“The Pursuit: I Am, You Are”
Stephanie Nadler
Thursdays 11:00 AM, Boon 412
We will search out: 1. Who our God is. then from seeing who He is, it will show us 2. Who we are because of Him. Then from who He calls us, we will find 3. How we can walk in victory through Christ. We will look each week through each time Jesus says 'I Am….' in the book of John. (Ex. I Am the Bread of Life, I Am the Way, the Truth, the Life and so on)

“The Fire”
Jeremiah Murphy
Wednesdays 9:45 PM, Pardington 102
To create a warm environment that the Nyack Student body can attend to receive the word of God as well as express their thoughts, struggles and issues that they face on a daily basis.

“The Beanfield”
Dan Bailey
Thursdays 9:15 PM, The Hub
The Beanfield that the Farmer sits upon represents the “field” of souls that Christ has left in the care of His people. In the face of great opposition, the Farmer refuses to retreat; he refuses to relinquish his field unto darkness. This is our field, and it’s still worth defending.

“C.S.Lewis Story Time with Jamila”
Jamila Yousif
Tuesdays 7:00 PM, The Hub
Take a break from studying and come spend an hour in Narnia! This semester we will be reading through the seven books of the Narnia series. You don’t have to do anything, bring anything, or say anything. Just come, listen, and be transformed by one of the best know children’s book series in the world.

“Naked Spirituality”
Kevin Pinkham
Mondays 8:00 PM, Jaffrey 206
In this group we'll discuss Brian McLaren's book Naked Spirituality, focusing each week on one of the twelve keywords he assigns to concepts that will build a deeper relationship with Christ. Students should be prepared to read at least two short chapters a week and come prepared to talk about them, raise questions, share thoughts, and support each other. One copy of the book may be available on reserve in the library, but students are encouraged to buy their own copy.

“Athletes in Action”
Johnathan Mushett and Rebecca Wakely
Mondays 9:00 PM, Simpson 200B
This small group is meant to be for athletes to find a way to tie their sport into their walk with Christ. This small group is not merely for the athletes but it does gear towards them and it will have things that go along with their sports and illustrations that collate with how they deal with their coaches and fellow teammates and how it applies to our Christian lives and also how our Christian lives should also go along with our sports.

“Weird”
Nathaniel Perez
Tuesdays 5:00 PM, Boon 406
My small group is focused on growing a generation of believers that doesn't mind being weird. When I say weird, I mean it a good kind of way. As Christians, we are not called to live like normal people do, but rather the Bible calls us to live differently. WEIRD challenges the way we think about time, money, relationships, sex, and values.
