year Fall Field Experience: Early Childhood (0)
Required for ECE 337 Infant Toddler Development and Environments. Twenty-five hours of supervised field experience in early childhood settings. Candidates progress from observers to full participants in the assigned infant/toddler settings. Candidates critically examine the ways in which the early childhood program meets the physical, intellectual, emotional and social needs of young children and parents. Attention is given to how the development of attachment, perception, motor skills, cognition, language, emotions, and social skills inform programming; integration of education and care-giving, play-based curriculum; physical environment; inclusion; anti-bias; linguistic and cultural diversity; relation and communication with staff and families. Pre-requisite: School of Education approval. Co-requisite: ECE 337.

ECE 392-Third Year Spring Field Experience: Early Childhood (0)
Required for ECE 338 Early Childhood Program and Curriculum Development. Thirty-five hours of supervised field experience in early childhood settings. Candidates progress from observers to full participants in the assigned preschool, kindergarten, grade 1-2. Attention is also given to child-initiated project investigations and documentation of those explorations. Candidates relate theory to practice in: environment design; lesson plan and curriculum implementation; guidance, discipline, and classroom management; communication skills; and staff/child/family relationships. Pre-requisite: School of Education approval. Co-requisite: ECE 338.

ECE 470-Senior Seminar (2)

ECE 480-Independent Study (1-3)
Independent study in an approved topic in Early Childhood Education. Permission of the Department Head and Dean is required. Suggested Elective Courses: Supporting Young Children’s Emergent Language and Literacy (2), Instruction and Assessment for Teaching Young Children in an Inclusive Setting (2), Creative Learning Activities in the Early Childhood Classroom (2), Home, School, Community: Parent-Teacher Partnerships (2), Issues and Trends in Early Childhood Education (2).

ECE 491-Supervised Student Teaching I (5)
Application of professional knowledge and skills in an assigned early childhood setting at the infant-toddler, preschool or kindergarten-primary level under the direction of a fully certified cooperating teacher and with the supervision of Nyack College Education faculty. Prerequisite: School of Education approval and successful completion of all methods courses and field experiences.

ECE 492-Supervised Student Teaching II (5)
Application of professional knowledge and skills in an assigned early childhood setting at the infant-toddler, preschool or kindergarten-primary level under the direction of a fully certified cooperating teacher and with the supervision of Nyack College Education faculty. Prerequisite: School of Education approval and successful completion of all methods courses and field experiences.

EDUCATION (EDG) Graduate School of Education

EDG 500 Educational Research and Statistics (3)
The candidate will develop the skills for and be able to apply the theories of educational research to educational practice in schools. The candidate will develop an introductory competency in research statistics. A variety of types of research will be studied and applied to the planning and execution of action research in schools. The candidate will write and evaluate research reports. (Must be taken at the Nyack campus to meet residency requirements.)

EDG 501 Introduction to Research and Statistics (1)
An introduction to educational research that includes the use of the LRC, an introduction to quantitative and qualitative research, identifying a research problem, reviewing the literature, and an introduction to SPSS and descriptive statistics. An introduction to research design using experimental and correlation design. (Must be taken at the Nyack campus to meet residency requirements.)

EDG 502 Using Research and Statistics (1)
A development of educational research that includes the hypothesis, collection and analysis of quantitative and qualitative data using appropriate statistical processes and SPSS. Additional study and use of research designs by looking at grounded theory and survey designs. Prerequisite EDG 501

EDG 503 Analysis and Reporting of Research and Statistics (1)
An introduction to educational research that includes the use of research, reporting and evaluating research, and research designs. Additional statistics processes will be used with SPSS and candidates will review final formatting and presentation of research. Prerequisite EDG 501 and EDG 502
Course Descriptions

EDG 509 Writing Workshop for Childhood Education (3)
Design of practical, research-based writing activities applicable to teachers' individual classrooms. The content and pedagogy are clearly linked to national, state, and professional organization standards.

EDG 510 Advanced Writing Workshop for Childhood Education (3)
A course for educators who are well versed in teaching the writing process and are prepared for the challenges of achieving mastery of this methodology. The agenda format will follow that of EDU 509 but with higher level content and pedagogy. Graduate students will be required to develop practical writing units based on case studies linked to their classroom assignments. Prerequisite of EDG 509 or professor's permission.

EDG 511 Integrating Learning Standards for Curricular Literacy Skills into the Curriculum (3)
A model of and specific activities for integrating literacy skills into the four major academic subject areas will be developed in EDU 511. Participants will learn how to effectively implement techniques that will lead to student mastery of skills and content, both in class and on New York State testing.

EDG 512 Character Education (3)
Candidates will investigate the history, philosophy and practice of character education in US public and private schools. Candidates will investigate current research and views on character education. Candidates will also plan and share a number of character-based lessons using a variety of media, virtues and approaches. Candidates will discuss the importance of a moral (virtuous) learning community and their personal role as a model in that community.

EDG 514 Integrating Learning Standards for Social Studies into the Curriculum (3)
A model of and specific activities for integrating New York State learning standards into social studies curriculum will be developed in this course. Participants will learn how to effectively implement techniques that will lead to student mastery of skills and content, both in class and on New York State testing. Candidates will be taught how to teach their students to meet Learning Standards Social Studies at all three levels identified by New York State Department of Education. This course will include strategies for teaching skills and content in the following areas identified in the standards: History of the United States and New York, World History, Geography, Economics, Civics, Citizenship, and Government.

EDG 515 Integrating Learning Standards for Math and Technology into the Curriculum (3)
The focus of this course is to develop a model and specific activities for integrating New York State learning standards in math, with technology applied as a tool and vehicle for accessing, generating, processing and transferring needed information. Participants will learn how to effectively implement techniques which lead to student mastery of skills and content, both in class and on New York State testing. Masters program students will learn how to teach their students to meet the seven Learning Standards for Mathematics, Science, and Technology (MST), with an emphasis on standards 1, 3, 6, and 7, at all three levels (elementary, intermediate, commencement) as identified by the New York State Department of Education. Strategies for teaching skills and content for all seven standards will, however, be addressed.

EDG 516 Integrating Learning Standards for Science and Technology into the Curriculum (3)
A model and specific activities for integrating New York State learning standards in science, using technological knowledge and skills as a vehicle to guide student understanding of scientific concepts and theories. Participants will learn how to effectively implement techniques which will lead to student mastery of skills and content, both in class and on New York State testing. Students will learn how to teach their students to meet Learning Standards for Mathematics, Science, and Technology, with an emphasis on 2, 4, 5, 6, and 7, at all three levels (elementary, intermediate, commencement) as identified by the New York State Department of Education. Strategies for teaching skills and content for all seven standards will, however, be addressed.

EDG 517 The Gifted Child (3)
This course is designed to introduce candidates to the historical development of and trends in gifted education. Topics will include in-classroom support, assessment, concurrent gifted/learning disabilities, and the use of technology as a vehicle for enrichment.

EDG 520 Learning Theories (3)
A study of the major schools of learning theory. Current research into the brain, learning and memory will be emphasized. A major focus of the course will be on practical applications of the theory to classroom practice.

EDG 522 Methods for Teaching the Middle School Child (3)
A study of teaching at the middle school level, including an introduction to middle school theory and curriculum, age appropriate instructional strategies, diverse strategies and assessments, and the developmental characteristics of early adolescent children. The unique role of the middle school teacher will be examined.

EDG 527 Curriculum for the Gifted (3)
This course will explore a variety of ways for the candidate to adjust his/her perspective on curriculum content with respect to diverse student needs in order to develop individualized and active methods of teaching and grouping, to utilize authentic assessment techniques, and to find options to promote student progress. The minimum 50-hour requirement of classroom practicum in EDU 617 will help the candidate implement these strategies and acclimate to the diverse 21st Century inclusive classroom.

EDG 530 The Inclusive Classroom (3)
This course is designed to provide the general and special education classroom teacher with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions needed for successful inclusive teaching. This is an introduction to the nature and characteristics of the learning and behavior challenges that students with special needs face in the general education classroom, and the practical procedures, collaborative practices, and instructional strategies that lead to successful inclusion. The emphasis will be on co-teaching models, differentiated instruction, accommodations for instruction and assessment, and collaboration among professionals and parents. A documented 10 hours of field experience are required in an inclusive setting.

EDG 532 The Exceptional Child (3)
Course Descriptions

This online course, which includes campus-based classes, introduces the foundations of special education—including the history, philosophy, legal mandates, the rights of students with disabilities and their families, and the responsibilities of teachers and other professionals. Emphasis (embedded in a Christian worldview) will be placed on enhancing the learning of all students with disabilities by employing a non-categorical rather than a disabilities oriented approach to special education. Current trends, critical issues and research relevant to individuals with special learning needs as full members of their communities will be examined. A documented 20 hours of field experience are required.

EDG 533 High Incidence Disabilities (3)
Current trends in program organization, curriculum development and adaptation, teaching strategies for students along the higher incidences, specifically learning disabilities, etc are reviewed and evaluated. Emphasis is on research-based best practices compatible with various learning styles, environments, and cultures. The course focuses on selecting and developing curricula based on learner's academic and social abilities, attitudes, and interests; applying adaptive methods including use of technologies for instruction and effective management of teaching and learning. Methods to facilitate social interaction skills for school and in transition to other environments will be explored. A documented 20 hours of field experience are required in individualized instruction of a student with special learning needs.

EDG 534 Autism Spectrum Disorder and Other Low Incidence Disabilities: Understanding and Intervention (3)
The focus of the course is to develop an understanding of autism spectrum disorders as well as other low incidence disabilities and acquiring effective academic and social interventions to help affected students learn and participate fully in the classroom. The course provides an overview of autism spectrum disorders, their identification and etiology and best practices in programs and services for students identified as autistic as well as other low incidence disabilities. A documented 20 hours of field experience observation in a classroom that has students with moderate and/or severe disabilities are required. Prerequisite: EDG 532. Prerequisite: EDG 532.

EDG 536 Special Education Behavior Management (3)
This course provides the student with practical strategies and techniques in both behavior modification and developing positive classroom communities that support learning for all students. Emphasis is placed on teaching students across the full range of exceptionalities and developmental levels. Self-monitoring skills that empower them to take ownership for their learning as well as social behavior are explored. Further, these behavior management skills are contingent on effective assessment methodologies, which are also studied and practiced as an integral part of the course. A documented 10 hours of field experience in a classroom that has students with emotional/behavioral issues are required.

EDG 540 Curriculum Theory, Design and Development (3)
This course is designed for people currently engaged in or planning for careers in education. In this course, candidates examine current issues involved in the implementation and assessment of curriculum in learning environments with particular emphasis on K-12 schools. These issues include: content and curriculum, evaluation and assessment; social, cultural, and philosophical factors; and change in schools. We will examine these issues through case studies, curriculum design, and cooperative projects within the class, as well as with other educators in different parts of the country.

EDG 542 Middle School Philosophy and Curriculum (3)
An in-depth look at the current trends and philosophies of middle level education. Included will be current research on effective middle level education, the use of teams, and curriculum design. Special emphasis will be placed on the development of interdisciplinary thematic units.

EDG 545 Literacy (3)
This course prepares teacher candidates in developing the reading, writing and language skills of children in special education and/or inclusive settings. 10-12.5 hours of field experience, depending on the program of enrollment.

EDG 547 Health Issues for Educators (1)
Provides candidates with the means to identify and prevent tobacco, drug/substance abuse, child abuse and maltreatment, and child abduction. Candidates will be able to provide safety education and provide instruction in fire and arson prevention. Candidates will also be trained in violence prevention and communicable disease awareness/prevention, including AIDS awareness. All components will be presented with the time and content as required by New York State Education requirements for certification.

EDG 552 Bilingual Education (3)
This introductory course will explore the history as well as legal and political issues in bilingual education programs in the United States from a sociolinguistic and psycholinguistic perspective. Students will examine models of bilingual education programs and compare them to other approaches to the education of English language learners.

EDG 562 Collaboration and Consultation with Parents, Professionals, and Community Agencies (3)
This course focuses on the principles and practices of collaboration to strengthen family-teacher and community agency partnerships. Students will examine ways of developing cultural competency, communicating effectively with parents, building collaborative partnerships between parents and educators, as well as serving as advocates for children with special needs. The course will discuss the legal rights and resources available to parents and the issues facing families of children with disabilities across developmental levels and the range of disabilities. A documented 10 hours of field experience covering the roles of professionals in collaboration are required.

EDG 563 Methods of Teaching Social Studies (3)
Provides teacher candidates with the principles and techniques of instructing children in the skills and knowledge of the grade 1-6 curriculum. Candidates will utilize both the NCSS (National Council for the Social Studies) thematic standards and the New York State standards in designing and presenting lesson and unit plans. 12.5 hours of field experience is required.
Course Descriptions

EDG 564 Methods of Teaching Science (3)
Methods and materials in teaching science for grades 1-6. Candidates will utilize both the NSTA (National Science Teachers Association) thematic standards and the New York State standards in designing and presenting lesson and unit plans. 12.5 hours of field experience is required.

EDG 565 Methods of Teaching Math (3)
Methods and materials in teaching math for grades 1-6. Candidates will utilize NCTM standards in planning, instruction and assessment. The candidate will investigate the use of manipulatives and developmental math strategies. 12.5 hours of field experience is required.

EDG 590 Seminar for Professional Experience (2)
Philosophical and practical problems of the classroom experience of student teaching. Analysis of curricular theory, classroom management and decision-making, and consideration of other contemporary issues in Christian and public school education.

EDG 591 Student Teaching Special Education Grades 1-3/4-6 (3) (Designed for students in the BS/MS Childhood Special Education Initial Certification program to provide practice within an educational setting with students with exceptionalities at the childhood developmental level. Students are placed in special education grades 1-3 if their childhood education placements were in grades 4-6; or, they are placed in special education grades 4-6 if their childhood education placements were in grades 1-3. Weekly seminars are held. Students are required to maintain a log describing and reflecting on their teaching activities, individual case studies and/or collaborative consultation techniques that they employ. Internships are a minimum of 25 full days in each placement or 4 hours a day for 38 days in each placement.

EDG 592 Internship for Special Education Grades 1-3 (3)
Designed for students in the MS Childhood Special Education Initial Certification program to provide practice within an educational setting with students with exceptionalities childhood developmental level. Weekly seminars are held. Students are required to maintain a log describing and reflecting on their teaching activities, individual case studies and/or collaborative consultation techniques that they employ. Internships are a minimum of 25 full days in each placement or 4 hours a day for 38 days in each placement.

EDG 593 Internship for Special Education in Grades 4-6 (3)
Designed for students in the MS Childhood Special Education Initial Certification program to provide practice within an educational setting with students with exceptionalities childhood developmental level. Weekly seminars are held. Students are required to maintain a log describing and reflecting on their teaching activities, individual case studies and/or collaborative consultation techniques that they employ. Internships are a minimum of 25 full days in each placement or 4 hours a day for 38 days in each placement.

EDG 594 Internship for Childhood Education Grades 1-3 (3)
Application of professional knowledge and skills in an assigned class at the Grades 1-3 school level under the direction of a fully certified cooperating teacher and with the supervision of Nyack College Education faculty. Internships are a minimum of 25 full days in each placement or 4 hours a day for 38 days in each placement.

EDG 595 Internship for Childhood Education Grades 4-6 (3)
Application of professional knowledge and skills in an assigned class at the Grades 4-6 school level under the direction of a fully certified cooperating teacher and with the supervision of Nyack College Education faculty. Internships are a minimum of 25 full days in each placement or 4 hours a day for 38 days in each placement.

EDG 600 Independent Research in the Inclusive Classroom (3)
Supervised inquiry into the practice and effectiveness of inclusive classrooms. This is a mentored experience with the goal of producing a paper suitable for publication. Prerequisite: EDG 500.

EDG 601 Independent Research in the Special Education Classroom (3)
A mentored, independent study course designed to produce an applied research paper, based on and applicable to the graduate educator's classroom situation. An approved proposal growing out of EDG 532 Exceptional Child, is a prerequisite for EDU 601. The research project must include a problem or hypothesis, implementation plan, and assessment.

EDG 602 Independent Research in the Childhood Education Classroom (3)
A mentored, independent study course designed to produce an applied research paper, based on and applicable to the graduate educator's classroom situation. The research project must include a problem or hypothesis, implementation plan, and assessment.

EDG 603 Independent Research Continuation (0)
Students are required to enroll in 'Independent research continuation' if they have not completed EDG 600, EDG 601 or EDG 602 at the end of the initial semester. Students are allowed one semester enrollment in EDG 603 and will pay a research continuation fee equal to one credit hour of tuition.

EDG 610 Instructional Leadership for Teachers (3)
The candidate will develop the skills and be able to apply the theories of instructional leadership to educational practice in schools. The candidate will develop an introductory competency in pedagogy. The candidate will then explore a variety of topics related to the teacher as instructional leader in the school including peer supervision using the clinical supervision model, interpersonal skills in working with individuals and groups, staff development, curriculum development, and the Biblical foundations for leadership.

EDG 615 Childhood Education Practicum (3)
PRACTICUM IS FOR CANDIDATES SEEKING A MASTERS AS WELL AS CERTIFICATION IN CHILDHOOD EDUCATION. STU
Course Descriptions

A teaching experience of at least 50 hours in the bilingual classroom in which the teacher candidate assists, tutors, and teaches lessons in the students’ first language and English. This experience will include the skills of lesson planning, classroom teaching, student assessment, the structuring of effective learning environments, and personal reflection.

EDG 617 Practicum in Gifted Education (3)
A diverse experience of at least 50 hours. The experience will give exposure to teaching students who learn at a pace and level significantly different from that of their classmates. The experience should include the skills of planning, coordinating and evaluating gifted teaching and learning environments and assist in providing individualized instruction. Prerequisites: EDG 517 and EDG 527.

EDG 618 Practicum at the Middle School Level (3)
A formal internship at the middle school level of at least 50 hours. The experience will give exposure to teaching and teacher teams in the middle school. The candidate will observe and participate in a variety of disciplines within the team and a variety of instructional strategies during the experience.

EDG 619 Special Education Practicum (3)
This course offers opportunities for candidates to work and observe in an educational setting that corresponds to their area of certification and specialization. Candidates are expected to experience the student developmental spectrum in grades 1–6, including students with mild to severe disabilities. Classroom observation and participation are integral to the field experience. Students are required to maintain a reflection journal where they record observations related classroom management, the learning environment, lesson planning, collaborative teaching and assessment of all learners. The candidates are supervised by Nyack College faculty as they document fieldwork through observational logs and Teacher Work Samples. The College supervisor visits each practicum student for 2 formal and 2 informal observations. Mandatory weekly seminars focus on the analysis of teaching using research-based practice theory as well as the development of reflective practice skills. Each student must complete a total of 50 clock hours of observation.

EDG 632 Special Education Law (2)
The role of the federal, state, and local government in special education issues will be covered with special emphasis on case and regulatory law, including NY and NJ regulations. Focus will be placed on the six major principles of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act as they relate to the free appropriate public education for all students.

EDG 633 Models of Teaching (3)
A study of teaching methods from a models approach. Beginning with a review of the process of planning for instruction, the student will experience and investigate a variety of models for instruction including cooperative learning models, direct instruction, inductive models, and problem solving models. The course includes discussion and analysis of situations through case studies or role-playing.

EDG 643 Integrating Technology into the Classroom (3)
This course is designed to provide the classroom teacher with the skills necessary to master the use of technology as a tool for instruction. Emphasis will be on developing facility in the use of the major software packages and educational websites used by schools. The utilization of technology to attainment of the NYS Learning Standards will be a major focus of this course.

EDG 644 Technology for Special Education (1)
Technology and Assistive Technology in Special Education are emphasized. Overview and hands-on experience with low- and high-tech products, including: PC accessibility, list serves, Web pages, online curricula, software, and local resources. The emphasis will be on meeting special needs in the classroom (English, Math, Science, Social Studies, etc.) and in helping parents using assistive technology devices and assistive technology services.

EDG 645 Field Experience for Literacy (0)
A 12.5-hour field experience co-requisite to EDG 545 Literacy.

EDG 652 Teaching English Language Learners & Bilingual Students (3)
Designed to prepare classroom teachers in inclusive and bilingual settings by developing the knowledge, strategies, and dispositions necessary. This will be achieved by examining key topics such as second language acquisition, strategies, assessment, and placement methods. Primary focus will be on content-based instruction, cooperative learning techniques, scaffolding, and the Cognitive Academic Language Learning Approach.

EDG 653 Classroom Assessment Techniques (3)
This course is designed to provide candidates with the expertise to select, administer, interpret, and utilize formal and informal assessment. Information, strengths, and limitations of standardized and teacher-made, informal evaluation methods will be reviewed. Emphasis will be placed on utilizing authentic assessment and portfolio—both for diagnosis and identification of needs and for evaluation of student learning. Methodology for formally and informally assessing student progress toward the New York State content standards will be a major force of this course.

EDG 654 Special Education Assessment, Evaluation, Diagnosis and IEP Development (3)
This course examines the construction, use, and interpretation of clinical and educational measurements used to assess learning. The course familiarizes students with the foundations of multidisciplinary assessment used to determine eligibility for special education services. Basic descriptive statistics, perspective teaching and the diagnostic-remediation process are examined with emphasis on individual assessment. Components of functional assessment, alternate assessments and classroom assessment are incorporated.

EDG 656 Language, Literacy, and Learning in the ESL/Bilingual Classroom (3)
The primary purpose of this course is to examine the relationship between language and literacy learning by exploring the sociolinguistic context of our linguistically and culturally diverse society. Students will apply this knowledge to the teaching of the four language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) through the medium of content-based instruction.

EDG 660 Current Issues in Education (3)
A survey of educational issues using current literature. Focus of the course will be on the issues affecting NY state, New York City, and local schools.

EDG 663 Field Experience for Methods of Social Studies (0)
A 12.5 hour field experience co-requisite to EDG 563 Methods of Social Studies.

EDG 664 Field Experience for Methods of Science (0)
A 12.5 hour field experience co-requisite to EDG 564 Methods of Science.

EDG 665 Field Experience for Methods of Math (0)
A 12.5 hour field experience co-requisite to EDG 565 Methods of Math.

EDUCATION (EDU) Traditional Undergraduate

EDU 100-Freshmen Seminar in Education (2)
Faculty and students work together to foster development of the knowledge, skills and dispositions essential for future educators. Collaboration, critical thinking and writing skills will be emphasized using educational resources and peer mentoring. Service learning required.

EDU 191-First Year Field Experience (0)
Ten hours of supervised field experience focusing on classroom observation. Required for EDU 246 Foundations of Education.

EDU 221-Introduction to Teaching with Technology (1)
This course surveys the basic uses of technology, history of technology, trends in educational technology, and the hardware, software and methodologies used in today's classroom. The teacher candidate will experience learning with technology, use a variety of software, and explore various use of technology in the classroom. This course is designed to address the NETS (National Educational Technology Standards) for the General Preparation Level and is a prerequisite for taking EDU 300-level technology electives.

EDU 222-Educational Applications of Word Processing and Spreadsheets (1)
The basic tools of word processing and spreadsheets will be developed with special application to educational applications. Graphing and charting will be applied to classroom situations.

EDU 246-Foundations of Education (3)
This course is an introduction to the essential issues, trends, challenges and opportunities in pre-k–12 education. It provides an overview of the historical, philosophical, social and cultural roots of pre-k–12 education in America, and their impact upon current practices. Ethical issues and standards as well as the roles of the educator, are emphasized. Major theories of teaching and learning and their application to diverse learners, are incorporated into discussions, readings and assignments. Corequisite: EDU 191.

EDU 247-Health Issues for Educators (1)
Provides candidates with the means to identify and prevent tobacco, drug/substance abuse, child abuse and maltreatment, and child abduction. Candidates will able to provide safety education and provide instruction in fire and arson prevention. Candidates will also be trained in violence prevention and communicable disease awareness/prevention, including AIDS awareness. All components will be presented with the time and content as required by New York State Education requirements for certification.

EDU 258-Development and Learning Theory (3)
This course examines the contributions that psychology can make to educational practice. Theories regarding cognitive, social, and moral development of children are examined an how these theories and research are of use to educators. The learning process is investigated using both behavioral and cognitive theories along with motivational factors. (liberal arts elective)

EDU 259-Teaching and Learning Strategies (3)
The study of effective teaching practice as it relates to application of learning theory in classroom instruction, management, and assessment. Also the study of diverse learners including gifted, learning disabled, and diverse intelligences. Social and cultural effects on learning will also be considered. Corequisite: EDU 292 or for Early Childhood Education majors ECE 250 and EDU 293. (liberal arts elective)

EDU 291/292-Second Year Field Experience (0)
Ten hours each semester (Fall and Spring) of field experience with emphasis on tutoring. Required for EDU 258/259.

EDU 311-Health and Wellness for Educators (2 or 3)
The purpose of this course is to enable students to study and implement permanent, life- changing, life-enhancing, and mission- directed wellness plans. Students will critically examine health and wellness concepts within the context of a spiritual (distinctly Christian) commitment. From this perspective, students will be encouraged to adopt attitudes and make behavioral choices that support spiritual values. EDU/ECE students will expand and apply health and wellness principles to early childhood/childhood environments and curriculum. (same as PED 231)

EDU 312-Classroom Management (2)
This course will enable the future teacher to create a positive learning environment for all students. Included will be such topics as organizational skills, theories of discipline, motivational techniques, parent/community resources, understanding student needs, etc. Research studies of pedagogy will be utilized as well as case studies.

EDU 319- Internet for Teachers (1)
Course Descriptions

Course emphasizes web-based resources as tools for curriculum and instructional improvement. Participants will design on-line lessons, develop units using available internet resources. Course design addresses the NETS (National Educational Technology Standards) for the Professional Preparation Level. Prerequisite: EDU221.

EDU 321-Technology Applications for Teachers (1)
This course explores the use of technology as a teaching tool by expanding on the foundational skills learned in EDU 221. What does a technology literate teacher need to know in the 21st century classroom? Teacher candidates will meet the NETS (National Education Technology Standards) by designing a web-based unit and lesson plans and learning how to infuse technology into their classroom curriculum. Prerequisite: EDU 221. Corequisite: methods courses.

EDU 322-Publishing Tools for Teaching (1)
The course uses the tools of word processing, graphics, and digital imaging to develop products for the classroom through desktop publishing. Several types of publishing will be done using a variety of tools and programs.

EDU 325-Learning Disabilities: Characteristics & Teaching Strategies (2)
This course addresses the characteristics of children with learning disabilities, the causes of learning disabilities and the most reliable educational interventions for students with learning disabilities. Inclusive education is emphasized. Prerequisite: EDU 246.

EDU 331-Methods in Teaching Science in the Elementary School (3)
Methods and materials in teaching science for grades 1-6. Candidates will utilize both the NSTA (National Science Teachers Association) thematic standards and the New York State standards in designing and presenting lesson and unit plans. In addition, teacher candidates will be prepared for the science component of the CST (Content Specialty Test) required for New York State certification. Laboratory experience. Prerequisites: MAT 101, EDU 246, EDU 258, EDU 259, School of Education approval. Corequisite: EDU 391.

EDU 332-Methods in Teaching Social Studies in the Elementary School (3)
Provides teacher candidates with the principles and techniques of instructing children in the skills and knowledge of the grade 1-6 curriculum. Candidates will utilize both the NCSS (National Council for the Social Studies) thematic standards and the New York State standards in designing and presenting lesson and unit plans. In addition, teacher candidates will be prepared for the social studies component of the CST (Content Specialty Test) required for New York State certification. Prerequisites: EDU 246, EDU 258, EDU 259, School of Education approval. Corequisite: EDU 391.

EDU 333-Methods of Teaching Literacy I (3)
This course examines principles of emergent literacy in young children (birth-grade 2) and introduces theories, practices, and materials for teaching language arts literacy in the diverse classroom. Prerequisite: Prerequisites: EDU 246, EDU 258, EDU 259, School of Education approval.

EDU 334-Methods of Teaching Literacy II (3)
This course examines strategies for teaching, organizing and applying tools of literacy, and assessing reading and writing in diverse classrooms in grades 3-6. Corequisite: EDU 392. Prerequisites: EDU 246, EDU 258, EDU 259, School of Education approval.

EDU 335-Methods of Teaching Literacy III (3)
This course will build on the foundation provided in Literacy I and II to focus on students requiring differentiated in-class instruction and support services to succeed in the classroom. Interpreting and utilizing diagnostic information, classroom management and grouping for maximum learning, individualized literacy methods, and authentic assessment will enable candidates to effectively instruct a diverse body of learners. Prerequisites: EDU 246, EDU 258, EDU 259, School of Education approval.. Corequisite: EDU 392.

EDU 336-Methods in Teaching Math in Elementary School (3)

EDU 341-Web Publishing (2)

Prerequisite: HIS/REL 342. This course is only offered at the New York City Campus. (Same as THE 325)

HIS 326-The History of the City of New York (3)
A study of the continual transformations of New York City from its early days as a seventeenth century Dutch trading community to its late twentieth century status as an international economic, political, and cultural capital. New York has always exemplified urban diversity, embracing within its boundaries people from all ethnic groups, religions, and social categories. This historical overview will incorporate a variety of biographical and autobiographical accounts of disparate peoples as we seek to explore various aspects of the city during its growth and development.

HIS 327 - Family and Society in Early Modern England (3)
In this course the student will study history from the “bottom up”. The social history of the people of England from 1500 to 1800 will include the study of family structure, marriage, religious traditions and practices, occupations, gender constructs and the effects of famine and pestilence in the pre-industrial era. Emphasis will be given to the development and effects of the Reformation in England including the reforms of Cranmer, the Pilgrimage of Grace, John Foxe’s creation of the Book of Martyrs, the Puritans and the Civil War.

HIS 329 – Late Antiquity and Byzantium (3)
This course follows the study of the Ancient World in chronological order. This course begins with the fall of the Roman Empire in the 5th century and ends in the ninth century with the coronation of Charlemagne in the west and the rule of Irene in the Byzantine Empire. The rise, development and institutionalization of the Christian Church in both the east and the west, the reign of Justinian, the kingdoms of the Franks, Goths, vandals and Huns in the west, and the rich spiritual traditions of the people will all be studied in this course.

HIS 330- Colonial America (3)
This class will include discussions of the planting and maturation of the English colonies of North America. Relationships between Europeans and native peoples, the immediate origins and long-term consequences of the movement to gain independence from Great Britain will also be covered. Special attention will be paid to the formation and operations of the government under the Confederation and Constitution, and the development of political parties. Prerequisite: HIS 213.

HIS 331- Latin American History (3)
This course studies the history of Central and South America and the Caribbean. It begins with pre-European civilizations and proceeds through to the present day. It provides insight into colonial developments, movements for independence, relations with the U.S., and recent efforts to throw off U.S. hegemony.

HIS 334 – Medieval Civilizations: East and West (3)
The study of Medieval Civilizations covers the time period from the early ninth century to the late fifteenth century. This course will examine the religious, political, social, economic and cultural influence and contributions of the Byzantium, Muslim and European societies in this time period. Special attention will be given to diversity of Spain in this era, where Muslims, Christians and Jews lived and worked together on a daily basis.

HIS 335- Europe: Renaissance to Reformation (3)
This class examines European civilization from the late Middle Ages through the division of Christendom into rival religious confessions. Topics of study will include: the Black Death, the Italian Renaissance, Protestantism, the Catholic Reformation, European colonization, and the Thirty Years War. Prerequisite: HIS 113.

HIS 340- Civil War and Reconstruction (3)

HIS 345- Europe in an Age of Revolutions (3)
This class will examine early modern Europe, detailing such matters as royal absolutism, the English civil wars, the Scientific Revolution, the Enlightenment, the French Revolution, and the Napoleonic Wars, as well as select topics in economic, social, and cultural history. Prerequisite: HIS 114.

HIS 346- African-American History (3)
This course begins with the exploitation of African peoples as slaves in the U.S. and culminates in a study of the efforts by African-Americans to move beyond their past. The study looks at the institution of slavery, its elimination in the Civil War, the plight of Black people in the late 19th and early 20th century, and the Civil Rights movement of the 1950s to the present.

HIS 350- America: Gilded Age to Great Crash (3)
This course covers the United States from Reconstruction through the Stock Market Crash. Development of the United States during the most intensive phase of industrialization. Special emphasis on national, social, political, and economic developments. Prerequisite: HIS 214.

HIS 354- Islam in the West (3)
Same as REL 354 and ICS 354

HIS 355- Europe: Foundations of the Modern World (3)
This course covers European history from the post-Napoleonic era through the First World War. Special topics will include the Congress of Vienna, the spread of democracy, nationalism, imperialism, materialism, the Belle Epoch, and the First World War. Prerequisite: HIS 114.

HIS 357- Women in American History (3)
This course is a historical study of the condition, status, and role of American women from colonial times to the present. Changes and continuities in women’s lives and in attitudes towards femininity will be examined in relation to the development of the religious, domestic, social, and political spheres in American society.
HIS 361- History of Societies and Cultures in Africa (3)
This course will provide a broad historical survey of African societies and institutions from the earliest traces of human culture to the emergence of independent nations in the modern era. It will be especially concerned with the evolution of the social, political, religious, and technological aspects of society, and the subsequent impact of conquest, colonialism, and the current international economic and political order. (meets social science elective)

HIS 365- History of Pre-Modern Asia (3)
This course explores the early civilizations and development of East Asia from a historical perspective, focusing primarily on China and Japan, but also including some aspects of Korea and Vietnam. It examines the emerging cultures and societies of the reigning dynasties, as well as the expansions of these civilizations with the West, up until the 1600s. This interdisciplinary history course examines literature, religion, history, and political-economic factors to interpret change in East Asian societies. It is designed to help students experience a historical tradition outside the Western experience, to provide the opportunity for students to encounter primary sources in translation, and to introduce different approaches to the study of history. Lectures and readings will balance the survey method with an emphasis on the rich particulars of biography, scenes from daily life, literature and films.

HIS 367- Asia in the Wider World (3)
This course is a survey of the major civilizations of Asia, ranging from the Indian Subcontinent, through Indochina and Indonesia, to China and Japan. The focus will be on the key social, political, religious, and cultural developments of the major peoples from their beginnings to the present. Various primary and secondary sources will be used in the form of lecture, readings, and films.

HIS 368- History of Modern East Asia (3)
This course explores the development of modern East Asia from a historical perspective, focusing primarily on China and Japan, but also including some aspects of Korea and Vietnam. It examines the struggles of these four countries to preserve or regain their independence and establish their national identities in a rapidly emerging modern world order. This interdisciplinary course examines literature, religion, history, and political-economic factors to interpret change in East Asian societies. It is designed to help students experience a historical tradition outside the Western experience, to provide the opportunity for students to encounter primary sources in translation, and to introduce different approaches for the student of history. Lectures and readings will balance the survey method with an emphasis on the rich particulars of biography, scenes from daily life, literature, and films.

HIS 384-Geographical and Historical Setting of the Bible (3) (For course description see BIB 384)

HIS 385- Rome Field Study Trip (3) (For course description see BIB 385)

HIS 386-Greece/Turkey Field Study (3) (same as ANT 386 and BIB 386)
This course engages the historical, geographical, and cultural setting of ancient Asia Minor and modern Turkey. The program will visit archaeological sites important in the history of Rome and Greece during their domination of Antolia (Plain of Issus, Sagalassos, Ephesus), as well as historical and religious sites that mark the presence of Christianity in the days of the Apostles (Tarsus, Antioch, Laodicea) and the Byzantine era (Hagia Sophia). Students will be encouraged to encounter and understand aspects of modern Turkish life through personal contacts, dialog and visits to religious and cultural sites (Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace). (same as ANT 386 and BIB 386).

HIS 410-Recent American History (3)
This class studies the United States since the Great Depression. Topics of study will include: the 1920s, the New Deal, World War II, and post-War developments. Prerequisite: HIS 214. Junior status or permission of instructor required.

HIS 411-Spiritual Autobiography (3)
The course offers an investigation into the lives and ministries of dedicated men and women in the Christian tradition throughout the centuries. The prayers, diaries, letters and biographies of select saints will be examined to glean inspiration and instruction for 21st century ministry. (Same as PMN 411, REL 411)

HIS 412-The Second World War (3)
This upper division course examines the greatest conflict in human history, the Second World War. Students will examine the causes and events of the Second World War, the diplomatic and military trends of the period, the blitzkrieg, the Battle of Britain, D-Day, the Holocaust, the domestic front, and the roles played by individual leaders such as Mussolini, Hitler, and Churchill. Ultimately, the Second World War defined an entire epoch in world history, altering the international system, leading to the emergence of the United States and the Soviet Union as world powers.

HIS 413-History of Christian Spirituality (3)
A historical study of both the eastern and western traditions of Christian spirituality from the era of the Early Fathers to modern day practices. Forms and patterns of personal and group prayer will be explored and students will be encouraged to employ historical forms of devotion in their personal life and ministry. (Same as PMN 413, REL 413)

HIS 414- Russia: 1800 to Present (3)
In this course, we will examine the society, identity, economic and cultural landscape of Imperial Russia in the late 18th century. In the period before the 1917 Russian Revolution, we will compare and contrast the similarities and differences between Russia and western Europe. Our study will continue with the causes and effects of the Russian Revolution and the establishment, and eventual breakdown, of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

HIS 415-Contemporary Europe (3)
This class will cover European history from 1919 until today. Special emphasis will be placed upon the Treaty of Versailles, the rise of the Bolsheviks, the Great Depression, Nazi Germany, World War Two, the Cold War, and modern thought and culture. Prerequisite: HIS 114. Junior status or permission of instructor required.
HIS 433-History of Religion in America (3)
The history of Christian and non-Christian religions and the cults in America. (Same as REL 433)

HIS 470-Senior Seminar (3)
Analysis of selected problems in history, historiography, and philosophy of history. Prerequisite: Senior status or permission of instructor required.

HIS 480-Independent Study (1-3)
Independent study in an approved topic in History. Permission of the Department Head and Dean is required.

HIS 490-Internship (1-3)
The practical application of historical knowledge in an applied setting will be studied. The location and nature of the internship for the Learning Contract must be approved by the Department Head and the Dean.

HIS 499-Teaching Assistantship (3)
Directed practices in college teaching of history. This course is intended to insure that History majors are adequately prepared and supervised when they are given college teaching responsibilities, notably grading, sectional discussions, and review sessions. It will also present a mechanism for students to gain some teaching experience. Consent of instructor required.

HONORS (HUM) Traditional Undergraduate

HUM 260- Honors Special Topics (3)
In these courses, honors students, under the direction of specialists, will study topics not covered elsewhere in the curriculum at the introductory level. Courses will explore areas such as seashore ecology, religions of the world, medical ethics, art history, international business, and culture and belief of people groups. (Liberal arts elective)

INTERCULTURAL STUDIES (IC) Alliance Theological Seminary

IC 500/600/700 Directed Study (3)
Independent study in intercultural studies under faculty advisement. Topics and readings are determined mutually by the student and faculty member, usually resulting in a formal paper presenting research, analysis and conclusions.

IC 501 Perspectives on Mission (3)
The kingdom of God has advanced in history and throughout the world through mission – God’s partnership with his people to make disciples of all nations. This course will explore the biblical foundations, historical patterns, current issues and practices for doing mission, with the goal of providing practical tools for mobilizing the church to be engaged in God’s global mission. One strong objective for the class is to enable pastors to recognize and empower those with a missions calling on their lives. Offered fall. *Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

IC 601 Global Expansion of the Church (3)
This course considers the expansion of the church around the world in history through the lens of nine key dynamics identified by church historian and missiologist Paul Pierson. A biographical approach is used allowing students to become familiar with great missionaries in history. Their successes and failures are analyzed in light of Pierson's nine principles. Students are involved in a "living room" style discussion based on selected readings or a guest lecturer's presentation. This course seeks the formation of a "learning community" of those intending cross-cultural and/or urban ministry. Offered fall.

IC 602 Cultural Immersion and Social Analysis (3)
This course enables students to learn the theory and practice of ethnography. Students learn to study a cultural group through interviewing and participant observation. They also learn how to use what they learn about a group’s worldview to shape a relevant communication of the gospel in that community. Uniquely this class spends nine days living together in New York City while they interview people from a chosen cultural community. (Pre-requisite: CS501) Offered spring.

IC 603 Doing Theology in Context (3)
This course enables students to understand and begin to use methods for doing theology in context. It invites the student to wrestle with the tension between the authority of the gospel as revealed in scripture and the various ways in which the gospel is expressed and communicated in historical-cultural contexts. The class uses a seminar format in which each student leads at least one of the discussions. (Also TH 603; Pre-requisite: CS501) Offered spring.

IC 604 Christian Encounter with World Religions (3)
This course follows a study of the major religions of our world and some folk religions. While attention is given to the theological and philosophical assumptions behind each religion the focus is on learning about the adherents of each faith. Field trips take the student into situations where they will engage people of other faiths and have opportunity to hear from those who hold these faiths as true and meaningful. Offered fall.

IC 605 Issues & Methods in Contemporary Mission (3)
Insights from missionary anthropology and missionary theology. Review and evaluate significant concepts and practices in the current mission enterprise. *Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

IC 606 Field Project in Christian Witness Offered spring.
Course Descriptions

IC 660 Mission Outreach in the Chinese Church (3)
Chinese churches are undoubtedly ready for missions. This course attempts to deal with the "basis of" and the "how to do" of a missions program. It includes the study of the theology of mission, methods and strategies in world evangelization and the setting up of a practical missions program in a church.

IC 720 Theology of Power Encounter (3)
A survey of biblical teaching, church history and ethnographic data concerning the encounter of the gospel with non-divine power. Principles are developed for ministry to those involved with non-divine power. (Also TH 720) Offered spring.

IC 721 Christian Witness in the Context of Poverty (3)
This course analyzes the various contexts of poverty in order to understand the lives of the poor more deeply and to inform our response to their plight. It enables the student to gain a deeper understanding of the macro and micro levels of poverty, the scriptural response to poverty, and discusses a variety of Christian models for responding to poverty in North America and around the world. Students interview a homeless person and visit church based and para-church based ministries to the poor in their region. Throughout the class the question of Christian witness among the poor is kept in view. Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

IC 722 Tentmaking as a Mission Strategy (3)
This course surveys the current challenges in mission that call for a strategy of doing mission in a professional occupation (tentmaking) in a foreign country. It looks at some historical models of tentmaking, considers ethical issues related to this strategy, critiques tentmaker strategies, provides guidelines for doing missions as a tentmaker, and surveys the opportunities open to tentmaking missions around the world.

IC 723 Engaging the Muslim World (3)
An overview of the Muslim faith and ritual practice. Various approaches to Christian witness among Muslim people are analyzed for mission strategy. Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

IC 724 Intercultural Leadership Dynamics (3)
Globalization is changing our world. Ministry is rarely mono-cultural today. It is often cross-cultural and multicultural. Thus the task of leadership development needs to operate with this multiple culture context in mind. Generally, in the past, leadership development has been a slave to a Western perspective and theory. This course seeks to uncover the images and metaphors of leadership from outside the Western perspective, which bring a global corrective to the practice of developing leaders. In the process, students will walk through self-assessment to better understand themselves as followers and leaders.

IC 725 Christian Witness among Buddhists (3)
This course studies history, social-cultural contexts, theological assumptions and practice of Theravada and Mahayana Buddhist traditions in Southeast and East Asia. It also considers the history of missions among Buddhists in these regions of the world. The study moves from these subjects to its primary goal of considering effective methods of evangelism among Buddhists of these two major traditions in Asia. Students may substitute Buddhist temple visits and interviews for some of the reading and writing assignments.

IC 770-779 Seminars in Intercultural Studies (3)
Seminars developed to consider additional selected topics not included in the standard intercultural studies curriculum.

IC 780 Dynamics in Cross-Cultural Communication (3)
This course allows students to study and experience the dynamics of real cross-cultural communication in a context outside of the United States. The format will vary but often involves accompanying one of the Alliance Graduate School of Mission faculty on an overseas mission trip for a few weeks during Winterim break or the summer months. Students interview people from the local context, participate in the ministry as possible and make observations that will enable them to understand and learn skills in cross-cultural communication for ministry. Recent classes have been done in Mali and Laos.

IC 799 Capstone Project
Students will either participate in a Second Continent Experience or successfully complete a Comprehensive Exam (3)
The second continent writing project is based on a new second continent mission experience that is not less than eight weeks and that has been approved by the student's advisor and the mission leader on the field. During the time that students spend in the field (the second continent missions situation) they will gather data for their writing project. Offered spring.

IC 798 Capstone Project Continuation (0)

INTERCULTURAL STUDIES (ICS) Traditional Undergraduate

ICS 224-Introduction to Global Engagement (3)
This course is designed to introduce the student to the Biblical and theological foundations, history and strategy for global evangelism in the world today. Special attention will be given to issues of personal calling and preparation as well as current trends in intercultural studies. (Same as PMN 224)

ICS 357-English, the Arts and Gospel in a Cross Cultural Environment (3)
This course will use the creative arts to teach English and present the gospel. Students will tour Hungary's unique cultural sites dating from Roman times and the Turkish, Austrian, Nazi and Soviet occupations, to freedom. Join Hungarian nationals to learn local customs and cuisine, and partner with ministries in their ongoing work. Engage disenfranchised populations by working with the Roma people group (gypsies) and orphans. This course includes a required 3-day pre-winterim training workshop to prepare students for a short term English teaching experience.

ICS 358-Community Development in Context (3)
A service-learning intensive course that confronts the realities of contextual community transformation. Biblical foundations, challenges, and transformative theories will be studied, observed and applied on site. Faculty instruction will build the framework for students as they work directly with an International Community Development organization. Site will vary according to the instructor. Course fee will vary depending on location. (Same as CED 358/PMN 358/YMN 358)

ICS 359-International Public Health (3)
Students will be provided with a basic introduction to the issues of health facing the world in urban, rural, developing, and at-risk communities. Attention will be given to tools and training needed to assess and meet physical needs.

ICS 383-Latin America Overseas Summer Study Program (2)
This two-week course combines an overseas study trip to Latin America with classroom instruction. Students will have the opportunity to observe cross-cultural missions firsthand by visiting churches and other ministries such as Alliance Academy, Bible seminaries, radio, and evangelism outreach. Classroom instruction will examine the history of Catholic and Protestant missions and the Charismatic movement in Latin America, as well as models of ministry. (Same as REL 393)

ICS 432-Principles of Church Growth (3)
A study of people movements, homogeneous units, resistant and receptive peoples, the “bridges of God”, and other concepts intimately related to the growth of churches. Consideration will be given to special problems and techniques involved in planting churches cross-culturally. (Same as PMN 432)

Also included will be 6 to 12 credits worth of language study in an accredited language school.

ICS 495/496-Urban Ministries Internship (3) (For course description see PMN 495/496)

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES (INT) Traditional Undergraduate

INT 102 Civic Engagement and the Servant Leader (3)
This course will examine the values, persona, methods and strategies of servant leaders who used their faith as a foundation for addressing challenges in communities to bring about social change. Servant leader models include Albert Benjamin Simpson, Martin Luther King, Jr., Billy Graham, Mother Theresa and others. This course is experiential inasmuch as it combines academic work with service learning. Students will employ theoretical learning to identify and address social problems within a select number of neighborhoods in Nyack and surrounding communities. In partnership with local community organizations students will engage in service-learning projects to bring about change. This course will serve as an elective for any interested student.

INT 112-Foundations for Excellence (2)
This course examines issues facing first-time Freshmen attending Nyack College. In general, students will explore what it means to live and learn as an individual in a Christian academic community. The course examines questions such as: What are the liberal arts and why should we study these subjects? How does Nyack College, as a Christian institution, distinctively address the liberal arts? What are the key components of lifelong learning and character formation? How can we develop career goals and four-year study plans?

INT 240-241-Seminar in Residence Life (1-1)
Course Descriptions

This course is designed to explore and promote the personal and paraprofessional development of each Resident Assistant. Emphasis is placed upon residence life philosophy and its role in college life, the developmental issues of college students, and various leadership theories. Skills are enhanced through the application of these concepts to interpersonal relationships and group settings within the residence halls. (Open only to Resident Assistants)

INT 310-Leadership Practicum (3)
Through this practicum, outstanding students will be allowed the opportunity to work alongside faculty members who teach Civic Engagement and the Servant Leader (INT 102). These students will receive training in leadership and small group dynamics, which will allow them to integrate meaningful community service instruction and reflection to enhance the learning experience, enrich civic responsibility, and strengthen communities.

INT 481-Integrative Capstone Seminar (2)
This course will involve examination of the emergence of the academic disciplines in higher education and will involve the preparation and presentation of a well-written and academically substantial interdisciplinary research paper emanating from the student’s chosen disciplines. Pre-requisite: Discipline-specific research course in at least one of the fields of concentration.

LANGUAGE Traditional Undergraduate

Additionally, for two credits students will write a 15-page paper. For three credits, students will also pass an oral and/or written exam after the immersion experience. Prerequisite: At least one semester, but preferably two semesters of Spanish.

INDEPENDENT STUDY PROGRAM (IN) Alliance Theological Seminary Classes

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

IN 501 ISP: Church Leadership and Administration (24 lectures, 2 cr)
A course designed to develop leadership potential in students and to give them a familiarity with the various elements of the administrative process, including: goal setting and achieving, organization, delegation, human relations, group dynamics, supervision, and the training of other leaders. Though the principles are universal, the focus of the course is the Christian organization, particularly the local church.

IN 502 ISP: Interpersonal Communication and Conflict Management (24 lectures, 2 cr)
An examination of the process of interpersonal communication and conflict management within Christian organizations. Attention is given to communication, self-concept, non-verbal messages, stress and the productive use of conflict management.

IN 503 ISP: Advanced Leadership & Administration (24 lectures, 2 cr)
Built on the course "Church Leadership & Administration", this course examines the biblical foundation and practical functions of administrative leadership in churches and Christian organizations. Students will analyze basic leadership principles from secular and evangelical sources, analyzing them through a biblical/theological grid.

IN 504 ISP: Adult Ministries in the Church (24 lectures, 2 cr)
This course reviews the principles of adult learning and their application to adults and specific groups such as singles, single parents, and families. Practical steps are given to analyze the church’s entire adult ministry.

CHURCH HISTORY

IN 511 ISP: The Ancient Church (24 lectures, 3 cr)
The history of the ancient church (Pentecost to AD 500). Includes the development of doctrine, and the main figures of the Patristic Age.

IN 512 ISP: Reformation Church History (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A study of the development of the theology, the piety and the churches of the Reformation against the backdrop of the social, political, and intellectual character of the sixteenth century.

IN 513 ISP: A History of Christianity in America (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A study of the Protestant churches in America from colonial beginnings to the present with emphasis on the numerous influences that have forged the current religious scene.
Course Descriptions

IN 514 ISP: The Theology of Jonathan Edwards (24 lectures, 3 cr)
Taking a topical approach, this course covers Edwards’ teachings on all the major points of systematic theology, giving particular emphasis to his unique theological contributions.

IN 515 ISP: Survey of Church History (24 lectures, 3 cr)
The course is designed to provide the student with a basic introduction to the development of the Christian church from its founding at Pentecost to the present day.

IN 516 ISP: Church History to the Reformation (24 lectures, 3 cr)
The course provides an in-depth introduction to the development of the Christian church’s doctrine, faith, and practice from its founding at Pentecost to the time of the Protestant Reformation.

IN 517 ISP: Church History since the Reformation (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A survey of the development of the Christian church’s doctrine, faith and practice from the Protestant Reformation to the present. The course highlights the rise and spread of various traditions.

IN 518 ISP: The Radical Reformation (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An examination of those groups of the Reformation era that sought a complete break from (rather than reform within) the Catholic Church.

IN 519 ISP: The Theology of Martin Luther (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A survey of the background and setting of Luther’s thought, as well as his teaching on a range of topics, including sin and grace, justification and faith, law and gospel, and service in the workplace.

IN 610 ISP: A History of the Charismatic Movement (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A historical and theological study of the origins and development within the Classical Pentecostal, Charismatic Renewalist, and Restoration Movements with an emphasis on theological backgrounds and trends.

IN 611 ISP: Augustine & Medieval Theology (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A comprehensive introduction to St. Augustine: his life, his works, and his legacy in the medieval church. The course details his youth, conversion, literary works, and battles against the day’s emerging heresies.

MINISTRY STUDIES

IN 521 ISP: Spiritual Formation: Dimensions of Spirituality (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An investigation into the meaning of Biblical Christianity and its relationship to faith and practice within contemporary cultural contexts. Special attention is given to the corporate dimensions of spirituality and spiritual formation as defined in the New Testament. Those historical and cultural factors that have led to the privatization of Christianity are analyzed and discussed. A paradigm of spiritual growth and maturity that focuses on the assembly rather than the individual is developed.

IN 522 ISP: The Role of Women in Ministry (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A study of ministry to and by women, including Biblical foundations for roles of women in the home, church, and society, and principles for evangelizing, discipling, and counseling women. The course is designed to aid men and women who will be responsible for various areas of women’s ministries.

IN 526 ISP: The Christian Life: An Evangelical Spiritual Theology (24 lectures, 3 cr)
This course develops a theology of Christian spirituality. Distinctive theological, historical and church-connected features are explored. Practical and contemporary issues enable spiritual formation in a post-modern, pluralistic, materialistic society. A theology for a life of prayer is developed from which the Christian life can be lived and sustained.

NEW TESTAMENT

IN 531 ISP: The Sermon on the Mount (10 lectures, 2 cr)
The course is an exposition of Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5-7. Emphasis is placed on the distinctive character that is expected of the Christian and on the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ.

IN 532 ISP: The Pastoral Epistles (20 lectures, 3 cr)
An expository and exegetical study of I and II Timothy and Titus with emphasis on their exegetical and interpretive problems and on their theology and practical relevance for society and the church, especially church leadership. Two separate programmed syllabi have been prepared where seminary credit is desired, one requires a knowledge of Greek, and the other does not.

IN 533 ISP: The Epistle to the Romans (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An exegetical theological study of Paul’s Epistle to the Romans. The course covers the treatment of selected historical, grammatical, structural, and lexical issues that explain the meaning of this important New Testament document. Special emphasis is given to the theological themes and overall argument of the Epistle. This course assumes a basic skill in Greek exegesis and the ability to make grammatical and textual critical evaluations and to do Greek word studies.

IN 534 ISP: Gospels / Life of Christ (24 lectures, 3 cr)
This course is a chronological and synthetic study of the Gospels’ accounts of Christ’s birth, life, death, resurrection, and ascension. The course focuses on the time, place, circumstances, and people involved in the events of our Lord’s ministry.

IN 536 ISP: The Gospel of Luke (24 lectures, 3 cr)
 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

IN 537 ISP: The Acts of the Apostles (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An examination of the Acts of the Apostles with concentration on the Biblical theology, the historical background of events, and the theological emphasis of the speeches. Special attention is given to the relationship between the church and Israel in the early church era.

IN 538 ISP: Epistles and Revelation (24 lectures, 3 cr)
This course examines both the introductory issues and basic content of the New Testament epistles and the Book of Revelation. Interaction with specific passages through inductive Bible study is included.

IN 630 ISP: The Epistle to the Hebrews (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A study of the context, content, major interpretive issues, and theological contribution of the Epistle to the Hebrews. Focus is given to the superiority of Jesus—the mediator of the new covenant—and on the use of the Epistle to “encourage one another daily” in our pilgrimage.

OLD TESTAMENT

IN 541 ISP: The Pentateuch (24 lectures, 2 cr)
A study of the Pentateuch with consideration of the particular Pentateuch problems of evolution and higher criticism. The laws, which form the basis of Israel’s theocracy, are examined with regard to their content, meaning and applicability today.

IN 545 ISP: The Book of Psalms (24 lectures, 2 cr)
An introduction to the Book of Psalms with emphasis on the principles of hymnic literature and application of these principles in selected portions. Special attention is given to the various forms of the Psalms, their settings within the historical context, and their application to the church today.

IN 546 ISP: Understanding the Old Testament (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A survey of the history of salvation in the Old Testament especially as it relates to the universal of Old Testament theology. Overall emphasis is given to the rule of God and the establishment of God’s Kingdom in all the earth.

IN 547 ISP: The Book of Proverbs (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An exegetical study of the Book of Proverbs in both its cultural and historical setting and its literary setting with attention to its critical and hermeneutical problems. To get the full benefit out of the course, a knowledge of Hebrew is required for seminary credit.

IN 549 ISP: The Christian and OT Theology (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A study of the foundational theology applied by the Old Testament for the New Testament and the church. This study identifies the focal point for the theology of both the Old and New Testaments. Included are the topics of continuity and discontinuity between the Old and New Testaments, saving faith, the people of God, the law, worship, the atonement, wisdom theology, the Kingdom of God, the Messiah, the inclusion of the Gentiles, the theology of the Holy Spirit, and the preparation of the new covenant.

IN 640 ISP: The Book of Isaiah (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An exegetical study of the Book of Isaiah. This course will survey the contents of the book and seek to develop exegetical skill.

PHILOSOPHICAL THEOLOGY

IN 551 ISP: Christian Ethics: A Biblical Theology of Morality (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An examination of the theories of obligation and the theories of value form a philosophical perspective. A Biblical theology of obligation and a Biblical theology of value are presented along with their implication for decision-making in personal life and church life.

IN 552 ISP: Exploring Approaches to Apologetics (24 lectures, 3 cr)
The course compares Biblical, historical, and recent approaches to defending faith, including the styles of Peter, Paul, Augustine and Aquinas. The bulk of the course examines the approaches of six key twentieth century apologists. The last three lectures exhibit the lecturer’s synthesis.

IN 554 ISP: Christian Worldview (24 lectures, 3 cr)
After an introduction to the nature and function of a worldview, a Christian worldview is developed out of a redemptive history model of theology. It is applied to metaphysics, epistemology and axiology, and contrasted with modern and postmodern thought. Argument is made for developing and living an explicitly Christian worldview, with specific application to Christian ministry.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

IN 563 ISP: Contemporary Theology 1: From Hegel to the Death of God Theologies (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An attempt to examine some of the major trends in contemporary thought beginning with a brief overview of the major developments in Western philosophy prior to Hegel. Discussion involves Hegel, Kierkegaard, Barth, Bultmann, and Tillich, as well as the parallel development of analytic philosophy represented by Wittgenstein. The course culminates in the “God is Dead” theologies of Van Buren and Altizer.

IN 564 ISP: The Doctrine of Man and Sin (20 lectures, 3 cr)
The Doctrine concerning the origin of humanity and the influx of sin into the world is explained. The theory of evolution as it relates to the creation of humanity, the effects of the fall in the Garden to our current condition, and the promise of the restoration of our original image in the likeness of Christ are explored.

IN 565 ISP: The Doctrine of Salvation (24 lectures, 3 cr)
Course Descriptions

The plan and order of salvation outlining the process from regeneration to glorification are discussed. Attention is given to differing views and objections to the Reformed doctrine on this subject, and evidence for both sides is carefully weighed. Specific topics include the question of the attainment of perfection in this life, the relationship of baptism to salvation, and the reason for believing in the perseverance of the saints.

IN 566 ISP: The Doctrine of the Trinity (24 lectures, 3 cr)
The doctrine of the Trinity is presented from Biblical, historical, dogmatic, and contemporary perspectives. Special attention is paid to the historical formulation and recent attempts at re-formulation of the doctrine. Further, the commitment of the church to the Trinity is explained and commended.

MISSIOLOGY

IN 571 ISP: Introduction to World Christian Missions (24 lectures, 2 cr)
An introductory survey of the theology, history, culture, politics, and methods of the Christian mission, with special emphasis on recent development, crucial issues, and future trends, and ending with a study of missions in the local church.

IN 573 ISP: Urban Mission and Ministry (24 lectures, 3 cr)
A focus on Christian mission and ministry in the world’s growing cities. The Biblical basis for urban ministry is presented and case studies of effective urban strategies worldwide are examined. Attention is given to urban issues such as ministry to the poor and homeless, pastoring and raising a family in the city, and planting urban churches.

IN 574 ISP: Missionary Encounter with World Religions (24 lectures, 3 cr)
An introduction to the theology of religions. A Biblical theology of religions is developed against the background of extensive study of current models of approach. Using major religious systems as examples, five characteristics of all religions are sketched. Some practical suggestions for evangelistic approach are proposed.

IN 572 ISP: The History of Missions Through 1983 (2 cr)

IN 578 ISP: African Theology and Religions (24 lectures, 2 cr)
An introduction to Christian theology in Africa against the background of African cultures and religions. Following a brief examination of the culture of Africa, the course centers on Christian theology in Africa and analysis of African religions. African theology is studied in depth.

IN 579 ISP: Introduction to Muslim Evangelism (24 lectures, 3 cr)
Set in a laboratory environment, this course explores the Muslim mind and sharing the Savior with it. The course explores Islam from within as Muslims understand Islam, and from without as Christians understand Islam.

LIBRARY (LIB) Traditional Undergraduate

LIB 101-Information Literacy (1)
This course will help the student construct a framework for effective learning by developing skills used to define and articulate information needs, to access both print and online information effectively and efficiently, to evaluate information into one’s knowledge base and Christian worldview, and to understand and comply with the legal and ethical standards of fair use of resources and ideas. Corequisite: ENG 102.

LINGUISTICS (LIN) Traditional Undergraduate
All courses meet liberal arts elective requirement.

LIN 342-Nature of Language (3) (For course description see ANT 342)
LIN 343-Culture and Communication (3) (For course description see ANT 343)
LIN 352-History of the English Language (3) (For course description see ENG 352)
LIN 353-English Grammar and Phonology (3) (For course description see ENG 353)
LIN 354-Second Language Acquisition (3) (For course description see ENG 354)

MATHEMATICS (MAT) Traditional Undergraduate
All courses meet liberal arts elective requirement.

MAT 101-College Mathematics (3)
Logical structure of the decimal system. Designed to acquaint the student with meaning, development, and communication of number ideas and the logical structure of number systems; the how and why of the basic algorithms of arithmetic. Fundamental concepts of elementary algebra and informal geometry. Prerequisite: Math SAT scores 200-400.

MAT 110-College Algebra (3)
The study of topics from Algebra including basic concepts, equations and inequalities of the first and second degree, functions and graphs, linear and quadratic functions, higher degree polynomial and rational functions, exponential and logarithmic functions, systems of equations and inequalities, sequences and series. Prerequisite: Math SAT 400-525.
Course Descriptions

MAT 211-Math for the Elementary School Teacher (3)
The study of topics from the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics for grades K-6 will be covered. Such topics will include math as problem solving, math as communication, estimation, numbers and numeration, probability and statistics. Education majors only. Prerequisite: MAT 101 or equivalent.

MAT 231-Pre-Calculus (3)
An in-depth study of mathematical ideas, concepts, and solutions relative to algebra, trigonometry, and functions. Prerequisite: Math SAT 525-800.

MAT 236-Calculus I (3)
An introductory course in the theory and applications of differential calculus including concept of limits, introduction to the derivative, techniques of differentiation, integration and integration methods, the fundamental theorem of the calculus, and the study of exponential and logarithmic functions. Prerequisite: MAT 110 or MAT 231 or instructor’s permission.

MAT 237-Calculus II (3)
A course in advanced techniques in the application of calculus to a better understanding of God’s world. Topics include calculating the areas bounded by curves, volumes of solids of revolution, arc lengths, and surface areas of various functions, trigonometric integrals, and L’Hopital’s Rule. Prerequisite: MAT 236.

MAT 238-Calculus III (3)
The study of infinite series, parametric curves and vectors in the plane, vectors, curves, and surfaces in space, partial differentiation, and multiple integration. Prerequisite: MAT 237.

MAT 243-Analytic Geometry (3)
A study of lines, curves, angles, and solids using algebraic principles. The student is introduced to conic sections, simplification of equations, trigonometric functions, and polar coordinates. Prerequisite: Math elective.

MAT 310-Linear Algebra (3)
A study of advance topics in algebra. Topics will include: vector spaces and linear maps, matrices, linear mapping, determinants, linear systems, eigen vectors, and eigen values. Prerequisite: MAT 110 or higher.

MAT 311-History of Mathematics (3)
The study of ancient mathematics—Arabian, Babylonian, Chinese, Hindu and Greek. Topics include problem solving, numeral systems, number theory, arithmetic, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, algebraic geometry.

MAT 330-Probability and Statistics (3)
Statistical methods. Topics include probability, distributions, statistical estimation, hypothesis testing, regression analysis, sampling, and time-series. Emphasis will be given to the analysis of data. Prerequisite: Math elective or instructor’s permission.

MAT 343-Topology (3)
Abstract topological spaces, bases, convergence, filters and nets, separation axioms, continuity separability, and compactness. Prerequisite: MAT 243 or MAT 310.

MAT 345-Discrete Mathematics (3)
The study of sets and logic, Boolean algebra, functions, algorithms, relations, combinatorics, trees and graphs, and the nature of proof. Prerequisite: MAT 236 or instructor’s permission.

MAT 401-Differential Equations (3)
A study of advanced topics in algebra, calculus, and differential equations. Topics include solution methods for ordinary, partial, and directional derivatives, special solution methods for 1st- and 2nd-order systems, infinite series, Laplace, and Fourier methods. Prerequisite: MAT 238 or instructor’s permission.

MAT 412-Advanced Linear Algebra (3)
The study of systems of linear equations, matrices, vector spaces, linear transformations, and scaler products. Topics selected from determinants, game theory, graph theory, marker chains, and linear programming. Prerequisite: MAT 310.

MAT 418-Numerical Analysis (3)
Elementary discussion of errors, polynomial interpolation, quadrature, linear systems of equations, solutions of non-linear equations, numerical differentiation, integration, and solutions to differential equations. Prerequisite: MAT 401.

MAT 440-Vector Calculus (3)
The study of vector algebra, properties of transformations, curves and surfaces, line and surface integrals, Greens’ theorem, Stokes’ theorem, and Gauss’ theorem. Prerequisite: MAT 238.

MAT 444-Mathematical Logic (3)
Informal and formal development of propositional calculus, predicate calculus, and predicate calculus with equality. The study of the completeness theorem and some consequences. Prerequisite: MAT 345.

MAT 458-Operations Management and Linear Programming (3)
(For course description see BUS 458)

MAT 470-Mathematics Seminar (3)
In-depth study of some topic or topics of current interest to Mathematics faculty and advanced students. Students will be expected to do independent research and to present their findings in a small-group setting. Instructor’s permission required.
Course Descriptions

MAT 490-Internship (1-3)
The practical application of mathematical knowledge in an applied setting will be studied. The location and nature of the internship for the Learning Contract must be approved by the Department Head and the Dean.

MARRIAGE & FAMILY THERAPY (MFT) Alliance Graduate School of Counseling

MFT 501 Perspectives on Counselor Formation (2)
This course will be a subjective work focusing on the person of the counselor. It will emphasize the personal experience and spiritual development of the individual as a Christian in the process of becoming a helping professional, and how their development translates into caring for others. Offered summer.

MFT 503B Research in Marriage & Family Therapy (3)
This course provides an overview of the purpose, methodology, and process of marital and family therapy research. Students will learn various methodologies (both quantitative and qualitative) toward the process of developing an effective research protocol. Students will become “consumers of MFT research literature” by gaining a working knowledge of scholarly resources, an ability to evaluate those resources and basic skills toward the application of scholarly research for effective clinical practice. Offered spring.

MFT 504 Psychopathology (3) *RBI
The student is to acquire a critical appreciation for the basis of describing, categorizing, explaining, and understanding human psychopathology. The course seeks to provide an overview of the different classes of mental disorders including diagnostic criteria, theories of etiology, and treatment modalities. Offered fall.

MFT 505B Theories of Marriage & Family Therapy I (3) *RBI
This course is designed to facilitate a basic, introductory understanding of the various schools of family systems theory. Historical origins of systemic constructs shall be explored along with key pioneers in the movement of this distinct therapeutic orientation. Seven “classical” MFT sub-schools will be studied (Bowenian; Object Relations; Contextual; Experiential; Strategic; Structural; Cognitive-Behavioral). Students will begin the process of developing a systemic theoretical framework for intentional and effective clinical practice. Offered fall.

MFT 508B Theoretical & Personal Foundations of MFT (3) *RBI
This course will provide a theoretical foundation for effective marriage and family therapy. Students will be exposed to basic family systemic constructs such as circular causality, process dynamics, differentiation, family structure and intergenerational influences upon family functioning. These concepts will be further internalized as students engage a core motto of this program: “You cannot lead people to places you are unwilling to go to yourself.” Students will apply and personalize core systemic concepts to their respective families of origin and current nuclear families. Further, “self-of-therapist” issues will be examined by an assessment of one’s interpersonal skills that may enhance or impede professional effectiveness. In addition, self-exploration will involve a discovery of personality-type theory that will impact both personal and professional life. Offered fall.

MFT 509 Pre-Marital Counseling (1) *RBI
This course is designed to facilitate a basic knowledge of premarital counseling. Theoretical and Biblical foundations shall be explored and practical skills shall be developed as students examine various premarital counseling approaches. As a result of this course students will be trained and qualified to use the Prepare/Enrich Inventory. Offered spring.

MFT 602 Measurement and Assessment (1)
This course is a continuation of the study of modern approaches to diagnosis and assessment of psychopathology and other mental health issues such as intelligence, personality, vocation and career, and psycho-education and achievement. Emphasis is placed on understanding and utilizing a variety of basic assessment tools to aid in the diagnosis and evaluation process of mental health disorders and other counseling issues. Exploration of assessment tools used for evaluating intelligence, educational achievement, neuropsychological domains, personality, psychopathology, and career interests will be covered in this course. Offered fall.

MFT 603B Individual and Family Development (3) *RBI
The course will provide an overview of the major theories, developmental issues, and data of developmental psychology, covering the prenatal stage through late adulthood. The course will study human development within the context of the family life cycle. The texts and other course materials and learning activities provide the background and the tools to enable professionals to view their clients from a developmental perspective and increase awareness and knowledge of the many interrelated factors involved in developmental dynamics within the family milieu. Offered fall.

MFT 604B MFT Ethics, Family Law and Professional Issues (3)
This course is designed to promote an understanding of ethical and legal issues that pertain to the field of marriage and family therapy. Students will be exposed to these issues for the purposes of providing a foundation for professional competence, safety and integrity. In addition, there will be an exploration of professional identity and affiliation, licensure, self-care and areas of specialization within the MFT field. Offered spring.

MFT 605B Theories of Marriage & Family Therapy II (1) *RBI
This course is designed to build on and continue the study of MFT theories in MFT 605. Here, students will be exposed to the post-modern schools of MFT with particular focus on Solution-focused theory and Narrative theory. Offered spring.

MFT 608 Ethnicity and Family Therapy (3)
This course focuses on the impact of ethnicity upon the clinical practice of marital and family therapy. Students will gain diversity awareness and sensitivity for effective clinical assessment and treatment of various family issues. Families from African origin and European descent will be explored along with various Asian and Latino family systems. Throughout this course, diversity issues will be examined from the family systems and biblical perspectives. Offered fall.
Course Descriptions

MFT 609 Marital Therapy: Assessment & Treatment (3)
This course is designed to provide a basic theoretical foundation for effective marital therapy. Students will explore a variety of family systems theories for both the conceptualization and the application of systemic interventions. Basic therapy skills will be examined along with typical mistakes that are made by beginning therapists. Gender issues that impact marital therapy will be presented along with an evaluation of the clinical issues of divorce and extramarital affairs. Offered spring.

MFT 610 Family Therapy: Assessment & Treatment (3)
This course is designed to introduce students to theoretical and practical approaches for effective family therapy. A variety of family systemic models will be utilized with special attention upon the construction of treatment plans that are consistent with theoretical assessment. Various assessment strategies will be offered along with specific focus upon the impact of abuse and divorce upon the family system. In addition, students will examine various methodologies for involving children in the clinical process of family work. Offered spring.

MFT 691 MFT Practicum (1) *RBI
This course provides an entry into the Internship experience by providing 20 hours of clinical observation/co-therapy with senior MFT students or other licensed clinicians. Students will be orientated to the clinical processes of Internship and Supervision. Expectation, procedures and evaluative methods will be examined. The course will minimize student anxiety about their Internship by providing a transitional experience at a variety of professional clinical sites. Offered fall.

MFT 705B Theories of Marriage and Family Therapy III (1)
This course is designed to assist students in the process of learning how to integrate the various models/theories of marriage and family therapy. A meta-model of theory-selection will be explored to provide a conceptual framework of factors that contribute toward finding the best theoretical “fit” for optimum clinical effectiveness. Students will learn this theory as it is applied to a variety of clinical case studies. Offered summer.

MFT 706 Sex Therapy (3)
This course is designed to explore normal sexual development and function across the life span. Students will examine physiological, theological, sociological and psychological issues related to couple’s sexuality. Assessment skills for common sexual difficulties and disorders will be offered along with basic systemic treatment interventions. Offered summer.

MFT 707 Children & Adolescents in Marriage & Family Therapy (2)
This course is designed to build upon the basic Family Therapy course and further students training in working with children and adolescents. Therapy with youth will be explored within the context of family therapy and within the context of individual therapy with children and adolescents. Particular MFT theories (i.e. Structural; Strategic; Solution-Focused and Narrative) will be revisited and reinforced as they are practically applied to clinical work with youth. Students will explore the usefulness of “playfulness” and play therapy in this clinical area. Offered fall.

MFT 708 Abusive & Addictive Family Systems (2)
This course is designed to provide students with theoretical knowledge and clinical skills for various types of domestic violence. We will explore child abuse, intimate partner violence between adults and elder abuse. Emphasis will be placed upon the systemic dynamics related to current abuse issues. Gaining competence in reporting and providing meaningful interventions will be a focus of this course. Students will further learn how to treat adults who were victims of childhood abuse. In addition, this course will provide foundational assessment and treatment skills for dealing with addicted individuals within the family context. The addictive family system will be examined with a key focus upon the impact and treatment of sexual addiction. Offered summer.

MFT 709 Marriage and Family Enrichment (2)
This course will explore various approaches for intentional marriage and family enrichment in the context of family ministry within the local congregation. Students will examine both cultural hindrances and biblical principles that influence an enrichment approach. Enrichment psycho-education will be explored in the areas of parenting and sex education of children. In addition, the congregational family system will be examined as a context for enrichment. Both personal and professional application of course material will be encouraged as students examine their own marriages and families in view of the ongoing need for growth and enrichment. Offered summer.

Elective Courses: Marriage & Family Therapy students must complete a minimum of 2 credits of elective courses. Courses with an # symbol are open to ATS students and cross-listed as CN.

MFT 710 Counseling Issues & Human Sexuality (2) # CN 710
An overview of physiological, psychological, and social-cultural variables associated with sexual identity, sexual behavior, and the diagnosis and treatment of sexual disorders. Offered spring.

MFT 711 Treating the Post-Abortive Client (2) # CN 711
A look at the many complexities of treating the post-abortive client with its emphasis on the post-abortive woman. Consideration will be given to the political implications of post-abortive treatment and the establishment of post-abortive trauma. The overarching objective will be the acquisition of a redemptive model of treatment. Offered summer.

MFT 713 Gender Issues (2) # CN 713
An examination of the major issues in working with men and women, both in counseling and in the work of the church. It is designed to cover gender issues affected by the current times as well as integrating Theological Perspectives. Topics will include womanhood, the role of mentoring, crisis pregnancy counseling, the role of fatherhood, infertility, as it affects the couple, and depression as it affects both sexes. Education toward biologically, psychologically, and spiritually healthy practices will be presented. Offered spring.

MFT 714 Counseling for Survivors of Abuse (2) # CN 714
Course Descriptions

A comprehensive study of treatment for survivors of family violence and sexual abuse. Integrated study of the impact of trauma and abuse, faith-based practice and an overview of important issues and concerns. Students will participate in the counseling experience as part of the learning process. Offered spring.

MFT 716 Disorders of Childhood & Adolescence (2)
An in-depth study of the major theories, concepts, issues and data in the diagnosis and treatment of disorders usually first evident in children and adolescents. Prerequisite: MFT 504. Offered spring/summer.

MFT 717 Play Therapy (2)
An overview of a counseling approach called “play therapy” which is applicable within both school and clinical practice settings. While targeted for use with pre-school and school-aged children, play therapy can also be adapted to work with adolescent, adult, and geriatric populations. Offered spring. Not available for audit students.

MFT 718 Addictive Behaviors (2) # CN 718
An in-depth study of the major theories, concepts, issues, and data in the diagnosis and treatment of addictive behaviors including psychoactive substances, sexual addictions, and other addictive behaviors. Offered spring.

MFT 724 Counseling & Divorce Recovery (2)# (CN 724)
A clinical and practical study for the counseling of people going through a divorce. An integrated study of the impact of divorce upon the person, their family and community. Students will participate in counseling experiences in the classroom. Offered summer.

MFT 725 Divorce Mediation (2)
To examine and explore principles, methodologies, and dynamics in family and divorce mediation. Focus primarily with various methods of third party intervention with an emphasis on mediation and facilitation. Practical applications, case studies and experiences will focus on mediation in specialized settings. Divorce mediation will provide students with a mediation structure, emphasizing mediator tools and strategies for effective communication and resolution. Offered alternate spring.

MFT 726 Counseling Blended Families (2)
Students will learn how to counsel blended families relative to their family system dynamics and the counselor’s theology of the family and theoretical orientation. A brief introduction to a theology of family and theories of family counseling. Also consider family blending, relative to adoption, cultural, ethnic, and religious issues. Consideration of extended family members will be included. Students will learn through class discussion, lecture, research, experiential exercises (counseling and media analysis), and fellow-student oral presentations. Offered alternate spring.

MFT 733 Medical & Mental Illness in Marriage & Family Therapy (2)
This course is designed to explore the recursive interaction of medical and mental illness with marital and family life. The circular influence of individual illness upon marriages and families will be examined. Conversely, there will be a study of the influence of family health or dysfunction upon individuals who have medical or mental illness. Medical family therapy will be examined as a specialization within the field of MFT and students will seek to integrate the treatment of medical illness with family systemic dynamics and interventions. Offered fall.

MFT 734 Spirituality in Marriage & Family Therapy (2)
This course is designed to explore the integration of spirituality with the practice of marriage and family therapy. Students will be exposed to current writing and research within the MFT field regarding such integration and will learn how to effectively and respectfully utilize a client’s spirituality to further their growth and healing. Specific evaluation of the intersection of Christian spirituality and MFT will be offered. In addition, students will be introduced to an overview of the historic treatment of the Christian Church regarding a variety of family issues (i.e. gender; celibacy; marital roles; sexuality; children-parenting; etc.) Offered spring.

MFT 737 Clinical Observation (3)
This is an experiential learning event that is part of each student’s Internship. It is one course that is divided into 3 separate units, covering the last 12 months of the 15-month Internship. (During the first 3 months of the Internship students will also engage in one hour of clinical observation per week. This is embedded in the course: 794 Class Supervision). Each Clinical Observation Unit will be held on campus and run for an entire semester. Students will be involved in “reverse observation” where they will observe a professor, LMFT or supervisor involved in a live clinical case. This observation will happen behind a one-way mirror and/or via live videotaping. In addition to a professor/supervisor doing the actual therapy, another instructor will engage students in discussion as they observe the live session. When helpful and appropriate, students will have the opportunity to be involved in the live cases by “case consultation” and “reflecting team” enactments. This clinical observation is part of each student’s Internship as the hours count toward the needed 500 clinical Internship hours. Offered summer, fall and spring.

MFT 770 MFT Seminars (1 or 2)
These courses cover topics of interest such as: Premarital Counseling. Presentations will be made by prominent therapists/professors in the field of MFT. Offered fall, spring, or summer.

MFT 794 Class Supervision (2)
This course is designed to provide an entry group supervision experience for students starting their Internship. A review of clinical skills, assessment and case formation will be offered along with case presentations of students regarding their initial clinical work. Students will also weekly engage in one hour of “clinical observation.” This is an experiential opportunity for students to be involved in “reverse observation” where they will observe a professor, LMFT or supervisor involved in a live clinical case. This observation will happen behind a one-way mirror and/or via live videotaping. The instructor of this “Class Supervision” course will engage students in discussion as they observe the live session. When helpful and appropriate, students will be involved in the live cases by “case consultation” and “reflecting team” enactments. The hours experienced in clinical observation-participation will count toward the student’s 500 clinical Internship hours. Offered spring.

MFT 795 Group Supervision ~ Clinical Consultation (3)
Course Descriptions

This is a 6-month clinical supervision/consultation group consisting of 4-6 students. The group will begin at the start of the fourth month of a student’s Internship and conclude at the end of the ninth month. (May 1 – October 31). Students will meet on average of 2 hours per week. A total of 40 minimum hours of supervision will be met by this experience. Students will engage in the process of clinical self-evaluation and evaluation from their supervisor. Offered fall.

MFT 796 Dyadic Supervision ~ Clinical Consultation (4)
This is a 6-month clinical supervision/consultation experience consisting of 2 student interns meeting with a LMFT and/or AAMFT Approved Supervisor. The dyad will begin meeting at the beginning of the tenth month of a student’s Internship and conclude at the end of the fifteenth month. (November 1 – April 30). Students will meet on average for 2 hours per week. A total of 40 minimum hours of supervision will be met by this experience. Students will engage in the process of clinical self-evaluation and evaluation from their supervisor. Offered spring.

NOTE: As the Marriage and Family Therapy program develops, the MFT courses and their sequence may be subject to change.

* RBI=Required Before Internship
† To be taken the semester of graduation.

APPLIED MUSIC (CLASS) Traditional Undergraduate

MUS 101,102-Functional Piano Class 1 and 2 (1,1)
A comprehensive course for beginners designed specifically for Music Education students who do not have the equivalent of at least one year of college piano. Emphasis is on harmonization, improvisation, sight reading, and development of elementary piano skills. Required for Music Education majors unless waived by examination.

MUS 103-Fundamentals of Singing (1)
Class instruction in basic vocal techniques including proper breathing, posture, basic diction skills, vocal hygiene, elementary repertoire, and audition preparation. Open to all students.

MUS 104-Basic Piano Skills (1)
Class instruction in elementary piano skills, designed for students having no previous keyboard instruction. The class will include scales, arpeggios, sight reading, and elementary levels of technique and repertoire. Open to all students.

MUS 105-Beginning Guitar Techniques (1)
Class instruction in the skills of playing and teaching the guitar for recreational and professional activities (church or school). The course is designed for students who have little or no previous experience in guitar performance. The class will also involve a study of elementary music theory, notation, transposition, song leading, the use of the capo, and care of the instrument. Prerequisite: Elementary knowledge of the treble clef.

MUS 106-Baroque Recorder Class (1)
Introduction to the fundamentals of recorder playing. Emphasis is placed upon a singing, legato tone, secure fingering in two octaves, appropriate repertoire, and correct intonation. SATB instruments are introduced. Recommended for students interested in teaching elementary school music.

MUS 171,172; 271,272; 371,372; 471,472-Jury Examination: Major (0)
All Music majors, except those enrolled in the B.A. in Music program, are required to register for Major Jury Examinations each semester. Expected repertoire is listed under “Recommended Repertoire” in the Nyack College Music Student Handbook.

MUS 173,174; 273, 274; 373,374; 473,474-Jury Examination: Minor (0)
All Music majors, except those enrolled in the B.A. in Music program, are required to register for Minor Jury Examinations each semester until the proficiency level in the applied minor is satisfied.

MUS 201-202-Functional Piano Class 3 and 4 (1-1)
Emphasis on skills needed by the public school music teacher-harmonization, improvisation, transposition, modulation, and sight reading. Exploration and performance of piano literature representative of various musical periods and compositional styles. Necessary technical studies. Prerequisite: MUS 101,102 (first year) or entrance by examination. Required for Music Education majors unless waived by examination.

MUS 206-Piano Accompanying (1)
The principles of accompaniment as applied to the hymn, the art song from Schubert to DeBussy, operatic and oratorio excerpts, and the accompaniment of stringed and wind instruments.

MUS 301-Advanced Functional Piano (1)
The focus of this course is on the advanced concentration of the skills needed by the public school music teacher in the areas of harmonization, improvisation, transposition, sight reading, and accompanying. Open to piano majors only or by the permission of the instructor.

MUS 370-Junior Recital (0)
(See recital requirements in Music Programs section.)

MUS 470-Senior Recital (0)
(See recital requirements in Music Programs section.)
Course Descriptions

MUS 475-Concerto Requirement (0)
A complete concerto (normally three movements) from the standard repertoire is required of all keyboardists and instrumentalists in order to graduate from the Performance degree programs. The concerto may be performed in a recital or jury, and pianists are required to perform by memory.

MUS 477- Piano Proficiency Requirement (0)
All music majors not majoring or minoring in piano or Functional Piano (except B.A. in Music majors) are required to demonstrate Piano Proficiency by audition or jury exam as described in the Music Student Handbook.

APPLIED MUSIC (PRIVATE LESSONS) IN VOICE, KEYBOARD, FRETTED, OR ORCHESTRAL INSTRUMENTS

One 30-minute private lesson per week plus a minimum of three compositions or movements. 1 credit per semester.
One 60-minute private lesson per week plus a minimum of six compositions or movements. 2 credits per semester.
One 60-minute private lesson per week plus completion of a senior recital. 3 credits per semester.

All full-time music majors must take a minimum of one 60-minute lesson per week in the applied major.

The required numbers of compositions per credit may vary according to the instrument being studied and the method of a particular teacher. For instance, in voice the teacher may require a greater number of compositions than those listed above. A keyboard teacher may wish to make use of a complete sonata in which case the number of movements would be counted separately.

Although the music faculty does not require a weekly schedule of practice hours, it is understood that consistent practice habits are fundamental to sensitively performed repertoire. As a general guideline the music faculty consider a minimum of three hours of practice per week per credit to be essential.

MUSIC (MUS) Traditional Undergraduate

MUS 100-Concert Attendance (0)
Required for all music majors each semester.

MUS 110- Freshman Music Seminar (2)
A required course designed for first year music majors. Topics include organizational skills, time management, planning for academic success, music career options, practice habits, learning styles and study skills, advisement, the artistic temperament, motivation, encouraging intellectual curiosity, concert attendance, recital preparation and etiquette, community service, mission, and related topics.

MUS 115-Music Appreciation (3) (For course description see FNA 115, liberal arts elective)

MUS 213-Western Music to 1700 (2)
A study of the music of Western Civilization from the beginning of the Christian era to the end of the seventeenth century. (liberal arts elective)

MUS 214-Music of the Eighteenth Century (2)
A survey of musical style from that of the older contemporaries of Bach and Handel to the mature classicism of Haydn and Mozart. (liberal arts elective)

MUS 234-Vocal Literature (2)
A broad study of art song literature, from Baroque to Contemporary, and significant repertoire from oratorios and operatic works. The course will include interpretation and foreign language diction. Prerequisite: MUS 233, liberal arts elective.

MUS 236-Songwriting (2)
In-depth analysis of song form and structure, couple with in-class writing and performance of songs. The student will be given specific songs to analyze, and then will be required to write original music in similar style. The course includes a strong emphasis on lyric content and development, as well as experimentation with new and original approaches to songwriting.

MUS 319-Music of the Nineteenth Century (2)
The music of Beethoven. The music of the Romantic Era, including those composers who belong primarily to the nineteenth century. (liberal arts elective)

MUS 320-Music of the Twentieth Century (2)

ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP (LDG) Graduate School of Business & Leadership (MSOL)

First Trimester

LDG 640 Foundations of Organizational Leadership (3)
This course provides a comprehensive analysis of major leadership theories and research approaches with a specific emphasis on servant leadership. An integral part of the learning involves students assessing their own leadership philosophy and then analyzing the relationship between their philosophy and selected theories of leadership. A final outcome of this course is a leadership journey assessment and development plan for each student.

LDG 650 Ethical Leadership (3) (Online Class)
In this course, students develop an understanding of the theories, practices, and ethics of leadership. This course examines how leaders can evaluate, promote and maintain ethical behavior in the work environment. Students examine their own ethical values and determine their own position as ethical leaders. Case studies are used to analyze and review ethical decision-making process and to understand the consequences of unethical behavior in the workplace.

LDG 660 Principles of Research Methods (3) (offered at Nyack campus only)
This course provides an in-depth review of critical research principles to prepare students to complete a master-level thesis. Specifically, students learn to think critically, to analyze data, identify statistical models, and to examine research methodology, instruments and measures. (This course is offered on Saturdays at the Nyack campus and is a residency requirement for all New York students.)

LDG 670 Thesis Seminar I (1)
In this course, students are taught research proposal writing and are required to turn in a thesis proposal that includes a draft of Chapter I (Introduction), Chapter III (Methodology), Survey Instrument and IRB form. (Additional class time will be required)
Course Descriptions

Second Trimester

LDG 680  Global Leadership and Diversity (3)
This course provides an understanding of the requirements of doing business outside of the United States in countries of Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America and Middle East. The course content, discussion and assignments provide valuable insights into understanding and overcoming cross-cultural differences. Students conduct and prepare a research project to understand the requirements to be successful in an expatriate assignment.

LDG 690  Organizational Communication and Leadership (3) (Online)
This course examines the theoretical and empirical literature addressing the function of communication within the context of complex organizations. Particular emphasis is placed on the evaluation of the roles and responsibilities of leaders as communicators and agents of change, while focusing on a variety of communication problems typically experienced in organizations.

LDG 770  Organizational Culture and Team Building (3)
Through research, case studies and discussion, students learn the importance of organizational culture and its impact on building teams, shaping behavior and career success in an organization. The critical role that the leader’s management style plays in shaping and changing the culture is explored.

LDG 710 Thesis Seminar II (1)
In this segment of Thesis Seminar, the focus is on researching and writing critical literature reviews and the format for writing research findings. Students are required to turn in Chapter II (Literature Review) and Chapter IV (Results) of their thesis. (Additional class time will be required) (pre-req LDG 670)

Third Trimester

LDG 720  Organizational Redesign and Innovation (3)
Through research and case studies, this course examines the core principles for redesign and innovation within an organization. Students learn to identify the conditions that determine when an organizational redesign and innovation are necessary and the criteria for determining the type of organizational structure required to meet business needs.

LDG 730 Transformational Leadership (3)
Students examine the theories, research and practice of transformational leadership. In this course, students study best practices for developing effective transformational leadership skills. Using case studies, students learn to identify the conditions when, how and where transformational leadership is most needed. Using a team consultant model, students are provided an opportunity to assess an individual, team or organizational situation that requires transformation, followed by developing a proposal to address those needs.

LDG 740  Strategic Planning and Implementation (3) (Online class)
An organization is able to compete more effectively when there is a shared understanding between the leaders and employees regarding the strategic direction and the requirements needed to achieve the goals. This course provides a comprehensive understanding of various strategic planning models used in organizations. Case studies are used to demonstrate how strategy is developed and implemented. The critical role of the leader, employees and consultants in the strategic planning process is also examined.

LDG 750 Thesis Seminar III (1)
The third segment of Thesis Seminar is the final submission of Chapters I-V of the master thesis. The chapters must be turned in prior to Thesis Seminar III. In this class, the students receive feedback on the chapters. The feedback determines the content and extent of revisions required for successful completion. Each student is required to prepare a power point presentation of their thesis and participation in a mock defense. Once the revisions are completed, students prepare for thesis oral defense. (Additional class time will be required) (pre-reqs LDG 670 & LDG 710)

LDG 798 Thesis Continuation (0)
Students are required to enroll in thesis continuation if they have not completed the thesis by the time of LDG 750 (Thesis Seminar III). Students are allowed 2 consecutive semester enrollments in LDG 798. Students enrolled in this class pay a thesis continuation fee equal to 1 credit hour of tuition.

LDG 799 Thesis Completion (3)
Students receive a grade for thesis completion once they have successfully completed the thesis and passed the oral defense.

NEW TESTAMENT (NT)  Alliance Theological Seminary
(Please note: 600-level book studies are in English; 700-level book studies use Greek.)

NT 500/600/700 Directed Study (3)
Independent study in New Testament studies under faculty advisement. Topics and readings are determined mutually by the student and faculty member usually resulting in a formal paper presenting research, analysis and conclusions.

NT 503 Reading the New Testament (3)
An introduction to the literature of the New Testament within its socio-historical context. The theological dimension of the text as a voice to and for the early church is considered. Offered spring.

NT 504 The Greek Bible & the Western Mediterranean World (3)
Course Descriptions

An introduction to the 1st century Mediterranean world, its diversity and importance for biblical studies. Students will also be introduced to basic Koine Greek and scholarly language resources. Offered spring.

NT 505 Hermeneutics (3)
This course explores the involvement of the knowing subject in human understanding. Issues presented include the development of contemporary hermeneutical theory and its application to Scripture, biblical texts as discourse connected to a larger world, and the competing claims of modernist and postmodernist interpretation. Offered spring.

NT 506 New Testament Greek I: Elements (3)
An introduction to the basic grammar and vocabulary of the New Testament. Offered fall.

NT 507 New Testament Greek II: Readings (3)
This course continues the introduction of the basic grammar and vocabulary necessary to read the New Testament. The course will also focus on reading more extended texts from the Greek New Testament. (Prerequisite: NT506) Offered spring.

NT 604 New Testament Greek III: Exegesis (3)
An introduction to the tools and methods of New Testament interpretation. The course will introduce the full range of tools required for the exegesis of the Greek text and then demonstrate the application of these methods to different literary genres in the New Testament. (Prerequisites: NT506, NT 507) Offered fall.

NT 611 New Testament Theology (3)
Survey and critical evaluation is made of recent approaches to the theology of the New Testament. Assignments encourage the student to develop a functional approach, which stresses the concerns of the New Testament writers in a canonical context. (Also TH 611) Offered fall.

NT 621/721 The Gospel of Matthew (3)
A literary and historical approach acquaints students with the tools and skills needed for exegesis of the Gospels. Attention to the theology of Matthew enables the student to transfer its teaching to ministry. Offered fall.

NT 623/723 The Gospel of Luke (3)
A literary and historical approach acquaints students with tools and skills needed for exegesis of the Gospels. Attention to the theological-historical method of Luke enables the student to transfer biblical teaching to ministry. Offered fall.

NT 624/724 The Gospel of John (3)
An examination of the content, theology and structure of the gospel according to John. Critical problems are treated, major themes studied, key passages exegeted.

NT 625/725 Acts (3)

NT 626/726 Luke/Acts (3)
This course investigates the nature and extent of the relationship between the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles, an issue that has both theological and exegetical significance. Some of the questions explored include: Why a second volume? How innovative is Luke’s conception of God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit in relation to the Jewish “streams of tradition” evident in these theological presentations? What social and pastoral concerns does Luke address?

NT 631/731 Romans (3)
An exposition of the Epistle to the Romans, with special emphasis on reading and exegesis of the Greek text. The theological argument on the book is considered in light of the rest of Pauline literature. Offered fall.

NT 634/734 I and II Corinthians (3)
A study of the two epistles primarily focusing on I Corinthians. Paul’s opponents, integrity of the letters, ethical questions, spiritual gifts and eschatology are discussed.

NT 635/735 Galatians (3)
An exposition of the Epistle to the Galatians emphasizing the role of faith, works and the law. Historical, grammatical and practical issues are discussed. Offered fall.

NT 639/739 Philippians-Colossians (3)
A study of two letters Paul wrote from prison which focuses on determining the circumstances addressed in each letter, tracing the flow of thought, exploring significant interpretive issues, and highlighting important theological ideas. Special attention will be given to the important Christological material in both letters.

NT 644/744 Hebrews (3)
An exposition of the Epistle to the Hebrews in light of historical backgrounds which considers the place of source materials, the relation of the Old and New Testaments, and the setting of Hebrews in the developing church.

NT 648/748 Johannine Literature (3)
This course examines critical exegetical and theological issues that challenge interpretation of the canonical literature associated with John (a gospel, three letters, and an apocalypse). Each work has its own distinctive presentation of the early Church’s missionary proclamation reflected through differing literary genre.
Course Descriptions

NT 649/749 Revelation (3)
A study of the book of Revelation will focus on several issues: the phenomena of "apocalyptic" literature and the significance of this for interpreting Revelation; the distinctive structure of chapters 6-19; the interpretation of symbolic language; the main interpretive frameworks used to understand Revelation; the meaning of the text itself. The course will also explore the significance of Revelation for the Christian's understanding of both end times and the on-going experience of tribulation dynamics in history.

NT 761 Advanced Greek (3)
An advanced Greek course that concentrates on reading skills. A systematic study of syntax and vocabulary will be combined with extensive readings in biblical and Hellenistic Greek in order to increase the student's proficiency in Greek. (Prerequisites: NT 506, NT 507)

NT 770-779 Seminars in New Testament (3)
Seminars developed to consider additional topics not included in the standard New Testament curriculum.

NT 799 Comprehensive Exam / Integrative Summative Project (3)

NURSING (NUR) Traditional Undergraduate

Note. The number in parentheses next to the name of course indicates the course credit. The numbers at the end of each course description indicate the number of hours of lecture, laboratory, and clinical hours consecutively.

Enrollment in the following Level 1 nursing courses requires that the student earn a cumulative grade point average of 2.7 or higher; GPA 2.5 for core math and science courses (MAT 110, CHE 103, BIO 115, BIO 213), complete PSY 101, and pass the TEAS entrance exam.

NUR 201 - Introduction to Professional Nursing (2) Students explore perspectives of professional nursing practice from the viewpoint of the School's conceptual framework. Historical and contemporary influences on nursing practice are examined. The nurse's role of care provider, coordinator of care, and member of a profession around the globe are included (2-0-0).

NUR 202 - Standards for Professional Nursing Practice (3) This course's focus is professional nursing practice from a Christian worldview. The role of the nurse in the American and global health care system is explored. Ethical and legal mandates, health care systems, and levels of professional practice are included (3-0-0).

NUR 203 – Principles of Pharmacology (3) Students will integrate concepts from chemistry, biology, and human physiology to safely administer pharmacologic therapy. The course includes concepts of basic pharmacodynamics and pharmacokinetics. Herbal and folk remedies are included (3-0-0).

NUR 204 - Health Assessment across the Lifespan (3) A holistic approach to health assessment is the focus of the course. Frameworks for physical, psychosocial, spiritual and cultural aspects of clients across the lifespan are included (2-2-0).

NUR 290 - Foundation for Nursing Practice (4) Basic nursing therapeutic skills and frameworks for clinical decision making are the focus of this course. The concepts of communication and psychomotor nursing interventions are explored from a global perspective. Providing safe care environments is emphasized (1.5-2-4.5).

Enrollment in the following Level 2 nursing courses requires that the student earn a cumulative grade point average of 2.7 or higher, and complete all Level 1 nursing courses with a grade of C+ or better, and BIO 214, BIO 220, and PSY 244.

NUR 301 – Worldview Perspectives: The Christian Nurse (3) Explores the art of nursing from a Christian worldview perspective. Nursing is viewed as a vocation, a calling for service to God through caring for others. Contrast competing worldviews popular in post-modern literature with Biblical perspectives (3-0-0). Prerequisite: BIB 102

NUR 302 - Evidence for Nursing Practice (3) The role of the baccalaureate prepared nurse in determining evidence for nursing practice is examined. Principles of empiric testing, ethical, aesthetic and personal knowing are explored (3-0-0).

NUR 390 - Adult Health Alterations (6) Care of adults experiencing acute and chronic health alterations. Students will analyze client data, develop a plan of care and implement therapeutic nursing interventions according to accepted standards of nursing care. Nursing care will be evaluated for effectiveness through an evidenced based nursing framework (2-2-9).

NUR 391 - Nursing of Women and Childbearing Families (4) This course focuses on the care of the childbearing family throughout the maternity cycle. Cultural variations of women and families are included. Health care needs of women throughout the adult lifecycle are explored (module course 4-0-12).

NUR 392 - Nursing Care of Children and Adolescents (4) Evidenced based care of children and adolescents are explored. Concepts of health promotion/health maintenance are applied to pediatric clients. Health care needs of children around the world are examined (module course 4-0-12).

Course Descriptions

PHILOSOPHY (PHI) Traditional Undergraduate
All courses meet liberal arts elective requirement.

PHI 101-Introduction to Philosophy (3)
This course provides the student with a systematic introduction to the discipline of philosophy. It begins by examining some fundamental concepts and problems in the areas of metaphysics and epistemology, and then proceeds to consider other areas of philosophical inquiry including: social and political philosophy, ethics, philosophy of religion, philosophy of history, and aesthetics.

PHI 202-Logic (3)
This course begins with the fundamental concepts of logic, including truth, validity, induction, and deduction. The course progresses through the inferences of everyday language and problem-solving, and into formal deduction, including symbolic logic and quantification theory. Inductive inferences and probability will also be examined.

PHI 314-World Religions (3) (For course description see ICS 314)

PHI 321-The Dialogues of Plato (3)
This course surveys the writings of Plato. We begin with the early dialogues that surround the life and death of Socrates such as Euthyphro, Apology, Crito, Phaedo, and Meno. We then examine some of the great middle dialogues, including the Parmenides and sections of the Republic. We conclude with the late dialogues such as the Sophist, Statesman, and Philebus.

PHI 322-Aristotle and the Medievals (3)
The first half of this course focuses on Aristotle, examining the Aristotelian system from the perspective of his metaphysics, logic, physics, and concept of the soul. In the second half of the course, attention is turned to the medievals, considering as the central theme the way they tried to Christianize the Aristotelian system.

PHI 323-The Empiricists: Locke, Berkeley, and Hume (3)
This course examines the three great British empiricists of the modern era and focuses on their respective treatment of questions concerning innate ideas, perception, universals, and the scope of human knowledge.

PHI 324-Modern Continental Philosophy: From Descartes to Hegel (3)
This course begins with 17th-century rationalism and traces that tradition from Descartes through Spinoza and Leibniz. In the 18th century, the tradition culminates in the German idealism of Kant. The course then traces German idealism from Kant to Hegel in the 19th century.

PHI 331-Pragmatism (3)
This course will examine the work of leading philosophical pragmatists (e.g. Dewey, James, Rorty), exploring the appropriateness of a pragmatic justification of Christian truth claims and the relevance of the interrelationship of faith and reason.

PHI 341-Philosophies of Love (3)
This course examines a variety of philosophers, both classic and contemporary, on the topic of love. The readings address questions concerning love’s relationship to reason, the emotions, romance, and duty. Readings include Plato, Aristotle, Stendhal, Gasset, Kierkegaard, Nygren, Brentlinger, and Vlastos. Prerequisite: PHI 101 or instructor's permission.

PHI 342-Feminist Philosophy (3)
This course examines some of the major feminist philosophers and thinkers writing today including: Julie Kristeva, Luce Irigaray, and Carol Gilligan, just to mention a few. The readings will focus on how a woman’s sexuality, psychological development, and social experience create a perspective uniquely different from that of a man.

PHI 343-History of Political and Social Thought (3) (For course description see HIS 343, social science elective)

PHI 345-Epistemology (3)
A systematic examination of such subjects as perception, knowledge, belief, truth, universals, necessary truth, and meaning. Prerequisite: PHI 101.

PHI 346-Ethics (3)
This course examines contemporary moral problems in the context of classical ethical theories. The classical theories of Plato, Aristotle, Augustine, Aquinas, Kant, Bentham, and Mill are considered. Students will have opportunity to exercise their own moral thinking by applying those theories to a variety of contemporary moral issues. Prerequisite: PHI 101.

PHI 348-Philosophical Hermeneutics (3)
The historicism of the 19th century, along with the linguistic turn and cultural relativism of the 20th century has brought hermeneutics to the center stage of 21st century thought. We can no longer take interpretation for granted and must now face the philosophical questions which are at the base of the meaning that we attribute to texts or the world. The course begins with traditional notions of hermeneutics and then examines the factors which have brought hermeneutics to the center stage and the ways that Schleiermacher, Heidegger, Gadamer, and Derrida have attempted to deal with contemporary hermeneutic problems. (Same as PMN 348)

PHI 367-Christian Existentialism: The Philosophy of Søren Kierkegaard (3)
This course surveys the work of Kierkegaard, relying upon both primary and secondary texts. Students are encouraged to consider the implications of Kierkegaard’s ideas regarding faith and the subjectivity of experience for our role as Christians in a postmodern world. (Same as THE 367)
Course Descriptions

PHI 431-Recent Philosophy (3)

SPIRITUAL FORMATION & DISCIPLESHIP (SF) Alliance Theological Seminary

SF 500/600/700 Directed Study (3)
Independent study in spiritual formation and/or discipleship under faculty advisement. Topics and readings are determined mutually by student and faculty member, usually resulting in a formal paper presenting research, analysis and conclusions.

SF 503 Initiation in Spiritual Formation (3 credits)
This course focuses on students knowing themselves and deepening their life in Christ. Students reflect on their relationships, experiences and the results of several assessments to become more aware of who they are and who God is forming them to be. Students participate weekly with a mentor in small groups in class. The course is the first of three years of Mentored Development in the M.Div. degree program, and two years in the MPS and MA in Intercultural Studies programs. Additional course fee applies. Offered fall. *Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.
Course Descriptions

SF 505  Personal/Professional/Theological Foundations for Ministry (3)
Beginning with a theological foundation, this course shows the relationship of emotional, spiritual and professional formation to effectiveness in ministry. Examination is given to principles of ministry, and personal and emotional integration in the life of the Christian leader. Offered fall. *Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

SF 542  Christian Education for the Urban Church (3)
Analysis of Christian education principles and practice in relation to the urban, cross-cultural setting. Consideration will be given to curriculum development and programming. (Also UR 542)

SF 603  Field Education (3)
This course focuses on preparing students for their Field Education and giving them tools for reflecting and integrating theory and experience. It is taken after the first year of spiritual formation, SF503. It is required of all students in a degree program with an internship, that is, M.Div. and MPS. Offered fall. See Mentored Development (p. 54). *Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

SF 610  Human Development (3)
Students integrate biblical understanding and social science research as they reflect on their own development and the development of those they seek to reach and minister to. Students explore life issues and consider the interaction of culture and relationships. The emphasis is on relationships (with God, other people and self), discernment, and sexuality.

SF 611  Discipleship and Small Groups (3)
This course is a survey of the biblical and contemporary literature and models of discipling Christians in a variety of settings, including cross-cultural contexts. Special emphasis is placed upon the principles and procedures of small groups as a key to evangelism and Christian formation. Practical. Relational. Experiential.

SF 620  Teaching the Bible for Transformation (3)
The student’s insight and ability to teach the Bible for transformation of learners of all ages develops to a higher level through classroom learning and field experience in non-formal or formal settings in a variety of contexts.

SF 643  Urban Youth Ministry (3)
Overview of the special problems which urban youth face, including alcohol and drug abuse, loneliness/alienation, delinquency, sexual expression, employment and life purpose. Examination of various approaches to youth ministry by the Christian community to promote effective evangelism and healing of needy lives. Special ethnically related issues will be considered. (Also UR 643)

SF 703  Spiritual Formation Capstone (3)
Students develop as a mentor as they are used by God in evangelism and disciple-making of others. They synthesize their personal and spiritual formation, their theological understanding, and their ministry experience as they clarify their calling and prepare for their spiritual journey after graduation. This course is part of the spiritual formation component of the MA IC, and M.Div. degrees. Offered spring. See Mentored Development (p. 54). *Course content varies at the Puerto Rico campus for contextualization purposes.

SF 721  Designing and Developing Curriculum (3)
Students explore principles essential to design evangelism and discipleship materials. They evaluate existing curricula and in small groups write a curriculum unit. This course equips those ministering in places where there are curricula and where resources must be developed.

SF 722  Leading Spiritual Formation (3)
Spirituality not only is a current trend but also has been a passion of God’s people down through the centuries. This course focuses on ways and means of spiritual formation in congregations within a variety of contexts. Students explore how godly leaders enable people to be spiritually formed, rather than merely offering programs. The course is conceptual, experiential and practical.

SF 723  Church’s Ministry to the Family (3)
This course provides a practical understanding of the dynamics of family interaction throughout the family life cycle. The impact of a society on families and how to reach families outside the church and strengthen Christian families are considered.

SF 725  Inductive Bible Study (3)
Inductive Bible study principles and process are studied and applied to the book of Philippians. The result is a knowledge of Philippians and increased Bible study skill for the student’s personal life and use in teaching and preaching. How to engage others in meaningful Bible study for life change is considered as well.

SF 731  Cultivating Spirituality in Pre-adolescents (3)
This course emphasizes evangelism, nurture and service of pre-adolescents in the family and local congregation. Attention is given to understanding how the spiritual life of the child forms and how preschool, elementary and middle school children around the world learn and develop.

SF 732  Spirituality of College Students and Single Adults (3)
The purpose of this course is to equip students to design and implement effective, culturally-defined college and single adult ministry in church and campus contexts. Underlying this purpose is a ministry philosophy based on understanding and relating to post-modern college students and young adults.

SF 733  Teaching for Church and Mission (3)
This course studies biblical and social science foundations of the church’s teaching ministry with practical applications for the spiritual formation of adults. Emphasis is placed on how people learn and strategies for the teaching ministry in North America and other contexts.
SF 742. Urban Family Ministries (3)
Consideration of the nature of urban families in contemporary America. Proposal and assessment of various holistic family ministries through the Christian church in response to the massive pressures, needs and difficulties which threaten the health and functioning of today's urban family. Special attention will be paid to cross-cultural ministries. (Also UR 742)

SF 770-779 Seminars in Spiritual Formation & Discipleship (3)
Seminars developed to consider additional topics not included in the standard spiritual formation and discipleship curriculum.

SOCIOLOGY (SOC) Traditional Undergraduate
All courses meet liberal arts and social science elective requirement.

SOC 101-Introduction to Sociology (3)
This course introduces beginning students to the scholarly discipline of sociology. The course provides students with knowledge of the primary orientations in sociology. The course will evaluate how human behavior is shaped by the groups to which we belong and by the social interaction that takes place within those groups. Three major themes will be covered: (1) how self and society are constructed and sustained through the course of life; (2) the symbolic and ritual nature of self and society; and (3) social inequalities with emphasis on issues of power, class, race/ethnicity, and gender. Attention will be given to the importance of Christian involvement in sociology and how this relates to the three major areas of the discipline: social interaction; social concerns; and social institutions.

SOC 115- Freshmen Seminar in Criminal Justice and Sociology (3)
This course introduces students to an understanding of the criminal justice system. It focuses on law enforcement, the administration of justice and punishment, and the treatment of criminals. Topics include: functions of the police, crime prevention programs, the prosecutorial and defense functions, judicial administration and decision-making, institutional and community-based corrections, probation, and parole. The course examines the effects of race, ethnicity, social class, and gender differences within the criminal justice system.

SOC 204-Introduction to Criminal Justice (3)
This course introduces students to an understanding of the criminal justice system. It focuses on law enforcement, the administration of justice and punishment, and the treatment of criminals. Topics include: functions of the police, crime prevention programs, the prosecutorial and defense functions, judicial administration and decision-making, institutional and community-based corrections, probation, and parole. The course examines the effects of race, ethnicity, social class, and gender differences within the criminal justice system.

SOC 240-Social Theory (3)
This course examines sociology from the points of view of 19th and early 20th century social theorists. Students read original sources by Tocqueville, Marx, Durkheim, Weber, Simmel, Mead, Parsons, and members of the Chicago School. The course focuses on the intellectual, social and political influences on their work, their concepts and systematic frameworks, and the development of their thought. The course will examine the relationship of these "classical" theories and empirical works to contemporary theoretical efforts and programs of research.

SOC 241-Marriage and Family (3)
This course examines marriage and family from a sociological perspective. The course will expose students to the many forms that marriages and families have taken in the past and are taking in the present. The course will examine how cultural values, historical context, economic and political changes, and structured relationships of race, class, gender, and age interact and affect marriage relationships. We will also examine the major changes affecting today's families: the changing global economy; the economic well-being of families; health, addictions; transracial and international adoptions; racism, gangs, terrorism, war, death and dying. The course will attempt to provide a Christian perspective on the various topics discussed.

SOC 243-Sociology of Adolescence (3)
This course examines from a sociological theory and research perspective the phenomenon of adolescence. Rational choice theory, social learning theory, and attachment theory serve as a basis for understanding current sociological research regarding adolescents. (Same as CED 243)

SOC 250-Sociology of the City (3)
The history and development of American urbanization and its impact on the American social system. Special consideration of New York City with field trips.

SOC 280-The Asian American Experience (3)
This survey highlights past and contemporary experiences of Asian Americas. Based on research on Asians in America, students will use a sociological "eye" to view the historical, socioeconomic, political and cultural contexts that shape Asian America, examining issues including: immigration, community development, political empowerment, labor market status, gender relations, and civil rights.

SOC 310-The Psychology and Sociology of Religion (3) (For course description see REL 310)

SOC 315 – Criminology (3)
This course focuses on the sociological aspects of crime and the sociology of criminal law. Special attention will be paid to the definition, nature, and scope of crime, and delinquency in the United States. The course will include an examination of the nature of criminal law, the variety of theoretical explanations for criminal behavior, the measurement of crime, patterns of crime and the mechanisms for control of criminal behavior.

SOC 316-Social Welfare Institutions (3)
Course provides an analysis of major public and private bureaucratic organizations that provide services to urban citizens. Selected systems (e.g., medical, welfare, legal, and educational) and the political, social, and economic consequences for client populations and professionals are examined.
Course Descriptions

SOC 317-Crime and Deviance (3)
Historical and current theories of the causes of deviance and crime will be examined. The focus of the course is on the offender, and the factors, circumstances or conditions that influence law-violating behavior. Emphasis will be placed on the ways social structures generate and label deviance. Particular attention will be paid to various social institutions, including the church.

SOC 328-Women in Society (3)
This course explores the changing position of women as a social group, focusing on the contemporary United States. The sexual division of labor in the paid labor market and in the household, the relationship of women to family change and family crisis, the changing role of women in politics, and the changing social construction of female sexuality will be studied.

SOC 330-Work and Family (3)
This course examines the social and demographic changes that have put work and family on the policy agenda, the different strategies used to balance work and family, and the impact of those strategies on women, men, and children. The course will discuss social theories about employment decisions, social change, social norms, and issues of gender and socioeconomic equality. We conclude with a broad overview of the responses of employers and government to current work-family issues, followed by an in-depth examination of parental leave debates.

SOC 334-International Relief and Development (3)
This course will examine current approaches to international relief and development work. The focus will be on the socio-cultural dimensions of development that shape the process. The course will also examine the role of Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in their quest to ease human suffering and improve the quality of life for the world's poor. The course will review current debates and policy issues in international development. Topics will include: sustainable development, refugees, poverty reduction, foreign aid, disaster relief, rural development, project design and management. (Same as ICS 334)

SOC 337-Statistics for Social Science (3) (For course description see PSY 337)

SOC 342-Punishment and Corrections (3)
The theoretical approaches to punishment, deterrence, rehabilitation, and treatment within the U.S. correctional system. The course will also cover the administrative and operational components of the corrections system, including jails, prisons, probation, parole, boot camps, and community-based correction programs. Special attention is given to the impact of religious movements historically and currently on the prison movement, and to the ethical, legal, and social issues that must be confronted when the system is expected to bring about social justice to offenders, victims, and society.

SOC 343-Police and Society (3)
An overview of the roles of the police as agents of formal social control. The course will survey the functions and responsibilities of the police at the local, state, and federal level. The course examines the philosophy, history, character, structure, and function of the police role in a democratic society. Topics include: police values and culture, police responsibilities, police organization and structure, police-community relations, and crime control.

SOC 345-American Youth Cultures (3)
A study of youth attitudes, beliefs, and lifestyles of the various sub-cultures of young people. Demographic and stratification studies will be done. Significant movements like the culture of the 60’s will be noted. (same as YMN 346)

SOC 346-Social Psychology (3) (For course description see PSY 346)

SOC 347-Multicultural America (3)
This course deals with the outcome of the long history of cultural diversity in the United States. The various ethnic groups are considered with an emphasis on African-Americans, Asians-Americans, Hispanics, and Native Americans, along with various European-American groups. Personal identity and group identity issues will be considered, along with the "stages" of individual development. The complex processes of exclusion and incorporation that have taken place and are now taking place in America will be analyzed. Ordinarily taken by Juniors and Seniors. Check with the department head for exceptions.

SOC 348-Human Sexuality (3) (For course description see PSY 348.)

THE 312-The Bible and Science (3)
(For course description see BIB 312)

THE 313-Male and Female in Biblical Perspective (3)
An interdisciplinary examination of the nature of masculinity and femininity from a Christian perspective. Biblical studies will focus on the question of gender roles in marriage and in the church, especially the complementarian-equalitarian theological debate. Discussion will focus on related issues, such as the spiritual needs particular to each gender, sexual dysfunction and wholeness, and gender-related rites of passage

THE 314- Theology of Social Justice (3)
An interdisciplinary examination of Christian responses to historic and contemporary social injustices. Biblical studies will focus on the holistic nature of salvation and the call upon God’s people to speak and work on behalf of the powerless and the oppressed. Discussion will focus on the nature of social systems and social change.

THE 315- Brian McLaren and the Postmodern Gospel (3)
A survey of the thought of Brian McLaren, the lead thinker of the “Emerging Church Movement.” Discussion will focus on McLaren’s boldest and most controversial ideas regarding the need to recast the language and emphases of historic Christianity, with a view towards communicating more effectively to the emerging postmodern generation.

THE 316-Understanding Contemporary Atheism (3)
An analysis and response to the writings of three influential contemporary atheist authors: Richard Dawkins, Sam Harris and Christopher Hitchens.

THE 317-Evangelicals and American Politics (3)
An interdisciplinary examination of the complex relationship between the church and the American political process. Discussion will focus on the tension between biblical calls to social justice and to separatism, the success and failures of past Christian statesmen, and the history of the religious right and the religious left.

THE 318- Theology of Work and Vocation (3)
This course is designed to introduce the student to the biblical, theological, personal and strategic perspectives on work. The course explores work through the rubric of Creation/Fall/Redemption/Consummation, the theology of vocation, personal vocational placement, and strategic initiatives to engage in meaningful, kingdom work.

THE 319- Theology of Poverty (3)
This course will equip students in poverty studies through a combination of theology, biblical study, sociology, anthropology, and political economy. The core purpose of the course is to develop students to think biblically and sociologically about issues related to poverty, develop a theological perspective, and articulate an evangelical position on poverty praxis. The course will trace the history of poverty theology and practice from early biblical theories through the development in the Church, to the modern approaches through missions, non-governmental and pseudo-Christian agencies, to community development and disaster relief. The course will attempt to provide a balanced perspective on poverty issues outside the United States, as well as in the United States.

YMN 334-Para-church Youth Ministry (3)
The historical and theological background of Para-church ministries; an analysis of the methodological assumptions and procedures of the Para-church model in comparison to that of the church-based ministry. The policies, practices, and methodologies of key Para-church ministries will be examined in detail.

YMN 335-Ministry, Music, and Movies (3)
This course is an examination of music and movies and how they influence the lives of adolescents today. Analyses will include Christological, cultural (global and youth), heroic, etc. representations and considerations. The development of using these mediums as ministry tools is also explored.

YMN 336-Youth Outreach (3)
Study and practice methods of programming activities and processes to meet youth needs. Emphasis on reaching and ministering to non-church youth and training church youth for evangelism and discipleship.

YMN 339-Introduction to Community Youth Work (3)
An analytical and critical survey of the formal and informal means whereby society organizes to service the needs of youth. Both governmental and private sector non-profit agencies are considered. Materials for thought and discussion will be provided through readings, video, site visitations, and guest presenters.

YMN 342-Small Groups in Youth Ministry (3)
An analysis of the role and dynamic of the small group in youth ministry; its use and effectiveness in outreach, spiritual growth, ministry, and leadership. Students will develop and practice small group leadership skills. Prerequisite: CED 333.

YMN 343-International Youth Ministry (3)
Youth Ministry is being done around the world. This course surveys how youth ministry is developing on each continent. The class will visit (required) an international site to both observe and participate in youth ministry in places such as the UK and Taiwan. Special course fee to cover cost of trip. Instructor permission required.
Course Descriptions

YMN 345-Youth and Worship (3)
In youth ministries around the world renewal is coming to youth in worship. This course concentrates on the philosophy, principles, and practice of worship in the context of youth ministry.

YMN 346-American Youth Cultures (3) (same as SOC 345, liberal arts elective)

YMN 355-Retreat and Camping Ministries (3)
Philosophy, organization, and administration of youth ministry retreats and camps. Mission and work trips are also covered.

YMN 358-Community Development in Context (3) (For course description see ICS 358)

YMN 360-At-Risk Youth and Gangs (3)
This course examines theoretical constructs, empirical research, and field operationalization of programs related to those adolescents whom government and social service agencies deem “at risk” for delinquent or criminal behavior. (Same as SOC 360)

YMN 391-Student Teaching I (3)
Teaching methodology and supervised field experience related to ministry courses; students teach one hour each week throughout the year. To be taken in the junior year. Prerequisite: CED202

YMN 392-Student Teaching II (1)
Advanced teaching methodology, supervised field experience, and construction of teacher training events related to ministry courses; students teach one hour each week throughout the year. To be taken in junior year. Prerequisite: CED/YMN 391

YMN 434-Advanced Youth Ministry (3)
This course seeks to deepen understanding of vital issues related to youth ministry and give specialized training in major areas, such as youth development, youth group growth, and development of volunteer staff. Prerequisite: CED 333; juniors or seniors only.

YMN 442-Discipling and Mentoring Youth (3)
This course provides opportunity to gain understanding of discipling and mentoring youth beyond the level covered in CED 333. Different models will be explored and students will develop their own strategy applicable to a current or projected ministry. Prerequisite: CED 333.

YMN 480-Independent Study (1-3)
Independent study in an approved topic in Christian education. Permission of the Department Head and Dean is required.

YMN 490-Internship (1-3)
Available each summer for students involved in any full-time ministry for two or more weeks. Permission of the Department Head and Dean is required.

YMN 491-492-Seminar and Practicum in Christian Education (3-2)
Class sessions involve the integration of the student’s knowledge in Youth Ministry into a coherent whole. During the course, the student will be associated with a local church/parachurch or agency working 8-12 hours per week. Open to Senior FAM and YMN majors only or by permission of Department Head.
Division of Academic Support Services

Gwen Parker-Ames, Associate Dean
Suzanne Toliao, Department Head, Developmental Education
Cheryl Turman, Director of Support Services/Assist. Director of HEOP
Elona Collins: Disability Resources Coordinator
Nathaniel Perez, Academic Advisor/Counselor
Gina Jacobs-Strain, Testing & Tutoring Coordinator

The Division of Student Success at Nyack College administers the following programs: COMPASS Services, Developmental Education, the Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP), the College Warm-Up Program, Testing and Tutoring Programs and Disability Services.

Mission
This Division of Student Success, true to the vision of Nyack College founder, A.B. Simpson, is devoted to educating “irregular students who are spirit filled or spirit seeking and awakened intellectually to view the world in its need with a fresh perspective”. Our fundamental goal is to help students identify their strengths and point them in the direction for success.

Applicants’ skills are assessed through the Testing Program. The placement tests offered include the ACCUPLACER, CLEP, and CELT. Students whose scores fall below the minimum requirements for entry-level college courses are provisionally admitted through the Division’s COMPASS Services, designed to help build cognitive and affective skills for successful learning performance.

The Division spans both the Rockland and Manhattan campuses, providing a wide range of services which include strength assessment and analysis, a pre-college warm-up experience, a developmental education curriculum with courses in critical thinking, reading, writing and math, study skill workshops, life skill training, mentoring, tutoring, academic advisement, disability resource services, and counseling.

Student Learning Goals

Academically Excellent
Each provisionally-admitted student will be provided assistance in developing and maintaining an individualized college plan during their first year.

Each provisionally-admitted student will be provided support services throughout their four years, which will include assessment, placement, advisement, tutoring, and educational intervention strategies to promote academic proficiency.

Each provisionally-admitted student will be provided an opportunity to engage in developmental coursework that will strengthen literacy skills, encourage academic success, and life-long learning.

Globally Engaged
Each conditionally-admitted student will be encouraged to engage in local, regional, national, and global service learning activities outside the classroom that will foster a sense of community, career awareness, and stimulate retention.

Intentionally Diverse
Each provisionally-admitted student will be provided the necessary assistance in developing strategies to address physical or emotional challenges that might impede academic success.

Personally Transforming
Each provisionally-admitted student will engage in courses and workshops within the Division specifically designed to help them align academic pursuits with faith and spiritual formation.

Developmental Education courses are offered in Math, Reading, critical Thinking, English, Grammar, and Life Skills. Upon completion of the COMPASS services course curriculum requirements for Developmental Education, the Division administers a diagnostic test to determine the student’s ability to succeed at the college level. This facilitates the movement of students from developmental courses into college-level courses. This program is designed to be completed in one year.
New students who are provisionally admitted may not take more than 13 credit hours during their first semester and are required to take Academic Life Skills (DEV 110) during that first semester. Provisional students earning a GPA of 2.5 or higher during their first semester may take up to 16 credit hours the following semester. When all requisite developmental education courses, as designated by the Accuplacer Placement Test, are completed and the overall GPA is 2.0 or higher, the provisional status is elevated to regular status and students may proceed with their core and major course requirements. Provisional students are provided professional tutoring and instruction in grammar, writing technique, and style, as well as other developmental education subject areas, in a one to one setting at The Testing and Tutoring Center located in Bell Tower during their first year of study.

Regularly admitted freshman students who are on academic probation at the end of the fall semester, earning less than a 2.0 GPA, must take Academic Life Skills in the spring semester, and not exceed 13 credit hours. The Academic Life Skills course is included in this 13-credit limit.

Nyack College requires participation in COMPASS Services for students placed on Academic Probation for the first time. Participation is also required for selected students who have been academically reinstated by the College. These students will complete an Academic Recovery Contract (ARC), are required to come for tutoring, and also receive weekly academic advising and counseling. This program is designed to meet the needs of students whose overall GPA is below a 2.0, point them in the right direction and improve retention rates using the following modalities: improve study and test-taking skills; improve academic and life management skills.

Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP): The Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP) is a federally funded program that was initiated at Nyack College in the spring of 1975. It is open only to New York State residents who meet economic guidelines established by the New York State Education Department. The program serves students who have potential for success at Nyack College, but whose standardized test scores and/or previous academic performance may not fully demonstrate this potential.

Available at the Rockland campus only, contact: Cheryl.turman@nyack.edu

The College Warm-Up Program is an intensive five-week summer session that orients incoming freshmen to college life and assists them in strengthening their basic academic skills. The program features developmental education courses in the areas of math, reading, and academic life skills. Additionally, a variety of writing and success workshops, selected core courses, and enrichment activities are offered.

Contact: Cheryl.turman@nyack.edu

The Testing & Tutoring Center provides one-to-one and group tutoring, as well as organizational learning strategies for selected required academic courses offered at Nyack College.

Contact: Gina.Jacobs-Strain@nyack.edu

Disability Support Services It is the policy and practice of Nyack College to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and state and local laws regarding students with disabilities. Under these laws, no disabled, but otherwise qualified student shall be denied access to, or participation in services, programs and activities at Nyack College. For the complete policy statement, go to the Nyack College web site at: http://www.nyackcollege.edu/?page=DSS

Any student eligible for and requesting academic accommodations due to a disability, is required to provide a letter of accommodation from the Office of Disabilities Support Services within the first six weeks of the beginning of classes. All communications between students and the Office of Disabilities Support Services staff are confidential, as is any supporting documentation maintained on file.

ESL Department

NYC Undergraduate Campus

The mission of the ESL/ESOL (English as a Second Language/English to Speakers of Other Languages) Department of Nyack College, New York City, is to serve English Language Learners (ELLs) by helping them to improve their listening, speaking, reading, grammar and writing skills to achieve English proficiency that will lead to academic success. The department acknowledges that all language is a gift of God and aims to support students emotionally and spiritually in their quest to acquire a new language through which to reach their goals, dreams, ministries, and professions.

Student Learning Goals

Academic Excellence
To assist the student to achieve English Proficiency to enable the student to succeed in a four-year college setting.
To assist students to write for their college courses and to express their ideas in acceptable standard English including the following:
   a. To have a clear, main idea expressed in a thesis, preferably a projected one.
   b. To develop students’ writing so that they use appropriate supporting details to develop paragraphs.
   c. To use appropriate English word order, choose the appropriate verb tense and select appropriate vocabulary.
   d. To be able to finish a piece of writing with an adequate conclusion.
   e. To teach students the main points of research writing/documenting sources.
   f. To assist students to become computer literate.

Globally Engaged and Personal Transformation
To assist students to understand the global nature of our existence and the Christian’s role in the 21st century as expressed through their own and other cultures.

Socially Relevant
To assist students to understand and navigate western academic practices including knowledge of plagiarism, documentation styles, and academic protocols.

Among the opportunities is our summer English Language Institute, which prepares students whose first language is not English for college acceptance. Intermediate ESL students are admitted to Nyack College New York City where they pursue their English proficiency in ESL classes, take courses at the 100 and 200 levels, and are assisted in their study by the English Language Immersion Program. ESL courses are designed to develop students’ academic listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills. Classes are sequential and integrated in nature. While students are mastering advanced English skills, they are also introduced to college study in introductory major courses and the core, some of which is taught in the English Language Immersion format. The ESL program seeks to instruct students in an authentic academic and caring atmosphere.

English Language Institute: The purpose of Nyack College’s English Language Institute is to prepare students whose first language is not English for college acceptance. This intensive English program, typically held during the summer, meets 24 hours a week for 8 weeks. The focus of ELI classes includes academic listening and speaking, reading and writing, vocabulary development, attention to pronunciation, and introduction to literature. As part of the program students attend labs that focus on accent reduction, structure, and listening skills. Field trips, activities, and conversation partners enrich the students’ first-hand experience of English.

ESL Program: To be accepted into the ESL program and undergraduate study at Nyack College New York City, students must score a minimum of 140 on the Comprehensive English Language Test (CELT). Currently there are two levels of non-credit ESL courses at NC/NYC: Intermediate and High Intermediate. Students with a CELT score of 140 (TOEFL 425, iBT 38) enter at the Intermediate Level. Students with a score of at least 160 (TOEFL 460, iBT 48) are placed at the High Intermediate level. With a score of 180 on the CELT (TOEFL 480, iBT 55), students are eligible for credit ESL courses such as Oral Communication (ESL 107), Intensive Writing (ESL108), and English Grammar and Syntax (ESL 110). All students in the program are encouraged to take English Language Immersion classes and courses at the 100 and 200 levels. Academic Life Skills is required of all ESL students. To be eligible for College Writing I (ESL), a student should score 200 or above on the CELT (500 TOEFL, iBT 61). To exit the ESL program, students must achieve English proficiency measured by a 220 score on the CELT (550 TOEFL, iBT 79).

English Language Immersion Program: In addition to ESL courses, Korean and Spanish speaking students at NC/NYC have the unique opportunity to take core courses in English language immersion classes designed to help them adjust to college study using English.

Courses in the core curriculum are offered in a language immersion format for students for whom English is a second language. The course is appropriately marked (S for Spanish or K for Korean), and is taught in English supplemented with the students’ first language. Supplementary texts are also used in the first language. Examinations are in English.

These courses are taught by fully bilingual professors who lecture in English, discuss the ideas of the course in English, and provide course materials in English, but who also provide specific support for ESL students. Support may include explanation of difficult concepts and supplemental materials in the students’ first language, all of which support their academic progress as they gain more confidence in English. Professors are especially sensitive to students’ language issues and understand their needs. English proficiency is not required for acceptance into the English Language Immersion Program.

Core courses that may be offered in the English language immersion format include the following:

- Christian Foundations and Nyack Heritage
- Old Testament Literature
- New Testament Literature
- General Psychology
- General Sociology
- History of World Civilization I and II
- Introduction to Computers I
- Introduction to Fine Arts

This program has been designed to complement ESL classes. Students typically take ESL and English language immersion courses during their first two or three semesters at NC/NYC. At the same time, students who have demonstrated progress in English may take up to two courses taught with no bilingual support. By the third semester students are expected to have met their ESL requirements (220 on the CELT exam or 550 on the TOEFL exam, iBT 79) and to enroll in courses with no ESL restrictions.

Student Learning Goals
- Students will be able to successfully access print and online library materials to support their respective programs, courses and assignments.
- Students will be able to retrieve materials having a variety of perspectives, including a foundational Christian world-view and a broad perspective of cultures, peoples, and environments of the world.
- Students will be able to access appropriate research assistance, both in person and online, to successfully accomplish course assignments.
- Students will understand the various aspects of information literacy, including the importance of evaluation of information, critical thinking, and ethical and legal use of information.

Resources of the three Nyack/ATS libraries—the ATS Library in Rockland, the Bailey Library on Nyack’s Rockland campus, and the Henry Wilson Library in the 361 Broadway building in Manhattan—support the academic research needs of ATS and Nyack graduate students and faculty. Combined, these collections contain approximately 190,000 books, 500 current print journal subscriptions, and resources in other media formats. Nearly 100 electronic databases direct student research to additional e-books, online full-text journals, and research resources that have been selected to support each academic degree program at Nyack and ATS. From home or in the library (including wireless service at ATS and Bailey), students search the combined online catalog of all three libraries and research across a broad assortment of multidisciplinary and subject-specific (e.g. religion, business, psychology) electronic databases. An intercampus delivery service allows students at one Nyack location to electronically request library material from another and have it delivered to their primary location. The interlibrary loan service, in which the library requests material from other libraries on behalf of an individual student, broadens access to the wealth of national and international resources. Students may also individually avail themselves of their local public libraries and nearby academic libraries (including approximately 30 regional libraries in the WALDO Consortium).

The library staff is comprised of approachable professional librarians and library support staff who are committed to excellence in the quality of the library and the level of service provided for the Nyack/ATS graduate community. Online services and guides, hours, contact information, and library policy descriptions are provided through the website. Individualized reference assistance and group instruction (the latter often in cooperation with faculty) address immediate information needs but also emphasize skills of the lifelong learner and focus on developing new skills and increased confidence in each student’s ability to tap into a diverse array of information sources.

For additional information, visit the library’s homepage located at: http://www.nyackcollege.edu/library.

The Graduate Writing and Research Center (Rockland)
The Graduate Writing and Research Center is accessed through the ATS library. Designed to assist students with the necessary tools for writing and research, the center is staffed with a Writing and Research Assistant.

BAILEY LIBRARY

Located on the north end of the campus, Bailey Library is the major academic resource for the Rockland campus college community. The primary mission of the library is to provide resources in all formats to support the curriculum of the programs taught at Nyack College. Consisting currently of approximately 96,000 volumes, the library continues to grow at about 2000 volumes per year. In addition, the library subscribes to approximately 215 current periodical titles. Reciprocal borrowing privileges with the nearby St. Thomas Aquinas College, Dominican College, and Salvation Army School for Officer Training expand the range of readily available materials to other libraries in Rockland County.

The library's web page provides online access to ATS, Bailey, and Wilson Library collections, access to the collections of approximately 30 regional libraries in the WALDO consortium (including Pace University, St. John's University, Sarah Lawrence College, Mercy College and others), online electronic forms for reference services and interlibrary loan requests, and access to a host of electronic subscription databases providing citations, abstracts, and/or full-text to thousands of journals in multi-discipline subject areas. These subscription databases are available on all networked computers on campus (including all computer labs and faculty and staff offices) and the majority of them can be accessed off-campus via remote password control. Students may print full-text articles at no extra charge from all public computers at ATS, Bailey and Wilson Libraries, and from any of the computer labs. In addition, wireless access is available throughout the library and many public areas across the campus.

The library staff has a strong commitment to providing excellent service to students. Reference services offer research guidance and library instruction to individuals, as well as groups. The libraries offer information literacy instruction upon request by faculty for individual courses. A one-credit information literacy course is required of all incoming students and covers the foundational information literacy skills including effective searching in online library resources, evaluation of information, and the legal and ethical use of information. Other library services include interlibrary loan, intercampus delivery, reserve materials for course assignments, A/V material and equipment, as well as photocopier access.

During regular school hours, the library is open as follows:

- Monday-Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m.
- Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
- Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
- Sunday, 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Summer and holiday hours are posted at the library entrance and on the library website.

In addition to the main library, there is the MacMillan Music Library, located on the balcony floor of Pardington Hall, which serves the needs of Music majors with a collection of music recordings and scores.

HENRY WILSON LIBRARY

The Henry Wilson Library at the Manhattan Campus currently houses approximately 28,000 volumes. Students may visit the library in person for quiet study during the weekdays on Monday – Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., Friday from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm and on Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Please contact the library for summer and holiday hours. Students may request books or periodical articles from ATS or Bailey Libraries from the library homepage (www.nyackcollege.edu/library) using Interlibrary Delivery. Library patrons also have access to the online catalogs of other libraries within the Metropolitan area, including the collections of the New York Public Library. Interlibrary loan services are available through Wilson Library. Professional librarians offer information literacy instruction sessions as requested by teaching professors. Individual research assistance is provided as well for students, faculty and staff.

ATS LIBRARY

The ATS Library in Rockland and the Henry Wilson Library (www.nyack.edu/library) in Manhattan support the primary academic research needs of ATS students and faculty. Resources of Nyack’s Bailey Library in Rockland are also fully available to seminary students. Combined, these collections contain approximately 190,000 books, 500 current print journal subscriptions, and resources in other media formats. Nearly 100 electronic databases direct student to research databases, carefully selected to support each academic degree program at Nyack, online full-text journals, and additional e-books. From home or in the library, students search the combined online catalog of all three libraries and research across a broad assortment of multidisciplinary and subject-specific electronic databases such as the American Theological Library Association’s ATLA Religion Database. An intercampus delivery service allows students at one Nyack location to electronically request library material from another and have it delivered to their primary location. While students may individually avail themselves of their local public libraries and nearby academic libraries, the interlibrary loan service (in which the library requests material from other libraries on behalf of an individual student) further broadens access to the wealth of national and international resources.
Library

The library staff is comprised of approachable professional librarians and library support staff (often ATS students themselves), firmly committed to excellence in the quality of the library and the level of service provided for the ATS community. Online services and guides, contact information, and information describing library policies are provided through the website. Individualized reference assistance and group instruction (the latter often in cooperation with faculty) address immediate information needs but also emphasize skills of the lifelong learner and focus on developing new skills and increased confidence in each student’s ability to tap into a diverse array of information sources.
General Information

General Information

CAMPUS SAFETY
The Campus Safety Department works closely with the Residence Life staff and local police to deter, detect, report, and investigate criminal activity and any other activity on campus that relates to safety and security. An annual report of crime statistics is available from the Campus Safety Department.

STUDENT HANDBOOK
The Nyack College Student Handbook, available from the Student Development Office, describes in detail campus student life, expectations, student services, and additional policies, procedures, and programs designed to promote a sense of community at the college. Each enrolled student receives a handbook at the beginning of the school year. The handbook will be sent upon request to any inquiring student. It may also be viewed on the college website.
Nyack College offers a variety of off-campus study programs designed to give students the benefits of an educational experience in a professional or cross-cultural environment.

Most of the following semester-long programs are sponsored by the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities of which Nyack College is a member. Deadlines for applying and expenses for the different programs vary considerably. Additional information is available through the Academic Office or through the Off-Campus Program Director. The following regulations apply:

1. Participating students pay Nyack College costs for full tuition, room and board, and fees less any deposit paid to the organization sponsoring the program.
2. Payment in full is required at the beginning of the semester; payment plans extending over the whole semester are not permitted when participating in an off-campus program.
3. Nyack College will pay the costs of the program upon receipt of bill from the sponsoring organization.
4. All other costs, including transportation, are the responsibility of the student.
5. Nyack College will support only one semester of off-campus study per student.
6. Institutional financial aid is not applied against the expenses of these programs.
7. All applications for off-campus study must be approved by the Off-campus Program Director and the Registrar.

American Studies Program: The American Studies Program in Washington, DC, is an internship/seminar program for upper level students in most majors who are interested in having “real world” on-the-job experiences and in exploring current national and international issues with Washington professionals. China Studies Program: This program gives the student an opportunity to study China and its rich culture from the inside. The program contains both a Business Concentration and a China Studies Concentration.
Off-Campus Undergraduate Study Programs

Study in the language, culture, and history of China as well as travel throughout the country combine to create this cross-cultural academic experience. Participants register at Nyack College for 16 credits as follows:

- ANT/HIS 395 Chinese History 3 credits
- SOC 397 Intercultural Communication 3
- ECO 395 Public Policy & Economic Development 3
- Concentration (China Studies or Business) 7 or 8

Contemporary Music Program: Students live and work in community while seeking to understand how God will have them integrate music, faith and business. Students receive instruction, experience and a uniquely Christian perspective on creativity and the marketplace, while working together to create and market a recording of original music. Participants will complete course work, labs, directed study and a practicum, earning a total of 16 credits.

- Faith, Music and Culture 3 credits
- Inside the Music Industry 3
- Practicum 1
- Track Options (Artist or Executive) 9

Focus on the Family Institute: This study program exists to provide a unique Christian educational community that nurtures passionate and persuasive leaders who are committed to Jesus Christ, equipping them to produce healthy families, vibrant churches, and a civil society. Students pursue a semester-long program of study. By enrolling at Colorado Christian University while at FFI, students will receive college credit for 16 credits as follows (note that most of these courses may be cross-listed with other disciplines):

- PHI 426 Christian Worldview Studies 3 credits
- POL 427 Family, Church and Society Studies 3
- PSY 453 Marriage and Leadership Studies 3
- PSY 454 Family Life Studies 3
- PSY 450/490 Practicum 4

Jerusalem University College: This study program provides an educational opportunity in the State of Israel. Students participate in studies of biblical history, geography, and languages and gain first hand experience of the region through a concentrated study of the culture and religions of the Middle East. Students travel the land from Dan to Beersheba, and take field trips throughout Egypt and Jordan, depending on the program of study in which they are enrolled.

Latin American Studies Program: Participants in the Latin American Studies Program live for a semester in Latin America, San Jose, Costa Rica, while studying the political, social, economic, and religious issues that characterize this part of the world. Specialized tracks in Advanced Language and Literature, International Business and Management, and Environmental Science are available. Participants register at Nyack College for 16 credits as follows (note that most of these courses may be cross-listed with other disciplines):

- SPA 291 Intermediate Spanish 6 credits
- ANT 392 Latin American Hist., Cont. Iss., & Persp. 3
- ANT 397 Travel Practicum 1-3
- Concentration (Latin America Studies, Advanced Language and Lit., Int’l Business, Environmental Science) 6

Los Angeles Film Studies Center: The Los Angeles Film Studies Center offers students the opportunity to study techniques of film making on location at various motion picture studios in southern California. Students are required to complete a separate admission for this concentration. Participants register at Nyack College for 16 credits as follows:
Off-Campus Undergraduate Study Programs

COM 329  Hollywood Production Workshop  3 credits
COM 402  Theology in Hollywood  4
COM 490  Internship: Inside Hollywood  6
Elective  3

Middle East Studies Program: Participants in the Middle East Studies Program spend a semester living at the American University in Cairo, Egypt, studying the Arabic language as well as the history, politics, and religious faiths of the Middle East. The final two weeks of the program include a trip to Israel. Participants register at Nyack College for 16 credits as follows (note that most of these courses may be cross-listed with other disciplines):

- LAN 191 Intro. To Arabic Language  4 credits
- ANT 391 Peoples & Cultures of the M. East  4
- REL 393 Islamic Thought and Practice  4
- HIS 491 Conflict & Change in the M.E. Today  4
- REL 390 Practicum  0

Scholar’s Semester in Oxford: Students spend a semester in Oxford, England, and through Oxford University develop an interdisciplinary course of study in art, history, politics, literature, music, science, and theology and participate in Oxford-style seminars/tutorials. Students also experience the richness of England by visiting relevant historic sites. Participants register at Nyack College for 16 credits as follows:

- Primary Tutorial  6 credits
- Secondary Tutorial  3
- Integrative Seminar  4
- The Shaping of the British Landscape  4

Oxford Summer School Program: Students spend six weeks at Oxford University’s Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies, listening to lectures surveying the art, history, politics, literature, music, science, and theology of the period and participating in Oxford-style seminars/tutorials. Students also experience the richness of England by going on several study trips to relevant historic sites.

Uganda Studies Program: The USP introduces students to the dynamic world of the Global South, focused in the vibrant East African nation of Uganda. Christianity here is joyful and growing rapidly, even as it engages Islam and secularization. USP students move through this society in the classes and dormitories of Uganda Christian University and as humble learners observing places and people of interest around the country.

- Faith and Action  4 credits
- African Core Courses (2 of 3)  6
- Electives  6

Washington Journalism Center: The WJC is a semester-long study program in Washington, DC, created for students interested in the field of journalism. While in Washington students will take classes focusing on the history and future of the media and how it relates to the public as well as to their personal writing skills. These classes, combined with an internship at a top news publication, will help students learn to integrate their faith in a journalism career. Students will also participate in service learning opportunities as well as live with families in home stays as part of the WJC experience. (Course numbers TBD)

- Foundations for Media Involvement  4 credits
- Reporting in Washington  3
- Washington, News, & Public Discourse  3
- Internship  6
The Nyack College Honors Program offers qualified students an opportunity to participate in an interdisciplinary core curriculum, accelerated Bible classes, advanced creative writing and innovative symposiums which address contemporary issues. Additional activities will include participation in national honors conferences and trips to museums, theaters and lectures in New York City.

Students who are admitted to the honors program will replace five courses from the traditional core curriculum—Introduction to Philosophy, Fine Arts, Global Literature and World History I and II—with an interdisciplinary core consisting of: 1) The Ancient World, 2) The Medieval World, 3) The Modern World (1600-1800), 4) The Contemporary World (1800-present). Each section will examine the history, philosophy, literature, and art of the respective period to provide the student with a comprehensive and interdisciplinary liberal arts education.

Application to the program can be made by anyone with a high school grade point average of 3.5 or better. Transfer students with a 3.5 average may also apply to the program. The application is available online at www.nyack.edu.

Advisement and Consultation
Students admitted into degree programs will be assigned a faculty advisor to assist them in planning their studies. These advisors are familiar with the requirements of the various programs of study and seek to advise students in such a way as to allow the fulfillment of these requirements within the standard amount of time allotted for specific programs.

Faculty-student partnering is designed to provide professional as well as academic guidance. Ultimate responsibility for both the selection and scheduling of courses lies with the individual student. Should a student choose not to follow the counsel of the faculty advisor, it is understood that program requirements may not be fulfilled within the time usually allowed.

A Degree Program Plan follows each description of the program in the catalog. Students are advised to take the required courses in the suggested sequence as there is no guarantee that a specific required course will not conflict with another required course if a particular requirement is deferred until a later semester.

Class Attendance
Class attendance is mandated to ensure course seat time requirements are fulfilled and is fundamental to good scholarship and therefore is expected of all students. The class attendance policy for each course must be included in the course syllabus. Excessive absence in all classes may lead to administrative withdrawal of the student.

Completing More Than One Major/Concentration/Degree

Second Degree:
In accordance with New York State regulations, Nyack College allows students who wish to pursue a second degree to do so if that degree is in a subject area markedly different from the first one.

The total time required to complete more than one degree will be determined by the demands of the two degrees combined. Two degrees can not be combined in cases where the nature or content of the degrees is similar. Students are not permitted to pursue more than one degree simultaneously. Students may pursue a second degree under the following conditions:

1. The degree must be in a degree category different from the first one.
2. Undergraduate students must completing a Bachelors degree must at least thirty (30) credits in the major field component of the second degree that are exclusive of any credits applied to the first degree requirements. Students pursuing a second Associate’s degree must complete at least fifteen (15) credits in the major field component of the second degree that are exclusive of any credits applied to the first degree requirements.
3. Graduate students may not share more than 50% of the credits of the lesser degree (the degree requiring the fewest credits).
4. Only credits that apply to both degrees may be shared.
5. Students should be aware that financial aid may not be applicable to a second degree. Since students may only pursue one degree at a time, financial aid awards will only include credits that apply to the requirements for their current degree program.

Double Major/Multiple Concentrations:
For those degree programs/categories that offer multiple concentrations/majors, students may complete more than one and have that noted on their transcripts, though only one degree will be awarded. (For example BA, MA, MDIV, etc.)

Graduate Second Concentration option: Students who desire to complete two concentrations may do so under the advisement of the respective Deans/Department Heads. The following policies apply to the dual concentration programs:

Students must officially register their request to matriculate for additional concentrations through the Registrar’s Office. The respective department heads and Deans must approve all requests for a second concentration.

All requirements for both concentrations in the degree program must be met.
The student must complete at least 18 credits in the other subject area that do not overlap with the first concentration. Dual concentrations must be in the same degree category.

Undergraduate Double Major option: Students who desire to complete double majors may do so under the advisement of the respective Deans/Department Heads. The following policies apply to the double major programs:

1. Students must officially register their request to matriculate for a double major through the Registrar’s Office. The respective department heads and Deans must approve all requests for double majors.
2. All requirements for both majors in the degree program must be met.
3. The student must complete at least 20 credits in the second major that do not overlap with the first major.
4. Double majors must be in the same degree category.
5. Double majors may not be completed in related fields. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will decide what constitutes a “related” major.

Course Credits
One credit is equivalent to 15 credit hours (750 minutes) of classroom instruction.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM
Courses numbers generally follow this matrix:

Sequence of Courses
Credit may not be received for lower level study in an area in which credit for higher level of study has already been received.

Nyack College reserves the right to cancel or change the delivery format of any course for which there is not sufficient demand and to adjust academic offerings without notice.

Credit Load
The minimum full-time course load is typically 12 credits per semester. To take more than 18 credits in a semester requires approval of the Dean of the school or division.

Degree Requirements
Students are responsible for completing the degree requirements outlined in the catalog in effect at the time of matriculation. A student may elect to adopt the degree requirements of a subsequent catalog by submitting a “Change of Program” form to the Registrar’s Office. If a student breaks matriculation, he/she may be required to assume the degree requirements in effect at the time of re-enrollment. Matriculation is broken by changing programs or not attending for a year or more (unless a "Program On Hold" status is approved). Any New York State Mandated curricular changes supercede this policy.

Students who have not completed coursework one year after their cohort finished will need to apply for re-admittance to the program and pay the full price of completing any outstanding graduation requirements. At such point they will be under current catalog requirements.

EXAMINATIONS POLICIES

Class Examinations: Students may not be absent from an announced examination period except for reasons beyond their control. In the event of an unavoidable absence, the student must arrange for a make-up examination with the instructor.
Final Examinations (Traditional Undergraduate students): The final examination schedule is distributed to students each semester and is available online.

Extensions for Late Work
Extensions for late work are granted solely due to extenuating circumstances clearly beyond the student’s control. In all cases, faculty retain the right to refuse to accept, or lower the grade on, such work submitted past the scheduled deadlines for the course.

An extension request must be filed with the Registrar's Office no later than the last day of the class. The length of the extension is determined by the professor, but may not exceed 30 days. A grade of “I” (Incomplete) will be recorded for the extension period. An incomplete will be converted to an “FX” (failure) after 30 days, after which time no further grade changes are permitted. Students will not be permitted to continue to the next term until Incompletes have been addressed.

If an extension request is not filed with the Registrar’s Office by the deadline, instructors will submit a grade based on work submitted, factoring in zeros for any incomplete work. This grade will remain final.

If a student fails or withdraws from a course or if the student is withdrawn because of failure to meet attendance requirements, that student will need to re-enroll in the course and pay the tuition for the course again.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
In accordance with federal law, students are hereby notified of the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. This Act was designed to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review such records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate information within the records.

Nyack’s full policy is available in various student handbooks and from the Registrar’s Office.

GRADE POINT SYSTEM
Graduation is based not only upon the accumulation of appropriate credits, but also upon the quality of work performed. The minimum standard established by the faculty is a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 for undergraduate students. In order to achieve this, the student must attain twice as many grade points as credits attempted. The minimum cumulative GPA standard for students pursuing degrees at the Seminary is 2.50. For all other Graduate and Post-graduate programs, the minimum cumulative GPA requirement is 3.00. Grade points are granted per semester hour on the following basis:

GRADES AND ACADEMIC STANDING
In order to continue studies and receive Title IV and State aid, a student must demonstrate that he or she is making acceptable progress toward earning a degree. The following paragraphs represent the progression of the program and the minimum academic standards that must be met to be eligible for Title IV and State aid. These standards are required by State and Federal funding agencies.

Academic Probation and Dismissal
A student is considered to be in good academic standing when she/he is matriculated for a degree program offered at Nyack College and is making satisfactory progress toward receiving the degree.

The academic progress of students is evaluated at the close of each semester. In the case of modular cohort programs, this evaluation may also be made mid-way during the semester. Students must meet the minimum cumulative grade point average based on their degree program requirements as evidence of satisfactory progress toward graduation. A student whose cumulative GPA falls below the required minimum will be evaluated based on the criteria noted below.

Any student on academic probation must meet the minimum GPA for their degree program each semester to demonstrate progress toward achieving the cumulative GPA.

Students not making significant progress toward meeting the cumulative GPA requirements for their degree program will be academically dismissed. Failure to make satisfactory academic progress has implications for financial aid eligibility. It should be noted that the standards of satisfactory academic progress for financial aid purposes may differ. Please refer to the “Financial Aid” section of the catalog.

A student who has been academically dismissed may apply for reinstatement through the Academic Appeals Committee. The Committee’s decision is final.

Non-Traditional Undergraduate Standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress (OM)

To make satisfactory academic progress in the first two of the three terms at Nyack, undergraduate students must earn at least 9 credits with a 2.0 GPA.

If a student must stop out of the cohort after Term One, the student may transfer into another cohort after the required academic standard has been met. New financial aid paperwork must be completed before any student may return to the OM program.

Students who end Term One with five or fewer credits completed, or less than a 2.0 GPA will be administratively withdrawn from their cohort.

Students who finish Term One with 6 to 8 credits will be automatically placed on academic probation for the first 6 weeks of Term Two. If by the end of 6 weeks they have still not attained 9 credits or a 2.0 GPA, they will be administratively withdrawn. There is no appeal of this decision.

Doctoral students must maintain a minimum 3.00 cumulative GPA & will be academically dismissed upon failure of a course.
Undergraduate students on academic probation may not carry an academic load greater than 13 credit hours. Eligibility for participation in intercollegiate sports is determined according to the regulation of the relevant intercollegiate athletic associations. This information is available from the Athletic Department.

The academic progress of students on academic probation is evaluated at the close of each semester by the Registrar / Committee on Academic Affairs. Students dropped from Nyack College/ATS for scholastic reasons may apply for reinstatement after completing a semester of full-time study at another institution with a minimum degree program grade point average. Undergraduate students on academic probation must complete an Academic Recovery Contract as part of the registration process.

Grade Reports and Adjustments
Grades are available online as they are entered by professors. In the event of misunderstanding or error, the student should consult with the course professor and Registrar’s Office immediately. Please refer to the Grievance policy. The Registrar’s Office holds the official record of a student’s final grade.

GRADING SYSTEM
Students may view their grades online through password-secured access. A letter system is used in evaluating the work for a course as follows (NOTE: not all programs use all of the following options):

A/A- Excellent
Indicates exceptional performance that is clearly beyond the expected standard. The student displays a comprehensive knowledge of course content and methodology, skill in communicating that knowledge, as well as originality and independence in application. The work evidences interaction with scholarly literature that goes beyond course requirements and exhibits few or no mechanical, stylistic, or grammatical errors. The student provides a striking individual style that is clear and lively without detracting from the academic nature of the work, and sustained interest in the work of the class, with constructive participation therein.

B+/B/B- Above Average
Indicates that the expected standard has been achieved. Understanding of subject matter, prompt and thorough preparation of assignments, very good performance in readings and projects, and an interest in the work of the class, with constructive participation therein. The work evidences few mechanical, stylistic, or grammatical errors, and demonstrates reasonable organization and development of ideas. Ideas are clearly and logically expressed, supported well by relevant literature, and properly documented.

C+/C Average Expected of College Students
Indicates that work is below the expected standard in many respects. Acceptable knowledge of the subject matter, understanding of the fundamental principles and a reasonable ability to apply them, and promptness in preparation of assignments. The work displays a basic understanding of principles and materials treated in the course but the expression of the understanding is significantly impeded by any of the following: lack of conceptual organization, development, and flow of ideas; inadequate documentation of sources; significant errors in spelling, grammar, style, or mechanics.

C-/D+/D/D- Below Average
Indicates that the work is significantly below standard and is only minimally acceptable for credit. Minimally adequate understanding of subject matter, irregular and inadequate preparation of assignments, and uncertain prospect of success in subsequent courses. The work reveals a lack of understanding or serious misunderstanding of the principles and materials treated in the course. Submitted work lacks a clearly defined thesis and/or fails to support the thesis with appropriate research, fails to provide proper source citation, or relies mainly on summaries or paraphrases of other people’s work. The work contains poor sentence structure, punctuation, grammar, and style.

F Failure
Indicates failure. Inadequate knowledge and understanding of subject matter. The student displays inadequate or fragmentary knowledge of course content and methodology.

FX
Failing grade given when students do not officially withdraw from a course but stop attending, or fail to complete the work for an incomplete.

P Pass
Pass grade indicates adequacy in summative experience. This grade is not included in grade point averaging.

Pass/Fail is not an option for Organizational Leadership major courses, but Pass/No Credit can be chosen for Adult Intensive Track classes before the course begins. Pass is defined as a “C” or better.

PD Pass with Distinction
Pass with Distinction indicates excellence in a summative experience. This grade is not included in grade point averaging.

AU Audit

I Incomplete
May be given when students, because of prolonged illness or other circumstances beyond their control, are unable to complete their work by the end of the semester. Any remaining Incomplete grades are converted to FX grades 45 days after the term end date.

WD Withdrawal
Grade given when students officially withdraw from a course before the deadline for official withdrawal indicated on the academic calendar. "WD" will be recorded on the transcript for official withdrawals after the one-week add/drop period.

AWD Administrative Withdrawal
Grade given when a student has been administratively withdrawn.

GRADUATION DATES
A student’s graduation date coincides with his/her degree completion date, at the conclusion of the Fall, Spring and Summer terms. For those in the OM program, graduation dates follow the program student handbook policies. Degrees will only be conferred for those who have completed all degree requirements. Graduation ceremonies are held annually in May.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Approval for graduation means that ALL requirements for a degree have been completed. The appropriate degree is awarded upon completion of the following:

- All degree program credit requirements have been met; including number of in-house minimum credits and requirements related to how many of final credits must be satisfied at Nyack.
- All minimum degree program cumulative grade point averages have been met.
- Any additional major specific minimum in house credits and grade point average requirements have been met.
- Assessment Examinations have been completed as offered.
- Summative projects such as Thesis, EP, Comprehensive Exams, etc. completed as required by degree program (Graduate).
- All residency requirements have been met.
- Submission of Application for Graduation to the Registrar’s Office no later than 2 semesters prior to anticipated graduation. For all but OM students, graduation applications are due to the Registrar’s Office on February 1st for December / September 15th for May graduates.
- In order to be eligible to participate in the May commencement ceremonies, students must have completed all degree requirements during the last academic year and meet all financial obligations.
- A student is not permitted to receive a Nyack College Associate’s degree subsequent to receiving a Nyack College Bachelor’s degree.

A student may fulfill the program requirements of the Nyack College/ATS catalog under which he/she entered or any subsequent catalog in effect when they are registered students, unless matriculation is broken.
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES
Nyack College utilizes a grievance procedure that complies with the Higher Education Act of 1965, Section 494C(j). This procedure applies to all cases dealing with discrimination by race, handicap, or gender, including harassment, or to any other grievance. In no case will any adverse action be taken against a student for filing a grievance. The final determination of each formal grievance will be made by a person or persons not directly involved in the matter. Because different grievance procedures apply to faculty, staff, and students, consultation of the appropriate handbooks is advised.

Students who have a grievance relative to academic policies, grades given, or other academic judgments should first seek to resolve their complaints with the professor. If resolution is not reached, the matter may be directed to the department head or program director of the class in question. If this does not solve the problem, a formal complaint may be made in writing to the respective Academic Dean whose judgment is final.

In the case of a grade dispute, adjustments must be made within 45 days of the close of the semester.

IMMUNIZATIONS
In accordance with New York State Public Health Law 2165, Nyack College requires degree-seeking (or certificate-seeking) students born on or after January 1, 1957 to submit proof of immunity to measles, mumps and rubella.

In accordance with New York State Public Health Law 2167, Nyack College requires all students (regardless of age or matriculation status) be provided with information about meningococcal disease and vaccination. Students are required to submit either a certificate of immunization, or a signed acknowledgement of risks and refusal of immunization.

Students enrolled for less than 6 credits per semester, or who are enrolled exclusively in online or distance education courses, are exempt from the above regulations. Students attending off-campus programs in group settings with other students are not exempt.

PROGRAM ON HOLD
Students enrolled in a degree program who need to suspend their studies for medical, military, educational (to fulfill outstanding pre-requisite requirements) or related reasons may file for a formal “Program on Hold” approval with the Registrar’s Office within the first semester of absence. Supporting documentation is required. An approved program hold may not extend beyond 3 years, at which time complete re-application must be made to the program through the Office of Admissions.

A “Program on Hold” is not considered a break in matriculation when determining the catalog year that a student is following (see “Degree Requirements”). However, program modifications may be necessary to fulfill the original degree requirements in the event of curricular changes.

MODIFICATION OF PROGRAM
Undergraduate students who wish to modify their degree program in any way must complete a Modification of Program request, available from the Registrar's Office or a faculty advisor. The Dean of the school for which the modification is requested shall have final approval.

PLAGIARISM
Students at Nyack College, as Christians, are expected to display the highest standards of personal and academic integrity in the development of research papers and other academic projects. Perhaps the most critical issue in exhibiting integrity in academic assignments is student compliance with accepted practices for providing his/her professor with resources and references used to develop his/her paper or project.

It is recognized that there exists some confusion or ambiguity regarding proper procedures and practices regarding integration of bibliographical references into assignments. In addition, there are, unfortunately, individuals who disregard academic integrity and deliberately plagiarize another’s work in their assignments. The following policy is intended to address both intentional and unintentional plagiarism. In addition, it recognizes that there are levels of plagiarism and that consequences must be aligned with the seriousness of the offense. All students are responsible to be familiar with this policy. Ignorance of plagiarism guidelines will not be accepted as a defense or excuse for violating these standards.

Definition of Plagiarism
Plagiarism is defined as an act of “Literary Theft,” when the work of another is misrepresented as the original work of the Nyack College student. This may be done intentionally or unintentionally. When excerpts, thoughts, writings, or statements of others are used in papers, essays, or other projects, they must be acknowledged through footnotes, bibliography and other accepted MLA or APA practices and standards.

Levels and Consequences

Level One: Minimal Plagiarism

The college recognizes that there is often no student intent to misrepresent borrowed material as one’s own, but he/she has simply been careless in complying with acceptable presentation and reference conventions. In this case, assignments will be returned to students who will be advised by their professors to rewrite assignments in acceptable form. No grade will be assigned until the professor is satisfied that the student has made adequate revisions meeting MLA or APA standards.

Level Two: Substantial Plagiarism

Substantial plagiarism exists where the writer gives no recognition to sources from which substantial material such as phrases, sentences or even ideas are drawn. The minimum penalty for this offense is the rewriting of the paper, and a one letter grade reduction being given to the offending work. Maximum penalty is failure of the course.

Level Three: Complete Plagiarism

Complete plagiarism exists when significant and/or substantial material, such as a paragraph, page, or an entire work, is copied from an author or composed by another person, and presented as original work. A failing grade for the course is automatically given. The professor will write a reprimand, a copy of which will be kept in the student’s file. A repeat offense may result in suspension or expulsion from the college.

Other Plagiarism Offenses

- Submitting the same essay, presentation or assignment for credit in more than one course, unless prior approval has been obtained. Minimum penalty: write a new paper with a full letter grade reduction being given to the work. Maximum penalty: failure of the course.
- Cheating on an examination or falsifying material subject to academic evaluation. Penalty is failure of the course.
- Submitting false records or information at the time of admission to the college, e.g., transcripts, letters of reference. Penalty appropriate to gravity of the offense, the likelihood being either suspension of studies or expulsion from the college.

Any Nyack College student who is unclear about what is required in writing a research-based assignment should speak with his/her professor for clarification.

Cases of plagiarism and cheating are to be reported to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Appeals may be made to the Academic Affairs Committee with the provision that the instructor involved and the Vice President for Academic Affairs be present when the case is considered.

REGISTRATION

Only students who have formally applied and have been officially accepted by Nyack College may register for courses.

Returning Students: Advisement and registration for returning students are done during the preceding semester. Official enrollment for the semester is completed online prior to the start of the semester.

New Students: New students may be registered for courses once the Admissions Office has received a tuition deposit. Admissions staff work closely with the student and the respective department faculty to ensure proper course selection. For traditional Undergraduate students, official enrollment for the semester is completed at new-student Registration Check-in, on the date designated on the calendar.

Late Registration: Late registration is permitted during the week following the first day of class (referred to as the Add/Drop period). All students registering late may incur a late registration fee.

Schedule Changes and Dropping Courses: During the add/drop period, which runs through the first week of classes for traditional semester programs, a student may officially add or drop a course online, or by completing a Course Change Request form and bringing it in person to the Registrar’s Office. For traditional Undergraduate programs, the student must secure an advisor’s signature before the request will be considered. Registration/Course Change Request forms are available from the Student Development Office, Registrar’s Office, the student’s faculty advisor, and online.
Academic Information & Policies

Courses may not be added after the end of the one-week add/drop period. If a student officially withdraws from a course during the add/drop period, the course will not be recorded in the student’s official academic record. Courses officially dropped after that time are considered “ withdrawals” and a grade of “WD” is recorded. The deadline for official withdrawal from an individual course is the three-quarter point of the semester and is indicated on the college calendar. The date on which a course is considered dropped is the date the Registrar’s Office receives the completed form. For traditional undergraduate students, no refunds are made for a course dropped after registration closes. NOTE: When withdrawal from courses reduces the total credit load below 12 credits, eligibility may be jeopardized for financial aid, scholarships, athletics, college housing, immigration status, and veteran's benefits.

Responsibility for adding, dropping and/or withdrawing from courses rests entirely upon the student. Failure to do so in a timely manner because of an oversight, ignorance or possibility of low grades is not sufficient grounds to petition for permission to add, drop or withdraw after the deadline. It is the policy of the college that no petitions for retroactive actions will be accepted except under extenuating circumstance beyond the student’s control.

Due to the nature of program format, DMIN students are not permitted to withdraw or drop classes once the term has begun. If these students choose to drop from the term altogether, and later wish to re-enroll, they will be required to do so with a different cohort to pick up where they left off, and will come under the curricular and financial requirements in place at the time of re-enrollment.

Administrative Withdrawal from College: If the semester is at least one-third over and a student has stopped attending all of their classes (determined either by attendance or failure to complete assignments and course activities), that student may be administratively withdrawn from Nyack College. The withdrawal date shall be recorded as the last date of attendance. If that date is indeterminable, the withdrawal date shall be the midpoint of the period for Title IV aid eligibility purposes. The Registrar’s Office, in consultation with Student Financial Services, shall determine if a student shall be administratively withdrawn based on gatherable evidence of non-attendance. A grade of AWD shall be recorded for each administratively withdrawn class. The student shall be notified of this administrative withdrawal.

Withdrawal from College: Students desiring to withdraw from the college must complete a Withdrawal Form, available in the Registrar's Office. If a student withdraws from the college by the last day to withdraw, the grade for the courses will be WD.

Registration

Changes in Registration
Students desiring to change their registration must submit a Change of Registration form available in the Registrar’s Office. After the Add/Drop Period, the only allowable change is withdrawal. Changes permitted once the Add/Drop Period ends will bear financial repercussions.

To withdraw from a course, a student must complete the Change of Registration form, or an alternative written notification. This change is only permitted through the 75% point of the semester (as indicated on the academic calendar), or the equivalent in the case of a short-term course. Withdrawal from a course does not relieve the student of the tuition charges for the course, unless the change is completed before the Add/Drop Period ends.

Organizational Management Registration
Officially admitted students will register at the beginning of Term One. Students will be automatically registered for Terms Two and Three, unless the student notifies the Registrar’s Office of their withdrawal or the student has been dismissed or Administratively Withdrawn. Official registration is dependent upon the payment of tuition and fees, and official documentation of transfer credits. Arrangements for the payment of tuition and fees must be made four weeks prior to the beginning of classes each term through the office of Student Financial Services. Failure to make this arrangement will delay registration and class attendance.

DMIN students may not withdraw from a class, only a term – and this must be addressed prior to the term start.

REPEAT COURSES
Degree programs vary on course repeat policies. However, when a grade is repeated, only the highest grade counts toward the GPA, but both grades will remain on the permanent record. In the case of a student repeating a course in which a passing grade acceptable within his/her program has already been received, the course will not be included as part of his/her course load for financial aid purposes.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT
All students who are enrolled in a Nyack College program within the State of New York are required by the New York State Education Department to complete a minimum of one complete course at the Rockland campus. For each degree program, one course is designated for instruction in Rockland. For the traditional undergraduate program, this course is PMN 201, Nyack Heritage. In fulfillment of this requirement, Manhattan satellite campus ATS students will take SF505 (Personal, Professional & Theological Foundations for Ministry) at the Rockland campus. For the Organizational Management program, this course is INT 101, Information Literacy. For AGSC students, it is GCN610 Career Development. For MSED students, it is EDG 500 or 501 Introduction to Research & Statistics, for MSOL students it is LDG 600 Principles of Research Methods, and for MBA students it is BUS 604 Business Research Methods.

Scheduling of Classes
The annual course schedule includes semester-long classes and short-term classes (fast track and intensive formats). Semester length courses are offered in both the fall and spring, and are scheduled in blocks of time so that a particular course usually meets only once each week. Fast track classes reduce the number of overall sessions by extending the normal length of a given session. Intensive classes are primarily offered in the Winterim and May term at the start of the spring and summer semesters respectively. These courses are designed for intensive study during one or two week periods during which all required seat time hours are completed. In some cases, short-term course assignments are completed after the class sessions are finished and are submitted by a specified date as prescribed by the professor.

SCHOLASTIC HONORS

Graduate students of outstanding scholarship are selected for graduation honors as follows:

- Honors: Cumulative GPA at least 3.85
- Honors With Distinction: Cumulative GPA at least 3.95

Traditional undergraduate students are selected for honors as follows:

- Dean’s List: At the close of each semester, the Vice President for Academic Affairs will publish a list bearing the names of full-time students whose grade point averages for the semester were 3.50 or above. Incomplete grades or unsubmitted grades at the time the list of names is prepared will disqualify a student from inclusion.

- Honorable Mention: At the close of each semester, a list will be published of full-time students whose grade point averages for the semester were 3.25 to 3.49. Incomplete grades at the time the list of names is prepared will disqualify a student from inclusion.

- Nyack Honor Society: The Nyack Honor Society of Nyack College is composed of students selected annually by the faculty from the graduating class. The following criteria will constitute the basis for selection: scholarship, spirituality, and extracurricular activities. Each year at least one honorary member is elected to the society, usually from the ranks of the Alumni Association, and it is in recognition of significant achievement in the field of Christian service.
Alpha Chi National Honor Society: Alpha Chi National Honor Society is a nationally renowned organization that recognizes academic excellence. Nyack College’s chapter of Alpha Chi was established in 1986 and is known as New York Pi. New members are inducted annually from the junior and senior classes, induction being determined by the student’s cumulative GPA. Opportunities for travel to conferences and performance and publication are afforded to members. A nominal lifetime membership fee is required by Alpha Chi’s national office.

Chi Alpha Epsilon was formed to recognize the academic achievements of students admitted to colleges and universities through non-traditional criteria. Founded at West Chester University of Pennsylvania, Chi Alpha Epsilon was organized in 1989. Responding to an increased need to acknowledge the continuing successes of students in the Academic Development Program and recognizing that students who share similar experiences could serve as significant models for others, a Greek letter honor society was proposed by Dr. Elbert Saddler.

Graduation Honors: Students of outstanding scholarship are selected for graduation honors in the following manner:

- Cum Laude GPA at least 3.25
- Magna Cum Laude GPA at least 3.50
- Summa Cum Laude GPA at least 3.80

In order to be eligible for graduation honors, students must have completed 60 credits at Nyack College by the time honors are determined.

Associate degree graduates will be ranked separately from Bachelor degree graduates and are eligible for graduation honors based upon a completion of a minimum of 40 credits at Nyack College.

Non-traditional undergraduate students of outstanding scholarship are selected for honors as follows:

Graduation Honors:

- With distinction: GPA at least 3.80
- With highest distinction: GPA of 4.0

Organizational Leadership students will qualify for Latin honors of Cum Laude etc. only if they have completed a total of at least 60 credits at Nyack College.

Omicron-Psi Honor Society
The Omicron-Psi Honor Society is dedicated to recognizing the achievements of non-traditional students in the United States. SB&L students enrolled in Organizational Management have the opportunity to qualify for membership in this Honor Society if they meet the following criteria:

- Must be at least 24 years of age.
- Must be eligible to graduate from the School of Business and Leadership with an Organizational Management degree.
- Must have a minimum cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.8.
- Must currently participate in at least three community activities (e.g. 4H, church related activities, senior centers, Boy/Girl Scouts, etc.)
- Must maintain the principles of duty, honor and service.
- Must maintain and demonstrate high ethical standards in all aspects of life.
- Must be nominated by their Primary Instructor.

STUDY OPTIONS
Nyack College offers several alternative study options. By design, these study options are no less rigorous than the regular classroom experience and as such will not be approved for students on academic probation, with the exception of those writing integrative papers for the Interdisciplinary programs.

OPEN CLASSROOM STUDY
Directed Study: a method of study whereby a student takes an established course independently, or pursues an individualized program of learning by entering into a binding agreement (learning contract) with a supervising professor to complete that program of study within a specific time frame.

A student must prepare a proposal for study in conjunction with a supervising professor. This is a collaborative effort in which the student and the professor will develop a mutually satisfactory plan of study. When both the student and the professor have agreed to and signed the proposal, it is to be presented to the Dean for approval. It is the student’s responsibility to present the learning contract proposal to the Dean. When all required approvals have been received, the student will then be officially registered for the course. Learning contracts may not be developed for work already completed, nor may learning contracts be used for core curriculum courses, language courses, or courses offered during the semester in question.

Every credit of Directed Study must demonstrate that the student has done at least 45 hours of work (50 for Graduate students); therefore a 3-credit Directed study requires 135 hours of work (150 for Graduate students). There is an additional fee of $100 per credit for Directed Studies for Graduate students.

Traditional Undergraduate students: Learning contracts must be completed for all forms of non-classroom learning, including internships.

ATS students: No more than 20% of a degree program may be fulfilled through courses taken independently (any combination of Directed, Topical, or Independent Studies). Candidates for the Master of Arts may request to exceed this limit if their program requires special research. The requests must be submitted in writing to the Registrar’s Office and must be approved by the Academic Dean. Interested students must have completed at least 12 credits of study at ATS with a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 and have prior approval of the Registrar and the Academic Dean. All assignments must be completed within the normal semester schedule.

Guided Study: In the case of Guided Studies, for every credit of earned independent of classroom instruction, 45 hours of work is required (50 hours for Graduate students).

Career Related Internships: Several majors/degree programs offer internship possibilities. Internships are work-related experiences in which the student, faculty member, and site supervisor develop a mutual agreement for student learning goals and activities.

For Traditional Undergraduate students: Three credits may be applied to the major in a career-related internship. Students must have earned a minimum of 12 credits in the major prior to such an internship.

Study At Other Institutions: A matriculated student must receive permission in advance from the Registrar to take courses at another institution and to apply credit toward Nyack College/ATS’s program by transfer of credit. Minimum grade requirements apply according to program. These grades are not included in the Nyack College grade point average. Forms to request off-campus study or pre-approval of transfer credit are available at the Registrar’s Office.

Transcripts
Official transcripts are issued only upon written authorization of the student (signature required). Transcripts will not be issued if the student's account is in arrears. A minimum of one business week should be allowed for processing. The following fees apply:

- $5.00 - 1st transcript
- $1.00 - Each additional copy ordered at the same time
- $10.00 - Rush fee (processed within 2 business days)

Transfer of Degree Program
To transfer from one degree program to another, a student must have formal approval from his/her advisor and the Registrar. Prerequisites and requirements for the desired degree must be met. To transfer from non-degree student status to a degree program, the student must have formal approval from the Director of Admissions. Change of Program forms are available in the Office of the Registrar.
Veteran’s Requirements

Students receiving Veterans Administration Educational Assistance Allowance are required to meet certain minimum standards in attendance and academic progress towards graduation. The student is responsible to report immediately to the Registrar’s Office any change of status in enrollment or withdrawal. Further information and assistance may be obtained by contacting the school’s V.A. Certifying Official.

Withdrawal

A student may withdraw from a course or courses until 75% of seat time has been completed (for semester length courses this deadline is determined in the academic calendar) or the equivalent in the case of a short-term course. A grade of “WD” will be entered into the student’s permanent record. Due to the nature of the program, DMIN students may not withdraw from a specific class – withdrawal is permitted only from the term, when notification is received by the first day of the term.

Students withdrawing from the institution should complete and submit an Intention to Withdraw form in a timely fashion.

Withdrawal from all or part of a student’s registration does not relieve the student of the tuition charges for the course(s).

Organizational Management Withdrawal and Readmission

If a student must withdraw from the College before the completion of studies, he/she is first required to consult with the Primary Instructor of his/her cohort, and submit a status change form to the Registrar’s Office. Please note that the effective date of withdrawal will be according to the date the student submits the status change form to the Registrar. Withdrawal from the program will affect a student’s eligibility for financial aid, loan deferments and scholarships/grants. Until the Registrar’s Office is notified, absences will continue to accumulate. See Nyack College refund policy in the financial aid section.

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the program, he/she will receive credit for any course completed. Withdrawal from the program will jeopardize any financial aid for the remainder of the academic year.

Students who fail to officially withdraw from the program must apply for re-admission to the program. If approved for re-admission, a student may join the next appropriate class and pay the current tuition and fees.

ATS INDEPENDENT STUDY PROGRAM (ISP)

The Independent Study Program (ISP) of ATS is comprised of self-paced courses which may be taken for credit or personal enrichment. ISP courses have been approved by the faculty at ATS though the lecturers listed at the beginning of each course are not resident faculty. These audio-print courses include taped lectures, syllabi, study guides, and assignments (including examinations and course papers). An ATS/NC faculty will serve as Faculty Mentor for students taking these classes. Upon successful completion of an ISP course, graduate-level credit is granted, which is applicable toward ATS degree programs.

Independent Study Program courses are intended primarily to complement the study programs of nontraditional students who are not able to enroll under normal circumstances in classes offered at the main campus or external locations.

No more than 20% of a degree program may be fulfilled through courses taken independently (ie: any combination of ISP courses & directed studies).

The cost of course materials is included in the tuition fee. If a student drops or withdraws from an ISP course during the full-refund period, the cost of the materials will remain on his/her student account.

Registration:

ISP courses are included in a student’s registration for a given semester. Upon submission of an ISP Course Enrollment Form to the Registrar’s Office, the course will be added as part of the student’s semester schedule. The course is then subject to all academic & financial policies and... timetables that normally govern any other semester course. Registration for ISP courses is included in the calculation of a student’s enrollment status (FT/PT). Grades are noted on the academic record & included in the computation of the student’s GPA.

Courses Available: See the course descriptions under “ATS Independent Study” for a listing of the ISP courses offered through ATS. Course numbers start with “IN”.

Academic Information & Policies
Nyack College welcomes applicants for admissions from students who have academic promise, support the core values of the institution, and are motivated to complete their academic goals. The College admits those applicants whom it believes to be best suited for its academic program and most likely to benefit from it.

Admissions Classifications

1. Matriculated (degree) students are those who are pursuing a degree either full or part-time.
2. Non-degree students are those who meet all the requirements for admission to a degree program, but who are not currently pursuing a degree at Nyack College. They may be full or part-time students.
3. Transfer students are students transferring from recognized undergraduate or graduate schools who may be given transfer credit if comparable courses are included in the curriculum of Nyack College (please see Transfer of Credits).
4. Auditors are students who take courses at Nyack College but will not receive credit.
5. Visiting students are those matriculated in a degree program in another undergraduate or graduate school who intend to enroll in courses at Nyack College in order to complete their degree at their home institution.

Admissions Processes

Processing and Notification: The Director of Admissions will review submitted records when all information is complete. Admission decisions will be communicated to applicants in writing as soon as possible after the decision has been made, typically within one or two weeks. Admission to the Nyack College Undergraduate program is decided on a rolling basis; completed applications submitted early are prioritized. Admissions to the Nyack College Graduate programs are decided by specific dates noted on the Nyack College website.

Readmission: Former students who have not been enrolled for one calendar year or more and who desire to re-enroll in Nyack College should apply for readmission through the Admissions Office. Students who have not been enrolled for more than one year and were on approved leave can choose to follow the degree requirements at the time they were last enrolled or the current degree requirements. If a student has not been on approved leave, the current curriculum will be used when determining the student's degree program.

Reactivation: Students who have been inactive for less than one calendar year, and have not enrolled in another institution during the one-year absence, must submit a re-enrollment application prior to being permitted to register. This application is handled through the Registrar’s office.

* If a student has been dismissed from Nyack for any reason, the student must first submit an appeal before being considered for Readmission or Reactivation.

Transfer Applicants

Nyack College welcomes applications from qualified graduates of two-year colleges as well as from students who have earned college or graduate level credit at other post-secondary institutions. Students transferring to Nyack College are granted transfer credit in accordance with the transfer credit policies outlined.

Transfer of Credit Policies: Although a certain degree of uniformity exists among colleges and universities, it is also important to recognize that each institution is a unique entity in the academic world. For this reason it is not possible to guarantee absolute equivalency of credit in the transfer process. Course work will be evaluated on the basis of a number of factors, including, but not limited to, accreditation, equivalency of content and/or learning outcomes, and overall fit within the ethos of the program. Nyack College will seek to provide the most equitable transfer of credit possible within the framework of the following policies:

1. Transfer credits will be accepted only on the basis of official transcripts. To assist in the evaluation of transcripts from schools without regional accreditation, the prospective student should also submit a catalog and syllabi from the previous institution(s).
2. Though many schools have regional accreditation, work from non-accredited schools will be evaluated in a manner appropriate to the particular institution.
3. Credits are transferred to meet the degree requirements of a specific major. The choice of major or degree program may substantially affect the number of transferable and applicable credits.
4. In order to be transferred, a course must carry a grade of at least C- (College Writing II equivalent courses and Education methods courses must have a grade of C or above to be transferable) for the undergraduate program. Transfer credits for the seminary must carry a grade of C or better and for the graduate programs must carry a grade of B or better.
5. Only credits, not grades or grade points, are transferred.
Admissions

6. Quarter credits are evaluated as 2/3 (two-thirds) of a semester credit. No fractional credit is transferred.
7. Students graduating with an associate’s degree from an accredited institution may be admitted as candidates for the bachelor’s degree at Nyack College. In some programs, a full transfer of credit may be possible provided that the earned associate’s degree required a minimum of a C average for completion. The student will still need to fulfill all Nyack College catalog requirements.
8. Transfer students who enroll in a bachelor’s degree program at Nyack College with more than 45 applicable transfer credits may not need to meet the full 17-hour Bible core curriculum requirement. They may either complete the 17-hour Bible core requirement, or take an average of one Bible core course per semester while enrolled at Nyack College. For the latter option, no fewer than four Bible core courses must be taken, and one must be BIB 301 or BIB 302. This exception is not valid for majors in Bible, Christian Education, Church Music, Missiology, Pastoral Ministry, Religion, Youth Ministry, or an Interdisciplinary Studies major involving any of these.
9. Only undergraduate credits earned at accredited institutions will be considered for MSEd prerequisites purposes.
10. Graduate-level credits must have been earned at accredited institutions to be considered for transfer credit into graduate programs.
11. Transfer credits will be evaluated on a case by case basis for DMIN students.

International Students Admissions Requirements

Nyack College welcomes applications for admission from well-qualified, non-U.S. resident citizens of other countries. The admissions procedures are the same for all students.

Students for whom English is not the first language should be certified in English proficiency. Certification for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) requires a minimum score of 550 (paper); 220 (computer version), or 83 (internet version) on the TOEFL examination. A certified affidavit from an individual or agency guaranteeing financial support to the student for education in the United States is also required.

After being accepted at Nyack College, international students are required to make a deposit of $2,000 before the Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 form) will be issued by the Office of Admissions. The Director of Admissions and/or designated school official will assist the student in matters pertaining to immigration, employment, etc.

New Student Orientation: All new students attend a special orientation program on the dates listed on the college calendar or from your admissions associate. A full program is arranged for the orientation days at both the undergraduate and graduate level.

Army Concurrent Admissions Program: Nyack College is a member of the Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC). As a participant in the Army’s Concurrent Admissions Program (ConAp), Nyack College seeks to accommodate the educational needs of persons in the armed forces.

Nondiscrimination Policy: Students, faculty and staff represent a diverse college community. Nyack College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, age, sex, or physical disability in admission, participation, or employment in campus programs or activities. The programs are operated in compliance with the Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1983, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and all other relevant statutes and regulations.

Standards
Nyack College welcomes applications for admission from qualified high school graduates who want to attend college in an atmosphere of high academic standards and Christian faith. In selecting students for admission, Nyack College looks for potential academic success, the capacity to learn, and evidence that the individual will thrive in a Christ-centered academic environment. Nyack College will consider students for admission based upon the following criteria:

SAT I combined math and critical reading score of 920, with a critical reading score of at least 480, OR an ACT composite score of 19.

Graduation in the top 50% of one’s high school class;
High School GPA of at least a 2.0; transfer students with more than 30 college credits must have at least a 2.0 GPA from college.

Students who do not meet the above standards, but who are highly motivated, are invited to apply and may be asked to visit the campus for an interview and placement testing before an admissions decision is made.

Well-qualified students normally have taken a high school curriculum consisting of the following:

- English 4 units
- Mathematics 3 units
- Science 3 units
- Social Science 3 units
- Foreign Languages 2 units

Applying for Admission
All applicants must submit the following:
1. A completed and signed application.
2. A $25 non-refundable application fee.
3. An official transcript from the current high school or the high school from which the individual graduated or a GED. Home schooled students must submit a transcript from their learning program. To be eligible for financial aid, home schooled students will be required to take the Accuplacer test. Home schooled students are exempt from this test only if they submit a GED or obtain a letter from their local school district school officials confirming they received an education “substantially equivalent” to instruction given to students graduating from high school in the public school system.
4. An official transcript from any and all colleges attended previous to Nyack.
5. Official SAT or ACT scores except if a student submits a GED score or is an international student.
7. Pastor's recommendation
8. Personal Essay
9. Transfer Recommendation (Rockland campus only)
10. Immunizations. In accordance with the New York State Public Health Law 2167, Nyack College requires degree-seeking (or certificate-seeking) students born on or after January 1, 1957, to submit proof of immunity to measles, mumps and rubella. Students enrolled for less than six credits per semester, or who are enrolled exclusively in online or distance education courses, are exempt from the above regulations. Additionally, Nyack College requires that all students be provided with information about meningococcal disease and vaccination. Students are required to submit either a certificate of immunization, or a signed acknowledgement of risks and refusal of immunization.
Admissions

Undergraduate Admissions Requirements Specific to the School of Nursing at Nyack College

Freshman Applicant
- GPA: 2.70 GPA (High School)
- SAT: Combined minimum score of 1000 for Math and Critical Reading; Math minimum score of 500
- Science Requirement: Minimum grade of C+ in High School Biology and Chemistry
- Math Requirement: 3 years of Math beyond Algebra I (Algebra II, Geometry, Pre-Calculus, Calculus)

Transfer Applicant
- Applicable College Transfer credit GPA: College Cumulative GPA of 2.75
- Science Requirement: College level Chemistry, Anatomy & Physiology, and Biology/Nutrition with a GPA in the Science courses of 2.50
- Writing Requirement: Supervised hand written essay
- TEAS Test: Must meet or exceed the national average score. Test is offered in April and August.

Enrollment Status Classification

Regular: Applicants who meet the above admissions criteria, who satisfy all admissions requirements, and who intend to earn a degree from Nyack College may be admitted with a regular enrollment status. If all other eligibility criteria are met, students admitted with a regular status are eligible for all forms of scholarships and financial aid.

Provisional: If the applicant has the potential for success, but he or she does not meet all of the regular standards for admission, the applicant may be accepted on a provisional enrollment status. Provisional students are matriculated for one academic year. Students with a provisional status may only take 13 credit hours per semester during their first year. A student’s provisional status will be evaluated after the student has attempted the first academic year at Nyack College. If a student completes all of the required developmental classes and has earned a GPA of 2.0 or higher at the end of the first year, the provisional status will be changed to regular.

New students who are provisionally admitted may not take more than 13 credit hours during their first semester and are required to take Academic Life Skills during their first semester. Provisional students earning a GPA of 2.5 or higher during their first semester may take up to 16 credit hours the following semester. When all requisite developmental education courses, as designated by the Accuplacer Placement Test, are completed and the overall GPA is 2.0 or higher, the provisional status is elevated to regular status and students may proceed with their core and major course requirements.

Conditional: Applicants who have not submitted all official, required documents for admission, or who have submitted one or more unofficial documents, may be admitted with a conditional enrollment status. Students admitted on a conditional basis are matriculated and will receive financial aid for one semester. (New York State aid may be withheld until proof of a high school diploma or equivalent has been submitted.) Students must submit all required admissions material by the end of the first semester of study. Students will not be eligible to register for the second semester with a conditional enrollment status. When all required documents have been received by the college, the student’s enrollment classification will be changed to regular status.

Non-Matriculated: A student who is not registered for a program leading to a degree at Nyack College is considered a non-matriculated student. Students who have not completed a high school degree may be accepted as non-matriculated part-time students. Students accepted on a non-matriculated status may enroll for up to a maximum of 24 credits under that status. To enroll beyond 24 credits, students must be accepted into a matriculated status. Non-matriculated students are not eligible for financial aid.

College Writing Requirements: First time students who enter Nyack College with a score of 600 on the Critical Reading section of the SAT (or 600 on the Writing section) are exempt from College Writing I. College Writing II is required and a 3 credit upper-level course. Transfer students who enter without a research-based writing course (as determined by a college catalog description) must take College Writing II even if they transfer 6 or more credits of writing courses. Students who enter with Advanced Placement English credit may be exempt from College Writing I, depending on their AP score. However, they are required to take College Writing II.
Admissions

Credit By Examination: Credit is granted for satisfactory performance on the College Proficiency Examinations offered through the New York State Education Department, the College Level Examination Program, and Advanced Placement Examinations. Students who wish to apply for such credit should consult the Office of the Registrar for further information. Nyack College’s CLEP code number is 2560.

Credit or placement for such examinations is subject to the following regulations:

- A maximum of 60 credits may be earned by examination.
- Credit for the CLEP General exams and Advanced Placement exams will be granted only to students who have taken these exams prior to their enrollment at Nyack College. After enrollment at Nyack College, only Subject examinations will be accepted. The number of credits awarded for Advanced Placement is determined by the test score and guidelines established by the various departments. Further information is available from the Registrar's Office.
- CLEP credit will not be accepted for College Writing I and II (ENG 101 and ENG 102).
- Credit by examination is considered transfer credit and all policies that govern transfer of credit are applicable to credit by examination.
- Minimum acceptable scores may change as examinations are revised and updated. Also, choice of major may determine whether or not credit will be granted without qualification.
- Nyack College accepts the American Council on Education (ACE) credit recommendations for military training and experience and extra-institutional learning appropriate to the degree being sought.

Standards

Applications to the Organizational Management program in the School of Business and Leadership are reviewed by an admissions committee that will conduct an extensive review of submitted materials and take into consideration the entire application package.

There is not a single predetermined student profile for admission. However, those applicants who do best in the program distinguish themselves by having:

- a motivation to learn
- a desire to manage or impact others
- the self-discipline to complete assignments
- honors or recognition for achievements in their professional and personal life

Nyack College emphasizes academic excellence and students must be committed to undertake the rigor of our academic program. For those students who have not been involved in the demands of structured coursework in the classroom for an extended period of time, Nyack does acknowledge lifetime experience and achievements in an applicant's personal and professional life when evaluating the admissions materials. The resume of a person most likely to succeed in the application process will be one that shows job stability, career advancement, and employment that requires an individual to understand complex ideas and articulate them to others.
Applying for Admission

All applicants must submit the following:

1. Completed and signed application
2. Application fee ($30)
3. High school diploma or equivalent
4. All college transcript(s) showing at least 60 transferable college credits earned from an accredited college or university. Please note that only course work with grades of "C" or higher will be accepted as transfer credits, except when part of a completed Associate's Degree.
5. Writing sample
6. Personal recommendation
7. Completed Work and Life Experience Form
8. Record of immunizations: Documentation of appropriate vaccination for measles, mumps, and rubella must be provided by the student in accordance with the New York State Health Regulations for colleges.

Proficiency Requirements:

Management proficiency: The Organizational Management program is an upper level management program. Therefore, students must either transfer in with an introductory course in management or demonstrate proficiency in the introductory principles of management.

Computer literacy: Students in the Organizational Management program will use an online environment for a portion of their learning. Technology skills are necessary for successful completion of the program. Applicants to the program should be able to:

- send and receive email
- open or send an e-mail attachment
- conduct research using the Internet
- use Microsoft Word
- download files

(Students are required to have access to a computer and the Internet.)

Enrollment Status Classification

Regular: Applicants who meet the above admissions criteria, who satisfy all admissions requirements, and who intend to earn a degree from Nyack College may be admitted with a regular enrollment status. If all other eligibility criteria are met, students admitted with a regular status are eligible for all forms of scholarships and financial aid.

Provisional: If the Office of Admissions believes that the applicant has the potential for success, but he or she does not meet all of the regular standards for admissions, the applicant may be accepted on a provisional enrollment status. Provisional students are matriculated for one term. A student's provisional status will be evaluated after the student has attempted the first academic term in the Organizational Management program. If a student completes the first term and has earned a GPA of 2.0 or higher AND has completed at least 10 credits in the first term, the provisional status will be changed to regular.

Conditional: Applicants who have not submitted all official, required documents for admission, or who have submitted one or more unofficial documents, may be admitted with a conditional enrollment status. Students admitted on a conditional basis are matriculated and will receive financial aid for one term. Students must submit all required admissions material by the end of the first term of study. Students will not be eligible to register for the second term with a conditional enrollment status. When all required documents have been received by the college, the student's enrollment classification will be changed to regular status.

Alliance Theological Seminary – Doctor of Ministry
Applying for Admissions

All applicants must submit the following:
1. An M.Div. degree or its educational equivalent from an accredited institution.
2. Three years of ministry experience after completion of a first graduate theological degree. ATS will accept the Master of Professional Studies (M.P.S.) as a first graduate theological degree. A prospective student's resume will list his or her responsibilities during at least three years of ministry following completion of the first graduate theological degree.
3. An official graduate transcript indicating a GPA of at least 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) in graduate work. Official transcripts of all graduate work
4. A letter of reference and support from the applicant's church or organization.
5. A letter of academic reference from a former professor
6. A formal academic paper that explores a concept for a possible ministry-focused problem or issue. This concept paper will demonstrate the student's knowledge of the basic issues around the proposed topic and his/her ability to formulate, develop, and reflect on one ministerial issue using at least ten supporting sources. A rubric will be used to assess the prospective student's capacity to reflect on the nature and practice of ministry and to write effectively at an advanced level appropriate for doctoral studies.

Guidelines:
Written in a formal academic style using the Turabian Author-Date option (also referred to as parenthetical references and reference list or social sciences format)
Five pages in length
Includes statement of the issue, problem, or purpose of the research
Includes an annotated bibliography with ten significantly relevant sources

A personal interview with the Director of the D.Min. Program and/or one faculty member may be required.

Enrollment Status Classification

Regular: Applicants who meet the above admissions criteria, who satisfy all admissions requirements, and who intend to obtain a degree from Nyack College may be admitted with a regular enrollment status. If other eligibility criteria are met, students admitted with a regular status are eligible for all forms of scholarships and financial aid.

Provisional: If the Office of Admissions in consultation with the Academic Department believes that the applicant has the potential for success, but he or she does not meet all of the regular standards for admissions, the applicant may be accepted on a provisional enrollment status. Provisional students are matriculated for one semester. A student’s provisional status will be evaluated after the student has attempted their first semester at Nyack College. If a student achieves a 3.0 at the end of the first semester, the provisional admit status will be changed to regular.

Conditional: Applicants who have not submitted all official, required documents for admission, or who have submitted one or more unofficial documents, may be admitted with a conditional enrollment status. Students admitted on a conditional basis are matriculated for one semester. Students must submit all required admissions material by the end of the first semester of study. Students will not be eligible to register for the second semester with a conditional enrollment status. When all required documents have been received by the college, the student’s enrollment classification will be changed to regular status.

Alliance Graduate School of Counseling

Admission Requirements (AGSC)
In addition to the General Admissions Requirements, following are specific requirements for admissions and matriculation into the Alliance Graduate School of Counseling:

1. The official transcripts submitted from each college and/or university attended since high school must show evidence of an accredited baccalaureate degree with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) and the completion of 9 semester hours with a grade of at least a C (2.0) in the following mandatory undergraduate courses:

A) For Mental Health Counseling applicants:
   - Introduction to Psychology (General Psychology)
   - Abnormal Psychology (Psychopathology)
   - Theories of Personality

B) For Marriage and Family Therapy applicants:
   - Theories of Counseling
   - Abnormal Psychology (Psychopathology)
   - Human Development or Family Studies

2. The Statement of Christian Life and Experience and the Statement of Support Systems indicating why the applicant desires the particular degree. The statements should demonstrate satisfactory writing skills, an ability to reason, and a commitment to completing the respective degree.

4. Satisfactory profiles of the MCMI-III and MMPI-2. These tests may be taken at a professional testing service or administered by a licensed clinical psychologist. Contact the AGSC office for local testing sites.

[Note: These tests are used for admissions purposes only. They will not be discussed or released to the applicant. Applicants who wish to receive the results of their psychological tests must contact the psychometrist.]

Classes necessary for national certification exams will be offered to non-degree seeking students on the same credit basis, price, and course requirements as degree-seeking students. Transcript evaluations for the NCE or other certification exams must be submitted to their administering bodies by the students. AGSC does not provide those evaluations. NBCC can be contacted at (336) 547-0607 or at their website: www.nbcc.org.
Admissions

Master of Business Administration

Admissions Requirements (MBA)
In addition to the General Admissions Requirements, following are specific requirements for admissions and matriculation into the Master of Business Administration:

1. Resume: Each applicant is required to submit a current resume detailing academic and professional achievements.
2. GMAT score: Each applicant must have an acceptable score on the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) taken within the last five years. Please have your official GMAT score sent to Nyack College Graduate Admissions Office. For further information about the GMAT and how to prepare for the test please visit: www.mba.com/mba/thegmat.
3. Interview: Students may be required to interview with the Director or Dean of the program.

Master of Science in Organizational Leadership

Admissions Requirements (MSOL)
In addition to the General Admissions Requirements, following are specific requirements for admissions and matriculation into the Master of Science in Organizational Leadership:

1. Resume: Each applicant is required to submit a current resume detailing academic and professional achievements.
2. Interview: Students may be required to interview with the Director or Dean of the program.

Master of Science in Education

Admissions Requirements (MSEd)
In addition to the General Admissions Requirements, following are specific requirements for admissions into the Master of Education degree program:

1. Autobiography and statement describing the reasons for pursuing graduate study in education, including professional and personal goals (no more than two typed pages).
2. Official transcripts from colleges or universities previously attended must show evidence of an accredited baccalaureate degree, a minimum grade point average of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0, and proof of completion of the education prerequisites. At least 30 credits in one subject area of liberal arts or sciences are required for admittance to the Middle School Extension program. At least 30 credits in the range of liberal arts and sciences are required for admittance to the Childhood Education and Childhood Special Education programs, as outlined in those program sections. Only undergraduate credits earned at accredited institutions will be considered for MSEd pre-requisites purposes.
3. Submit two academic recommendations and one professional reference (all from non-family members) on the forms provided. If the applicant is currently teaching, the professional reference should be from the building-site principal or immediate supervisor when possible. Those not currently teaching should supply the professional reference from the last principal/immediate supervisor or a cooperating teacher from the most recent fieldwork.
4. Either appropriate previous certification or completion of prerequisites for certification/entrance to the certification program offered. (See specific program requirements for details.) In addition, all candidates are required to attain a passing score (220 points) New York State Teacher Education Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST) as a prerequisite to admission. (Please contact Graduate Admissions Office or the NYS Education Department web site for the current schedule of test dates.)

Five-year program applicants do not need to supply proof of a baccalaureate degree; passing scores on the New York State Teacher Certification Examinations are required instead.

Students who do not meet the admissions criteria may be considered for admission on a provisional or conditional basis with terms and stipulations defined in the acceptance letter.

Financial Aid and Payment Information

Financial Aid consists of grants, scholarships, loans, and work opportunities that assist students in meeting the costs of attending college. These funds are offered to those students who meet eligibility criteria as established by the federal and/or state governments, and Nyack/ATS for the student’s academic program of study. Financial Aid is awarded on a rolling basis.

All prospective students and returning students who are interested in receiving Federal and State financial aid must:

- Complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). www.fafsa.ed.gov
  - The Federal School Code for Nyack College/ATS is 002790.
- Complete the NY State TAP Application (Tuition Assistance Program). www.tapweb.org
  - This step is only for undergraduate students. Must be a New York State resident to apply.

TITLE IV PROGRAMS (FEDERAL AID)

Eligibility for these programs is determined by completing the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). After completion of the FAFSA, a Student Aid Report (SAR) will be sent to the applicant. The applicant must read through the report to verify that the information on the SAR is complete and correct. If the student lists Nyack College on the SAR, the Office of Student Financial Services will receive the information electronically. Once Nyack College has received the SAR and the student is accepted, a financial aid package will be determined and sent to the applicant’s home address. If selected for Verification (The SAR will indicate if the student has been selected) the student (and parent or spouse if applicable) must submit signed copies of their most recent Federal Tax Return (1040) and copies of W-2's (Wage and Tax Information). The outcome of income verification may result in changes to the student’s federal aid eligibility.

Federal Direct Loan Program (All programs)

- Subsidized Stafford Loan: This is a need-based loan, guaranteed by the federal government. The federal government pays the interest as long as the student is taking 6 credits. Once the student graduates or ceases to be enrolled at least half-time (6 credits), he/she has a 6-month grace period before repayment begins and interest starts to accrue.
- Unsubsidized Stafford Loan: This is a non-need-based loan, guaranteed by the federal government. The government does not subsidize this loan, and the interest on this loan will start to accrue immediately. Principal payments may be deferred until 6 months after graduation or the student drops below 6 credits. This loan provides additional funds to dependent undergraduate students whose parents do not qualify for a PLUS Loan or independent students who need additional money to meet their educational expenses.

- Parent PLUS or Grad PLUS loans: Eligibility is restricted to parents borrowing for dependent students enrolled at least half-time (6 credits) or students enrolled in a graduate program. Approval for a PLUS loan for undergraduate students is determined by the parent’s credit worthiness. Repayment begins 30 days after the loan is disbursed.

Contact the Office of Student Financial Services or log on to www.NyackCollege.edu/sfs for more information on loan limits, interest rates, or to apply for loans.

Undergraduate Federal Aid

- Federal Pell Grant: This federal grant is designed to provide financial assistance to needy students. The amount of the award is determined by the federal government on the basis of the student’s Expected Family Contribution (EFC), as indicated on the SAR.
- Federal Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant: This grant provides up to $4000 per year to graduate and undergraduate education majors who intend to teach full time in high-need subject areas for at least 4 years within the 8 years following graduation at schools that serve students from low-income families. If the obligation to teach is not met the grant becomes an unsubsidized student loan and must be repaid with interest.
- Federal SEOG (Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant)—Rockland Campus only: This grant is available to students who demonstrate exceptional financial need. Grants will be given to applicants with -0-EFCs first, and then to others. Funds are limited and will be awarded as FAFSAs are completed.
- Federal Work-Study Program: This federally subsidized work-study program provides funds to cover employment for students who demonstrate financial need and must earn part of their educational expenses. Students who qualify must secure employment in order to receive work-study funds.
- Federal Perkins Loan Program (Rockland Campus only): This federal loan program is administered by Nyack College. Repayment and interest charges begin 9 months after graduation or 9 months after the student drops below 6 credits, with cancellation privileges available for teaching in certain areas. Perkins Loan funding is limited; the Office of Student Financial Services will allocate these loan funds to students who demonstrate financial need, as funds remain available (Returning students only).
STATE ASSISTANCE FOR UNDERGRADUATE NEW YORK RESIDENTS ONLY

Tuition Assistance Program (TAP): Eligibility is limited to full-time students and is based upon New York State taxable income. Students apply annually by first completing the FAFSA and then the TAP Application. Pastoral Ministry, Missiology, Christian Education, Youth Ministry, and Christian Work majors are NOT ELIGIBLE for TAP. Undergraduate students can receive payments for a total of 4 academic years (8 semesters). Undergraduates enrolled in two-year programs (Associates Degrees) cannot receive more than 3 years of payment (6 semesters). Undergraduate students can receive payments for a 5th academic year if they are currently enrolled in an approved five-year baccalaureate program or an approved educational opportunity program (HEOP—see below). To check TAP application status or for further information, go to www.hesc.com or call 1-888-697-4372.

Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP): Funded by Nyack College and New York State, this program provides academic and financial assistance for New York State residents who meet the academic and economic criteria for acceptance into the program at the Rockland Campus. Contact the Office of Academic Development at Nyack College for further details (845) 675-4444.

STANDARDS FOR SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS (SAP)
Federal and New York State regulations require Nyack College to establish and apply reasonable standards of satisfactory progress for the purpose of the receipt of financial assistance under the programs authorized by Title IV of the Higher Education Act and New York State. The law requires institutions to develop policies regarding satisfactory academic progress (SAP). Each institution must design criteria, which outlines the definition of student progress towards a degree and the consequences to the student if progress is not achieved. Nyack College students who wish to be considered for financial aid must maintain satisfactory progress in their selected course of study as set forth in this policy.

Academic Policy: Incomplete course grades and withdrawals are not counted toward the grade point average component of the standard but along with course repetitions are used in measuring the academic progress of credits completed. Only the highest grade of a repeat course counts in the calculation of the student’s GPA. Refer to the Academic Policy section of the Nyack College catalog for more detailed information regarding courses, grading standard and graduation.

Institutional Policy: Satisfactory academic progress includes both a qualitative (grade point average) and quantitative (number of credit hours completed) measure of the student’s progress plus a maximum time frame to not exceed 150% of the program measured in academic terms and credit hours attempted. The Student Financial Services/Registrar Offices will assess the student academic progress at the end of every term for the New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) and based on the following schedule for evaluation of eligibility for all federal programs and institutional aid programs: Traditional Undergraduate Program—evaluated once a year (after spring term). Organizational Management Undergraduate Program and all Graduate Programs—evaluated at the end of every term. (see progress charts for the specific programs below).

Transfer Students: When a student transfers to Nyack College the academic office will determine the number of credit hours acceptable toward a degree at Nyack. The standard of progress will begin at the appropriate point on the SAP chart according to the number of credit hours transferred or the number of semesters completed, whichever is most beneficial to the student.

Financial Aid Probation and Termination for Title IV FSA: The first time it is determined a student does not meet the standards of satisfactory progress at the time of transcript evaluation, the student will automatically be placed on financial aid probation for the following academic term if part of the OM program or graduate program, and for the following year if a traditional undergraduate student. Federal financial aid may still be received during the probation period. At the end of the probation period, the student must again be making satisfactory academic progress or financial aid will be terminated. If the student doesn’t meet the satisfactory progress standards as of the end of the probationary term they lose eligibility for any subsequent terms until the student has reestablished financial aid eligibility.

Reestablishing Financial Aid Eligibility: Students who have had their financial aid terminated due to lack of satisfactory academic progress may choose to enroll without benefit of financial aid. Students may also choose to attend another institution and transfer in the specified needed number of credits earned toward a degree at Nyack that will bring them in line with the quantitative standards of the SAP policy. Transfer credits will not be used to meet the qualitative or GPA standards of the policy. Such students may request a review of their academic record after any term in which they are enrolled without the receipt of financial aid to determine whether they have met the satisfactory academic progress standards. If the standards are met, financial aid eligibility is restored for subsequent terms of enrollment. Students should consult with a financial aid counselor in the Office of Student Financial Services if they have any questions about this policy, the appeal process, or reinstatement of financial aid eligibility.

Appeal Process: Any student who is denied Federal financial aid at the end of the financial aid probationary period or does not meet the NY State SAP standard, and who can prove special circumstances i.e. serious injury or illness, or death in the family, is allowed to appeal their case. An appeal letter may be submitted with supporting documentation, if required, to the Provost Office to request a waiver of the SAP standards for a semester. The Provost, Registrar, and Assistant Treasurer will make the final determination if Federal or State Student Aid will be restored for one semester or if the appeal will be denied. If the appeal is approved the SAP standards are suspended for that student.

Notification: The following schedules represent minimum academic standards that must be met by fulltime students (12 or more credits) in order to be eligible for Title IV Federal Student Aid and New York State Tuition Assistance. Students are notified in writing if they have failed to meet the standards along with implications and actions required to maintain or reestablish financial aid eligibility. Students taking a part-time load are pro-rated based on the full-time standards.

NYACK COLLEGE/ALLIANCE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY GRANTS

Nyack College offers grants to qualifying traditional undergraduate students, Masters in Education, Alliance Theological Seminary, and Alliance Graduate School of Counseling Students. These grants are funded by the institution, and are awarded to new students matriculating for the first time after July 1, 2010.

Unless otherwise stated, all grants are renewable by maintaining a minimum 2.5 cumulative grade point average (GPA). Scholarships lost due to low grades may be reinstated by appealing to the Office of Student Financial Services if at any point a student regains the minimum necessary cumulative GPA.

Please see the website for available grants—including terms and conditions:

- Undergraduate – www.nyack.edu/sfs
- Graduate – www.nyack.edu/gradsfs

NYACK COLLEGE/ATS ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

The Nyack College Scholarship Committee annually awards a number of scholarships to worthy traditional undergraduate students at both the Rockland and NYC campuses. Alliance Theological Scholarship Committee awards annual scholarships to Rockland Seminary Students. These awards are made under the terms of private donors, as well as in accordance with general eligibility requirements established by the Scholarship Committees relative to academic achievement and financial need.

Online applications are made available to students at the beginning of the spring semester. Please see the Office of Student Financial Services for specific deadlines; awards become effective for the following academic year. Any student who fails to register for at least 12 credits for the semester, to which the award applies or fails to submit a thank-you letter on time, thereby forfeits the award.

Students must apply every year to be considered for scholarships and award amounts vary from year to year. Students will be notified individually of the specific amount of their awards.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

Payment for each term or semester’s charges are due in full on or before the term start date. A bill will be sent to the student prior to each term. The student is responsible to return the bill with payment in full or confirmed Automatic Payment Plan enrollment (see below) or completed Alternative Loan/Student Loan/Plus Loan paperwork in order to receive an approval to be able to register for classes.

Payment in Full. Parents and Students may pay each semester’s balance in full at www.nyack.edu/payments. Payments in full are due before the term start date.

Automatic Payment Plans. Nyack College is pleased to offer a convenient interest-free monthly payment plan. This Automatic Payment Plan provides students and their families with a low cost option for budgeting tuition costs for the full academic year as well as for each semester. Each student’s financial aid award letter provides financial aid information and approximate costs, which are needed in order to enroll in the payment plan. Cost for the payment plan is $60 annual plan and $30 semester plan. Payments will be charged on the 5th or the 20th of every month. Once enrolled, all payments are made automatically from a checking, savings, or credit card account. To enroll on the payment plan log on to the www.NyackCollege.edu and through the financial aid pages choose the Automatic Payment Plan for your specific program of study.

Alternative Loans. Other loans are available through various banking institutions. Contact the Office of Student Financial Services or check the Nyack College website for more information.

Company and Military. Nyack College is pleased to work with most United States Armed Forces and a limited number of employers to process tuition payments/reimbursements on behalf of the student. Please contact the financial aid office for additional information.

Unpaid Balances.

All balances must be paid in full by the end of each semester/term enrolled. Students with outstanding balances will not be permitted to receive grade reports, transcripts, diplomas, or participate in commencement (graduation) exercises, and all credit for the term may be lost. Also, the student will not be allowed to register for future semesters at Nyack College/ATS if there is an unpaid balance."
TUITION EXCHANGE PROGRAMS (Traditional Undergraduate)
Nyack College participates in several tuition exchange programs. The following are the conditions that must be met in order for a student to receive tuition remission through one of these programs:
The maximum length of time that a student can receive a tuition award is four years or eight semesters.
Recipients agree to live in college-owned housing during their enrollment at the college.
The tuition exchange agreement is renewable for three years, providing the recipient remains a student in good behavioral and academic standing (the latter being defined as a minimum 2.0 GPA) and their parent(s) continues to be employed at the host institution.
In order to be eligible for tuition remission students must complete applications for TAP (NYS/if eligible) and FAFSA.
Tuition remission will be applied to the student’s bill after all institutional, state, and federal financial aid has been posted, thereby possibly reducing the amount of the tuition remission. However, the amount of the tuition remission will not be reduced by institutional endowed scholarships or non-institutional grants and scholarships.
Inquiries regarding this program should be directed to the Human Resources Department.

ROOM AND BOARD REGULATIONS
Traditional undergraduate room and board is available only on the Rockland Campus. Housing is not available for students enrolled in Nyack College Organizational Management undergraduate programs. The residence halls are generally not open to new students until the day before Registration.
A $150.00 room reservation deposit is required of all new and returning resident students who wish to reserve accommodations for the upcoming academic year. The room reservation deposit for new will be credited against the student’s residence life charges at registration.
Limited on-campus housing is available for ATS and AGSC students at the Rockland campus, with priority given to full-time students.

CREDIT BALANCE AUTHORIZATION
Any "Credit Balance" on a student account will be used first to cover all education and non-educational-related expenses. If the remaining credit balance is the result of Federal Financial Aid a credit refund will be made to the student within 14 days. If the credit balance is not from Federal Funds it will remain on the student’s account until the student notifies the Office of Student Financial Services by submitting a completed Credit Refund Request Form. The student must have a credit on their account over and above tuition, fees and rent for the current term in order for any refund to be processed (see page three from the ATS housing handbook). Refunds will be processed within 7-14 days of the request. Students always have the option to request in writing that any credit balance funds remain on their account for the next semester by submitting that request to the office of Student Financial Services.

ATS Special Grant Programs
Graduate Assistantships
Graduate assistants are assigned each semester to assist professors with duties related to their classes and personal research. Students are required to work approximately 10 hours and are paid through Nyack College payroll. A student must be full-time, and have a grade point average of 3.0 or better to apply for a Graduate Assistantship. Preference is given to returning students.

Special Grant Programs
Spouses of full-time students (12 or more credits per semester) may register for up to three audit credits per semester and receive a full tuition grant. This grant is only for spouses who are non-matriculated and ineligible for other aid.
Spouses of currently enrolled full-time students may enroll in classes for credit as matriculated students and receive total grants equivalent to 50% of tuition. The spouse may receive the 50% grant for either a part-time or full-time load.
For either grant program, the spouse must apply and meet all the admission requirements and register as any other student. A registration fee and vehicle registration fee must be paid.
All ATS alumni, as well as missionaries and clergy who are actively involved in ministry, may apply to the Office of Student Financial Services to audit one course and receive a grant for the tuition. A registration fee and vehicle registration fee must be paid.
Individuals over 60 years of age may audit courses and receive a grant for 80% of the normal audit tuition. A registration fee and vehicle registration fee must be paid.
REFUNDS and WITHDRAWALS
Sometimes a student finds it necessary to withdraw from Nyack College before completing the semester. In this case, it is important to officially withdraw from the college. See Registration section of the catalog for withdrawal procedures and determination of withdrawal dates.

Nyack College Traditional Undergraduate & Graduate Program
The following refund policies have been established for academic and medical withdrawals and dismissals. All students withdrawing by the end of the registration period are charged a $100 administrative fee.

Fees: All course fees, health fees and comprehensive fees will be refunded 100% to students who withdraw from Nyack College within the registration period. There will be no refund, in whole or in part, to students who withdraw from class after the close of the registration period for the Undergraduate program. All charges are determined by the registration status of the student at the close of the registration period. If private music lessons are dropped during the registration period and one or more lessons have been taken, the Music Office will make charges for the lesson or lessons taken, and the balance will be refunded. However, after the close of the registration period, no refund for private music lessons will be made. Traditional Graduate students will be refunded based on the Tuition Refund Schedule below. Financial aid eligibility will be recalculated based on the revised enrollment status.

Residence Fees: Moving off campus is only allowed during summer and winter breaks. If a student decides to move off campus during the middle of the fall and spring semesters, he/she will be responsible for the full semester room and board charges that will be applied to the student’s account and no refunds will be processed.

Students who withdraw from Nyack College completely within the registration period will be charged a Resident Fee on a per day basis up until the time that they move off-campus. The student will also forfeit the $150 room registration deposit.

Tuition Refund Schedule for Students Who Withdraw from Nyack College:
- By the end of the registration period.......................................100% refund
- By the end of the second week .................................................80% refund
- By the end of the third week......................................................60% refund
- By the end of the fourth week....................................................40% refund
- By the end of the fifth week.......................................................20% refund
- More than five weeks..........................................................no refund

Nyack College grants will be prorated according to tuition charged. All other fees will not be refundable once the registration period closes (this includes private music lessons).

Organizational Management (OM) Withdrawal/Refund Policy
The Organizational Management (OM) refund policy is established to determine the amount of tuition each student is refunded when a withdrawal from Nyack College is required. It is important to officially withdraw (see Withdrawals and Re-Admissions in the OM Student Handbook) to ensure tuition, fees, and financial aid adjustments are complete in a timely manner. Failure to complete and submit an official withdrawal form before attendance stops will increase the total amount due on the student’s final bill. Below is the refund polices for the OM Program.

- Students register for a full term of modular courses at the beginning of the term.
- 100% of tuition and fees are refundable for a term if a withdrawal request is received within 7 calendar days of the term start and the student attended only one class in the term (add/drop period).
- 100% of tuition is refundable for all courses not attended in a term.
- Tuition is non refundable if any one class session is attended of a course following the first course of the term.

Students failing to complete and submit a change in registration form to the Registrars Office at the time attendance stops are billed a $200 late withdrawal notification fee.
Withdrawal / Refund Policy for Graduate Programs (Cohort/Modular Format):

- Students register for a full term of modular classes at the beginning of the term.
- The withdrawal date for tuition liability is not the date the student stops attending. Tuition liability for the term is determined by the date the student contacts the graduate registrar office and officially withdraws from the program.
- Full tuition liability for the term incurs at the midpoint of the term—8th week, 1st night of the 3rd class of the term.
- Prior to the point of incurring full tuition liability, the student is liable for all modules that the student has attended as follows:
  - No Tuition liability if the student withdraws after attending the first night of the class.
  - 100% Tuition liability if the student withdraws after attending the second night of the class.
- Federal, State, and institutional financial aid regulations will determine loan and grant eligibility due to a change in enrollment because of the student’s withdrawal. All or part of loans and/or grants may need to be returned. These regulations are separate from the tuition liability policy.

Return of Federal Title IV Funds

Federal regulations dictate a repayment policy for students who are receiving Title IV aid. The Office of Student Financial Services will calculate the amount of Title IV assistance earned by a student by determining the percentage of the period of enrollment that was completed. Nyack College and/or the student must return the unearned aid by repaying the funds from the following sources, up to the total net amount disbursed. Repayment of Title IV funds must be in the following order:
- Direct Stafford Unsub/Sub Loans
- Perkins Loan
- Direct Plus Loan
- Pell Grant
- FSEOG (Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant)

The Office of Student Financial Services assists students in providing quality financial counseling, direction and customer service.
